AMERICAN TROTTING ASSOCIATION.

Several Canadian Owners and Horses Reinstated at Yesterday's Meeting.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—At the Board of Review American Trotting Association this afternoon case the of E. D. Houston, Manchester, Vt., was settled by reinstating Houston. Ira W. Davis of Webster, Mass., suspended in 1891 for "ringing," was reinstated. The mare Mollie A. Tempest, who was ruled off at Cleveland, was reinstated. Z. Dion and his stallion Black Diamond, were reinstated.

The following, who have been expelled and temporarily reinstated, were allowed to remain in till further action of the board or during good behavior: E. E. Wallace of Gananoque, Ont.; Frank Wallingford of Boston; A. Russell of Fond du Lac, Wis.

The following were permanently reinstated: J. J. Daly of Lindsay, Ont., and the bay mare, Minnie Belle; Albert Reed of Manchester, N.H., and John Maheux of Stanstead, Que.; John B. McCoy of St. John, N.B., who had been temporarily reinstated, was permanently reinstated.

In the case of John McLeod of Richmond, Que., for alleged falsification of time in the record of Gypsy Maid, was decided to be 2.29¼, as announced by the judges.

William Beach of Gananoque, Ont., was fined $50 for starting a horse in the wrong class. The horse was declared eligible to start in his proper class.

The board to-night disposed of all the cases remaining on the calendar.

The application of Kendall and Goodhue of Terre Haute, Ind., to recover third and fourth monies for the race at Fleetwood, when Doble drove the colt Margrave, was denied. The money was withheld according to the printed conditions, as there were only two starters in the race. This decision is of importance as it disposes of the question as to whether the full amount of a guaranteed purse must be paid out when there are but two starters.

The competitors for the President's medals and Dalton cup and rink medals will start last of next week. The contest for the President's medals is divided into four groups of ten rinks each.

New Cycling Club—The Columbia.

The notice of a meeting to be held in Dingman's Hall last evening to form a new wheelmen's club resulted in a well-attended and enthusiastic gathering. It was resolved to name the new organization "the Columbia Cycling Club," and a meeting for election of officers will be held next Monday. In the meantime Messrs. J. Griffiths, J. Martin, J. B. Murray and J. E. Willows are in charge.

Queen City Homers.

The Queen City Homing Pigeon Club held a meeting at the house of the president, Joseph Jessiman, Tuesday night. There was a large attendance. The business was to get the names of members that are to import birds from the United States shortly. The number they will import will be about 14 pairs. A committee composed of F. Campbell and H. Davis was appointed to get up a schedule of races for 1894, to be presented at the next meeting the last Thursday of this month.

PEIXOTO'S WARSHIP SPOILED.

A Traitor Breaks the Cruiser America's Machinery, Causing Her to Lay To For Several Weeks.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—The Herald's special from Rio Janeiro says the rebel warships Aquidaban and Republica are both anchored at Ilina Grande, the quarantine station, not far from Rio Janeiro. The former, which is Mello's flagship, is undergoing repairs for injuries she suffered while running the gauntlet of the loyal forts at the entrance of Rio harbor the other day. The position she now occupies, out of the range of Peixoto's guns, is much more favorable for this purpose than when she lay in the bay. It is presumed also that these two formidable men-of-war have decided to meet the expected vessels of Peixoto's newly-purchased fleet in that neighborhood.

President Peixoto has imprisoned Baron de Santatecla and his men, and will hold them as hostages for the lives of prisoners now in the hands of federals.

The America Disabled.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—The Brazilian cruiser America, which sailed from New York for Rio Janeiro Nov. 26, for the purpose of fighting Mello's warships, is lying at Bridgetown, Barbados, so seriously disabled by the act of an unknown traitor among her crew that she will probably be unable to continue her voyage for several weeks. One of the vessel's valves, among the most vulnerable parts of a ship's machinery, has been purposely broken by an unknown member of the crew.

The cruiser Nictheroy, which left St. Thomas with the America for Rio last Sunday night, has continued the voyage alone.

Still Banging Away at Rio.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—This afternoon the following cablegram, dated to-day, was received by Secretary Herbert from Capt. Picking, commanding the United States naval forces in Brazilian waters:

RIO DE JANEIRO, Dec. 7.—Situation unchanged since departure of Aquidaban. Firing between forts and between insurgent vessels and guns on Nictheroy side continue daily. Insurgents forced to anchor further from shore.

HON. R. LAFLAMME DEAD.

The Ex-Minister of Justice Expires Somewhat Suddenly.

MONTREAL, Q., Dec. 7.—Hon. Rudolphe Laflamme, Q.C., Minister of Justice during the Mackenzie regime, and for years the head of the French bar in Montreal, died of bronchitis after a few days' illness at 2.45 this afternoon.

HAMILTON ATHLETES

Propose to Have an Athletic, Musical and Literary Club House.

HAMILTON, Dec. 7.—A meeting of the representatives of various athletic organizations in the city was held in Architect Edwards' office yesterday afternoon to discuss the details of the scheme for converting the old postoffice building into a home for all the athletic, musical and literary organizations of Hamilton. The meeting was altogether informal. There were present: Messrs. Sanford Evans and C. R. McCullough of the Canadian Club; E. H. Ambrose, T. W. Lester and W. J. Grant, Royal Hamilton Yacht Club; E. S. Glassco, Hamilton Football Club; C. Pewis, Leander Rowing Club; D'Arcy Martin, Hamilton Cricket Club, and Mr. R. B. Harris.

The gentlemen present examined the architect's plans of the proposed changes in and additions to the building. Mr. Evans had a small plan for a building to be erected in the centre of the lot between James and Hughson-streets, to contain a gymnasium, bowling alley, billiard rooms and baths.

After some discussion it was decided to adjourn the meeting until a week from Saturday evening next, when it is hoped that every sporting organization in the city will be represented.

Yesterday afternoon among the suggestions made was one that the proposed Hamilton Athletic Association take over the Leander Club House, the Yacht Club House and the Hamilton cricket grounds, a bicycle track to be constructed on the latter. The grounds would be used by the cricket, football, tennis, lacrosse, baseball and bicycle clubs.

ATLANTIC MAIL CONTRACTS.

Pall Mall Emphasizes the Importance of British Boats Carrying the Mails.

LONDON, Dec. 7.—As the time of the expiration of the trans-Atlantic mail contracts approaches considerable discussion arises as to how the new contracts will be awarded.

The Pall Mall Gazette to-day in a special review of the subject says that the best trans-Atlantic passages are made from Queenstown. The outward passages from that port are 10 hours and 53 minutes quicker than from Southampton, and the homeward passage 16 hours and 32 minutes better than the eastward passage to Southampton. Passengers embarking at Queenstown have a day longer in London than those taking passage from Southampton. If all passengers sailed from Southampton they would avoid the discomfort of embarking at Liverpool or Queenstown. Where time is not an object Southampton is preferable. The paper adds that it thinks Liverpool will retain a large share of the passenger traffic because of its proximity to the Midlands. The steamers sailing from Liverpool are under the British flag, while those sailing from Southampton are under foreign flags. It would be the height of folly, the paper declares, for England to give the mail contracts to foreigners to help them fight English shipowners. It further says it does not think that England will give the contracts to foreigners, who, in the event of war, would withdraw their vessels and leave the country without a Trans-Atlantic mail service.

The article refers to the enormous expense incurred by British shipowners to enable their vessels to conform to the Admiralty regulations.

FROM OTTAWA.

$3500 Awarded a Brakeman for Loss of Both Legs.

OTTAWA, Dec. 7.—Controller of Customs Wallace will leave for Woodbridge on Saturday night to spend Sunday at home. On Monday he will attend the annual meeting of the West York Liberal-Conservative Association to be held at Weston. On Tuesday he will probably be in Toronto.

David Rice, a brakesman on the Ottawa and Gatineau Valley Railway, who was seriously injured at Farrellton a year ago while coupling cars and who sued the company for $10,000 damages, has been awarded a verdict of $3500 by the jury which tried the case at Aylmer, Que. Rice lost both legs by the accident, which it was claimed was caused by a defective switch.

Mr. D. S. Hooper, representing the Brooklyn Cooper Company, who is here for the purpose of purchasing elm staves, said to a reporter to-day that if his company could find a suitable location in Ottawa it was probable they would start a sugar refinery here, which would employ a large number of hands all the year round.

"WANG" AT THE GRAND.

A Large Audience Greets the Regent of Siam.

"Wang" went with a swing last night at the Grand. It pleased everyone with its whimsical absurdities and grotesque burlesque. It is a comic opera which has all its tendencies towards burlesque and broad farcical parody. The success of the company lay decidedly in acting. However, the musical performance, though not of the highest order, was of that popular stamp which never fails to please. The choruses were given with a dash and vim that carried the audience with them, and the free and easy style of the company throughout placed them at home with the house from the rise of the curtain until the close of the performance.

No show that has visited the city this season can boast of so many special features in the line of legitimate comic opera as "Wang."

The scenery was gorgeous and appropriate in every detail, and the costuming rich, varied and artistic. "Wang" is filled to the brim with local hits and very, very broad jokes, which never failed to hit the mark.

Edwin Stevens, who played "Wang," has neither a sweet voice nor one of very great register, but his acting and comic singing were inimitable and made him a prime favorite.

Joseph S. Grensfelder, as Colonel Fracasse, military instructor of the Siamese troops, showed decided genius in his make-up and Pepat, keeper of the Royal Elephant (taken by Frank Casey), was grotesque in the extreme. Virginia Earl as Mataya, Crown Prince of Siam, has a very pretty voice, which, though not powerful, was quite pleasant. She was quite a favorite with the audience. Miss M. Florence Drake has a good voice and sang two solos in good style, the latter of which, "Every Rose Must Have its Thorn," was exceedingly well received. Many of the scenes were genuine comedy. The departure of the Regent with the widow and her extensive family in the royal barge was funny in the extreme. The trio in the second act, in which the Regent, the Prince and Col. Fracasse were repeatedly recalled until the Regent had to remind the audience that "there were others."

"A Trip to the Moon" Next Week.

The wonderful and novel "Urania" scenic spectacles, "A Trip to the Moon" and "Chaos to Man," will be presented at the Grand Opera House the week commencing Monday, Dec. 11. The imaginary voyage taken by the audience in a "Trip to the Moon," under the guidance of Garrett P. Serviss, has proved, upon the whole, perhaps the best attraction of the "Urania" series. In Boston and New York crowded houses at the Tremont Theatre and in the great Carnegie Music Hall have again and again testified their pleasure in the novel entertainment. Incidental to the "Trip to the Moon" there is an illustrated discourse on the mysteries of of astrology, in which is shown how the signs in the heavens were interpreted by the mystics of past ages, and how horoscopes were constructed, by means of which the fates of men and nations were foretold.

"The Hustler."

Of the many specialties incidentally introduced into "The Hustler," which will be the attraction next week at Jacobs & Sparrow's Opera House, the most laughable is the tenminute monolog of John Kernell. In the richest and fullest of Irish brogues this inimitable anecdotal humorist, after a off story after story, each one begun while the audience is shouting with laughter at the tale immediately preceding. Many of these little tales have a touch local to the city in which they are being related.

Academy of Music.

The world is supposed to be large, and, as a matter of fact, it is; but who has not heard of the wonderful English prestidigitateur, Mr. Charles Bes wick, and his clever assistant, Miss Annie Moore, the mind-reader, who are to appear at the Academy of Music all of next week. Previous to his departure from London on a world-circumventing tour he appeared in that city for six consecutive weeks in the Royal Agricultural Hall. Manager Conner of the Academy is so delighted with the success of his reduction in prices of admission that he says, notwithstanding the large expense connected with this engagement, they will prevail as usual throughout next week.

Japanese Girls At Musee.

The troups of 10 Japanese dancing girls who appear at Moore's Musee-Theatre next week came to this country as one of the special features of the World's Fair, but owing to a misunderstanding with the exhibition people they have been lying idle in Chicago ever since.

A few days ago J. H. Moore heard of their performance, and after satisfying himself that everything was satisfactory engaged them to appear at his theatre, and so they make their first Canadian bow on Monday next. The costumes are marvels of prettiness and design and were made especially for this occasion by the Royal Court Costumers. Their scenery, stage effects, etc., were also brought from Japan. The James B. Donovan Irish Comedy Company will also appear in the theatre.

To-night an extra number will be added to the theatre program, when the well-known local team of burlesque trapeze artists, Waid and Campbell, will make their Toronto debut.

To-Night's Concert.

The grand concert in the pavilion this evening promises to be a rich treat to all who attend. First-class reserved seats can be secured to-day at Nordheimer's at 25 and 50 cents, and this fact should crowd the building to hear the eminent artists who furnish the program.

A long procession of diseases start from a torpid liver and impure blood. Take it, as you ought, when you feel the first symptoms (languor, loss of appetite, dullness, depression). As an appetizing, restorative tonic, to repel disease and build up the needed flesh and strength, there's nothing to equal it. It rouses every organ into healthful action, purifies and enriches the blood, braces up the whole system, and restores health and vigor.
Mrs. SUSAN GODDERT, of Rice, Benton County, Minn., writes: "I have taken three bottles of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and feel quite well and strong now, so that I am able to do my work without the least fatigue."

DOMINION Y.M.C.A.

A Canadian Association Formed—Officers Elected For the Year.

A meeting of delegates from the various Y.M.C. Associations of Canada was held at the Y.M.C.A. building, Elm-street, yesterday for the purpose of organizing a central association to be called the Dominion Young Women's Christian Association. The idea originated at the World's Congress held at Chicago last spring, when Mrs. Hoodless of Hamilton was elected by the Canadian delegates as the provisional president of the Dominion Association, and was asked to take steps to organize the association.

For this purpose Mrs. Hoodless, assisted by the Toronto Y.W.C.A., the University Y.W.C.A. and the Woman's Medical Y.W.C.A., called a convention of delegates from the different associations throughout the country for the purpose of organizing.

The delegates present were Mesdames Newcombe, Chadwick and Williams and Misses Strachan and Anna Helen of Hamilton, Miss Weir of London, Mrs. Fairburn and Miss Barker of Peterboro and Miss Saywell of Alma College, St. Thomas.

An interesting address on "Association Work in Colleges" was given by Miss Price, secretary of the International W. and Y.W.C.A.'s of the United States.

These officers were elected: President, Miss Wright of Ottawa; vice-presidents, Mesdames Hoodless of Hamilton, K. Green of Montreal, Macpherson of Halifax; corresponding secretary, Miss Weir of London; recording secretary, Miss Aikins, Toronto; president of the University Association, Miss M. T. Robertson; treasurer, Mrs. J. K. Macdonald, Toronto; the Executive Committee to be formed of the presidents of local associations.

It was decided to hold the first annual convention in October, 1894, the Executive to fix the place of meeting.

In the evening a concert was held in the hall, Mr. J. J. McLaren, Q.C., occupying the chair.

A SWINDLER TRIPPED UP

By a Careless Official Putting His Letter in the Wrong Box.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Dec. 7.—Yesterday a man calling himself G. Franklin was discovered to be using the name of the Vancouver Trust and Loan Company to work a fraudulent lottery scheme. The tickets are disposed of in eastern Canada and the United States. The tickets read:

VANCOUVER TRUST AND LOAN CO., CAPITAL STOCK $100,000.

This is to certify that the holder has paid this company $1, which entitles him to one share in this company.
(Signed) G. FRANKLIN.

The fraud was detected by a letter addressed to Franklin being put in the Trust and Loan Company's box.

THE TRAIN PARTED.

In the Resultant Wreck One Man Was Killed.

WILMINGTON, Del., Dec. 7.—At Stanton, five miles below here, on Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railway, to-day a northbound freight train parted and the 10 cars that broke loose crashed into the main train, causing a frightful wreck. Four cars rolled down an embankment and 15 were crushed to fragments, blocking both tracks. Three tramps, riding from Washington on their way to Binghamton, N.Y., their home, were caught in the wreck. One, name unknown, was killed.

IT WAS A COLD TIME FOR SNOW.
A Crim Con Case in Which a Well-Known Bailiff is the Defendant.
John Snow, night watchman at Williams' Iron works, has commenced a suit for damages against Bailiff Patrick J. McCormick. The amount asked for is $500. Snow charges the server of writs with alienating the affections of Mrs. Snow. McCormack formerly boarded with the Snows for several months. It was during that time that Mr. Snow noticed the frozen demeanor of his wife towards himself.
It will be remembered that this case was brought to light last winter, when Mr. Snow found his wife hidden in a vault in McCormack's apartment. An effort was made to smooth the matter over, but seemingly without effect.

$5000 FOR LYNCHING.
Heirs of the Italians Lynched in New Orleans Recover Damages.
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 7.—The jury in the Italian lynching case to-day returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $5000. The original suit was for $30,000, of which $10,000 was for punitive damages, $10,000 the amount which the deceased would probably have earned during the remainder of his life and $10,000 for his fright and suffering before and while being lynched. The first two amendments were disapproved by the charge of Judge Boarman. There are six more cases and they will be tried in succession, beginning on the 18th. Similar verdicts will probably be rendered in each case, as it was agreed this morning that the same jury should try each case. There will be no appeal from the verdict just rendered.

CALL ME "MR." PRENDERGAST.
Mayor Harrison's Murderer Particular as to the Way He is Referred to.
CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—Judge Brentano's courtroom was filled this morning with men and women when the second day of Eugene Prendergast's trial opened. Before recess was taken four jurors had been sworn in. The prisoner arose in his dignity and resented being spoken of as "Prendergast" during the examination of veniremen. Assistant State Attorney Todd was the object of his resentment. When the lawyer called the defendant "Prendergast" as others had done he turned in his seat to say: "I object to being called 'Prendergast'; let him call me Mr. Prendergast when he refers to me." "All right, Mr. Prendergast," said Attorney Todd.
