The VOLUME 8.

"Woodstock Jour

IS an eight page weekly newspaper, devot terests of New Brunswick, and particul of the Counties of Carleton and Victoria.

The primary objects at which The Journa present circumstances of the country are those:

1. The Promotion of Immigration and S the Wild Lands. Its maxim in this matter Free Land for the actual Settler! Dear l at all, for the Speculator. It is far more the country to have the wild lands settle them away than so get half a dollar an acr

2. The opening of the country, and f intercourse, by the improvement of the me nal communication. We need improvemen vers, so as to facilitate internal navigation: Railroads—the latter built if possible by p nies and not by Government in order to pre speculation and all the other evils which a construction of public works by Governme

3. A system of Free Education for all,— grades, from the Parish school to the Prov sity, being open to all without money and and supported by Direct Taxation. If the thing which will make the whole people f ly with respect to Education, and give feeling interest in it, it is Direct Taxation

4. An increase in the Representation i Assembly, in order to destroy the illegiti of the Executive, and check the degradin strife between the outs and the ins.

5. Looking to the future, we are decid of a Legislative union of the Lower P Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and Prince Edw opposed to a federal union which would in and to a relinquishment of a distinctive n representation in the Imperial Parliamen that such a legislative union would remov political evils and difficulties under which vinces now labour—would give them incre importance and influence—would tend to development of their native wealth afford to home industry and would effect more progress of these colonies than any other ment whatever.

Though these primary objects are neve there are other things for which we labo always endeavoured, and hope that we sh nue to endeavour to introduce and suppor political, social and moral discussion a and manly tone We shall endeavour to pr good feeling among all parties, classes an We shall give an unflinching support into whatever is within the bounds of h and a free discussion of whatever subje for the human mind to apprehend. No to inculcate in our people not only that f pendence and self reliance which is of th dividual and national nobility, but al ord r and subordination which makes th cal recognition of the great truth that th rior to all, and that Freedom to be Free go hand in hand with Order.
