Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a mortgage, which will be produced at the time of sale, there will be offered for sale at public auction on Saturday, April 27, 1895, at 12 o'clock noon, by J. W. Jones, Esq., auctioneer, at his auction rooms on Dundas street, in the city of London, the following very valuable property just outside the limits of the city of London, namely:

In the Gore in the township of London, and containing by admeasurement about 19¾ acres of land more or less, and being lots Nos. 1 to 104 inclusive, according to the plan registered in the registry office for the North and East Ridings of the county of Middlesex, on the 5th day of November, 1891, as 427.

The property lies between the Hamilton road and Trafalgar street on the westerly side of East street.

The land is said to be well fenced and in a good state of cultivation and is understood to be high and dry and well adapted for a market garden, and being outside the city limits is free from city taxes; the property is convenient to a school situated on the corner of the property at the junction of the Hamilton road and East street.

The property will be offered for sale en bloc or in parcels of one or more lots as may be determined upon at the time of sale.

The property in addition to being well adapted for market garden purposes is splendidly situated for building purposes.

Terms of sale: Ten per cent cash; sufficient to make up one-third of the purchase money within two weeks from the day of sale; balance upon terms to be agreed upon at the time of sale. These terms may be varied on day of sale to suit purchaser. For all particulars, conditions of sale, plan of property etc., apply to GIBSON, MARTIN & OSBORNE, vendors' solicitors, Hamilton, or to J. W. JONES, Esq., auctioneer, Dundas street, London. 66c ttw.
