FAMILY OF TEN WON THE PRIZE

Largest On the Grounds at the Foresters' Celebration in Queen's Park.

SOME SPLENDID SPORTS

Each and Every Event Was Keenly Contested—Seventh Regiment Trooped the Colors.

There was only one drawback to the programme of sports at the Foresters' celebration in Queen's Park yesterday, and that was that it was so long and so unusually interesting that it kept the crowd in the stands until nearly 6 o'clock.

Every event was keenly contested, and those in charge of the arrangements had introduced some new features that made a great hit with the crowd.

One of the most interesting, as well as amusing, events, was a potato race on horseback, in which the contestants were Campbell Becher, W. H. Smith, W. E. Robinson, T. Smith, Major Lamb and Jack Smallman. Those taking part, armed with long, pointed sticks, in imitation of the lances of the knights of old, had to ride to a barrel filled with potatoes, stab one, and ride with it to another barrel, and deposit it there. This was more difficult than it might seem, as the other contestants were at liberty to surround anyone having a potato and knock it from the point of his stick, and they were not slow to take advantage of this privilege, and some great skirmishes resulted, to the huge amusement of the crowd. In the ten minutes allowed, W. H. Smith succeeded in getting seven potatoes, and Major Lamb and Tom Smith each had five. There was another contest then between the major and Mr. Smith, and for some minutes they fought to keep each other from getting potatoes. Finally, however, Mr. Smith got two to the major's one, and won second place.

High Jumping.

Another event that took well with the crowd was an exhibition of high jumping, by Miss Wilkinson, W. H. H. Smith, T. Smith, Campbell Becher and W. E. Robinson. The horses were in fine shape, and the riders all proved their horsemanship in a manner that won the plaudits of the crowd, particularly Miss Wilkinson, who was repeatedly applauded.

A novelty that interested everyone was a competition for the soldiers present, which consisted in raising a tent and making it ready for occupancy in the shortest possible time. The setting of the pegs, the draw of the pegs, and the general appearance of the tent, were all counted. Fire Chief Aitken and Harry Fowler acted as judges, and they had no hesitation in awarding the prize to the team from E Company of the Seventh Regiment, whose tent was complete and in fine shape in 5 minutes and 25 seconds, and was taken down again and packed in the bag in 2 minutes and 40 seconds. The team was composed of Color-Sergt. Kemp, Corp. Johnston and Ptes. Bowden, F. Radgely and Slater. C Company men, in charge of Sergt. Warwick, raised their tent in 5 minutes and 24 seconds, but it was not so neatly done as the tent of E Company, and in taking it down it took them 2 minutes and 55 seconds. Teams from G and H Companies also competed.

Trooped the Colors.

The Seventh Regiment men made a tremendous hit when they marched past in front of the stand and saluted Mayor Beattie. Later they trooped the colors, and although the ground in the ring was not particularly suited for steady marching, and the dust rose in clouds from the sand, the men went through the impressive manoeuvre with a precision and dash that won great applause from the stands.

The tug-of-war arranged between the teams from Perrin's and the Empire Brass was short and sweet. Perrin's men pulled the Empire Brass team in a couple of minutes and won quite easily. Perrin's team was composed of Messrs. Evans, Anchor, Seager, J. Sanders, R. Campbell and H. Sanders, with Thomas Wedderburn as captain.

Baby Show.

For the women, and there were thousands of them present, the baby show was the big event of the afternoon, and the judges, Ald. Tancock, Cooper and Donnelly, had their hands full for an hour, trying to pick out the prettiest of the large number shown. As a result of their judging the following won first prizes:

Violet E. L. Warren, 934 Dundas street.

Fred Richard Mills, 22 Brydges street.

Wilbert Smith, 984 Queen's avenue.

Joseph E. Moss, 423 Dorinda street.

Albert W. Sheppard.

Kenneth Warfield, 436 Woodman avenue.

R. Carswell, Elgin street.

Thelma Ryan, 486 Pall Mall street.

Everett McLaren, 336 Adelaide street.

Ross Murray, 637 Queen's avenue.

Lily and Frank Tamling, twins, 744 Princess avenue.

Doris E. Self, 751 Dundas street.

The following win second prizes:

Florence and Allen Mills, 435 Charlotte street.

Beulth T. Reynolds, 524 Grey street.

Ronald Lee, 924 Lorne avenue.

Norman Johnson, Chelsea Green.

Evelyn Smith, 298 Grey street.

Irene Birch, 14 Egerton street.

Wm. K. Stinchcombe, 18 Pipe Line road.

Amy Dicks, 516 Charlotte street.

Alice Dickenson, 37 Weston street.

Catherine Norton, 12 Thornton avenue.

Kenneth Sandercott, 57 Pahace street.

Wm. McMurdo, Dillabough street.

Special prizes were awarded as follows: Terence Menzies, 104 Mary street; John Rumpf, East End P. O.; Norman Thompson, 227 Grey street; Gordon Murray, 634 Lorne avenue; Pearl Pratten, 332 Egerton street; Jas. Branch, 960 Colborne street; Ernest Weitzeel, 102 Oak street; Kathleen Beel, 532 Elizabeth street; Mary Thompson, 227 Grey street.

A Big Family.

A special prize offered for the largest family on the grounds went to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burt, of Elias street, who were present with their ten children.

A three-mile motor race provided the thrills for the afternoon. There were seven starters, and they put up a magnificent race, going after one another, and using every possible means to win. W. G. Tilt, one of the contestants, had a machine that has made 80 miles an hour, but on account of the short turns he was unable to let it out, although at one time he made 50 miles an hour on the stretch. The smaller power machines, however, were able to keep a more steady pace, and distanced him. A. Thorpe won and made the three miles in the remarkably fast time of 4 minutes and 17 seconds, Bert Johnson was second, and Wm. Birrell lapped W. Walker and beat him out for third place.

An Accident.

A half-mile horse race also provided good sport. The only accident of the afternoon happened in this event, when a horse ridden by Ernie Griffith fell, and threw its rider. Fortunately, neither man nor horse were seriously hurt. T. Smith finished first, Rolly Shoritt second and Major Lamb third.

A one-mile relay race was won by the London team, composed of Messrs. Myers, Ashford, Jaggard and Allen, who defeated a team from the Seventh Regiment.

An exhibition of Scotch and Irish dancing that has perhaps never been equalled at any local show, was given. The judges, Sergt. McDonald, George Angus and Andrew Templeton, awarded the prizes as follows:

Highland Fling—J. Agnes Smith, 2 Victor Riddell, 3 E. Thompson.

Irish Jig—1 Agnes Smith, 2 Gladys Cember, 3 N. Thompson.

The Winners.

The winners in the various races were as follows:

The evening entertainment proved a great success. The crowd was even larger than that which came in the afternoon, and it was enthusiastic throughout. The first number was a musical programme by the bands of the Seventh and the new London band, and it was greatly enjoyed.

This was followed by an exhibition of the work the Boy Scouts are doing, and the boys showed that their training in first aid and other work has been most efficient. They were heartily applauded.

A team from the Seventh Regiment showed some striking feats in the way of physical drill, and their exhibition was applauded throughout.

The duplicate coronation, in which a king and queen were crowned, was well received, and a grand exhibition of fireworks brought a most successful holiday to a close.

A Success.

Everywhere in London yesterday the greatest credit was given the Canadian Order of Foresters for the splendid enterprise they showed in arranging such a fine show for the holiday, and for their success in bringing into London so many thousands of people.

"The best part of it is," said one of the leading members to The Advertiser today, "that we not only kept the people here and brough thousands in, but we made it a financial success. The crowds last night and in the afternoon will more than pay all our expenses, and we are well pleased with the support the citizens and everyone else gave us."
