BURGLARS' EXPLOITS.

A Kent Bridge Store Revisited and Robbed—Railway Station at Dresden Looted.

[Special to the ADVERTISER.]

CHATHAM, May 6.—Word has been received here to-day to the effect that A. J. Pesha's general store at Kent Bridge was broken into last night. This is the second time in three weeks, the burglars carrying away a general assortment of goods, amounting to about $300.

Three horses are reported to have been stolen and the Erie and Huron station at Dresden broken into last night. A few coppers were taken from the cash drawer, a trunk in the baggage room broken open and the contents strewn over the floor. The ticket case was also broken open and the contents all mixed up. It is not yet known whether any tickets are missing.

Onward March of the Salvation Army.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Commander Ballington Booth and Mrs. Booth, of the Salvation Army, have returned from their campaign in the west. The commander said to a reporter: "Our trip was a success almost beyond expectation. We found people ready to hear us and many were converted. In Cincinnati we addressed 2,000 people in the Music Hall; the leading people of the place were present, and I gave addresses to the Presbyterian and Methodist ministers there, and Mrs. Booth addressed the ladies in the parlor. Sixty new auxiliaries were obtained there. In St. Louis our meetings were equally successful. One of our best known recruits there was Bishop Tuttle, of the Methodist-Episcopal Church.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—Hon. E. Devlin, Victorio, B.C., is in town.

—Mr. W. R. Meredith, Toronto's city solicitor, arrived in the city on Saturday night.

—Complaint is made of the disgraceful mutilation of magazines and papers in the reading room at the Mechanics' Institute.

—A quarter interest in the salt business of W. H. Hutchins & Co., of Parkhill, will be sold by the sheriff to-morrow. It is owned by a man named Carter.

—The auction sale of building lots at New Orchard Beach, Port Stanley, has been postponed by Mr. J. W. Jones till May 24. The sale will then be conducted on the grounds.

—An Ingersoll correspondent says that Chris. Fitzgerald, New York, and Messrs. R. H. Dignan and J. P. Cook, of London, enjoyed the privilege of fishing during last week in the private preserve with Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Carroll.

—Since Bigamist Wm. F. Guest was sentenced on Wednesday he has made several threats that Sheriff's Officer Graham would not accompany him to Kingston, but expresses willingness to go with any person else. A pair of handcuffs and a set of shackles may change his mind.

—Adam Bowman, convicted on the charge of burglarizing Mr. R. Raw's residence in Hamilton in October last, was sentenced by the police magistrate Saturday to serve three years in Kingston Penitentiary. Bowman is wanted for his alleged connection with burglaries in Ayr, Guelph and London.

—John R. Clark, the noted orator, spoke to a large congregation in the Hamilton Road Methodist Church last night on "The Moral Heroism of Temperance Reform." He told the story of his own conversion by a member of the W. C. T. U., who rescued him in a saloon. To-night he delivers his celebrated lecture on "Gough" at the same place.

—Mrs. B. B. Allen and children are leaving the city for the season and removing to their country home. Her friends regret the condition of Mrs. Allan's health, but the shock of her husband's death in October, 1893, at Long Point Island can only be remedied by a radical change of air and scenery.

—At the last meeting of Court Robin Hood, No. 59, Canadian Order Foresters, the following officers were installed by P. D. D. Bro. W. J. Element, assisted by Bro. David Tripp. P. C. R., Court Grove, No. 69, Guelph: P. C. R., Bro. H. Talbot, C. R., Bro. A. Carswell; V. C. R., Bro. G. Hill; R. S. Bro. A. Kirkpatrick; F. S., Bro. J. Mortimore; T., Bro. J. Fleming; C., Bro. C. Davies; S. W., Bro. W. Reid; J. W., Bro. W. Adams; S. B., Bro. M. Connor; J. B., Bro. J. Rutherford; P., Bro. Dr. C. S. Moore; H. C. D., Bro. A. Kirkpatrick. The auditors' report showed a balance to the credit of the sick benefit fund of $398, an increase of over $50 for the past half year. A committee was also appointed to act in conjunction with all the other city courts, to make arrangements for the usual church parade and anniversary services, to be held this year on Sunday, June 3.

—After a long and very painful illness Mr. Wm. Graham, of 708 Waterloo street, passed peacefully away at 7:30 Saturday evening. Mr. Graham had long been an active church worker, and had been closely connected with the interests of the Colborne Street Methodist Church, having occupied the position of steward and a member of the quarterly board. Deceased had reached the age of 65 years, and leaves a wife and grown-up family to mourn his loss. The entire family, with the exception of Mrs. W. H. Macqualter, who resides in the old country, were at his bedside, the members of which are: Mrs. James Hilton, of St. Paul, Minn.; John, Mrs. W. J. Wright, Charles M., of this city; Harry R., of St. Paul, Minn.; Walter E., of Oil Springs; Allie and Fred H., of this city.

A Farmer's Close Call.

Farmer Wilkinson, of the town line between Dorchester and London, had a close call for his life on Saturday morning. He was drawing milk to the Waubuno cheese factory, and did not hear a train whistle as he approached the G. T. R. crossing. He noticed the engine in time to draw up alongside of the track as it swept by. The horse reared and plunged, and, falling against the last car, received serious injury and knocked the driver from his seat. Mr. Wilkinson was not seriously injured, but it required twenty stitches at the hands of Dr. J. H. Tennent, V.S., to draw the flesh at the horse's shoulder together. Mr. Wilkinson declares that the whistle was not sounded.

Valuable Colts Killed.

Mr. Robt. Hill, a dairy farmer living between the asylum and the city boundary, lost two colts on the C. P. R. on Saturday evening. Mr. Hill's pasture leads down to the track, and lads who are in the habit of going on schoolboy excursions to Fixture's bush near by sometimes leave the pasture gate open. This was done on Saturday, and as a result three valuable colts wandered onto to the track in front of the evening express. There is a curve in both directions at the pasture, and the train hands did not notice the animals until right among them. One escaped uninjured, another had its back and legs broken and the third had a leg cut off and several ribs broken. Dr. J. H. Tennent, V. S., dispatched the injured beasts. They were 2 and 3 years old and very valuable.

Calverley's Misfortune.

In consequence of not being ready to sail in time, Clifford Calverley, the high wire artist who met with such a terrible accident at Trenton, N. J., last September, has been obliged to forfeit his English engagement for six months at $500 per week. Calverley, however, has resumed practice at Rosedale. He is none the worse for the serious injuries he received. He has been engaged to appear at Trenton, N. J., and Manager Jackson hopes to book him a successful season.

Card of Thanks.

Rev. Dr. Hugh Johnston desires to thank his many friends in London for their kind inquiries and solicitudes during his long illness, Revs. Dr. Sanderson, Thomas Crews, J. W. Annis, and nearly all the Methodist pastors in the city for their fraternal attentions. He is very grateful to Mrs. (Dr.) Eccles for her unwearied care and devotion, and to Dr. Eccles and his consulting physician, Dr. McCallum, for the valuable time and professional skill given to his case. Especially is he full of gratitude to our Heavenly Father, who has blessed the means used for his recovery and given him the hope of a speedy return to his home and work. Dr. and Mrs. Johnston left by Saturday afternoon's C. P. R. train for Toronto, where he will spend a few weeks with his daughter in convalescence, Mrs. Johnston returning at once to her family in Washington. The doctor expects to return to his church and work about the end of the month.

East Middlesex Liberals.

The Liberal Association of East Middlesex held a rousing meeting in the city Liberal rooms on Saturday afternoon. In point of numbers and enthusiasm the gathering was far ahead of the previous week and judging from the manner in which the addresses of the various speakers were received, Liberalism in East Middlesex is in a flourishing condition. The following were formally proposed: Thos. H. Purdom, Dr. G. A. Routledge, J. H. Elliott, D. B. Burch, J. T. Coughlin, Adam Nichol, Anson Hunt, Elisha Ironsides, Robt. W. Jackson, J. W. Rosser, J. K. Little, S. B. Gorwell, Charles Trebilcock, J. D. Clarke, Ald. Parnell, Frank Love, Michael Crunnican and James Anderson. After all the above had spoken it was agreed to adjourn for a week to more fully consider the best man for the position. Owing to the situation of affairs this was thought advisable, in order to make no mistake in the selection. The utterances of the speakers were cheered to the echo. Among other things the delegates were warned against false religious cries, and it was pointed out that the men who six months ago in the city of London were attempting to move heaven and earth to get accessions to the anti-Catholic associations on the ground that they were purely non-partisan Protestant societies, are once more the leaders of the Conservative party in the city. Their non-partyism, it was shown, only lasted while they were trying to inveigle Liberals away from their allegiance. The adjourned meeting will be held at the same hour and place on Saturday next.

THE FEES COMMISSION.

The Sittings Resumed in London—Examination of Warden Calvert and Mr. J. W. Little—Crown Attorney's Fees.

CLOSING SESSION.

The Fees Commission concluded its labors on Saturday afternoon, after having examined Thomas E. Robson, county clerk of Middlesex, and John McCausland, treasurer of Elgin county.

Mr. Robson fancied that the offices could be more economically and efficiently managed by the county council. He would except that of the sheriff, which office he thought should be under Government control. He was also of opinion that the county council could make as good a choice of men for positions as is made at present. He thought, from a comparison of the salaries of the county officers, that the work could be done more economically were they appointed as he suggested. Mr. Robson did not feel quite so certain, in the cases of clerks of the peace and registrars of the Surrogate Court and officers of that class, that the council would be as able to make appointments. The registrars, however, he certainly would have chosen by the council. Mr. Robson did not think election by the people would be a good idea. The registrar in an average county should receive about $1,500 a year, and in cities the salary might extend to $2,000. He thought the system of payment by fees was proper for the registrar and sheriff, but if the council had control he would let them fix a certain limit, any excess of which should go to the county. Mr. Robson had nothing to do with division court clerks or bailiffs. He admitted that if the appointments were left to county councils as suggested a good deal of canvassing would result and politics might creep into business.

Mr. McCausland was of the opinion that the present method of appointment was satisfactory and the best that could be followed. It resulted in securing more competent officials. He was in favor of the retention of the present system of payment by fees, because in that way the official was remunerated in proportion to the duties he performed. Mr. McCausland complained of a discrepancy which existed in regard to the fees of the clerk of the peace between the statutory and the judge's tariff, such discrepancy causing him endless trouble in keeping his accounts. He suggested that the two tariffs should be made uniform.

Chancellor Boyd called the attention of Mr. Fleming to the discrepancy and requested that he should look into it and see if something could not be done. The chancellor quite agreed in the opinion that there should be no divergence between the two.

The commission will meet in Brantford on Monday, Guelph on Tuesday and Palmerston on Wednesday.

It Was a Fake.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., May 5.—Mrs. Etta Roberts, one of this country's most famous spiritualistic mediums, was exposed publicly in a fraudulent attempt at materialization in this city last night by a committee of men from the Watertown Standard. When found out she made a full confession of spiritism to the committee, saying that it was all a fake.

THE COXEYITES.

Trial of the Leaders to be Resumed To-Day—Kelly's Contingent to Travel by Water.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 6.—The trial of Coxey, Brown, et al., was yesterday adjourned until Monday after a motion by the defense to take the case from the jury on the ground that the evidence did not sustain the charge had been denied by the court.

Coxey took out his third day's license for the exhibition of the Commonweal Army Saturday.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 6.—Kelly's army is temporarily dismissed from public attention through the promise that it will disappear down Des Moines River by boats positively not later than Tuesday morning. Des Moines people were so much relieved over this solution that they subscribed money liberally to build 150 boats, 6x16, to carry ten men each. Many predict the venture will end in disaster. Kelly thinks he can reach Ottumwa the evening of the second day.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 6.—The Commonwealers suffered somewhat from the rain storm that prevailed to-day. There are not more than 100 men left in the camp of the crowd that came over the mountains. Nearly all the old men have become disgusted and taken their departure. There are many about the camp though who are willing to remain so long as they are fed.

The weigh of the world is about fourteen ounces to the pound.

It is very natural for men to fly in a passion when anything makes them sore.
