TO SET 1000 DEER FREE.

Herd So Numerous That Half Must Be Liberated.

Stroudsburg, Pa., Aug. 14.—One thousand deer are to be liberated from Buckwood Park, owned by C. C. Worthington of New York in a few days. The animals have multiplied so rapidly that they will starve unless many are set at liberty. There are now over 2000 deer in the park, which is opposite Shawnee, and they have cleaned up nearly all the food to be had. Food was so scarce last winter that many deer died.

Superintendent Smith intends to let down sections of the fence enclosing the park and so let the animals roam out whenever they choose. Many of them are likely to stray into Monroe.

Farmers residing near the park do not favor the liberation, fearing that the deer will do damage to their property, but their freedom is the only way out of the difficulty. "We either have to give the deer their liberty or let them starve," says Smith.

Eleven years ago nineteen deer were placed in the park, which covers thousands of acres, and since then about one hundred have been killed by hunting parties.

The Royal St. Lawrence Fleet.

Frontenac, N.Y., Aug. 14.—The Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club of Montreal, represented by a fleet of twenty sailing yachts, arrived at the Thousand Islands to-day for a visit of a week. Elaborate plans have been made for their entertainment by the several yacht clubs and social organizations of the Islands, and the Chippewa Bay Yacht Club has planned a series of races in their honor. In the visiting fleet are the winners of the Seawanhaka Cup for the past two years, the Trident and the Thorella.

TOADSTOOLS KILL BELLE.

Millionaire's Daughter Eats Them in Mistake for Mushrooms.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 14.—Poisoned by eating toadstools, believing they were mushrooms, Miss Maud Espy, the beautiful daughter of Major and Mrs. John Espy, of St. Paul, died in agony at her parents' summer home at Mahtomedi, last night. Miss Espy was 25 years old and was one of St. Paul's society belles. Miss Espy was accompanied on a mushroom expedition by her mother, who helped her to gather the plants. After a joyful excursion into the woods Mrs. Espy and her daughter returned home and humorously boasted of their skill in distinguishing mushrooms from their poisonous cousins. Mother and daughter prepared and ate the plants together, each soon falling ill. Mrs. Espy was for a time in a critical condition, but is now out of danger, altho very weak. Major Espy is worth millions.

Dominion Dog Show.

Specials continue to arrive for the Dominion Exhibition dog show. A letter was received by Superintendent Bell from the president of the Bull Dog Club of America yesterday offering the following prizes: The Lacy Dillon Trophy for best puppy, the Glenworth Trophy for the best dog, the Tippoo Sahib trophy for the best bitch, the C. K. C. Cup and the Toronto Cup, the same as last year.

Entries for dogs close with Supt. Bell, 70 East King-street, on Monday, the 17th inst. For cats, with the same gentleman, on Saturday, the 22nd inst.

ABOUT COMPLEXIONS

Food Makes Them Good or Bad.

Saturate the human body with strong coffee and it will in time show in the complexion of the coffee drinker.

This is caused by the action of coffee on the liver, thus throwing part of the bile into the blood. Coffee complexions are sallow and muddy and will stay that way until coffee is given up entirely.

The sure way to recover rosy cheeks and red lips is to quit coffee and drink Postum Food Coffee, which makes red blood. "I had been for more than 20 years an inveterate coffee drinker and it is absolutely true that I had so completely saturated myself with this drug that my complexion toward the last became perfectly yellow and every nerve and fibre in me was affected by the drugs in coffee.

"For days at a time I had been compelled to keep to my bed on account of nervous headache and stomach trouble and medicines did not give me any relief. I had never consulted a physician in regard to my headaches and terrible complexion and I only found out the cause of them after I commenced the use of Postum, which became known to me through Grape-Nuts. We all liked the food Grape-Nuts and it helped us, so we thought Postum must certainly have merit and we concluded to try it. We found it so delicious that we continued the use altogether, although I never expected it to help my health.

"After a few months my headaches were all gone and my complexion had cleared wonderfully, then I knew that my troubles had been caused by coffee and had been cured when I left off coffee and drank Postum in its place." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Postum will change the blood of any coffee drinker and rosy cheeks and health take the place of a yellow skin and disease.

VOSPER TOOK HIS OWN LIFE

And Husband Shot His Wife, Say Jurors in Coroner's Inquest at Hamilton.

BELL TELEPHONE BILL BEFORE CITY

Agreement With Radial Company re Irondale Phones Referred to Finance Committee.

Hamilton, Aug. 14.—(Special.)—The city council held a half-hour session to-night and gave a first reading to the Bell Telephone Company's bill. The agreement with the raidal company regarding Irondale phones was referred back to the Finance Committee.

Committed Suicide.

"If anything happens to me have my stomach analyzed." This is the request Charles Vosper made to his son after suffering from several spasms, according to the latter's evidence at the inquest to-night. Dick Hutchison, a brother of Mrs. Vosper, referred to the dead man as "the thing called Vosper." There was little new light thrown on the tragedy. The doctors said there was evidence to indicate that Vosper had died from the effects of poison. Mrs. Blowey, a sister of Vosper, who had been called as a witness took very ill and had to be removed to her home in the ambulance. After hearing the evidence the jurors brought in a verdict to the effect that that Mrs. Vosper came to her death as a result of a bullet in the hands of her husbandoft bullet wound from a revolver in the hands of her husband, and that Vosper died from the effects of poison self-administered.

Getting Ready for Carnival.

Chief Smith is cleaning up the city for the benefit of the old boys who are not used to the ways of a big place like Hamilton. His men raided anothe like Hamilton. His men raided another alleged dive to-night at 479 North Hughson-street, and placed Charles and Emma Anderson under arrest. They are charged with being the keepers. The neighbors say that a great many very young girls have been in the habit of visiting the resort.

Mechanic's Pitiful Plight.

William Culver, a mechanic, sat in the Police Court this morning and winked at the ceiling. He did so many other foolish things that he was arrested as a crazy man. The case is full of mystery. He did not show the least sign of insanity till last Wednesday, after taking a morphine pill. The magistrate sent him to jail to have his head examined.

Charlie Johnston, who has a pair of light fingers that have often got him into trouble, confessed that he had stolen a dress and a valise. A wages suit between Olive Perkins and Chef William Koahm had some sensational features. The lady said she had thrown up her job because the chef wanted to hug her in the ice box.

Just One Topic.

The only thing people will talk or think about is the Summer Carnival. The principal streets are gay with bunting already, and by Monday morning there will not be a house without decorations. The Old Boys are coming from all parts of the world. Sunday evening Stare's Band will give a free sacred concert on the Gore. Over 1000 Old Boys are expected from Toronto. Those from Detroit have engaged special quarters.

Happenings.

Some of the leading stores talk of keeping open at nights during the Carnival, and the clerks are saying things.

PLOT TO CAPTURE PETREL.

wounded in the one-sided engagement.

Capt. Chau Says "If."

"If we had been armed," said Capt. Chau, "or if we had even one gun the size of the ones on the Petrel, we wouldn't have chased ourselves to port the way we were compelled to do. Why, the Petrel tried to ram us at first, and when we got under way, she fired on us at very close range. But when we got under way it was not very hard to leave her far astern. But while we were within range she peppered us good and hard and it's a wonder she didn't blow our heads off, for it was plainly the purpose of the commander of the Petrel to sink us and kill us, if possible. At least 100 shots were fired at the Silver Spray and about 20 struck us, for it was, at first, like firing at a barndoor at short range—they couldn't miss us. But after we gave the Petrel the slip, she couldn't hit up by 20 yards. But she kept firing until we were over the American line by a mile or two. We were not fishing in her waters, but simply after some net that got away from us."

Depends Upon "the Line."

The seriousness of the whole affair, as relating to the probability of its becoming a matter for international argument, will depend altogether upon whether the Silver Spray, at the time the Canadian cutter bore down on her, was in Canadian or American waters. On this point, Capt. Chau is himself uncertain, and tho he naturally says he thinks he was safely to the south of the line, yet he is not sure enough to swear by.

"It's hard to tell where the line is," said he, "and sometimes the Petrel is half a mile within the American line. I did not feel exactly safe of my position and started to run towards the American coast. I consider the attack of the Canadian cutter an attempt to sink us, and I believe they would have gone so far as to take our lives if they could."

The Bullet That Struck.

Speaking of his injuries, the Silver Spray's captain says: "The wound on my face, I think, was caused by a glancing bullet that struck the rail of my boat, or by a splinter. I was almost blinded by the injury and thought I would never be able to get away from the cutter. I did not mind dodging Canadian bullets when they were not fired so close to my head. The thought of past treatment that American fishermen have met with at the hands of Canadian patrol boats nerved me to dare anything rather than to surrender. I had an American flag in my hand and waved it at the Canadians because I could not leave my post to fly the banner aloft. When the shot that struck me in the face came I dropped the flag again and stuck to the wheel."

Why He Didn't Stop.

Chau stoutly affirms that if he was in Canadian waters it was for no illegal purpose, and he gets over the argument that if he had nothing to fear he should have hove to and convinced the Canadian official of his innocent intent, by alleging his fear that his contentions would not have been accepted and the Silver Spray seized and taken to a Canadian port. Then he would have to experience the law's delay, with its incidental expense and discomfort. If in Canadian waters, when commanded to stop, then the Silver Spray assumed the role of a trespasser, refusing to halt at the command of a policeman, who, finding his demands unheeded, had the right to attempt to enforce them by resorting to desperate means.

What It May Result in.

According to a despatch from Washington, it is reported that the War Department is fully cognizant of affairs on the Ontario frontier. It is also stated that the United States revenue cutter Fessenden has been ordered to Erie to investigate the matter, and the Fessenden, it is stated, may be detailed permanently to the waters now patroled by the Petrel. The United States cutter Michigan, it is also said at the State Department, may very soon have urgent business in the vicinity of Buffalo, Erie and Dunkirk. Both of these vessels carry several guns and a number of experienced marines, fully armed. Either boat is fully able to cope with the Petrel, and no American vessels are likely to be seized, or fired upon by the Petrel while they are within sight.

The report goes on to say that information was received to-day that Col. Bingham, the United States engineer at Buffalo, is on Lake Ontario, aboard the United States lighthouse boat Warrigton. The Warrington is not an armed vessel, and is not likely to take any part in the settlement of the present difficulties on Lake Erie. The feeling at the Capitol is that the present trouble will result, in the near future, in the American government placing a fleet of small gunboats, or torpedo boats, on the Great Lakes, abrogating the old-time treaty prohibiting such vessels on the Great Lakes.

GIVES BONUS OF $8000.

Cayuga, Aug. 14.—The ratepayers of Cayuga voted on a bylaw to-day to loan $8000 to aid a tannery, glove and suspender factory. The bylaw was carried by 118 to 12.

Horse Entries Close To-Day.

The entries for horses up to date are large, but not yet up to the record, altho there are a number to be received by telegram that have yet to be confirmed that will take the number to over a hundred greater than last year, when a record was made of 1193. Entries for the speed and conformation classes close to-day with Secretary J. O. Orr, 70 East King-street. When these are heard from it is anticipated that last year's total will be exceeded by several hundred. These, in each of which from $150 to $200 in prizes is given, are for 2.50 trotters, 2.50 pacers, 2.30 trotters, 2.30 pacers, gentlemen's road horses, road drivers parade for trotters, road drivers parade for pacers, special trotting stallion races, farmer's trot or pace, 7 or 8 pole pony races and several gymkhana and hunt events. There are also ten classes for which the Dominion government are giving prizes, amounting in the aggregate to $1000. These are for roadsters, carriage horses, saddle horses, combined saddle and harness horses, heavy draft and the best collection of any 10 horses, of any breed or breeds. All these close to-day and should be accompanied by the fee, which amounts to about 2 per cent. of the value of the purse in each instance.

Association Football.

The Gutta Percha and Rubber Works F. B. C. play the return game with the crack Cooksville eleven to-day at the Exhibition grounds at 3.30. The Cooksville team proved the stronger last Saturday, but to-day the boys of the Maltese Cross will strive hard to break even. The following are requested to be on hand at 3.30 sharp: Hoar, Hitchman, Maw, Dowdell, Johnstone, Bongard, Houston, Maw, Griffith, R. Moore and all members of the club.
