REAL RACING AT THE MANCHESTER TRACK

Amateur Driver Warned After Losing Heat Wins Next Three.

Galt, July 9.—The second meeting of 1920 was staged by the Manchester Racing Association at their beautiful track today. Three classes were carded for decision and they were all won after real racing in split heats. In the 2.14 pace Alfred A. won the first heat in 2.17½ quite comfortable. The judges were not satisfied with the drive put up by Mr. Walsh behind Hal H. He was called to the stand and warned and he won the second heat in 2.16¼, and the two following in easy fashion.

The 2.30 pace was a hard fought race, Alvin Merrill was installed favorite, but Jim Todd Jr., b.g., by Jim Todd (2.08¼) beat him and made him like it, altho the favorite won the second heat in 2.17¼. Jim Todd Jr., from second position, went around the favorite and finished under a hard drive all thru the stretch in 2.16¼, the fastest heat of the race. Jim Todd also won the fourth and deciding heat.

The 2.24 trot was won by Gossett Bird by Peter Gossett, a son of Peter the Great. Bennie Bingen, who won the two first heats in 2.23¼ and 2.19¼, was second in the next three heats, and at the conclusion of the fifth heat while turning after the heat was over was unfortunate to break his front leg. John Meade's Wilson Todd, by Jim Todd, won the fourth heat. The attendance was hardly up to the mark, but the association expects a banner crowd for Saturday. With three good races on the card there should be a good day's sport. Results:
