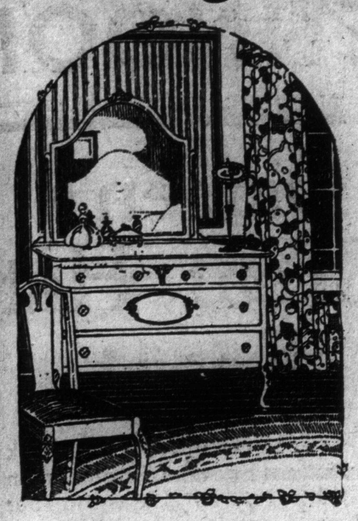
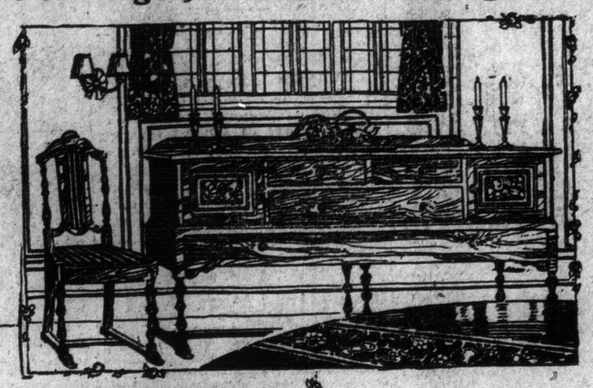
Making Your House a Delight to Look at and a Joy to Live in

A Page for Brides and Grooms in Particular (Some War Weddings There are Which Mean the Furnishing of a New Abode) and for All Householders in General Who May Require New Furniture, Silverware or Rugs for Mansion, Bungalow or Flat.

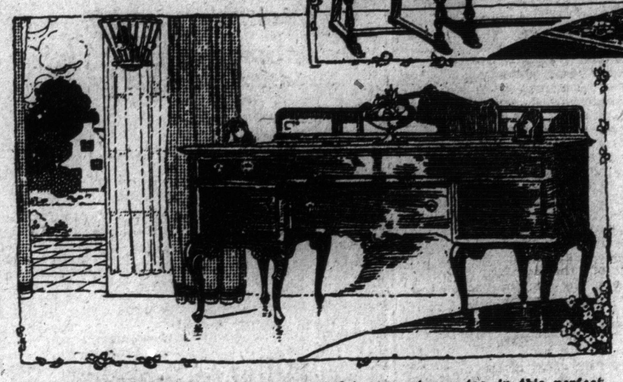


A. Queen Anne herself might well have been envious of this winsome furniture for a simple bedroom. Her domestic eye would have delighted in the fresh daintiness of the ivory enamel, and the thorough excellence of construction that marks the seven pieces of the set. You will notice that the shell motif and cabriole leg characteristic of the Queen Anne period are distinguishing features of the design. Besides the dresser in the sketch are a chiffonier, with separate mirror, a dressing-table with triple glass; bed, 4 ft. 6 in. wide, and bench for dressing-table. Price for set, complete, $216.00.

BEHOLD IN THIS FURNITURE HOW HAPPILY STYLE AND DISTINCTION ALLIGN THEMSELVES WITH MODERATE PRICE.



Picture this good-looking chiffonier in rich brown walnut—old black walnut, to be technical—and try and realize that its price is only $29.00, or, without mirror, $25.50. It adapts itself admirably to either a man's or woman's use, and, with its accompanying pieces, promises distinct attractiveness in the furnishing of bedroom and dressing-room. The dresser is $35.00; the chiffonier, $29.00; the dressing-table, $26.50; the bedstead, 4 ft. 6 in. in width, $27.50; and the dressing-table bench, $7.00.
—Furniture Bldg., Cor. James and Albert Sts.



The influence of the Queen Anne period is very strong, too, in this perfect delight of a walnut sideboard. So simple, yet withal so graceful, and so dignified, it is a triumph in modern cabinet-making—ideal for the dining-room of moderate size. The sideboard, which may be had with or without mirror in the back, is six feet long, and priced $105.00. Other pieces are: 54-inch round table—may be extended to 8 feet—$62.50; set of six chairs, the seats upholstered in brown Spanish leather, $70.00; dinner waggon, $32.50; and china cabinet, $52.00.

Lots of dignity and individuality in this sideboard, isn't there? It is a clever copy of a fine old design that flourished at the puncture of the late Jacobean and William and Mary periods. You will find in it traces of each historic era. The wood is walnut in antique finish, with some very fine, faintly-colored carving of pears and grapes by way of decoration for sideboard, dinner waggon and china cabinet. In the reproduction of the mellow effect of the antique, it is a masterpiece. Prices are: Sideboard, $140.00; cabinet, $62.00; dinner waggon, $48.00; extension table, $83.00, and set of five chairs, with seats upholstered in green horsehair, at $105.00.

If you wish to procure any of the furniture, rugs or silverware described on this page, and are not able to come to the Store to do so personally, telephone to the "Shopping Service"—Main 5884—or write to it, and an experienced shopper will make selection for you.

"Mary Jane."—Like the leopard, a "Durbar" parasol cannot change its spots—or its shape, Mary Jane. If you sigh for another kind of sunshade, you will have to buy a new one. Rose, blue, purple, black and white — which shall it be? Most of the smartest of the new models keep close to the umbrella idea, as far as ribs go.

* * *

R. D. R.—"Covert cloth" seems to be the word to conjure with in settling your problem. It is the same tone of fawn as cravenette, and resembles it in weave. Moreover, there are two coats of it in the neighborhood of your price—one with a box-pleat down the centre of the back, a belt all round, four pockets, large collar, and pearl buttons to fasten it. This is $20.00. Also in fawn covert cloth is a model with four horizontal tucks above the waistline, and the skirt of the coat gathered in full below it. This, too, has a large collar, and a belt from the sides to the front. The same style may be had, too, in navy blue, Copenhagen blue or green gabardine—price, $17.50. Now, do you feel any more inclined to fix your choice?

* * *

"Fraser."—You would like the nice Scotchy, heathery feel of the tweed in a certain raglan coat. It has a loose back, belted front, patch pockets, and convertible collar—a very swagger, sensible wrap for general, all-year use. It may be had in either brown and white, or black and white mixture — price, $17.50. Then, too, a good raglan model is available in a fawn tweed, belted all round, with breast pockets as well as the larger ones on the hips. This, too, has a convertible collar. The price of it is $27.50. But you must trust to the collar of your blouse to supply the light touch at the neck. A satin or muslin facing would be quite out of key on a heavy top coat of this rough fabric.

* * *

"Maw."—Would you be content with his playing "Little Boy Blue" for the Summer? Less easily soiled than white, yet considerably more baby-like than navy, those Dutch blues and pale blues should prove the happy compromise which you are seeking to find. Pa blue chambray rompers, in sizes 2 to 6 years, are to be had at $1.50, and a very nice little Dutch blue linen suit, with collar, vest and belt of white pique, is $2.25 for size 6. A middy blouse suit in the same Dutch blue is $1.50. White buckskin sandals, with "neolin" soles, and cushion insoles, are $2.20 in size 2 years, and $2.50 in 6 years. And, by the way, tell Jackie that I quite agree with him that Muskoka isn't a bit of fun unless your clothes are comfortable, and that none of the togs recommended above are "dressed up" in the least.

THE SCRIBE.

WHEN IT COMES TO RUGS, THEIR VARIETY IS INFINITE—WEAVES, DESIGNS AND COLORINGS TO SUIT EVERY TYPE OF ROOM AND MANNER OF ARTISTIC DECORATION.

Oriental rugs—who can measure their charm and good service? And it is a superb showing of them set out on the Fourth Floor for this leafy month of June.

For halls, dens, alcoves, libraries, and living-rooms are small and medium Kajaks of bold design and cheerful coloring, sizes ranging from 3 ft. by 3 ft. 6 in. at $35.00, to 6 ft. by 8 ft. at $150.00.

For bedrooms and drawing-rooms are small Kermanshahs in the usual delicate medley of tan, green, ivory, rose and blue. Sizes run from 3 ft. by 3 ft. at $35.00, to 4 ft. by 6 ft. at $150.00.

And for living-rooms—a splendid assemblage of Melas, Sarouks, Meshed and Serapes rugs—from 8 ft. 6 in by 11 ft. 6 in. to 11 ft. by 14 ft., the prices running from $185.00 to $650.00.

AS FOR THE SILVER TEA SERVICE, NO WELL-EQUIPPED MENAGE IS COMPLETE WITHOUT IT

A treasure for this generation and an heirloom for the next—thus might we well proclaim this handsome English tea service of heavy sterling silver. As you will observe, it is lavishly engraved, and boasts white bone knobs on the lids of tea pot, coffee pot and hot water kettle. It is a five-piece set, consisting of the articles mentioned, also cream jug and sugar bowl, the kettle having a spirit-lamp attachment. Price, complete, $425.00.

That prime favorite among tea sets, the squat Georgian design, with fluted sides. The tea pot has ebony handle and knob, and sugar bowl and cream jug are gold-lined. In good weight sterling silver, the price for three pieces is $65.00.

A simple modern design, this tall, slim set of sterling silver, daintily engraved in "Coronation" style, with handles and tips of ebony. As you will see, a hot water jug is also included, the other pieces being hot water kettle, with spirit lamp, coffee pot, tea pot, cream jug and sugar bowl. Price for the six pieces, $320.00.

Judging by the sketch above, Queen Anne's influence on silver was all for its good. For is it not a simple, graceful, likeable array of tea things that you see?—to say nothing of the tall, slender member of the family, the coffee pot. The sterling silver is of heavy quality, the sides fluted in characteristic fashion, and the handle and knobs of ebony. The price for set of four usual pieces is $175.00, and with hot water kettle and spirit lamp, $275.00.

Twenty Federal Employes Are of German Origin

By a Staff Reporter.

Ottawa, June 1.—According to a return laid on the table of the commons today there are twenty persons of German origin employed by the federal government. Amongst them are H. T. Gussow, Dominion botanist, who came from Germany a few years ago; Herman Holz, foreman at the central experimental farm, who has been 31 years in Canada; A. Kastella, superintendent of dredging, and the second officer of the governent steamer Stanley.

Civil Servants Who Enlist To Get Military Pay Only

By a Staff Reporter.

Ottawa, June 1.—An important order-in-council has been passed providing that civil servants who enlist after May 29 will receive military pay only. According to previous orders civil servants who enlisted received their civil pay with military pay deducted.

GERMANS BEATEN AT LAFFAUX MILL

French Speedily Regain Portions of Front Trenches Lost.

ACTIVITY AT VERDUN

British in Macedonia Carry Out Successful Raid Near Karacteli.

Paris, June 1.—In attacks north of Moulin de Laffaux, northeast of Soissons, the Germans today occupied elements of French advanced trenches, but later were expelled from most of them, according to the official communication issued tonight. The communication says:

"To the north of Moulin de Laffaux the Germans, after a violent bombardment, started an attack, in the course of which they succeeded in gaining a foothold in some portions of our advanced trenches. Our counter-attacks succeeded in the afternoon in throwing back the enemy from most of the elements they had occupied. Cannonading continues rather violent in the entire region.

"Several attempts against our positions on Hill 304 (Verdun sector) were repulsed by our fire. The enemy sustained heavy losses and gained no advantage.

"On the rest of the front intermittent cannonading was reported.

"Aviation: Our special cannon brought down today two German airplanes which fell inside the German lines.

"Belgian communication: Activity by the two artilleries is reported on the Belgian front.

"Army of the Orient, May 31: The British carried out a raid in the region of Karacteli. There has been some fighting between the advanced posts in the direction of Ljumnica (Lymnitsa). Considerable air raiding activity has prevailed by both sides. The enemy's airplanes dropped bombs on Florina and Bukovo. British airplanes have successfully bombed enemy camps near Bogdanci.

DEBATE IN HOUSE ON SHIPBUILDING

Liberals From Maritime Provinces Urge Government to Enter Business.

By a Staff Reporter.

Ottawa, June 1.—The house spent the entire sitting today in committee of supply on the estimates of the marine department. A number of Liberal members from the maritime provinces urged the government to enter into the business of the shipbuilding industry or encourage private enterprise by bounties.

Hon. J. D. Hazen said in reply that an immense amount of shipbuilding was going on in the maritime provinces, at Levis, Montreal, Collingwood, Toronto, Owen Sound, Port Arthur and other lake ports. He said the government was considering some plan for encouraging the construction of wooden vessels of less than 2500 tons.

Upon the adjournment of the house in reply to a question by Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Mr. Hazen announced that the Marconi Company had taken over the wireless stations of the Paulsen Company, at Newcastle, N. B., and on the west coast of Ireland, and would expend $100,000 in improving the service. The government would repeal the legislation passed several years ago confirming its contract with the Paulsen Company, and return to the liquidators of that concern a balance of $50,000 deposit made by the company when the contract was entered into.
