ST. JOSEPH'S ACADEMY, TORONTO.

Highly successful was the annual distribution of prizes at St. Joseph's Academy on Tuesday, the 23rd inst. The large hall was thronged with visitors, the majority of whom were friends and relatives of the pupils. The floral decorations were in good taste; and the bevy of healthy and tastefully attired pupils, the seniors in black and the juniors in white, made a graceful and charming scene.

His Grace Archbishop Walsh presided; and among those present were Bishop O'Mahony, Very Rev. Father Rooney, V. G., Very Rev. Father McCann, V. G., Very. Rev. Father Cassidy, Very Rev. Father Bergin, Rev. Father Marijon, Provincial of the Congregation of St. Basil, Rev. Father Teefy, Superior of St. Michael's College, Rev. Fathers Murray, O'Reilly, Madigan, Trayling, Minehan, Rudkins, McCarthy, Krein, Grogan, Cook, Egan, O'Donoghue, Dumouchelle, McBrady, Cruise, Lawlor, Weissel, McPhillips, Lamarche, Casey, Coty, Rohleder, Williams.

One of Lohr's joyous choruses opened the proceedings; then came the interesting ceremony of crowning the graduates—Miss Callighen and Miss Annie McGurn. Attended by two little white-robed maids they knelt before His Grace, who enwreathed their brows with golden flowers. Blushing at their well-won honors, they kissed the Archbishop's ring and gracefully retired in court fashion. The instrumental music was exceptionally good; a solo, "Fantasie de Concert," was well rendered and reflected great credit on the young lady performers. In the second part of the programme, a Gavotte, played on six pianos, three harps, three guitars, two violins and two metallophones was very harmonious and effective. A semi-chorus, "Love's Young Dream," with piano, harp and guitar accompaniment, was rendered with a pathos that brought tears to the eyes of many among the listeners. The last chorus, "Ave Maria," was very beautiful and solemn and formed a great contrast to the brilliant, joyous strains which greeted the audience on their entrance. An operetta by the little ones, "Queen of the Flowers," was well given. Their singing was very sweet and their choice of a queen admirable. The Rose, as symbolizing the love of the Sacred Heart for men, was chosen to reign queen over Flora's fair treasures.

The young ladies of the elocution class distinguished themselves. Miss Rafter gave a French recitation, "Moise Sur Le Nil." Edgar Allan Poe's "Bells," with musical accompaniment, was given in good style by a class of thirty. But the most novel feature of the programme was Whittier's "Angels of Buena Vista" in pantomine. The grace, beauty and expressiveness of this silent declamation succeeded in bringing to the mind a more vivid conception of the battle-scene than any words.

After the presentation of medals and distribution of prizes His Grace made a happy speech in which he congratulated the pupils on their brilliant entertainment, which, he said, in the various departments of art, music and literature reflected credit on the accomplished religious ladies who were charged with their instruction. He informed the pupils that these good and devoted Sisters of St. Joseph had been laboring for forty years in Ontario, and in their works of charity, as teachers in the Separate schools and in their select schools and academies they had deserved well of religion in this city and in this archdiocese. The education given in this institution was broad, solid, refined, and calculated to make those who receive it good Christian women and ornaments of society. The venerable prelate concluded by wishing the pupils a most happy vacation; and hoped that they would return in September renewed in health and strength to begin another year in this admirable institution.

"God Save the Queen" having been sung, the company inspected a grand collection of needle-work, embroidery, drawing, oil and pastel painting which was displayed in the Art Exhibition Hall. These showed great taste and skill on the part of the pupils. Among the pieces most admired were two chairs done by Miss Mahony, and a priedieu by Miss Riley, which she has presented to Right Rev. R. A. O'Connor, Bishop of Peterborough. It is unanimously asserted that the thirty-third was the best of the St. Joseph's Academy annual prize distribution.

"Noble Work."

It is always good evidence of a frank and sincere nature to overcome prejudice so as to tell the truth, and, when the truth is told there is but one opinion, like the following: "Kansas City, Mo., U. S, A., November 15, 1889. Gentlemen:—I am proud to say that your wonderful remedy, St. JacobsOil, has done its noble work. I am able to move around, being entirely free from pain (neuralgia). When meeting my associates I am often asked what in the world brought me round in such perfect health, and in reply I tell them it was your valuable medicine. Jas. W. Lang, M. D."

Doctors generally are reluctant to speak out, but there are many exceptions like the above, where physicians frankly acknowledge the merit of The Great Remedy.

Unbearable Pain.

DEAR SIRS—I suffered for three days very severely from Summer Complaint, and could get no relief, but kept getting worse till the pain was almost unbearable, and I was very weak. After everything else had failed I tried Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. The first dose gave relief, and it did not fail to cure me.

C. C. Jacobs, Buffalo, an employee of the U. S., Express Co., says:—Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured him of a bad case of Piles of 8 years' standing, having tried almost every known remedy, "besides two Buffalo Physicians" without relief; but the Oil cured him; he thinks it cannot be recommended too highly.
