Business Embarrassments.

Finch & Co., dry goods, Brantford, have assigned to W. Watt.

J. McLachlin, merchant, Dutton, is reported to be in financial difficulties.

G. Doersam, organ maker, Wellesby, has assigned to E. Zinkann.

Bilodeau & Godbout, general storekeepers, Quebec, have assigned with liabilities realizing $9000.

The J. E. Brown jewelery stock, in Yonge-street, has been handed back to the debtor on the completion of liquidation proceedings.

William Ashall, jeweler, Yonge-street, who assigned some time since to E. R. C. Clarkson, has been unable to fulfil his offer of composition amounting to 40 cents on the dollar, and the creditors have now decided to wind the estate up. It will probably go to auction. Liabilities $3300, assets $2350.

No offer was made by Theodore J. Jorgenson, the insolvent jeweler of Queen-street west, who met his creditors yesterday at Henry Barber & Co.'s offices. The liabilities reach $7000 and the assets $4000. As announced yesterday the estate will be summarily wound up.

The creditors of A. Kearns, grocer, 549 Yonge-street, who failed a few days since, met in the office of the assignees, Henry Barber & Co., yesterday. His liabilities were computed at $1800 and his assets were nominally the same. An offer of 35 cents on the dollar was accepted. Mr. Kearns has been in business at the above stand for the past seven years. He has always been known among those associated with him as an honest, conscientious, hardworking man. It is to be hoped that this momentary misfortune will not be instrumental in concluding his career in a business for which he is so well adapted.
