THREE QUESTIONS

If you were to die, is your estate sufficient to maintain the present social standing and comfort for your family?

If you were certain that your family would have an income of $1,000 a year if you passed away would you feel more comfortable?

Are you willing to invest a little money to have that guaranteed—the money to be returned to you in twenty years if you live?

The Ontario Mutual Life has a plan especially suitable for you.

C. E. GERMAN,
General Agent.
