BRITISH ELECTION RESULTS SO FAR.

A cable dispatch received this afternoon says that up to 3 o'clock to-day the British election returns are as follows:

Conservatives	125
Liberals	97
Liberal "Unionists"	19
Anti-Parnell Home Rulers	8
Parnellites	2
Number of members returned	251
Total members to be elected	670
Number of elections yet to be held	419

When Parliament was prorogued the House was divided as follows:

Conservatives and Liberal Unionists	369
Liberals and Nationalists	301
Ministerial majority	68

Gladstone's supporters must win 19 seats in the contests to come to overturn the coalition against him. He has been slowly yet steadily gaining on his opponents in the borough elections. Whether the more favorable territory yet to be heard from will bring better results and give Gladstone a substantial majority remains to be seen.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

Parties leaving the city on their holidays can have the Daily ADVERTISER mailed to any address in Canada or the United States for 40 cents per month.

—About 350 Londoners patronized the regular excursion to Port Stanley to-day.

—King Street Methodist Church will hold their Sunday school picnic at Port Stanley next Wednesday, July 13.

—For the two next Sundays Rev. W. M. Roger, this city, will preach at Peterboro, the pastor there being on a holiday trip.

—A further enlargement until Tuesday was given the case of Wood vs. Allan by the police magistrate this morning. The charge is that of a breach of the Pharmacy Act.

—The Canadian Wheelman, referring to the appointment of Mr. Kingsley Evans, of this city, to the chairmanship of the C. W. A. Road Improvement Committee, says the appointment is one of the best.

—The Young Men's Association of St. James' Church, South London, gave a lawn social last evening on the grounds of Mr. Arthur White, corner of Wortley road and Alma street. It was in aid of the new Sunday school building fund. The grounds were made brilliant with numerous Chinese lanterns, and the Seventh Battalion Band rendered several choice selections. Refreshments and flowers were sold in large quantities. Altogether, a very pleasant evening was spent. The young ladies officiating at the tables included Misses Reynolds, Flo. White, Ada Johnston, Hoare, Wilkens, Kompass, Southam, Fewings, Inos Taylor, Foster and Hessell.

—Prior to her departure for New York Miss Kirkpatrick, president of the Y. W. C. A., was tendered a pleasant reception by the members of that organization. The rooms were tastefully decorated with flowers and flags. Fully 200 young ladies partook of supper. The reception committee were Mesdames Bartlette, Norman and Thorp; refreshments, Misses Ware, Ramsey and Mayne. Miss Stinchcombe, of London West, presented Miss Kirkpatrick with a handsome bouquet of choice roses. Addresses were made by Misses Kirkpatrick, Penn, Mayne, Nixon and Winnie Mosgrove. The meeting closed with three cheers for Mayor Spencer.

Lively Scenes at the Station.

The special trains carrying the Young Christian Endeavorites from the Western States continued to pass through during the early hours this morning. The scenes at the G. T. R. station yesterday were very lively. Every train stopped here half an hour for lunch, and a grand rush was made by the Endeavorites for the dining-room as each arrived. The Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes hung side by side under the veranda. The visitors would sing their own national songs and those of Britain by turns, generally winding up before the train pulled out by giving three cheers for each. This was repeatedly done during the entire day. Dr. Leonard, United States consul, was on hand to welcome his countrymen. The delegates, of whom many hundreds passed through, were bright, happy-looking young men and women.

Webster-Hueston.

Last evening at 518 Richmond street, Mr. James Webster, son of Wm. Webster, sen., and Miss Annie Hueston were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. P. Talling, pastor of St. James' Presbyterian Church. The bridesmaid was Miss Mary Hueston, sister of the bride. Both were beautifully dressed in cream colored costumes, and wore large bouquets of pink roses. The groom was suported by Mr. Robert Aitken. The newly wedded couple will settle in this city on Oxford street.

Ho! for Cleveland.

Captain Ellison's enterprise in inaugurating his weekly trips to Cleveland via the steamer Joe Milton, has evidently been rewarded with success. On Saturday 80 passengers, the majority from London were conveyed to the Forest City across the lake. The captain kindly consented to remain over until after the "glorious 4th," and the visitors were enabled to enjoy the many attractions provided by and for the citizens of Cleveland. On the return trip 125 people were on board. Lovers of the race track will have a chance to go by the Joe Milton on Saturday, July 23, and attend the Grand Circuit races on the following week, returning Aug. 1. The Cleveland World of July 3, says: To those undecided where to spend their vacation, take a trip on the fast little steamer, Joe Milton, to Port Stanley, Ont. It is one of the pleasantest summer resorts in Canada, with a first-class hotel, good boating and bathing and splendid fishing. Boat leaves every Monday at 7 a.m.

Marriage Secure Her Liberty.

Minnie Koppason, a young woman who was remanded for vagrancy, having been found in improper company the other night, was given her release under peculiar circumstances. A young man named Wm. Cliff decided to make the amende honorable by marrying her. They were made man and wife on Friday, and Minnie was therefore given her liberty. The police magistrate made an entry in his book accordingly this morning.

Samuel Henderson and Catherine Hastings, an unpresentable looking couple, were found together in a building by the constable at the C. P. R. station last night. The woman is an old-timer. Both were sentenced to three months in jail.

John A. Tuck, who borrowed $10 from his employer, Mr. Essex, on false pretenses, had made restitution and was permitted to go.

James Hill a hard working, respectable man when sober, but not himself when drunk, was charged by a neighbor, Mrs. Donohue, with abusive language. Discharged with a warning.

The Homestead Revolt.

Latest Particulars of the Lamentable Occurrence.

The Situation Quieting Down and the Detectives Leave.

AFTER THE CONFLICT.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 7.—The Pinkerton detectives from Homestead arrived in this city at 2:40 this morning. Twenty-seven of their number were wounded and were sent to the hospital. They all refuse to make any statement or to be interviwed. The Pinkertons were to be held in the Pennsylvania yards under a strong guard until they left, when they were to be removed to the county jail to await trial for murder. The course of Governor Pattison in declining to order the National Guard to Homestead until Sheriff McLeary had exhausted all means in his power to preserve order is generally commended. The prevailing opinion here is that had the militia been on the scene the bloodshed would have been much greater. The advent of the armed, and uniformed men of the State troops to guard the Carnegie works, and to act as protectors to the non-union men, would have excited the strikers to all possible resistance.

THE CARNEGIE PROPERTY UNINJURED.

One of the most noticeable features of the trouble so far has been that not a dollar's worth of property of the company was destroyed by the strikers, and no attempt was made to do so.
