NATIONAL LEAGUE.

At New York—The game between New York and Boston was postponed on account of rain. The rain was preceded by an electrical storm, during which the flagpole on the club house at the Polo Grounds was struck by lightning. Bill Clark, first baseman for New York, was sitting by a radiator and was slightly burned on the thigh, while Holmes got a shock on one of his feet.

At Louisville — The Colonels braced up and defeated the Reds for the first time this season. Evans pitched a masterly game and his support was almost perfect. Score:

Louisville	0 0 0 0 1 0 0 2 1—4 12 2
Cincinnati	0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—1 4 2

Batteries—Evans and Wilson; Ehlnes and Peitz.

At Baltimore—The champions took from Washington the last game they will play on the home grounds until July 27. The Orioles managed to wrest victory from defeat in the eighth. Nops pitched well and the Senators' runs were mostly made on errors. The birds could not hit Silver King until the eventful eighth when three singles, a pass to first and a hit batsman (Jennings) told the story. Double plays and Bowerman's batting were the features. The score:

Baltimore	0 0 0 0 0 1 0 5 *—6 8 2
Washington	0 0 0 0 3 1 0 0 0—4 8 1

Batteries—Nops and Bowerman; King and Farrell.

At Chicago—Errors by Padden and Donnelly, a base on balls, Connor's single, Everett's double and Ryan's triple, all after two outs, in the fifth, gave the Colts enough runs to win. Two gifts, a steal and a single, also after two outs, produced two more in the seventh. Friend had the visitors at his mercy except in one inning. Score:

Chicago	0 0 0 0 5 0 2 0 *—7 9 1
Pittsburg	0 0 3 1 0 0 0 0 0—4 10 3

Batteries—Friend and Kittridge; Hawley and Merritt.

At Cleveland—Only the batting of Burkett and the brilliant fielding of Cross and Harley enlivened the game. The Clevelands got 13 runs in and had 17 men left on bases with 18 hits, both Hart and Coleman, the Browns' new pitcher, who replaced him in the sixth, being very wild. Score:

	R.H.E
Cleveland	4 1 1 2 1 0 1 3 0—13 18 2
St. Louis	0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—1 8 2

Batteries—Young and Zimmer; Hart, Coleman and Murphy.

Brooklyn-Philadelphia game postponed; rain.

DIAMOND DUST.

The Garnets defeated the Royals by 13 to 5. Batteries—McKenzie, Fairhead and Thorn; Somerville and Hitchman.

The Young Independents defeated the Gladstone Stars on Dominion Day. Score:

	R. H. E.
Independents	5 4 8 6 2—25 19 0
Gladstone Stars	2 0 0 0 0—2 3 7

Batteries—Calhoun and Foreman; Walker, Glinn, Willey and Quinn.

The Crawfords defeated the Bellwoods by 13 to 9. Eddie Humphrey struck out 13 men. Batteries—Humphrey and Lailey; Surples and Brown.

The Eurekas' team for to-day on old U. C.C. grounds with the Orioles will be: Moore, Turner, McCuaig, Maddox, Willard, Baird, McBride, Douglas, McGovern and O'Brien.

The following will represent the Primroses in the game with the Gore Vales: Graham, Williams, Flanagan, Davis, Forbes, Donovan, Sharpe, Wilson, Rogers.

The Pastimes II. would like to arrange a game for July 10; average age 15 years. Address Manager Jack Peaker, 150 Adelaide-street west.

A GAME WITH THE BISONS

Williams Allowed Them Only Three Hits.

TORONTO WON BY 6 TO 2.

White's Home Run Started Farmer Brown Going.

The Buffalo Granger Kept the Hits Well Scattered Early in the Game—Final Home Match for Some Time at the Island This Afternoon — Toronto Even With Springfield.

Pop Williams made jokes of the Bisons all through the game at the Island yesterday afternoon. Just think of it! Jim Field and his minions only pushed out three hits throughout the nine innings, and Gremninger, the fat boy on third, got two of these. Besides Williams only passed three of them to first. They sent a run around in the first on errors by Dr. Smith and Taylor and another in the second, when two of the three hits occurred and Freeman worked in a fumble.

Then for six innings the Canal-street Arabs dropped off in 1, 2, 3 style without even a base on balls varying the monotony. In the ninth Gilboy took a pass after Barry went out. Then Gremninger singled, but the next two batters were of the negative sort and the game was over.

The Torontos sent Lush over the circuit in the first on his double, White's out and McGann's grounder. They were merciful with Farmer Brown for a few innings or else the Granger was lucky. In the sixth, White evened up the score with a hot shot over the fence. Sullivan's freak throw and Casey's single sent around another in the same innings, and the Torontos stayed ahead. Singles by Lush, McHale, Taylor's two-bagger and Gray's error gave the Islanders three in the seventh and a clinch on the game.

The Torontos waited so patiently that they generally got Farmer Brown in the hole and he had to put 'em over. The fielding feature was Clymer's catch of Freeman's long fly away up on the track in centre field.

BUFFALOS' FINISH TO-DAY.

Manager Irwin has decided to keep only 14 men on his pay roll, and Wagner and Baker will be placed in good berths across the line. Both are reliable men in the positions, but Toronto cannot afford to bench them, and besides they are among the best hitters in the business. Irwin reckons that his team is a winning one, and he will play out the season in the present shape. With five pitchers and two catchers the Islanders are in better form than any aggregation in the league. They wind up the present home series this afternoon with Buffalo, starting at 3.30 o'clock, and when the game is over the fans will wonder how the Bisons managed to win that game on the holiday morning. Norton and Snyder will do the battery work and McParlin will be the Buffalo target.

MONKEY MALARKEY A PUZZLE.

At Syracuse—Malarkey was a Chinese puzzle to the Brownies until the eighth innings, and then they did not hit hard enough to overcome the lead gained by Syracuse, who pounded hard on McFarlin in the fourth, when Rochester made errors. Umpire Gaffney failed to put in his appearance and two of the players had to do his work. Manager Weidman was forced to go to centre field for Rochester, owing to the absence of Richter. Score:

	R.H.E
Syracuse	0 0 0 4 0 0 1 0 *—5 10 0
Rochester	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 2—3 6 3

Batteries—Malarkey and Shaw; McFarlin and Frary.

At Providence—The Wilkes-Barres could do nothing effective with the stick against Hodson's pitching and were shut out, while the home team scored 10 runs with comparative ease. Score:

Wilkes-Barre	0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 6 4

At Springfield—Luck and Main's magnificent pitching in tight places enabled Springfield to give Scranton a good argument. The home players gave Mains little support and the game was won on errors by Moore and Gilbert. Score:

Scranton	3 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 1 1—6 9 1
Springfield	1 0 1 0 0 0 1 2 0 0—5 8 7

HAMS BEAT COCKNEYS.

Hamilton, July 2.—(Special.)—The Hamilton baseball team got away with the Londons this afternoon by playing excellent ball. Carney was put up against the Westerners, and he pitched a steady game. He struck out two men and only seven hits were made off his delivery. The score:

	R. H. E.
Hamilton	0 0 0 0 0 2 1 1 *—8 8 1
London	0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0—1 8 4

Batteries—Carney and Conwell; Johnson and Reid. Umpire—Patton.

DIAMOND DUST.

The Monarchs defeated the Imperials by a score of 46 to 8. Batteries for winners: Stanley and Lawrence.

The Park Nine defeated the Maples in a close and exciting game of 11 innings at Princess Park. Batteries—Lawson and Burns; Halsey and Yearsley. The feature was Oster's long drive over the left field fence, thus winning the game.

Following are the players that will represent Christie, Brown & Co. against the T. B. & C. Co. on the Woodbine to-day at 2.30: Cooper, c.; Aitken or O'Connor, p.; G. Gill, 1b.; E. Gill, 2b.; Gillard, s.s.; Clark, 3b.; Ross or Knowlton, l.f.; Aitken or O'Connor, c.f.; Mullen or Messenger, r.f.

The Pastimes Dominion Day journeyed to Barrie and tried conclusions with the Ratlers of that place. It was a good game all through. In the ninth the score stood 6 to 6 and the clubs were forced to discontinue the game, the lacrosse clubs having to play a schedule game. Willie Good's twirling and little Jimmie Hewitt's work behind the bat for the Pastimes could not be surpassed.

The Orioles of the Toronto Senior League will put the following team against the Eurekas on old Upper Canada College grounds at 4 o'clock to-day: Benson, c.; Collins, p.; Brett, 1b.; Wilson, s.s.; Poulter, 2b.; Benson, 3b.; Beaty, r.f.; Burns, c.f.; Cullross, l.f.; Baldwin, spare.

The following nine will represent the Toronto Biscuit and Confectionery Co. against Christie-Brown's nine at Woodbine Park this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock: Turner, c.; Babe, p.; Marquis, 1b.; White, 2b.; Allaster, s.s.; Crowe, 3b.; Fairbairn, c.f.; Finnigan, r.f.; Nicholas, l.f.

MIMICO BEAT THE SAWBONES.

On Thursday morning eleven medical gentlemen of the city took their cricket bats and proceeded to the Mimico Asylum, where they engaged in a friendly match with the newly-formed cricket club of that institution. As it was the first match ever played at the Mimico Asylum with an outside club, the local eleven were naturally more interested in the result than the visitors, who were more experienced cricketers, and who were really a much stronger combination than the home team. Fortune, however, smiled kindly on the maiden effort of the asylum team, and, thanks to the magnificently played innings of Mr. C. W. B. Lyall, for 79 runs, the home team compiled a few more runs than their opponents. Beemer's carefully played 27, and Dr. Beemer's 17 were the only other double figures for the Asylum eleven.

For the Toronto Sawbones, Dr. Parsons carried off the honors, with a faultless innings of 20 runs, which won him the coveted bouquet. The other double figures were as follows: Dr. Topp 16, Dr. Scadding 11, Dr. Pepler 15, Dr. Thorburn 12 and Dr. Smith 14, not out. The score:

THE JUNCTION-BRAMPTON SCORE.

Brampton played an all-day match with the Junction at the Junction July 1 and were defeated by an innings and 30 runs, owing chiefly to the fine batting of W. H. Garrett for the Junction, who made 75 without giving the least semblance of a chance. His hits were 2 fives (out of the ground), 3 fours, 19 twos and 15 singles. Wheatley contributed 18 in his usual careful style and also bowled well for the Junction, taking 8 wickets for 16 runs. Holden 14, Morphy 12, Young 11, were the chief scorers for Brampton, Pexton doing best with the ball, 5 wickets for 36 runs.
