THE WOMAN'S MISSION.

THE WOMAN'S BAPTIST MISSIONARY UNION.

The Annual Session at Yarmouth—Reports of the Secretary and Treasurer—The Practical Results Very Flattering.

(SPECIAL DESPATCH TO THE GAZETTE.)

YARMOUTH, N. S., Aug 23.—The Woman's Baptist Missionary Union held its annual session to-day at 3 o'clock. There was a large attendance of delegates from the various Woman's Aid Societies in connection with the Baptist churches of the maritime provinces. The meeting was conducted entirely by ladies. After singing a hymn, reading of scriptures and prayer, Mrs. J. W. Manning of Halifax, the president of the Union, welcomed the delegates. The secretary of the Union, Mrs. John March, read her annual report as follows:

The Womans Baptist Missionary Union of the Maritime Provinces to the Annual Assembly Convened at Yarmouth.

August 22nd, 1890.

Our sixth annual report, covering as it does the twentieth year since the organization of the Woman's Baptist Missionary Aid Societies, of which this union is composed, calls for an expression of gratitude and praise to the Lord for having so manifestly set his seal of approval upon all our work. At the first we were few in number, banded together to support one sister who her soul all aglow with love to Jesus, desired to go to the perishing heathen to carry to them the Gospel of our Redeemer. In this we hoped to succeed, and according to our faith, so it was, and has been from that day until the present. Eight young ladies have been employed by this society and have done most effectual work for the Master. Two labored in Burmah, and six in India. Of these five, after serving us faithfully for years, married missionaries, some on our own field, some on the Ontario field and some on the American Telugu field. They rank high among missionaries, wherever in the providence of God they have been placed. Our Heavenly Father has in this way broadened the influence of our union, and carried out the purposes of His own will,

Among the first money sent to India for building purposes by the Foreign Mission Board was, an appropriation from the funds of our society for building at Kimidy, which property was afterwards sold, and the money used towards purchasing the compound at Chicacole.

In consulting the records of the Foreign Mission Board we find that about eight thousand dollars of the money raised by our societies have been expended in buildings at Chicacole, Bimlipatam. Bobbili and Vizianagram, all of which have been given with the understanding, that in the mission house at each station there should be two rooms prepared and reserved for the lady missionaries whom we should choose to send out and support, so that they might feel that they were under their own vine and fig tree, and at the same time, under the protection of the missionary family, all surrounded by the prayers of thousands of women in the land, and the benediction of heaven resting upon them. The work of our lady missionaries has been chiefly among the women and children, but men and boys also have heard daily from their lips the story of the cross. The precious word of life has been for thirty years thus scattered by our representatives among the heathen—that word which "shall not return void," but is the good seed which will spring up to the praise of our Saviour who has the promise, that "the heathen shall be given to him for his inheritance and the uttermost parts of the earth for his possessions.'

It would be impossible for one at all interested in this glorious work not to see year by year from the reports of the missionaries that great inroads have been made upon heathenism and the foundations there, of giving way among the thousands to whom they go preaching and teaching Jesus Christ. Their hearts have been cheered by seeing members coming out and telling what a Saviour they have found, and following Him truly and while they and we regret that we cannot count the numbers of the churches by the thousands yet we have great cause for thankfulness to Almighty God, that they can count them by the thousands who understand the way of life and salvation and many of them secretly trusting in our risen Lord, who but for that great barrier caste, would openly confess Him. It cannot be but we shall meet multitudes of these dear ones, in the eternal world, who shall be stars in all our crown s of rejoicing.

The constantly increasing demand for the word of God, the growth of the Sunday and day schools in which the bible is a special subject of study, increasing number in the boarding department, the rapidly increasing numbers of native workers and bible readers, speaks loudly of the under-guiding power of the most High, and it is to us a strong token that the day is not far distant, when the windows of Heaven shall be opened, and a nation shall be born in a day.

It gives us much pleasure ever to make special mention of the work of the wives of our missionaries, Mrs. Sanford, Mrs. Churchill, Mrs. Archibald, and Mrs. Higgins, the latter having but recently arrived on the field, and is beginning her work. The first two named have spent about 13 years in trying to win these perishing ones to Jesus, and have proved towers of strength and bright lights in that dark land.

Mrs. Archibald after spending 12 years in India has recently returned for a well earned rest. Her labors have been abundant and eternity, alone can reveal the blessing she has been to the Telugus. For those above named sisters there is awaiting in the sweet bye and bye, "well done my good and faithful, enter into the joy of the Lord."

Miss Fitch whom we sent to Bobbili last autumn, to aid in the work there, is about to be married to the Rev. Mr. Lafiamme, of the Ontario mission. We are sorry to part with her from our field, but we will not murmur, for we believe it is the Lord binding more closely these missions with cords of love that earth can never sever.

Great God, thy benediction still
Upon these bands send down,
And may the nations ever know
That thou their work hast crowned.

Miss Gray's work at Bimlipatam has been carried on during the year as usual regularly and successfully, Mrs. White, three Bible women and a christian teacher are her assistants. The villages out on the field have claimed more of their time and attention than in previous years. They have spent 145 days touring and have visited 145 different villages. In many of these villages the high caste women had never heard the sound of the Gospel or the name of Jesus. Scripture portions and tracts have been distributed to thousands of women and children, who in most cases hear the story of the cross gladly. Miss Gray says they have gained access to many more houses and have visited many more Brahmin women. Her most intensely interesting report will be given in full,

Miss Wright at Chicacole has seven Bible women. She has spent 48 days out on tour visiting 45 villages, travelled 672 miles and distributed 11,662 gospel tracts. The story of the cross has been told to about 20,000 hearers and 215 Bible lessons have been taught. Two thousand six hundred and thirty-seven visits have been made by the Bible women. Her cheery report will be read and published in full.

On account of Mrs. Archibald's necessary departure for home, the departments of work she so efficiently managed have been given to Miss Wright in addition to all her own. This is no light work. These facts and figures speak for themselves, and call loudly for help. A very earnest appeal has reached us from Vizianagram for a young lady and another from Bobbili.

Miss May McDonald, who is under appointment to go is studying medicine and will not be ready to leave this autumn. Miss Jackson who also has been received by our Board has lost her health somewhat, and cannot go. But there are hosts of others who are ready and can go. We pray that God may lead them into these destitute places to gather in His sheep and His lambs and feed them with the bread of life without which they must most certainly perish. His sweet voice must fall on the ears of many at this time "Lovest thou me?"

The work taken up by us to do during the past year was as follows:

To aid in the purchase of the

Vizianagram property	$2,000.00
Salaries of the Misses Wright, Gray and Fitch	1,500.00
Travelling expenses of Miss Fitch	450.00
Outfit expenses of Miss Fitch	250.00
Female helpers on the field	200.00
Travelling expenses on the field	75.00
Schools	200.00
Books and tracts	35.00
Literature for home destribution	35.00
Total	$4,740.00

This has been paid to the Foreign Mission Board in regular quarterly installments. The full amount raised this year is $5, 488.74. These amounts added to the monies raised during the previous years makes a grand total of $53,000.00. This money has been expended by the Foreign Mission Board in accordance with the appropriations made from time to time by the old central boards, and more recently by the union, in the various departments of our foreign mission work.

Our Aid Society number 145 with about 4000 members.

See how the Lord has led us on,
Made blest, and prospered all our ways;
Has kept us still in His own light,
And tuned our hearts to praise.

Oh, what are we, that He should make
Co-workers of us with the Lord;
To speak His gospel to the lost,
To spread abroad His precious word.

But thus it is yoked up with Him
We learn of Him His mind and will,
And as we rest within His love
In light and joy we serve Him still.

Our thoughts linger today on the dear faithful workers whose smile so often cheered us, and whose words have so often helped us, but now we see them no more; the veil for them has been parted, and they have been permitted to "behold the glory of the Lord." Among this number was our much loved sister Mrs. Stephen Selden, who from her mansion beckons us onward today. She was among the first members of our aid societies and of her it could ever be said "steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord." A fresh song of praise shall ascend to our Heavenly Father for sparing them with us so long, and for the promise "they shall be mine when I make up my jewels."

Signed on behalf of the Executive Board of the W. B. M. U.

M. E. MARCH.
Corresponding Secretary.

The report of the treasurer, Mrs. Mary Smith of Amherst, was then submitted showing the receipts for the year to be $5,488.74 of which they had paid over to the Foreign Mission Board $2,705 for support of female missionaries, bible women, boarders, school and other objects, and $2,000 towards the purchase of a new property at Vizianagram.

Addresses were delivered by Mrs. I. C. Archibald, returned missionary from Chicacole, and other ladies, and also by the Rev. John McLaurin. of Woodstock, Ontario, the pioneer Canadian missionary to the Telugus, who spoke very encouragingly of the work and the practical results everywhere noticeable on the field.

HUMAN WOLVES.

A SHOCKING AFFAIR IN A SMALL SETTLEMENT IN ONTARIO.

Two Deaf Mutes Mangle the year old Baby of a Neighbor and eat its Flesh—The Child Horribly Torn—Its Mother Returns to find her Child Dying and Drives the Human Wolves Away.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

OTTAWA, Aug. 23.—A shocking affair occurred forty miles from here a few days ago. Paul Cote, a French Canadian miner, and Elisha Newton, a farmer, are near neighbors living in a small settlement on the Dulievre River, about two days journey up from Buckingham. On the day in question both men were away from home.

The Cote family consisted of the man, his wife and their baby boy about a year old. Newton is the father of two boys who are deaf mutes and of unsound mind. Occasionally the idiots had exhibited signs of a vicious disposition but their parents were averse to sending the unfortunates to an asylum. They were kept at home and being regarded as comparatively harmless they were allowed the freedom of their neighbors houses which they visited frequently.

After breakfast Mrs. Cote decided to go out berry-picking, and intending to return in a couple of hours, most imprudently left the baby in charge of the deaf mutes.

It must have been very soon after her departure that the maniacs commenced their brutish attack upon the child left in their care. No eyes but theirs witnessed the revolting scene that followed, yet the blood bespattered floor, the confusion in which the room was found, and above all the lacerated form of the dying child attested to the savage revelry which they held over their victim. Once their brutal appetites were sated with human flesh and blood.

The mother was the first to break in upon the scene. What her feelings were as she gazed upon the mangled body of her child and the grinning idiots, gory mouthed and still gloating over their living prey can never be described. The babe was fearfully torn; its cheeks had been literally eaten to the bone and the flesh partly devoured from one side of its neck. It was dying when the mother drove the human wolves away, and lifted the little bleeding body from the floor, and in a short time it expired.

Carrying her dead baby in her arms, for she durst not even trust the mangled body to the fury of the cannibals, Mrs. Cote ran to the Newtons' home and told the miserable parents of the terrible occurrence. Hardly could they credit her story, but on returning to fetch the wretched lads away, the evidences of the awful facts were but too vividly apparent.

The child was buried the next day, and it was hoped to bury with it the mystery of its terrible death, but so heavily did the secret weigh upon the wretched people that their sorrows found a voice, and the rumor of the tragedy went through and beyond the settlement.

The perpetrators of the cannibalism have since been kept in close confinement and ere long they will be removed to an asylum.

The latest despatches from Buckingham state it took four men to secure the body of the baby from the deaf mutes.

Whelan and Pacaud meet and are still Hostile—The Situation at the Wellington Mine—Advance in Flour.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.

QUEBEC, Aug. 23.—La Justice asks the Courier and Canadien how they will be able to reconcile their criticisms about Mercier's white pants with eulogistic reports they make about those of Lieutenant Governor Angers. "Both gentlemen being placed on the same footing as far as Papal honors are concerned; Mercier has been made a knight of the Grand Cross of the order of St. Gregory so has the Lieutenant Governor."

J. P. Whelan met Ernest Pacaud in the St. Louis hotel last night. Ever since the declarations were made to the newspaper reporters by Whelan about the ten thousand dollar boodle, no love has been lost between that gentleman and Pacaud. When Whelan met Pacaud in the lobby of the hotel he offered to shake hands enquiring "Is the past dead and buried?" Pacaud however refused to speak to him.

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 23.—Alex. Dunsmuir returned from Wellington today and reported seventy five men at work and the number being increased daily. The Equity Court.

His Honor Judge Palmer has appointed Hugh H. McLean by consent of parties, receiver in the foreclosure suit of Charles W. Weldon and William E. Vroom, trustees under a mortgage dated 18th September, 1888, against William Parks & Son (Limited), John Ferris, T. W. Daniel, John Sears and Simeon Jones, trustees under the mortgage dated 3rd April, 1883; William E. Vroom and Geo. F. Smith, trustees under an agreement with William Parks & Son (Limited), dated April 18, 1887, and the bank of Montreal. The plaintiffs claim $50,000 on account of principal and $5,700 interest. The receiver is to give a bond for $10,000, and two securities of $15,000 each for the faithful discharge of duties as receiver. All moneys peceived by him are to be deposited in the Bank of New Brunswick and to be paid out on the order of the court. Dr. Barker for plaintiffs; C. N. Skinner for John Ferris and others; A. I. Trueman for Wm. Parks & Son (limited); A. P. Barnhill for Bank of Montreal; G. G. Ruel, C. W. Weldon and Wm. Vroom, trustees.

Exparte Daniel J, Purtle, a King's county case, an application for habeas corpus, returnable to-day was argued before Judge Palmer to-day. The point involved is interesting and is whether, an attachment against a party in the County Court must recite specifically for what purpose it issues.—Fred W, Fowler is the plaintiff in the case and is represented by A S. White, while Fred W. Stockton appeared for Purtle.
