On living in burying the dead. The bodies which have been discovered have been borne through the streets to their silent and narrow homes in coffins, trees and whatever else could be obtained for them. And numberless other distressing cases of this kind, it is our painful duty to notice the melancholy fate of Deputy-Assistant-Commissary-General Flanner, who, with his wife, five children, his niece and two servants were all buried under the ruins of their dwelling on Wednesday night, from which they were not taken until the following morning—his unhappy wife and two of the children alone having survived. At St. Ann's many of His Majesty's troops have been killed and upwards of 100 wounded by the falling of the barracks. The seat of government, the Custom House, the Girls central school, (the Boy's school only partially damaged) and in fact most of the public buildings of the Island lie in masses of ruin. Several Speights' boats returning from the leeward from this, were upset on their way, and almost every soul on board of them drowned—among whom we regret to say, were our fellow laborer the joint proprietor of this paper—Mr. J. Wooding, and his brother Mr. Thomas Wooding, who perished, with fifteen others belonging to the same boat, on the fatal night of Wednesday.

"We cannot conclude this appalling account, without observing that of the many persons with whom we have conversed on the subject, and who experienced the great storm of 1780, all concur in the opinion that greater injury has been done on the island by the latter than the former—a circumstance which will more forcibly convey to the reader an idea of the violence of the storm of Wednesday night, which lasted eight hours only, when the duration of that of 1780 is supposed to have been 48 hours. The most remarkable phenomenon attending the storm of Thursday morning was the sudden gusts of wind, which, instead of thunder, invariably accompanied the most vivid flashes of lightning, and came with a force not to be withstood. —Hollow, subterranean noises were also heard, and some imagine we were also visited during the night with earthquakes—this, however, we do not vouch for, as we were not sensible of them.

"We have hastily thrown together these few particulars, amid the scenes of indescribable horror and confusion, and shall continue to furnish such additional ones as may reach us.

"The following is a list of the vessels stranded in the Bay:—Barks Ireland and Arethusa; brigs Exchange, Quebec, Decagon, Mary, Keziah, Alliance, Antoinette, Horatio Nelson, Elire; brigantines Seaward Hands and Heroine; schooners Ark and Perseverance; small boats Barbados and Montague."

Here ends the account in the Barbados paper, but the letter of the 15th says, of one of the vessels above mentioned: "The American brig Antoinette is on the beach, with 200 puncheons of mead, entirely lost."

THE OBSERVER.

ST. JOHN, TUESDAY, SEPT. 13, 1831.

The Julia from New York, brought us London dates to the 31st of July, and this appears to be the latest European intelligence which has yet reached this City. The Reform Bill was still breasting the waves of opposition in the Commons, so that the report in the Halifax Papers of its triumphant passage, must have been at least premature. Not less inaccurate was the statement that Admiral CODRINGTON's Squadron had been ordered into Port to be refitted for service in the Baltic. Such conjectures we cannot but admit to be exceedingly plausible, while we deprecate the practice of giving probabilities as FACTS. That there are many serious indications of approaching WAR upon the Continent, cannot be denied. The excitement throughout the armed multitudes of FRANCE—the critical position of AUSTRIA—the angry declaration of PRUSSIA—and the chivalrous spirit of sympathy which the nature of the present contest in POLAND is everywhere calculated to awaken—all seem to portend the onset of mighty hosts. ENGLAND, it is said, has offered her mediation between the Autocrat and his former subjects; but whatever the weight of her authority, we fear it will prove unavailing, unless like "Brennus" she be prepared "to throw her sword into the scale."—In the present crisis of affairs, a few weeks will probably decide the question, and we may look forward to our next arrivals from Europe with lively interest. A combined army of FRANCE and ENGLAND—so long implacable and deadly rivals—would doubtless produce changes in European politics, the result of which no human sagacity can foretell.

☞ Since the above was written, we have been favoured with Boston papers to Thursday last, brought by the Eliza, containing London dates to the 2d, and Liverpool to the 4th August.—We find no confirmation of the statement from the London Courier, of Prussia having declared in favour of Russia. The affairs of Poland, however, appear to be in a critical situation. Gen. SKRYZNECKI, on the 9th July, sent a letter to the King of Prussia, complaining of the succours granted by the Prussian Authorities to the Russian army, but His Majesty would not listen to the complaint of the Polish Commander!—There is no English news of importance given in the Boston papers.—We refer to our extracts.

The French Chamber of Deputies was opened on the 23d July. The Speech of King LOUIS PHILIPPE will be found in our columns, and is well worthy of perusal.—The anniversary of the three great days passed over in the Metropolis without any popular commotion.

King LEOPOLD of Belgium, was still continuing to receive marks of loyalty and affection from his new subjects. He had organized his Ministry, and was to set out from Brussels on the 24th July, on a tour through his kingdom. His Speech to the Deputies, we have given in another part of our paper.

In a Postscript to our last, we inserted the extract of a letter from Eastport, stating that WAR had been actually declared by England and France against Russia.—It appears, by the Eastport Northern Light, that the report was first carried from St. John to that place, and then sent back in the shape in which we gave it.—Like the plausible conjectures above alluded to, it doubtless had its origin only in the probability of the event.

DREADFUL VISITATION.—It becomes our painful task this week, to record one of those awful dispensations of Providence, the wise purposes of which we dare not doubt or scrutinize. The fertile and once fair Island of BARBADOS, exists only as an heap of ruins. An hurricane more terrible in its effects, tho' Providentially more brief in its duration, than that of 1780, has spread wide desolation in every part of the Country. Man, and his possessions—the thriving plantations—the dwellings of the rich and of the poor—the stately edifice and the gallant fleet—have been alike involved in the general wreck. From beneath the ruins of their former homes—Husbands, Fathers, Sons, Brothers, are occupied in dragging forth the lifeless and mangled bodies of their friends—to add to these horrors it is feared that Pestilence and Famine hover over the ruins. For the melancholy details of this calamity, we beg to refer our readers to our extracts in another page from the New York Evening Post of September 31. While we mourn over the fate of the unhappy sufferers who have perished, or condole with the scarce less wretched survivors, let us not withhold our exertions to render our sympathy effective, and extend to their relief whatever aid we can afford.

His Excellency SIR ARCHIBALD CAMPBELL, accompanied by Captain CAMPBELL, proceeded to Fredericton on Wednesday last, in the St. George, and was sworn in before his Majesty's Council as Lieutenant-Governor of this Province, on Thursday afternoon.—Lady CAMPBELL and Family, with Major and Mrs. SNODGRASS, left this City for Fredericton, in the John Ward, steamer, on Thursday.

A Detachment of 140 Recruits from the Depot at Dal. to reinforce the 1st Batt. Rifle Brigade stationed in this Province, arrived this morning in the Lavinia and two other schooners, from Halifax, whither they arrived in the Marquis of Huntley, transport, from London.—There are also six Officers attached to the reinforcement, the whole under the command of Major STEWART, who arrived in the Lavinia.—We learn that one company of the Rifles are to go to St. Andrews, to relieve the detachment of the 8th, Regt. now stationed there.

TEMPERANCE SOCIETY.—Agreeably to public notice, the first anniversary of the St. John Temperance Society was held last evening in the National School Room, the Rev. Dr. GRAY, President, in the Chair.—The proceedings of the evening were commenced by a most animated and appropriate Address from the Chair, in which were fully developed the sacred principles and benevolent objects of the institution, with the most varied refutation of the principal objections that have been raised against it.—The Report was then read by the Secretary, A. McLEOD, Esq. from which it appeared that 230 persons had joined the Society since its commencement, about 30 of whom had been habitually intemperate, and that with the exception of 3 or 4, they had all maintained the integrity of their engagements.—The meeting, which was very numerous and respectable, was then addressed and the principles and objects of the Institution most ably advocated by the several Gentlemen moving and seconding the Resolutions, in the following order:—W. B. KINNEAR, Esq. Recorder of the City; Mr. C. WIGGINS, Rev. I. W. D. GRAY, of the Episcopal Church; Rev. M. SHADD, Wesleyan Missionary; and Messrs. ALLEN and EMMA.

Agreeably to a Resolution moved and carried, a Provincial Temperance Society was then formed, of which the St. John Society is to be the point of concentration, and after a draft of its Constitution was read from the Chair, and adopted, WM. B. KINEAR, Esq. was appointed Vice-President, in room of the Rev. Dr. GRAY, removed from the Province; and the following Gentlemen were appointed a Committee for the ensuing year:—Messrs. ANDS MCCOSTER, BENJAMIN SYMONDS, GILBERT T. RAY, GEORGE SEARS, and HUGH SMITH—who, with the Office Bearers, transact the business of the Society. All Clergymen who are members of the Society, are also members of the Committee, ex officio.

At the close of the meeting, the Society received an addition of 12 names, making the total number about 272.

We cannot conclude this article without expressing the high gratification afforded us by the Society's success since its commencement, and in the anticipation of the increasing benefits to individuals and to Society at large from the united efforts of so respectable and influential a body of our community, in raising a formidable standard against the pestilential and ruinous evil of Intemperance; and we are fully of opinion with the President, in one very striking observation in his opening Speech—'that no reasonable person can object to a Society which has for its object the promotion of morality and the good of society.'

MAYOR'S COURT.—The Court of Quarter Sessions for the September Term, closed on Saturday.—The following sentences adjudged, will, we think, give general satisfaction:—

The King, vs. Margaret Cherry—Guilty of keeping a Disorderly House, at York Point. Sentence—To pay a fine of £5, and stand committed till paid.—No greater punishment for the same reason as in the case of Margt. Cheeny.

The King, vs. Thomas Murphy—Guilty of keeping a Disorderly House, at York Point. Sentence—To pay a fine of £5, and stand committed till paid.—No greater punishment for the same reason as in the case of Margt. Cheeny.

The King, vs. Thomas Carey—Guilty of keeping a Disorderly House, at York Point. Sentence—One month's imprisonment only, as he had no money, and was very poor.

The King, vs. Thomas Tobin—Guilty of aggravated battery on Mr. T. L. Nicholson, at 10 o'clock at night. Sentence—£5, fine, and three months imprisonment, and to stand further committed till the fine is paid.

The King, vs. Tyson McDonald—Guilty of stealing three shirts, property of Henry Lord. Sentence—To be publicly whipped on Monday the 12th inst. [Yesterday]—39 lashes.

The King, vs. Thomas McDonald—Guilty of stealing a jacket, property of John O'Berry. Sentence—One month's imprisonment only, in order to liberate him before the cold season comes on, and give him an opportunity to obtain employment.

The King, vs. Jane Francis—Guilty of stealing a sauce pan, property of George Bragg. Sentence—One week's imprisonment only, in consequence of her former excellent character, and that of her husband, (Wm. Francis, and this being apparently the first offence.

The King, vs. Robert Jenkins—Guilty of assaulting David Lee. Sentence—To pay a fine of £5, and to stand committed till the same be paid.

NEGRO INSURRECTION IN VIRGINIA.—The slaves in Virginia, it will be seen, have lately committed horrible outrages in Southampton county in that state, from 60 to 70 persons were barbarously murdered.—The Militia and a detachment of Regulars had been promptly marched to the scene of action, and had succeeded in taking a number of prisoners, killing several, and finally dispersed the main body of the insurgents.

We have not time this week to notice the singular claim set up by a Personage styling himself "Earl of Stirling and Dovna." His "Address," together with a communication received by us on the subject, must be for the present postponed.

At the Monthly Meeting of the Committee of the Chamber of Commerce of this City, held last Wednesday evening, a Committee was appointed to collect information as to the number and value of Saw Mills, Lumber Wharves, and all erections and improvements connected with the manufacture of Timber and Lumber throughout the Province, the number of persons employed about such establishments, the wages generally paid them, and all other matters connected with the general Trade of the Province. This information, when obtained, will be forwarded to the Province Agents in London—that if an attempt should again be made, to impose an increased duty on our Timber and Deals in the British market, they may be prepared with facts to assist them in opposing any such measure. —Courier.

SUNDAY SCHOOL JUBILEE.—The Superintendants and Teachers of the Sunday Schools in connection with the Wesleyan Methodist Society in this City and Portland, intend celebrating Wednesday next, the 14th inst. as a day of Jubilee; in commemoration of the birth of ROBERT RAIKES, the founder of Sunday Schools, and it being the fiftieth anniversary of their establishment. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon, a Sermon or Address is to be delivered by the Superintendant Preacher, in the Vestry of the Wesleyan Chapel in this City, to the children attending the Schools, after which prayers are to be offered up for a blessing upon the children, and for the general success of Sunday Schools. In the evening at 7 o'clock, the Superintendents and Teachers will partake of a repast in the Vestry, which will be followed by addresses on the importance and utility of Sunday Schools, and fervent prayer to the Almighty for the out-pouring of his Spirit upon these and all similar institutions.—Ib.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Thursday last, while Mr. WILLIAM LASKEY, Mate of the Barque Alchymist, was in the act of crossing the deck, he placed his foot upon one of the hatches, which suddenly slipping, he fell into the hold, struck upon his head, and fractured his skull in so dreadful a manner that he died in about two hours. He was in the 25th year of his age, and bore an excellent character.—Ib.

On Saturday the 27th ult. at the Hibernian Settlement, a Coroner's Inquest was held on view of the body of PATRICK CHARLES FERGUSON.—Verdict, the deceased perished in consequence of having lost his way in the woods.—Mr. Ferguson on the 10th April, 1830, left Quaco, to come through the woods to the Hibernian Settlement, a distance of about eight miles, and arrived within half a mile of his son's house, where he perished. He was not missed until six weeks after his departure from Quaco, when diligent search was made for him; but he was not found until the 26th ult.—City Gazette.

From the Royal Gazette, Sept. 7.

On Monday last at 1 o'clock, a meeting was convened by the High Sheriff of the county, at the earnest desire of the inhabitants of Fredericton and Gagetown Neighbourhood, for the purpose of voting an address to our Lieutenant-Governor Sir Archibald Campbell, on his residing at the Government of the Province, by the hands of His Excellency Sir A. Campbell.

His Honor the Chief Justice presided at the meeting, at which we noticed, with great satisfaction, the Members of His Majesty's Council here resident, His Majesty's Attorney and Solicitor Advocate General—the Assistant Magistrate, Clergy, and all the principal inhabitants of the Seat of Government.

The Address, which is to be presented by the Chief Justice, on the next day of Mr. Hatch presiding Fredericton with his Excellency, attended by the various gentlemen who resided at the meeting, shall appear in our columns at the ensuing week; by which time we shall hope to be enabled to give our readers, in addition, the unaffected and eloquent extension proposed by the mover of the Address, on the President's admission of the Government, and which met with the unanimous approbation of every one who had the pleasure of listening to it.

We are happy in being enabled to state, that the Commissioners of Lights at this Port, have entered into a Contract for the erection, this fall, of a dwelling house and store on St. Paul's Island; and have advertised for two persons to take charge of the same, who are to proceed immediately after the completion of the buildings, with a quantity of provisions, for the purpose of assisting and relieving the wants of such shipwrecked persons as may be unfortunately cast upon this dreary and inhospitable spot.—Miramichi Gleaner.

Melancholy Occurrence.—On the 15th ultimo, two girls, daughters of Mr. Daniel Fellmore, of Jolliette, (New-Brunswick,) one aged thirteen the other sixteen years, left their father's dwelling to attend school; their road lay across a Marsh, upon which was a creek overflowing with water; the road being impassable, they attempted to cross upon a piece of timber, which had been placed there some time previous, and, unfortunately, both fell into the creek and were drowned. The grief of the afflicted parents can better be conceived than expressed.—Halifax Journal.

It is stated in NELSON's Gazette, of the 29th ult. that the warehousing department of the Customs at the Port of Quebec had been abolished.

His Majesty's ship Blanche, 46 guns, has arrived at Quebec, from Jamaica, having on board £15,000 stg. in dollars, for the military government.
