Local Market Quotations.

Reported by A. M. Hamilton & Son.

LONDON, Tuesday, April 25.

Receipts of all kinds of grain were light today and very little trade was done. The demand for oats improved a little; sales ranged from $1 02 to $1 05. Wheat was quiet at $1 10 to $1 12. Peas sold at 95c. No corn, rye or buckwheat offered. Butter and eggs steady; supply light, and demand only moderate. Very few potatoes were offered on the market. The trade done was limited owing to heavy receipts from cars. Hay steady at $8 to $9; demand good; supply light to-day. General quotations as follows:

U. S. Barley Markets.

BUFFALO, N.Y., April 24.—The visible supply of barley at the principal points of accumulation is 761,000 bu, a reduction during the week of 44,000 bu. There are 116,838 bu of barley in store here. The week's decrease has been slight. There is a fair quantity of Canada barley here, more than customers can readily be found for at prices which will allow shippers to get out even. The market is unsettled and prices are made more on the basis of what buyers want to pay than on anything else. Choice Canada quoted at 73c to 76c; No. 3 extra, 70c to 72c.

At Oswego—Stocks on hand, 45,000 bu. The shipments by rail during the week were 20,000 bu; nominally unchanged.

At Albany—Market nominal.

At New York—Market very firm; offerings mostly by samples to arrive; choice State and western, 71c to 75c; No. 1 Canada, 92c; No. 2 Canada, 83c to 85c; barley malt, steady, city made; Canada, $1 to $1 10.

At Chicago—The market is quiet; No. 2 nominally at 62c; stocks almost exhausted.

At Milwaukee—Spot offerings limited; 65c freely bid for No. 2 without acceptors; sample lots, 40c to 45c.

At St. Louis—No market.

Live Stock Markets.

MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, April 25.—There were about 475 head of butchers' cattle, 100 calves and 60 sheep and lambs offered at the East End abbatoir yesterday. There was quite a drop in the prices of cattle since Thursday, and they were rather lower than on last Monday. The best beeves sold at about 4½c per lb, very few going at more than 4¼c; pretty good stock sold at from 3½c to 4c, and rough leanish bessis at from 3½c to 3¾c per lb. There was a brisk demand for good calves to-day, and prices were higher all round; common veals sold at from $2 50 to $4 each, and good ones at from $5 to $8 each. Mutton critters are advancing in prices, at from 4½c to 5½c per lb; lambs sold at from $3 $5 each. Mr. Charles bought a lot of prime sheep to-day at $8 each or 5½c per lb. Fat hogs are scarce and advancing in price, at about 6½c per lb. Three hundred and fifty head of cattle are to be shipped to-night by way of Halifax.

EAST BUFFALO, N. Y.

EAST BUFFALO, N. Y., April 24.—Cattle—Nine cars on sale; market active and 15c to 25c higher. The top price of the day was $6 paid for a load of beeves by a local butcher; a few loads of extra export stock sold at $5 80; good to choice, $5 26 to $5 25. Medium cattle were 25c to 40c higher, at $4 60 to $5 15 for select lots; the commoner grades of butcher cattle, cows, heifers and mixed, were irregular, but from 15c to 25c above last Monday; fat bulls, butchers and sausage were 15c to 25c better; stock bulls dull and unchanged; export bulls strong, at $4 30 to $4 45. The 15 cars of stockers and feeders were taken by butchers, there being no country demand yet. Ten cars of milch cows and springers were on sale; market steady at last week's prices. Some 250 head of veal calves on sale; market steady; best sold at $6 20 to $6 25.

Sheep and Lambs—Eighty-eight cars on sale, largely clipped. The market was strong to 10c and 15c higher. Choice wool lambs sold at $7 20 to $7 25; extra, $7 35; best clipped, $6 to $6 25; best wool sheep, $6 15 to $6 25; 2 loads of extra fancy, $6 40, and clipped, good to best, $5 15 to $5 75.

Hogs—Fifty-five cars on sale; market dull. Packers bought the bulk of the hogs, taking in strong weight Yorkers up to good medium weights, at $7 80 generally, a few of the lighter weight Yorkers bringing $7 75, and a bunch or two of the best weight, $7 85; buyers paid $7 75 to $7 80 for the best Yorkers, and $7 50 to $7 70 for light weights and pigs, and the same price for the best pigs, the market ruling strong for the lighter grades; roughs sold at $6 25 to $6 75, and stags at $5 to $5 50.

British Grain Trade.

LONDON, April 24.—The Mark Lane Express, in its weekly review of the British grain trade, says: The markets show signs of greater firmness in regard to future crops both here and in the United States. This is due to the drought. The flour trade is firmer for English, but the holders of American are taking less. Low grades of American flour have been sold at 11s a sack for feeding. It is probable that the Argentine shipments of April and May wheats will amount to 1,000,000 quarters. Roumania is busily engaged in shipping corn and barley.

Nicholson; second vice, religious department, Walter Shipman; third vice, literary department, Miss Annie Pearse; fourth vice, social department, Miss Eva Webb; secretary and treasurer, Frank Bryant; sick and visiting committee, Rev. Mrs. Smith, Miss Cornish and Miss Edith Hance. The league has a membership of over 100 and is doing a good work.

—Mr. Wm. Bowman, who for nearly 40 years has been connected with the London and Port Stanley Railway, at the meeting of the board this evening, will resign the position of secretary. It is unfortunate that at this critical time in the history of the board circumstances have arisen which moves the veteran railroader to take this step. Mr. Bowman has been connected with the road since its inception, he has had mechanical experience extending over a long period, and he has the details of the different transactions affecting the road at his fingers' end. He will be missed at the L. and P. S. Board.

—The Toronto News of Monday publishes an entertaining account of the old Holman Opera Company, in which it makes individual mention of its members, among whom were Mrs. Holman, Sallie and Julia Holman, and Allie Holman, W. Crane, the great comedian; C. J. Meyers, the well-known musician of this city; Signor Perugini, Allan Halford, J. S. Spackman, Joe Banks, Harry Lindley, Harry Peakes, Brookhouse Bowler, Blanche Bradshaw (now Mrs. A. D. Holman), Kenny Drew, and a host of others, who commenced their career in that famous organization. "If the company could be brought together again it would be a great bill of stars," says the News.
