INSURES LOVE AND A HAPPY HOME.

L. W. KNAPP, M. D.

Now any man may quickly cure himself of the effects of suffering from sexual weakness, lost vitality, night losses, varicocele, etc., and enlarge small weak organs to full size and vigor. Simply send your name and address to L. W. Knapp, 2009 Hull Bldg., Detroit, Mich., and he will gladly send the free receipt with full directions so that any man may easily cure himself at home. This is certainly a most generous offer and the following extracts taken from his daily mail show what men think of his generosity.

"Dear Sir—Please accept my sincere thanks for yours of recent date. I have given your treatment a thorough test and the benefit has been exceptional. It has completely cured me up. I am just as vigorous as a young man by and you cannot realize how happy I am."

"Dear Sir:—Your method worked beautifully. Results were exactly what I needed. Strength and vigor have completely returned and enlargement is entirely satisfactory."

"Dear Sir:—Your note was received and I had no trouble in making use of the receipt as directed and can only heartily say it has been to weak men. I am greatly improved in strength and vigor."

All correspondence is strictly confidential, mailed in plain sealed envelope. The receipt is free for the asking and he asks every man to have it.

Li Hung Chang's Frank Reply.

Li Hung Chang visited Philadelphia on September 8 1896, when Charles F Warwick was mayor. The procession started down Broad street. It was soon after this that Mayor Warwick, pointing to the crowds which lined the streets, said:

'Your Excellency, Philadelphia is famous for its beautiful women.'

Li was quiet a few minutes and then made the famous reply:

'I have not seen any yet.'

William Hillman, sr., of Smithville, left a few days ago for St. Louis, having received word that he is an heir, to a large amount of money left by a relative. It is said that the money was left by Mr Hillman's uncle, who formerly lived in England.

Catarrh

Is a constitutional disease.

It originates in a scrofulous condition of the blood and depends on that condition.

It often causes headache and dizziness, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, affects the vocal organs and disturbs the stomach.

It afflicted Mrs. Hiram Shires, Batchellerville, N. Y., twenty consecutive years, deprived her of the sense of smell, made her breathing difficult, and greatly affected her general health.

She testifies that after she had taken many other medicines for it without lasting effect it was radically and permanently cured, her sense of smell restored, and her general health greatly improved, by

Hood's Sarsaparilla

This great medicine has wrought the most wonderful cures of catarrh, according to testimonials voluntarily given. Try it.

More Testimony.

'Tolstoi,' he said, 'tells us he knows from his own experience that women are inferior to men.'

'There!, she replied. 'That proves it.'

'Proves what?'

'The first time I ever saw that man's picture I said he must have had a slouchy mother or she'd have taught him to make a better appearance.'
