"HE WILL MEET ANY MAN,"

Frank Slavin Makes a Speech—Charlie Mitchell Hissed.

NEW YORK, June 18.—Pony Moore glowered at 300 men and four women in Niblo's Garden last night, when he introduced Frank P. Slavin and Charlie Mitchell, the first of whom was to be given a testimonial because of his victory the night before over Jake Kilrain. Pony Moore glowered because there was so little money in the house for one reason, and again because his son-in-law, Charlie Mitchell, was hissed.

The entertainment opened with a few Annie Rooney and McGinty variety acts. Then the gladiators appeared. Slavin, Mitchell and Moore walked upon the stage to the hand-clapping of 150 of the men and two of the women. Mr. Pony Moore struck an attitude and said:

"Ladies and Gentlemen: The hot weather has been a little against us, but we will give you a good show. Permit me to introduce you to Mr. Charlie Mitchell, the champion of the world"—(hisses, cat-calls and groans.)

Mr. Moore's glower deepened but he stood his ground.

"The champion of the world," he reiterated with an Ajax-like posture. The audience kept quiet.

"Ladies and gentlemen," continued Mr. Moore, "this is Mr. Francis P. Slavin of Australia, a fighter as is willing to meet any man, bar none in the universe. We will put up all the money they want, or any of them want. We are stopping at the Vendome and we mean business. Mr. Slavin and Mr. Mitchell will now have a set-to of three rounds. Shake hands."

Then the conqueror of Kilrain and son-in-law Mitchell pounded each other, grunted and sweated for three short rounds. After the customary shake of hands Mr. Slavin stepped to the footlights to orate:

"Ladies and gentlemen," he said, "I am more than pleased at the reception given to me to-night, after my fight of last night. I thank the papers for the way they treated me. I am a stranger in a strange land, and all I want is fair play. I don't know that I am a fighter, but I am willing to meet any man, and I'll do my best to win."

Robinson's Musee.

The magnificent class of entertainments presented at Robinson's Musee Theatre are attracting a high class of patronage to that popular house, and the ever energetic Mr. Robinson who is always alive to the interest and comfort of his patrons has provided throughout the musee a number of electric fans that will supply cool, fresh air to the multitudes that visit the musee. In fact the way in which the frigid breezes circulate through this beautiful building reminds one of natural winds and this supplemented by every improvement that man can suggest has made the musee a model place for an afternoon's or evening's enjoyment.

Next week a big show will open which embraces some novel features and attractions never before presented in Toronto.

Foremost amongst these is the little Prince of Prestidigitateurs, "Master Eddie," the 7-year-old-wonder, in his own original and elegant entertainment of delightful mystery, surpassing in a captivating manner the difficult manipulations of all former representatives of this act and the wonderful effects of ancient and modern times. There also appears on the bill H. J. Abbott, in Jumbo comedy; William R. Jirard, late of Cleveland's Minstrels; Miss Della Hayden, the character change artist; James E. Black, the legless wonder, in songs and dances. Toronto's favorites Willet and Thorne will appear in a laughable sketch, entitled "Catching On." In the lecture hall Prof. Hilton will exhibit his skillful and daring feats of sword cutting, assisted by the charming Miss Ayres in a mysterious creation; also the Mexican Feather Workers, who on Friday next will give to every lady visiting the Musee a beautiful souvenir of their handfeather work.

The Ladies Give Emphatic Endorsation.

Now that glorious summer is close on the heels of the balmy month of June it behoves the ladies of Toronto and district to see that they are fully equipped for the season in all that appertains to grace and comfort, to say nothing of elegance, personal and domestic.

Loved His Friend Better Than His Girl.

An old soldier named Thomas Ging was arrested and locked up in Agnes-street police station last night, charged w it assaulting Nancy Allan, alias Annie Spring. The couple are said to live together as man and wife in a notorious den in rear of No. 37 James-street. Annie claims to be a witness in the McGrain murder case, which comes up at the next Criminal Assizes. Ging, she says, is a friend of McGrain, and that yesterday morning he made a brutal attack upon her for the purpose of preventing her from giving evidence in the case. As an evidence of the fracas Annie carries her arm in a sling and a number of bruises about the body.

Make a Note of It.

Read it over and over again, spell it out and sing it until it is indelibly fixed in your mind, that Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy is an infallible cure for chronic catarrh of the head, with all its distressing complications. Impaired taste and smell, offensive breath, ringing noises in the head, defective hearing, nose and throat ailments, are not only relieved, but positively and permanently cured! This is no fancy of the imagination, but a hard, solid fact, proven over and over again and vouched for under a forfeiture of $500 by its manufacturers, the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N.Y. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

A Canadian Favorite.

The season of green fruits and summer drinks is the time when the worst forms of cholera morbus, diarrhoea and bowel complaints prevail. As a safeguard Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry should be kept in the house. For 35 years it has been the most reliable remedy.

MRS. LAPPIN WINS.

She Secures a Fraction of a Disputed Estate.

In the case re Vicars and Smiley v. Gibson Judge MacMahon yesterday morning ordered the defendant to pay the plaintiffs the $430 commission in full.

The next case was that of the Trust Company of Ontario v. Lappin. Last spring Patrick Lappin died in this city, bequeathing all his property to his children and leaving his wife in straitened circumstances. She is step-mother to the children. The Trust Company were legally appointed administrators of the estate. They demanded the surrender of certain goods then in the possession of Mrs. Lappin. This was refused, as the defendant declared that the articles belonged to herself. The present action is taken by the company to obtain an order of replevin for the goods in dispute. The judge found that nearly all the goods belonged to the defendant. The exceptions were a gold watch valued at $300, a cage of foreign birds and a gun, which were never claimed by Mrs. Lappin. Judgment will be given this morning.

The case of Lydiatt v. Switzer is now before the court. The plaintiff is a real estate agent who exchanged a property on condition that his commission be paid when he sold a second property for the defendants, Tobias Switzer and wife. The second property has been sold and the money expended, and the defendants ask for further time. The solicitors of the respective parties are striving hard to settle the case without litigation. The court gave them till morning, when, if not settled, the case will proceed.

Difficult Surgical Operation.

Prof. Cavanagh, the Phrenologist, of Elm-street, who served as correspondent through the African Wars, has suffered much from an old wound lately. The nasal bones when examined by a specialist were found very badly fractured. Two operations with the "actual cautery" were undergone and on Wednesday he had the broken bones sawn out. It was the most serious operation the Doctor had ever performed upon the nose and took about one hour and a half to complete. These operations were accomplished without chloroform and the Professor now seems in his usual health.

Facts Worth Remembering.

In 1498 Columbus discovered the continent of America.

In 1501 Cortecal discovered the River St. Lawrence.

In 1807 Fulton launched the first regular steamboat on the Hudson.

In 1812 Henry Bell started on the Clyde the first steam vessel in Europe.

In 1891 the citizens of Toronto discovered that Melville & Richardson, 28 Adelaide-street east, was the best place in the city to procure ocean tickets.

To Arrange Lace.

A rather uncommon way of arranging lace flounces is to festoon a flounce four yards long twice across the front of the skirt, first half way down and then near the edge of the skirt. Each flounce falls from the edge of the bodice at the back, and its width is shirred on a ribbon along the edge of the bodice.

Richardson, Canadian Passenger Agent, 28 Adelaide-street east, Toronto. ed

Lace Curtain Sale.

If any reader of The World has the faintest idea of purchasing a pair of lace or chenille curtains, the big purchase just made at 202 Yonge-street offers a great inducement to make the idea practical. A wholesale stock to pick from, at a guarantee of less than wholesale figures for a single pair, should make a big hum in this department all this week at McKendry's. 246

He is on his way home to Rochester and will speak at the Gospel Temperance Tent at Parkdale in the afternoon and at the Auditorium at night.

A concert was given last night in the Assembly hall of the Church of the Redeemer by the pupils of the Presbyterian Ladies' College. The platform was nicely decorated with flowers and the concert, under the direction of Mr. Edward Fisher, was an entire success. The time between the first and second part of the program was taken up by academic exercises, awarding of certificates and presentation of prizes. The work of the students in art was open to the inspection of visitors during the evening. It was principally from nature, embracing pencil, crayon, water colors and oil paintings, and reflected great credit alike on the pupils and on the director, Mr. T. Mower-Martin, R.C.A.

A GENTLEMAN IN LIBERIA.

Interesting Description of the Country of Free Blacks.

Mr. Garwood, a missionary from Bishop Taylor's African mission and formerly a resident of Toronto, gave a most interesting and amusing sketch of "Life in Liberia," also an account of the mission work there. The speaker has been engaged for four years there and consequently his English has suffered, though he is perfectly at home on the platform and speaks in a very humorous style. Mr. Garwood exhibited several African tools and explained their uses and described their modes of cooking and living, their manufactures and dress.

Commenting upon their social customs, the speaker said: "Wives are invariably bought, the usual price being three bullocks. I am a boy in Africa, when I get a wife I will be a man; when a man gets six wives he is a gentleman."

A voice: "You will soon be a man."

Mr. Garwood acknowledged the soft impeachment. He also described the incantation performed by the African medicine men, explaining their modes of deceiving their superstitious fellows.

Mr. Garwood purposes to attend a School of Dentistry in New York a few months in order to be of more use to the heathen to whom he is devoting his life.

IT MAY BE MURDER.

A Dastardly Assault on a Night School Pupil.

A dastardly crime was committed in the East End last night. Two gentlemen walking up Power-street about 9.30 p.m. saw a boy apparently insensible lying on the boulevard. They went up to him, and foun that he was unconscious and bleeding profusely from a terrible wound above the left temple. The boy was carried into Lee's drug store in King-street east, where Dr. Coatsworth attended to his injuries. All efforts to restore consciousness were futile and his condition is pronounced serious.

Later the lad was recognized as William Matthews, residing with his parents at 318 Front-street east. He had been attending night school in the Public School in Parliament-street leaving for home about 9 o'clock. It is supposed that he was attacked by roughs in Power-street who laid him out with a stone. Matthews is employed as bookkeeper in the office of Blake, Kerr, Lash & Cassels, and is known as a quiet and inoffensive youth. The police were notified almost immediately on the discovery of the lad and are now searching for his assailants.

Mr. Ivens on the Bane of Partizanship.

Brighton Lodge of the Sons of England Benevolent Society held a meeting last night at Shaftesbury Hall. J. R. Grant presided. A letter was received from the Hospital Board requesting the lodge to appoint a delegate to the board, and in response to this invitation Past President Packham was unanimously elected. Three gentlemen were proposed for membership and two others submitted themselves for the ceremony of initiation. A circular letter was received from Supreme Grand President Ivens, in which he exhorted the brethren not to allow any political leaning to interfere with the duty they owed to a brother; give him credit for acting conscientiously though he might differ in opinion. By refusing, as a society, to become a machine for any political party we retain our independence and are able to keep a free hand, nor that should danger threaten we shall be in a position to take united action.

Off and On.

What a difference there is between fifteen minutes and fifteen years and it draws a line between what might have been and what is not. "I suffered off and on for fifteen years with strained back," writes Mr. H. Cartmell, Washington, Tex., U.S.A. "No trouble now. It was cured by St. Jacobs Oil." An average cure would take fifteen minutes.

Sensationalism at Hanlan's Point.

Throughout this season Hanlan's Point will undoubtedly be the Mecca of pleasure-seekers and of lovers of the marvelous. Mr. J. C. Connor has made arrangements for the appearance there of a succession of the most brilliant park performers of the continent. It is a fact that has come to be well recognised that greater and more daring feats can be accomplished in the larger spaces outside than in the confined area of a theatre. All the dare-devil feats of the day are now, therefore, done in the ocean air, and a rich variety of them is promised at Hanlan's Point this year. The first engagement is that of the marvelous Melville in a sensational act, known as "La Chute du Ciel." A description of his startling performance appears in the advertising columns.

One of the best appurtenanced hotels in the city is the Richardson House, Spadina-avenue and King-streets. To commodious and well-aired rooms and excellent table is added a well-kept lawn where bowling or tennis can be indulged in; summer houses, green houses, etc., serving to add to the pleasure of the guests. The house is convenient to boats, trains, street cars, etc., and the terms are but $1.50 per day.

Severe colds are easily cured by the use of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, a medicine of extraordinary penetrating and healing properties. It is acknowledged by those who have used it as being the best medicine sold for coughs, colds, inflammation of the lungs and all affections of the throat and chest. Its agreeableness to the taste makes it a favorite with ladies and children.

The Executive Committee.

In the absence of Ald. Saunders, Ald. Gibbs presided at yesterday's meeting of the Executive Committee. This recommendation of the City Engineer was sent on to council:

I beg to recommend the widening, extension and grading of Queen-street, commencing at the west side of Roncesvalles-avenue, and continuing westerly to High Park, as a local improvement. The cost of the improvement will be, approximately, $46,000, of this amount $23,000 will be paid by the city as its portion of the grading and right-of-way cost, etc., and the balance of the actual cost will be assessed on the several properties benefited by the opening up and construction of the roadway. The time over which the payment of the cost shall extend is to be ten years.

On motion of Ald. Jolliffe the City Engineer was requested to furnish an itemized report of the street car tickets used in his office. The Fresh Air Fund was enriched with a donation of $50. A bylaw for $161,000 for local improvement works at present in course of construction was sent on to council, with the committee's approval. It was resolved to appeal against the decision in Fleming v. Toronto, giving costs against the city.

Mrs. W. J. Lang, Bethany, Ont., writes: "I was one of the greatest sufferers for about fifteen months with a disease of my ear similar to ulcers, causing entire deafness. I continued using it, and in a short time my ear was cured and hearing completely restored. I have used this wonderful healer successfully in cases of inflammation of the lungs, sore throat, coughs and colds, cuts and bruises, etc.; in fact it is our family medicine.

HISTOGENETIC

ANOTHER HOPELESS CASE

SPRINGFIELD ON THE CREDIT, Ont.
March, 18, 1891.

Histogenetic Medicine Association:

GENTLEMEN,—

Wishing to testify to the superior merits of Histogenetic Medicine for the cure of lung diseases, I submit the following statement: Two years ago I found myself, as a result of exposure to cold and wet weather taking frequent colds. I took a severe cough and got run down in vitality and had several spells of hemorrhage of the lungs. I coughed a great deal in the morning and some during the night. I consulted two or three physicians, one very clever Toronto physician. He treated me without medicine by hand rubbing and did me considerable good, but in the course of time the hemorrhage returned.

Two of the physicians I consulted considered mine a serious case, and one of them gave me to understand it hopeless, and I have no doubt that consumption would soon have caused my death. I heard about the new system of medicine and consulted Dr. Hear at the head office for Canada, 19 Yonge-street Market, who examined me very thoroughly and thought Histogenetic remedies would cure me in about six weeks. I commenced taking the medicine about Jan. 1. In two weeks the cough and breathing were better. The amount of sputa rapidly lessened. There was considerable bronchitis and it soon disappeared. My strength came again with astonishing rapidity and the rapid breathing disappeared. I have not had any hemorrhage since the first lot of medicine was taken. I have gained steadily in the body generally as well as the lungs, and feel almost as well as I ever did. I can walk fast now or do anything in a hurry and not get rapid breathing or palpitation. I am now following my usual employment and can stand any kind of weather. It is the best treatment for the lungs I have ever known, and I can conscientiously recommend it to my friends and acquaintances who may need lung treatment as far superior to any other system.

Sincerely,

T. M. HAMMOND.

A Live Newspaper.

The Toronto World displayed a great deal of enterprise in getting out an edition Saturday night, with a full report of the Queen's Plate race. It is such strokes as this that mark the difference between a live newspaper and those that don't know enough to be dead. —Montreal Herald.

TWO GREAT DAYS
- AT -
M'KENDRY'S

SATURDAY—The great shopping day.
MONDAY—Bargain day.

To-night we hold a high carnival sale among a stock of Gents' Furnishing Goods, bought at a big bargain. Men pose as such smart beings compared with women, and yet in seeking a place to trade in where a first-class stock is kept and money saved on every purchase they sometimes miss the mark. If a Silk Scarf or Merino Undershirt were wet after a fire it usually commands a better price than if sold dry and unsinged. We guarantee that our Four-in-Hand Scarf at 12 1-2c would be thought a bargain at a quarter in a gents' furnishing store, but they get the impression from Heaven knows where that a drygoods store "ain't in it" when it comes to sell gents' wear. Of course we are knocking such silly notions in the head every day. Our sales in this department are rising higher every week, but we have the stock and the store to do double the gents' furnishing trade, and we're going to do it too. Men's Elastic Web Braces 13c, 15c, 19c and 25c. If that's only half what you've been in the habit of paying don't be surprised; it's bad form to look surprised at anything nowadays. Men's Fine Embroidered Night Robes 75c and $1.25, perfect gems. Unlaundried Shirts 39c, what you pay 50c for, and McKendry's custom-made Shirt at 50c, a 75 center anywhere. Silk Scarfs, lovely goods every one, 9c, 10c, 12 1-2c, 15c and 24c, in every shape, pattern and Shade, hundreds of boxes to pick and choose from. Natural Wool Socks 29c, Heavy Ribbed Cotton Socks 3 pairs for 25c. Cotton Underwear 50c the Suit. Fine Balbriggan 97c the Suit. To-night a White Dressed Shirt worth $1.25 for 75c, all sizes. Linen Collars 10c, Linen Cuffs 10c, Patent Lever Collar Buttons 1c, Pear-Shaped Collar Buttons 2c, Pretty Cuff Buttons, patent Lever, 10c, 15c and 19c.

LADIES' WEAR

We'll be well prepared for a big rush all over the store. Very special lines in Hosiery, Gloves, Corsets, Underwear, Veilings, Frillings, Soaps, Perfumes, Florida Water, Complexion Powder, Books and Notions. Not a dull inch of space anywhere; every table and counter bristling with custom-making bargains. 500 Parasols to go at 50c, 75c and $1, worth double easily.

WIDE-AWAKE

MONDAY

If we had room we would tell of a wonderful sale on Monday. We'll have to be satisfied with a few lines. Most of you will be here anyhow, and then you'll see things to make the most stoical ope their eyes.

Embroideries, a range at 5c, not ordinary commonplace 5 centers, but goods at 10, 12 1-2 and 15c for 5c. Another table at 8c, including 8-inch Embroideries worth 25c. Black Silk Guipure Lace Shawls, very large, worth $6.50, for $2.50.

Hundreds of pieces of Ribbons at 1c a yard.

Ladies' (3 piece cape) Collars, mourning and colored, 3c each.

Velvet Ribbons, all colors, 5c. 300 Remnants Silks and Satins at one-third their value. 8 dozen Black Silk and Satin Parasols at 97c, worth $2 and $2.50. 800 dozen, one invoice, Ladies' Hem-Stitch Handkerchiefs, all stacked up on a centre-table; six saleswomen to wait on you; only two prices, 2 1-2c and 3 1-2c. If you want to see a Handkerchief sale be here Monday. Remember, 800 dozen to sell you; no 1-2 dozen in a basket sale here, and you can take all you want from 1 to 100 as long as you've the cash to pay for 'em.

All Wool Boating Serges 15c a yard. Dark Ground Challies with lovely flowers 6 3-4c, as fast as can be in color. 80 dozen Children's Fine Embroidered Collars, good value at 25c and 35c; Monday's price, 15c or 2 for 25c; won't there be a rustle here? Ladies' Leather Belts 10c, 19c, 25c and 47c, really worth more than double these prices. 60 pieces Cream and White Dress Muslins, nest goods, worth 20, 25c and 30c; also a line of Black Wide Dress Muslins, all this lot at a single price, 12 1-2c, Monday. 500 pairs French Wool Corsets in Grey and White, every size, half price, 50c, Monday. A hundred other lines. Watch for this evening's News.

"DANGLER"
WATER BACK GAS RANGE

Gas Stoves

In these, unlike every other make of Gas Stoves, no separate burner for water heating is required, as the DANGLER patent water heater being connected with the boiling burners heats the water whenever cooking is being done on them. This saves fully one-third of the cost of the old system.

Illustrated Catalogue free to everyone.
