The performance of Miss Alexa Sterling of Atlanta, Ga., the southern champion, attracted a large gallery to-day, as the 17-year-old Georgia star played at the top of her game yesterday. She was paired with Miss Laura Kaiser, holder of the women's championship of Chicago. The East had eight players among the survivors of yesterday's round.

The race today was to be over a thirty-mile course. Final heats of the series will be run off to-morrow.

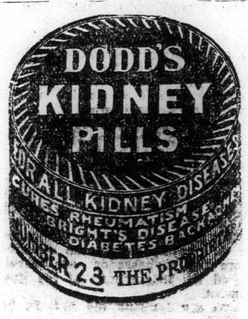
Killifer Injured.

By Special Wire to the Courier.

Philadelphia, Sept. 8.—William Killifer, star catcher of the Philadelphia Nationals, may be out of the game the rest of the season, according to Manager Moran, who returned here last night from Brooklyn. Killifer did not accompany the other members of the team to this city, but remained in New York under the care of a specialist. He felt a twinge in his shoulder in the afternoon game Monday, but after a careful massage he hoped that it was all right again. He had to retire early in yesterday's game, however, because of the injury. Next to Alexander, Killifer is regarded as the most important member of the Phillies' team. He caught Alexander, Mayer and Rixey regularly.

Sergeant of Detectives W. McKenzie and Mrs. McKenzie, of Detroit, are visiting in the city.



JOHNSTON IS NEW TENNIS CHAMPION

Forest Hills, L. I., Sept. 8.—Wm. A. Johnston, of California, is the new national tennis champion. In one of the most sensational matches in the history of the sport he defeated Maurice E. McLoughlin, also of California, at the West Side Tennis Club here yesterday afternoon. A remarkable gallery of about 10,000 people saw the match.

Twenty years old and a champion—the youngest champion in the annals of the game, and a great champion, and a champion at the expense of the most remarkable player of all time, McLoughlin, the conqueror of the wonderful Anthony Wilding, and the crafty Norman Brooks in the last international Davis cup matches—that is, Wm. M. Johnston.

LION-HEARTED CHAMP.

Yet he is more than the champion of the country. He is a modern edition of Richard, the lion-hearted, raised to the zenith of power; for in his match he evinced all-convincing evidence that his light and lithe frame housed the heart of a giant—a courageous giant. McLoughlin too, split the honors with him in this respect.

That one of the two players had to lose was the only regrettable feature of the match. That is the sort of tennis they played, and that is the sort of sportsmanship they displayed. And that, also, was the general expression of the spectators, for when the match was over and Johnston was being carried off the field on the shoulders of Lyle E. Mahan and M. C. Guiler, and McLoughlin by Tom Bundy and Ward Dawson, a mighty roar of cheers that had to be heard to be fully appreciated, went up.

20-YEAR-OLD CYCLONE

Twenty years old! It is almost inconceivable that a kid of such an age should be the cyclonic comet, a player who had established beyond all doubt in two hemispheres his right to be known as the peer of them all. Yet it is an indisputable fact. Johnston earned his victory and fully deserves the title he won, and the honors which will be his. He clearly demonstrated his superiority.

And McLoughlin played better tennis yesterday than he did in any of the tournaments in which he participated since his arrival in the East about six weeks ago. He was the old McLoughlin, the McLoughlin who battered down the defense of the world's best players by the sheer ferocity of his smashing attack and wonderful vitality. The match went four sets, the scores being 1-6, 6-0, 7-5, 10-8. When it was all over, McLoughlin, the mighty, was the more tired of the two. He used his conqueror's shoulders as a support, while Johnston patted him on the back and leaned his own weakening frame against the comet for support.

THISTLE TEAM HELD BANQUET; MANY PRESENT

The Thistle Football team brought its most successful season to a fitting close last evening by holding a banquet for their ladies, at the Tea Pot Inn. This team has the remarkable record of losing only one game throughout the whole season. To add to this, it was not until the semi finals had almost been completed that a goal was scored against them. The three handsome silver cups which the team has won, the J. Hill Charity Cup, Expositor Trophy and the Courier Cup were displayed on the guest table to great advantage. The largest cup contained a bunch of the real old Scotch thistle and down. After the good things had been disposed of the evenings program was proceeded with.

"TO THE KING."

Mr. John Hill acted as chairman of the proceedings and before proposing the toast to the King, he congratulated Captain Anderson on the splendid way in which he had handled the team during the season.

"B AND P. LEAGUE."

The next toast was made by Captain S. Harrington to the Brantford and Paris Football League. This toast was responded to in a fine manner by President J. Leishman and D. Angus.

PLAYED WELL

Chairman J. Hill stated that before proceeding further with the program, he wished to say something about the team and its players. The season which had just been brought to a conclusion had been the hardest the team has experienced for many years. Many of the players had volunteered for active service and so the team had been weakened.

The speaker congratulated Mr. Vipont for his faithfulness during the season. This player had travelled in five miles from the country for every game.

The chairman also congratulated the President of league, J. Leishman, on the hard work and on the time he had devoted to the League during the year.

WELCOMED LADIES.

Mr. Anderson, as president of the Thistles, welcomed the ladies and hoped they would enjoy themselves to the fullest extent.

Although the war was greatly affecting the team's strength he thought that they would again be successful next year.

A FINE PROGRAMME.

Then the musical part of the programme followed. Every number was well rendered and received due amount of applause: Violin and piano duet, Mr. and Mrs. Hannaford; songs by the following, Miss L. Moore, Miss Hannaford, Mrs. Jago, Miss M. Smith, Mr. Jago, Secretary B. Mears, Mr. W. Anderson, and Mr. Cullen. The evening was closed with "God Save the King."

TENNIS

Play in the Western Ontario Tennis championships was continued yesterday afternoon despite the threatening weather, and many matches were run off. Both the Rowing Club and the Reid-Puddicombe courts were kept busy in the afternoon.

In the ladies' match the Goderich players won two out of the three games of singles and carried off the doubles, thus gaining a decisive victory and qualifying to meet the London ladies team in the finals, which will be played this afternoon. Yesterday's game was hard-fought, and the Brantford young ladies made a splendid effort to stave off defeat.

Many good games were staged in the matches among the men. Most of the games were decided in two sets, but occasionally three were necessary. Reid of Simcoe had to win two out of three before he could beat George Buchanan of Brussels. Dr. Tisdale of Delhi also had quite a game with L. D. Hare of St. Catharines. In the men's doubles only one game was played. J. V. Ross and R. O Leckie of Brussels beat Skinner and Coyne of London after three hard sets.

MABON AND NEILL WON "EX." TROPHY

E. J. Mabon and Nathaniel Neill won the Expositor Trophy for the Brantford Club. Last night at five o'clock they lined up against Sid Armitage and McTavish of Paris and caried off the honors. Six shots in the second end put Paris at a handicap, and although they fought gamely and laid down some fine shots, they could not sustain the pace long enough to overcome the lead.

Quite the best game of the tournament took place in the semi-finals when Mabon and Neill disposed of Burnet and Gurley of St. George. It was nip and tuck all the way with the Brantford rink two up on the last end. The last shot for St. George carried the kitty to the back of the green and knocked out two Brantford bowls, but fortunately for the local pair, one of their bowls was well back and St. Geeorge got only one shot and lost the game.

The following was the score by ends of the final:

Paris	302	300	002	011	010	002	—	15
B. Club	060	021	120	100	101	210	—	18

With good weather the remaining games will be disposed of this afternoon. Six teams are left in the fifth round of the El Fair, and these will be played at the Brantford Club at 1.30; the semi-finals and finals will follow.
