CLINTON PLANNING TO INSTAL MUNICIPAL TELEPHONE SYSTEM

Hustling Northern Town Has Offer of Service Equal to That Being Received at Present Time for About Half What Is Now Being Charged.

[Staff Correspondence.]

Clinton, Jan. 16.—Having landed an automobile factory, and settled the question of hydro-electric power, the citizens of Clinton are enjoying a brief "breathing spell" before tackling the next progressive movement on the municipal calendar—municipal ownership of telephones.

Rural Routes Start.

For a long time the hustling northern town was well content with the regular Bell service, but when the rural lines began extending through the district, and grew and flourished, the townspeople began to grow restive. They couldn't understand why they should be forced to pay $20 per year for the privilege of berating the butcher and grocer at long range, when their rural neighbors indulged in long-distance conversation for much less money.

An Offer Received.

This feeling gradually became stronger, and when a while ago a practical telephone man came along and offered to provide the town with as good service as the Bell people, for about half the money, the people began to take a real live interest. As a result it is expected that action will be taken by the town council in the very near future.

Dr. C. W. Thompson, town councillor, and chief advocate of a publicly-owned service, outlined the situation to The Advertiser today.

No Fight With Bell.

"We have no quarrel," he said, "with the service the Bell people are giving. It is purely a question of dollars and cents. Why should we pay them a big profit when we can operate the lines ourselves at a big saving to subscribers? I say the money is just as good in our pockets as it is in theirs. Under the terms of the agreement betwen the town and the Bell corporation, their charter may be terminated on three months' notice. We can either buy out the present Bell equipment, or let them get out, and install a system of our own.

Must Maintain Central.

"In addition to the advantage of low rates, there is another side to the question. At present all the subscribers on rural lines are paying the Bell $2 50 each per year for operating a central system for them here in Clinton.

"Why can't the town of Clinton operate the exchange, and reap the profits that have been going to the Bell?

"I feel sure that the proposition woud be a paying one, because a while ago a practical telephone man told me that he was prepared to furnish the town with a good service at half the present cost. He isn't in business for his health, either. As far as long-distance connection is concerned, the Bell must, under the law, give us a long-distance service if we want it. I am agitating the plan for all I am worth, and I trust that it will be carried out in the near future."

A Progressive Town.

Clinton is winning a name as a progressive town in other fields than telephonic. The town has recovered from its setback of a few years ago, when the large organ factory, which was the mainstay of the place, went to the wall, and is going ahead by leaps and bounds. Not only has the old industry been rejuvenated, but a new concern, the Clinton Motor Company, is now manufacturing automobiles in the building formerly occupied by a thresher works. About $150,000, it is understood, has been subscribed for this industry, and though small as yet, it promises soon to be a big factor in the community.

Waterworks System.

The waterworks system, which was installed about two years ago, has now about 300 users, and it will soon be necessary to extend the mains. Beside this, the town has spent $20,000 for pavements during the last five years. This year it is the intention to spend $4,000 more. When the proposed work is finished, every principal street will have a tough, smooth surface of fine macadam pavement, and will be the "good roads town" of all Ontario.

DROVERS MAY ASK GOVT. TO SETTLE TROUBLE WITH PACKERS

Toronto, Jan. 16.—Some of the drovers still refused to sell their cattle on the basis arranged by the drovers and packers at their conference last evening, and they threaten to continue the dispute and seek to have the Dominion department of agriculture interfere and adjust a more satisfactory settlement.

"I am sure," said one, "that the arrangement made at the meeting last night is not satisfactory to all the drovers. I am surprised they were a party to a compromise admitting the principle that they are the ones who should stand the loss for cattle condemned by Government inspectors, even though the amount of their liabilities was decided. They should at least have made an agreement that they would do so only under protest and in that way not damage their case."

It is understood that the present discontent will develop into a movement asking the department of agriculture for a regulation providing that the Dominion Government bear the loss.

MILLIONS UP IN SMOKE IN A BIG WAREHOUSE FIRE

[Canadian Press.]

New York, Jan. 17.—The seven-story warehouse of the Terminal Storage Company, occupying a full city block near the North River waterfront, between Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth streets, and containing merchandise valued at more than $10,000,000, was swept by fire early today.

The fire was discovered a few minute after midnight. It was not under control until 6:45 o'clock, when the loss was estimated at $1,250,000.

Five alarms, sounded in quick succession, summoned to the scene practically every available piece of fire-fighting apparatus from all Manhattan, and this was reinforced by five fire boats, which were tied up to the steamship piers a block away.

A Modern Structure.

The Terminal Storage Company's warehouse was of brick, and concrete, seven stories in height, and was the largest and most modern structure of its kind in New York. While the building itself was fireproof and protected by fire walls, sprinklers, and all the modern fire prevention and fire-fighting apparatus, its contents, consisting mostly of goods awaiting delivery to the big New York department stores, were naturally of the most inflammable nature.

The building was divided into four sections by fire walls two feet thick. One of the sections was controlled by John Wanamaker, and contained merchandise consigned to him. Another section was rented by Gimbel Bros., while the two remaining sections had as tenants nearly 50 smaller firms.

The fire started in the Wanamaker compartment and worked its way through the fire walls to the Gimbel section. Both these sections were completely gutted, but the fire walls between them and the other compartments held firm and the losses are therefore confined to the two firms named.
