U. S. DOLLAR CONTINUES TO DECLINE IN GERMANY

Berlin, Dec. 1.—The fall in the price of the United States dollar was further accentuated today with a corresponding reaction on the stock market, whose panic offerings of stock produced a general break in price levels. Quotations in many cases slumped precipitately. Several banks suffered economic losses and serious complications or failures are feared.

After the official close of the exchange the dollar recovered somewhat on a rumor that in return for a moratorium the allies would insist upon such severe conditions that the German government would find itself unable to accept them.

SCHNEIDER-BULL BOUT TO BE PROFESSIONAL

Ottawa, Dec. 2.—(By the Canadian Press).—More than ordinary interest attaches in the local sporting world to the bouts here tonight in which Bert Schneider, Montreal, former world's amateur champion, meets Frankie Bull, Toronto, welterweight, and formerly lightweight champion of the Dominion.

It is eight years since professional boxing held sway here, and at the first revival two weeks ago the seat sale constituted a record.
