Business Pointers.

[Reported by Drummond & Goldingham.]

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 5.—Government report issued yesterday afternoon: Total yield of wheat, 515,549,000 bu., averaging per acre, 13.4; corn, total yield, 1,628,464,000 bu., averaging 39.3; oats, 661,035,000 bu., averaging 24.4. Average price of wheat to farmers, 62.4—the lowest ever reported.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—The Paris market opened active and higher, and is now very weak.

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—Provisions excited and higher. Hog receipts, 10,000 under estimate, and prices reached the top for the season. Offerings at opening very light, and buying orders are difficult to execute. Wheat strong.

Live Stock Markets.

EAST BUFFALO, N. Y.

EAST BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 4.—Cattle—One car fresh, two hold-overs and a few bunches on sale; market active and a few stronger; good steers, medium weights, $4 10 to $4 20.

Sheep and Lambs—Twenty-eight cars on sale, including 6 cars Canades. The market to-day was improved in demand. The eastern reports were better, and order buyers took quite a fair number, while city slaughterers bought quite freely. In the best quality lambs the market was quotably strong to 5c to 10c higher, with a steady and firm market for the good to running down ordinary stock. Best lambs sold at $6 25 to $6 35; good to light at $5 65 to $5 80. Sheep ruled steady and full strong with Monday; good 90 to 100 lb wethers sold for $5; fair to good fat sheep, $4 25 to $4 60; culls and common sheep and lambs in fair inquiry and about steady with Monday.

Hogs—Only 15 cars on sale, and with the Yorkmen all having orders to fill it was a scrambling to get hogs to fill orders; $7 40 was the general price for the bulk of stock on sale, most of it taken straight and a few lots at $7 45 to $7 47½, with a few pigs thrown out of sorted lots, $7 30. The light supply prevented any marked discrimination between light and good weight Yorkers and mediums, even light weights no better than pigs in some instances selling up to $7 40 and $7 45; roughs sold at $6 to $6 50; stags, $5 50 to $6.

Petrolea Oil Market.

PETROLEA, Jan. 5.—Oil opened and closed here to-day at $1 18¼.

—The boy King, charged with shooting at Mr. Walter Bartlett, of South London, was remanded for a week by the police magistrate this morning. Six drunks were discharged.

—"By Wits Outwitted" drew a small house to the Grand Opera House last evening. The plot of the play is original, and though the dramatic construction is somewhat crude, it has the germ of a good comedy. The company is a capable one.

—In the advertising columns will be seen the notice of the application made by Hellmuth, Ivey & Thomas, on behalf of the Cleveland syndicate, for incorporation for the purpose of operating the London and Port Stanley Railway and steamboat connections.

—Bailiff English took John Kress and two prisoners from Sandwich to the Central Prison this morning. Kress was sentenced to 23 months and 23 days for stealing an overcoat from C. McArthut, of Aylmer, and also a wagon from another resident of that place.

—This is a week of prayer in the Presbyterian community, and joint services are being held by St. Andrew's, St. James' and the First Presbyterian Churches. Tuesday night the prayer meeting was held in St. Andrew's, last night in the First Presbyterian, and to-night will be held in St. James'.

—As Mr. D. F. Moore of South Dorchester, and Mr. Geo. Craig, horse buyer, of London, were leaving Aylmer last evening their horses ran away. Both were pitched out of the cutter, Mr. Moore having his right leg badly fractured midway between the knee and ankle. Mr. Craig had his left shoulder dislocated. The fractures were reduced.

—"B" Company, of the Seventh Battalion, had an enjoyable supper last evening. Captain Hayes presided. Speeches were made and songs were sung.

—The Salvation Army continue their council of war in London West Methodist Mission. They conducted two services in the jail to-day. Commandant and Mrs. Booth are here. An army marriage was celebrated in the King Street Methodist Church this afternoon and a big banquet will be held at 5 o'clock.

—County Constable Ward has arrested John McLeod, of London West, on a warrant charging him with having assaulted his brother Daniel. Bail was accepted for his appearance on Saturday. John Munce, of Delaware township, was also arrested charged with not supporting his wife. He was remanded until Saturday.

—Mr. Thomas Reid, son of the London collector of customs, who has made his mark as a barrister in Toronto, though yet young in years, has returned to that city after a prolonged visit to the paternal home. Mr. Reid was detained longer than he desired by an attack of rheumatism, but he has now recovered, much to the satisfaction of his many friends in London and the West.

—Yesterday evening an address and New Year's present were made by Mr. J. Connor on behalf of St. Mary's Church choir to Miss Ella Murray, their organist. The present consisted of a large handsome parlor lamp and frame. Miss Murray, though taken unaware, made a happy reply. Rev. Jos. Kennedy afterwards entertained the choir to a supper at the Britannia House.

—Miss Susie Campbell, daughter of John Campbell, 259 Talbot street, was married on Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. to John Westman, of the London police force. James Campbell, the bride's brother, acted as groomsman, and Miss Jennie Blythe was bridesmaid. Bride and maid both looked charming in costumes of cream colored Henrietta adorned with pink and white roses. Rev. M. P. Talling, pastor of St. James' Presbyterian Church, of which the bride is an esteemed member, performed the ceremony. The bride was the recipient of very beautiful presents.

—Mr. Stephenson, of the Chatham Planet, had an amusing experience in London this morning. He arrived here by the 4 a.m. express and proceeded to the residence of his sister, Mrs. McWhinney. He knocked at the door, and no one answering he tried the door. It was not locked. He walked into the parlor, lighted a match and proceeded to make himself comfortable. He looked at the pictures on the walls and at the domestic surroundings. All seemed strange, so strange that he began to think something had happened to him or to the household. Suddenly he heard a footstep approach the door. He moved towards it. Then he met a man almost his own counterpart. There was a brief conference, explanations, a good laugh. Mr. Stephenson had entered the house of a morning newspaper man, which is side by side with that of his brother-in-law, and which was accidentally open.

—The following officers of Dominion Lodge, No. 48, I. O. O. F., were duly installed last evening by Dr. Berden, of Strathroy, D. D. G. M. of London district, assisted by Past Grands John Nichols, of Strathroy, Donevan, of Chatham, and H. Bissell, Wm. Joanes, F. Smith and W. F. Howell, of London: J. P. G., E. G. Sanders; N. G., T. D. Hastings; V. G., J. A. Stevenson; Rec. Sec., T. W. Nash; Per. Sec., R. J. Blackwell, P.G.; Treas., John Ward; War., Geo. Pearse; Con., W. W. Osborne; R. S. N. G., Herbert J. Boyd; L. S. N. G., Burt Harding; R. S. V. G., Roselle Pococke; L. S. V. G., W. J. Portwood; R. S. S., Jas. Gillespie; L. S. S., T. H. Lashbrook; I. G., U. A. Buchner; O. G., John Mitchell, P.G.; Chap., Joseph Sanders. The report of the permanent secretary shows the financial part of the lodge to be in a sound condition. The prospects of work for the next term are splendid; six candidates are ready for admission. The D. D. G. M. was highly pleased to find that the officers-elect were prepared to carry out the new law which requires all officers to be able to do their work before being installed. At close of the meeting, on the invitation of the elected officers, an adjournment was made to an oyster supper. E. T. Essery, past of Eureka, was also present, and duly assisted at both parts of the meeting.

The Governor-General Coming on Jan. 13

Within the next fortnight London will be honored with visits from the two highest gubernatorial dignitaries in the country. The Lieutenant-Governor has already accepted an invitation to attend the London Hunt ball on Jan. 20, and now the Governor-General announces his intention of spending a few hours in the Forest City on Jan. 13. The following letter from Lord Stanley's aide-de-camp, received by Mayor Spencer this morning, is self-explanatory:

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, OTTAWA, Jan. 3, 1893.

Dear Sir,—His Excellency the Governor-General thinks that you may like to be informed that he intends during the course of the next fortnight to visit certain portions of the Province of Ontario, and that he will probably be at London for a few hours the morning of the 13th inst. He would be glad, if it were possible, to make acquaintance with any of your citizens who desire it, and if time admits to see something of your city and of its leading industries. But Lord Stanley is especially anxious that his visit should not cause any inconvenience or expense to anyone, and that all formality should be dispensed with as far as may be. He will be living on board his car and will be accompanied only by myself and perhaps by Sir James Grant, who is traveling with him. I remain yours faithfully,

WM. WALSH, A.D.C.

THE FIRE RECORD

WOODSTOCK, Jan. 5.—The extensive barns of James Givens, East Oxford, were burned yesterday, together with the contents, including 40 tons of hay, a binder, eight hogs, and a couple of calves. The loss will be $3,000. Insurance $1,000.

A Charming Winter Climate.

"One of the chief delights of America, a famous foreigner recently said, "is the remarkable diversity of climate and altitude. Every taste can be suited there. The rigor of our Northern winters tells on a great many constitutions and such people are obliged to "winter South," or to move there altogether. To this large and increasing class North Galveston offers peculiar advantages at prices within the reach of the most modest purse. This new and coming commercial point offers business openings for the merchant; work for the laboring man; homes for the delicate; rich harvest to the fruit-grower—profit and pleasure for all. In no place in America there better opportunity for safe investment. All classes of persons, therefore, are interested in the development of North Galveston, and any inquiry will be promptly answered and full information furnished by W. D. BUCKLE, London, Ont., the local agent of the North Galveston Association.

A Frozen Hand Saved His Life.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Jan. 5.—By the freezing of his hand Dr. John Williams' life has been saved. He with James Matthew while crossing Wolf River in a batteau there capsized. Matthew managed to get to a half submerged tree while Williams could only catch a limb of a tree lower down stream with one hand. Thus both remained ten hours before rescued, when it was found that Williams' hand was frozen, thus preventing his being swept down stream and drowned.
