HARTFORD
FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY
Connecticut, United States
Incorporated in 1810—with a Capital of $150,000.

THIS long established Institution has for more than twenty-six years transacted its extensive business on the most just and liberal principles—paying its losses with honourable promptness.

During this period have settled all their losses without compelling the insured, in any instance to resort to a Court of Justice. The present Board of Directors pledge themselves, in this particular, fully to maintain the high reputation of the Company. It insures on the most favorable terms every description of property against LOSS OR DAMAGE BY FIRE but takes no marine risks.

Application for insurance may be made either personally or by letter to the Secretary of the Company, or to its Agents, who are appointed in many of the principal Towns and Cities in the United States, and in the British Provinces.

PRESENT BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

Elisphalet Terry, Samuel Williams,
James H. Wells, F J Huntington,
S. H. Huntington, Elisha Colt,
H. Huntington, E. B. Ward, and Albert Day.

Elisphalet Terry, President.

James G. Bolles, Sec'y.

☞ The Subscriber having been appointed Agent for St. Andrews for the above mentioned Company is now prepared to take risks on every description of Property against loss or damage by Fire.

THE HISTORY and STATISTICS of the BRITISH and FOREIGN NEWSPAPER PRESS. By P. L. SIMMONDS, Fellow of the Statistical Society of London, &c. Dedicated by permission, to His Grace the Duke of Richmond, K. G., Lord Lieutenant of Sussex, &c &c.

"The History of Newspapers and of Periodical Literature, in general, remains to be written, and were the task executed by an individual of competent ability, and with due care, it would be a most interesting and important work."—McCulloch's Commercial Dictionary.

"The Newspaper is the chronicle of civilization, the common reservoir into which every stream pours its living waters, at which every man may come and drink. It is the Newspaper which gives to liberty its practical life—its constant observation—its perpetual vigilance—its unrelaxing activity—The Newspaper is a daily and a sleepless watchman, that reports to you every danger which menaces the institutions of your country, and its interests at home or abroad. The Newspaper informs legislation of public opinion, and it informs the people of the acts of legislation; thus keeping up that constant sympathy, the good understanding between people and legislators, which conduces to the maintenance of order, and prevents the stern necessity for revolution."—*Sir E.
