Live Stock Markets.

EAST BUFFALO.

EAST BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 13.—Cattle—Twenty cars on sale; market dull and slow, and prospects bad.

Sheep and Lambs—About 8,000 head of sheep and lambs on sale to-day; market dull, slow and generally lower. Best sheep shade lower than yesterday; common quality 10c to 15c lower. Lambs also lower, the strongest decline being on medium quality 70 to 75 lb lots, which sold 15c to 20c lower for the poorest offerings, ranging at $4 75 to $5. There were 10 cars Canadas among the offerings. Choice Canada sheep sold at $5 25. Good Canada lambs at $6 75 to $6 85, a couple of decks of extras bringing $7 per cwt.

Hogs—Market slow and dragging, and 5c to 10c lower; light weights suffering the strongest decline; 8,000 hogs in the pens. Some strong York weights sold at $4 30 and $4 35, but the regular buyers for the New York markets got all they wanted at $4 25. Packers took about 2,500 head; some of the best ones at $4 30 early; late sales of best ones went at $4 30, and dragged on; pigs sold generally at $4 25 at the close of the morning and were not all sold; roughs at $3 25 to $3 50, and hogs at $2 75 to $3.

TORONTO.

TORONTO, Jan. 13.—Receipts a little heavier to-day. Cattle—Trade active, mainly in butchers' grades. Nine loads were taken through to Montreal for export. Prices ranged at from $3 25 to $3 30 up to $3 75 per cwt., the latter for choice animals. This is no change from last Friday's figures, and there is a fair demand for choice butchers'. Bulls ranged a little higher at 3c per lb for good butchers' beasts. The local demand for fat butchers' was fairly active.

Sheep and lambs—Sales weak and prices not so firm. Lambs dropped off 25c, the highest price paid was $5; the most of the sales being made at from $3 75 to $4 75. Sheep brought from $5 to $6 per head, the latter for extra choice muttons. They bring about 3½c to 4½c per lb, live weight, according to condition.

Milch cows and springers—Dairymen are taking a few to keep up their supply of milk; and there is a fair demand for springers. Prices range about the same at from $30 to $45, or a little better for some extra choice animals. Ten milch cows sold at from $30 to $45 per head.

Calves—There is a stronger tone to this market. Some poor animals sold for $3 per head; good choice veals brought $3 50; and the general range was from $5 to $8.

Hogs—Receipts of hogs were good, but the market remains firm. There is no demand for stores and light fat worth talking about. A few were sold at $3 90 to $4 10 per cwt, weighed off cars. Good straight fat hogs bring from $4 to $4 20, with as high as $4 25, $4 30 and up to $4 35 in a few cases. Heavy rough bring $4, with light demand.

Petrolea Oil Market.

PETROLEA, Jan. 14.—Oil opened and closed to-day, $1 28.

Try a 10 cent sample bottle of the great pain remedy, Nerviline. Sold by druggists. Large bottles only 25 cents. Try a sample bottle of Nerviline, only 10 cents. Take no substitute.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—The directors of the London and Port Stanley Railroad will meet in the mayor's office at 2 p.m. to-morrow.

—The city engineer has written to the Street Railway Company asking them to instruct their drivers to use the center of Dundas and Richmond streets as in summer instead of the sides.

Another Reduction To Be Asked For.

The ADVERTISER understands that it is intended to ask the new Council to reduce the number of places where liquor can be sold by six saloons or taverns, and four shops—ten in all. It is probable a large petition will be at once secured and presented to the City Council. An open letter to the citizens, dealing with the above and kindred subjects, will be issued early next week. It is not expected that much opposition will be offered in the City Council to the moderate reduction proposed.

Scarrow or Garratt?

The returning officer's figures in the aldermanic contest in the fourth ward gave Ald. Maurice Scarrow 115 and ex-Ald. Joshua Garratt 114 votes. The latter asked a recount, and Judge Elliot gave his attention to the same for three hours today. James Magee looked after Mr. Scarrow's interests and E. T. Essery after Mr. Garratt's. One vote was added to each side by the judge, and the decision on nine ballots was reserved. Of these eight are marked for Mr. Garratt as follows: Three of them with three crosses after his name; two with a straight line; one with two scattered crosses, and another with the names of those against whom the elector did not put his mark crossed out. The ballot for Ald. Scarrow has a perfect cross after his name, but a cross opposite Mr. Garratt's had been blurred over with pencil marks, as if the voter wished to erase it. Judge Elliot will give his decision on the reserved ballots Saturday.

Chris. Butzer, of White River, Muskegon county, sent a beet to the Agricultural Department at Washington, and it was found to contain 15 per cent. of sugar. A number of farmers there are going into the sugar industry.

The Board of Supervisors of Barry county voted unanimously to submit to a special election, called for June 14, the question of building a new $54,000 court house and jail. The former is to be completed by July 1, 1893, and the latter by Jan. 1, 1894.

A giddy youth of 75 led a blushing damsel of 61 before the justice in Leslie recently that he might assist them over the matrimonial gang plank. Doubtless the gentleman wanted to be safely out of the market before the pitfalls of leap year were over.

Mr. James I. Davidson was yesterday renominated for the House of Commons by the Liberals of South Ontario.

Great Truths in Few Words!

There is a great deal implied in "good circulation." The health of the body depends upon the quality of the blood. If the blood is impure and impoverished you have a sallow look, with blotches, pimples and eruptions. For this condition the world cannot furnish a grander remedy than Paine's Celery Compound. It is vitalizing and purifying.
