Holloway's Pills, an undoubted Remedy for Asthma.—Mr. Ellis Wilson, of Fredericton, N.B., had for five years very severe attacks of asthma, which deprived him of bodily rest night and day; the cough at times almost choked him, and caused him continually to spit blood, he was never safe either eating or drinking, and his family were distressed beyond measure to see him gradually reduced to almost a skeleton. Hollowsy's Pills, in his case, were as usual efficacious. This gentleman used them for eleven weeks, and they effected a perfect cure; he feels himself stronger now than he has been for the last fifteen years.

☞ Thursday next the 14th instant, has been set apart for general prayer and humiliation, by Proclamation in the Royal Gazette.

Passengers in the American ship Miles Standish sailed for Liverpool on Wednesday—John Johnston, Esq., Stipendiary Magistrate of this City, Lady and Daughter.

PULMONARY CONSUMPTION

Has until within a few years, been generally considered INCURABLE, although many medical men of the highest standing, among whom we might mention Laenne and his friend Boyle—both distinguished authors, admit that this much dreaded disease may be cured, even in its advanced stages, when the lungs are not completely disorganized. The remedy which we now offer,

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, not only emanates from a regular Physician, but has been well tested in all complaints for which it is recommended. A Physician in Maine says:

"I have recommended the use of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry for diseases of the lungs, for two years past, and many bottles to my knowledge have been used by my patients, all with beneficial results. In two cases where it was thought confirmed Consumption had taken place, the Wild Cherry effected a cure."

From the Boston Daily Bee, March 28th, 1849.

—CURE YOUR COUGH.—Are you afflicted with this distressing annoyance, get rid of it. You have only to procure a bottle of Dr. Wistar's Wild Cherry Balsam to ensure this. It seldom fails when taken in season to effect a cure, and always relieves even the worst cases of diseased lungs. Many physicians recommend it to their patients, and speak of it in the highest terms in letters to the proprietor, citing cases of cures where other means had failed.

Look out for imitations and counterfeits. Remember the original and only genuine article always bears the written signature of I. BUTTS, upon the outside wrapper.

For sale wholesale and retail by the General Agent, SETH W. FOWLE, 138 Washington street, Boston, Mass., and by his sub-agents throughout the country.

St. John, N.B., March 27th, 1855.

Mr. Stevens:

Dear Sir,—It is with pleasure I make known to you the opinion of myself and many others of the MELODEON purchased from you a few months ago. This instrument manufactured by Mason & Hamlin, has given the utmost satisfaction, both in Tone, Touch, and Power, and I do freely, and cheerfully admit it is the best I have ever seen. Since the introduction of this instrument in our Choir Practice we find a great improvement, thereby sustaining the Voice, and procuring a perfect Tone to every Note.

I am dear Sir, yours truly,

Daugerreotype Rooms,
BARLOW'S BUILDING,
Corner of King Street and Market Square.

THOMAS H. ELLISON,
Proprietor.

THE Proprietor begs leave to inform the Public that having added a large quantity of Daguerreotype Materials to his former stock, and having at considerable expense obtained the latest improvements in the Art, he is now prepared to furnish true life like LIKENESSES at a cheaper rate, and better executed than can be procured on this side of the Atlantic.

He would also, inform the public that he has obtained a thorough practical knowledge of taking Pictures, Likenesses &c., in the new Art of an invention just discovered of first taking Daugerreotypes on Glass, and then transferring them to Paper, by the agency of light, in unlimited numbers, as from Copper Plate; he is enabled with the Daugerreotype instrument to produce on Paper views of City and Country residences, copy Daugerreotypes and take Portraits from life with the unerring hand of nature, rivalling in beauty the finest Engraving. The public are respectfully invited to call at the Rooms and examine specimens.

The proprietor will also furnish Daugerreotypes in Tenescope Cases, by means of which the Likeness is made to have the appearance of life. This is a new description of Case, and one which has since its manufacture been generally admired by all who have witnessed them.

A large number of Specimens of all descriptions are to be seen at the Rooms, and the public are invited to call and inspect for themselves.

J. RUSSELL SPALDING'S

ROSEMARY

AND CASTOR OIL

IS decidedly the nicest and best toilet article in the world for the Hair. The oldest chemist who have examined it testify that as an agent for preserving the Hair and promoting its growth it surpasses any other article.

After a long series of experiments, Mr. SPALDING succeeded, by an intricate process, in freeing the Castor Oil used in this preparation from its peculiar odor and all greasiness, and in blending it with the ROSEMARY, &c., in such manner as to form the cheapest and best OIL OR WASH Ever made, for which all who desire to preserve a good head of Hair until late in life, will be grateful.

The Sale of the Article has been Immense!

And its Success Astonishing—Use it if you wish.

1st, To beautify the hair.
2d. To curl the hair elegantly.
3d. To remove dandruff effectually.
4th. To restore the hair to bald heads.
5th. To give the whiskers a beautiful appearance.
6th. To prevent the hair from falling off.
7th. To cure all diseases of the scalp.
8th. To dress false hair richly.
9th. To cure the headache.
10th. To kill hair eaters.
11th. To keep the hair from turning
12th. To dress children's hair beautifully, and lay the foundation for a good head of hair.
13th. If you do not wish to grease and soil the bonnet, cap, hat, pillow, and everything coming in contact with the hair, use SPALDING'S ROSEMARY, and be sure to get the Genuine of the manufacturer and proprietor.
