Chicago—Wheat opened ⅛ lower and now ⅛ higher. Dull.

Don't think wheat will do much to-day on account government report. Would buy on any break or sell on any bulge.

Corn opened strong at a quarter advance and now is a half cent higher than last night, Smith crowd buying July corn at 36.

Oats—Quiet, but strong at ⅛ higher than last night's closing.

Provisions opened steady and now strong at an advance stronger corn helped. The only doubt in minds of traders now is that receipts next week will be large. English packers buying expect decidedly better prices to-day.
