Assistant City Clerk Abbott's Resignation Accepted.

Applications for the Post of Police Clerk Filed.

London West Presents Its Claim for Breakwater Building and Maintenance—The Electric Street Railway Matter Discussed and the Car Shops Question.

Among the communications read at last night's meeting of the City Council was one from Alexander S. Abbott, the venerable assistant city clerk, resigning his position, and asking to be relieved of the duties before July 1.

Ald. Moule, seconded by Ald. J. W. Jones, moved: "That whereas, in consequence of advancing years, Mr. Alexander S. Abbott has tendered his resignation as an official of the corporation, Be it resolved that in accepting the resignation the council desires to place on record its high appreciation of the valuable services rendered the city by Mr. Abbott during well nigh half a century of official life, and also to express the earnest wish that his declining years may be surrounded by comfort and happiness, both temporal and spiritual."

Ald. J. W. Jones said he would have no objection to referring it to No. 1 to consider the giving of some testimonial to Mr. Abbott. Mr. Adam Murray, on resigning his position, was given a testimonial of $1,000.

Ald. Stevely thought a testimonial would make the old gentleman feel good, and would show that they appreciated him.

Ald. Taylor moved that the matter be sent to No. 1. Lost.

Ald. Moule's motion accepting the resignation was carried.

NO POLICE COURT CLERK.

A. K. Thompson and John Fletcher applied for the position of police court clerk.

Ald. Parnell moved that the communications be filed. Seconded by Ald. James Fitzgerald and carried.

NUMBER TWO COMMITTEE.

The committee recommends: 1. That the application of Thos. H. Warren to employ the band of the First Hussars to render concerts in park be filed. 2. On petition re location of dray stand, that the bylaw assigning the dray stand be amended to provide that the space on the south side of York street alloted for stand be between a point 75 feet west of Mr. O'Meara's premises and the west gate of Grand Trunk Railway yard fronting on said street. 3. That the number of the store occupied by C. F. Colwell be 187½. 4. The acceptance of the tender of John Sussex for a fence around the Queen's Park pond. 5. That $200 be reserved out of the amount appropriated for each ward for streets and general improvements as a contingent fund to meet cost of street cleaning, i. e., snow-plowing, street sweeping and other contingencies. 6. Report progress on communications of Thomas & Buchner, re Baldwin vs. city, and A. O. Graydon, re removal out of sidewalks on 66-feet streets. 7. That Thomas Garside's application for use of Victoria Park on Wednesday and Sunday evenings for Christian Workers be granted.

The report was adopted without amendment. In connection with clause 5 Ald. Parnell moved that the amount reserved from each ward be in proportion to its appropriation, and that enough be taken out to make a contingent fund of $3,000. It was lost. Mayor Essery said that the engineer guaranteed $200 from each ward would be sufficient.

NUMBER ONE COMMITTEE.

The principal recommendations of No. 1 committee were: 1. Accounts of $6,578 69 passed. 2. Error in W. H. Winnett's frontage assessment conceded to him. 3. Grant of $100 to the Convalescent Home. 4. That tenders for printing, advertising, stationery, etc., be called. 6. Mr. C. Parkinson given a rebate of $10 on 1892 taxes. 7. That petitions of J. Evans and others, Mary Lawrence, John Kew, Wm. Baskerville and the city clerk's letter re voters' list be filed. 8. Progress on the petions of D. Nolan, Mrs. McNab and R. M. McElheran's communications. 9. Opposition of London Street Railway re electrifying the road.

The first eight clauses passed, except the section of the seventh referring to Mrs. Evans' petition for exemption on Somerset (W. C. T. U.) Hall. It was referred back to No. 1.

THE PROPOSED ELECTRIC RAILWAY.

In connection with clause 9, Ald. Moule read the proposition of the company to extend their lines and adopt electricity.

Ald. Parnell said the council had been accused of gross mismanagement in this and other matters by a city paper. Whether this was paid for or not he did not know. Kingston had succeeded in getting a perpetual franchise reduced to 30 years by the Legislature; surely London could get its present unjust franchise modified. Ald. Parnell then moved that the company's proposition be accepted as a basis of agreement, with some amendments. The amendments proposed by Ald. Parnell in brief were: 1. That workingmen's tickets be issued under certain conditions. That the ten-hour-a-day clause adopted last year's council be incorporated in agreement. 3. That the company s provide all materials for tracks and keep the pavements through which its 'buses run in repair. 4. That if residents on any street shall at any time seek to lay a pavement on a street through which the railway has right of way the company shall bear a portion of the expense. 5. That the company electrify the lines and have the whole, with Hamilton road and South London extensions, completed within tw years. 6. That cars be run during th Western Fair every eight minutes or le.

Two options were included, as follow 1. If the London street railway desire t present trackage arrangement to contin the company shall pay an annual milea of $300 a mile, single track, and $500 a mi double track, during the balance of term. 2. On a percentage upon the gr receipts, payable quarterly, of 5 per cent $100,000, 7 per cent. from $100,000 to $15 000, and 10 per cent. from $150,000 wards.

The mayor asked Ald. Shaw to take chair. The mayor said that they had a a business proposition signed by a sponsible official of the street railway pany before them—the first offer whic been made during the year. The con had now a franchise, the con of which they will never again. The company was backe by capitalists, and these gentlemen should be treated decently. The city, however, was not going to give away a valuable franchise. The proposition pre sented was the basis of an agreement, with the emphasis on the "basis," and the railway company would have to come "up" considerably before the council let them "down" into the streets of London for 37 years.

After some further discussion, the company's proposition, together with Ald. Parnell's resolution, was referred to No. committee for further consideration to report back.

Ald. Moule then read the next clause of the committee's report, which suggested the opening up of negotiations again with the Grand Trunk Railway for the retaining of the car shops in London.

Ald. J. W. Jones maintained that thi was an exceedingly important matter. Th offer of Sarnia was being seriously consid ered, and the city of London could no afford to dilly-dally. The $100,000 bonu should be offered the Grand Trunk.

Ald. F. J. Fitzgerald did not think th East End wanted the shops, anyway. Las season too much fuss was made over thi matter.

Ald. J. W. Jones moved, seconded b Ald. C. Taylor, that No. 1 committe enter into negotiations with the G. T. R for the retention of the car shops, and th the mayor ask a committee of citizens t act in conjunction to assist the civic committee. The resolution was carried.

Ald. Moule moved that the Municip Council of the City of London has receive with deep sorrow the announcement of th death of William Glass, a former memb of the council, and for nearly 35 yea sheriff of the county of Middlesex, position which he filled with marked di tinction and ability; and while expressi its deep sense of the loss the communi has sustained, the council wishes mo particularly to convey to his bereaved wi and family the full assurance of its co dolence and sympathy with them in t great grief which the death has occasione This motion was seconded by Ald. Coo, a unanimously carried.

It was decided that the council shou attend the late sheriff's funeral in a bo The chief of police was asked to provi cabs.

A bylaw repealing bylaw No. 462, pas on Nov. 19, 1888, instituting John Mich Keary police court clerk, was passed.

A bylaw providing that a payment out the general fund of the city be ma towards a one-third cost of any artific sidewalks which have been or may be c structed during the year was assented

A bylaw respecting an agreement w the Bell Telephone Company was passed

Ald. Stevely, in this connection, jected to granting a monopoly to any company. He knew of another compa with a much more efficient service t that now in vogue, who were anxiou secure a foothold in this country.

On the yeas and nays being called present, with the exception of A Stevely, voted in favor of the bylaw. T gentleman said he felt like remarking juryman in New York did who had the only dissentient: "What a stu stubborn lot you are, anyway."

The council adjourned at 12 o'clock.

Don't leave poisonous medicines, or other kind for that matter, within the r of small children.
