FROM ALL OVER NEW BRUNSWICK

ST. STEPHEN.

St. Stephen, N. B., Nov. 17—Mrs. James G. Stevens gave a "Cinderella" party on Saturday evening to a number of her young society friends. Whist was the chief feature of entertainment and supper was served in time that the guests might be in their own homes before the hour of midnight, which was so fatal to the "Cinderella" of fairy tale lore. The party was a very merry one and greatly enjoyed by all who were present.

Miss Vera Young, who has been enjoying a visit both in Boston and New York cities, is again at home.

Rev. Charles G. McCully, pastor of the Congregational church in Calais, has been in New York city during the past week visiting his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barnard, and on Sunday, the 13th, in the North New York Congregational church, with water brought from the River Jordan, in Palestine, for the special purpose, baptized the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Gates Barnard and third grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Barnard, giving him the name of Henry H. Barnard. Rev. Mr. McCully has been the pastor of the Barnard family for many years and is greatly esteemed and beloved by them, and was invited specially to perform this service, in which he was assisted by the pastor of the church, Rev. Mr. Kephart. After the service Mr. Barnard, Sr., presented the church with a large contribution in honor of the event.

Moncton, Nov. 18—An interesting political rumor is heard here to the effect that the Hon. F. J. Sweeney is not to be appointed solicitor-general in the local government without opposition from some of his Westmorland colleagues. It is said that Mr. A. B. Copp has aspirations in the direction of the solicitor-generalship and is pressing his claims on the attention of the government. Mr. Copp's friends take the ground that Mr. Copp is more entitled to the portfolio than Mr. Sweeney on account of seniority in the house. If the portfolio comes to Westmorland it is considered by some that Mr. Sweeney should not have the first consideration. Even Mr. Robinson, it is said, would not be averse to entering the government.

Mr. Copp had a conference with Premier Tweedie here a few days ago and it is said that the solicitor-generalship was the chief topic for discussion.
