NEW REGULATIONS

Regarding the Quarantine of Live Stock Between Canada and the United States.

Washington, Jan. 18.—The agreement between the Secretary of Agriculture and the Canadian Minister of Agriculture relating to quarantine of animals, between the United States and Canada, provides that: 1. Each country shall accept the veterinary certificates of the other. 2. That the chief of the bureau of animal industry and the chief inspector of stock for Canada, will mutually inform one another of contagious animal diseases in either country. 3. A 90-day quarantine shall be enforced by both countries upon cattle imported from Europe or from any country in which contageous pleuro-pneumonia is known to exist. A 15-day quarantine shall be enforced on all ruminants and swine imported from countries in which foot and mouth disease has existed within six months, and upon all swine imported from all other countries. Breeding cattle admitted into the country must be accompanied by a certificate that they have been subjected to the tuberculine test, and are free from tuberculosis; otherwise they shall be detained in quarantine one week and subjected to the tuberculine test. All cattle infected with tuberculosis must be returned to the country whence shipped or be slaughtered without compensation. Feeding stock from ranches must be accompanied by a certificate showing that they are free from any contagious disease. Cattle in transit will be admitted at any port in the United States and Canada in bond for exportation by sea from any Canadian port, or from Portland, Boston and New York in the United States. No animal covered by this memorandum may be placed on board cars till the litter from the previous loads have been removed and the car thoroughly disinfected.

Sheep may be admitted subject to inspection at port of entry accompanied by official certificate that sheep scab has not existed in the district where they have been fed within six months. If disease exists in any of them they may be returned or slaughtered. Sheep may be admitted for transit in bond from one to another place in either country, and if for slaughter, they may be admitted without inspection. Subject to inspection at shipping port they may be admitted into either country for transit in any shipping port in Canada for export by sea or to the United States for export from Portland, Boston and New York. Swine may be admitted without inspection for slaughter in bonded cars to bonded slaughter houses, or when forming part of settlers' effects and accompanied by certificate that swine plague or hog cholera has not existed within six months in the district whence they came. Lacking such certificate they must be inspected at port of entry, and if diseased will be slaughtered without compensation.

Horses may be admitted in bond from one port to another in either country without inspection at the shipping port to another in either country without inspection at the shipping port. Horses may be admitted for racing, show or breeding purposes on inspection at port of entry. Horses may be admitted for temporary stay, teaming or pleasure driving at points along the frontier for a period not exceeding one week on port of entry upon permit of custom officer. Should he observe any evidence of disease he will detain the animals, and report to the district inspector, who will decide whether the animals may be admitted, and horses used for drawing or riding to and from points in Manitoba, Northwest Territories of British Columbia on business connected with stock raising or mining, and horses belonging to the Indian tribes may be admitted without inspection, but must report to custom officer both going and coming. Under all other circumstances horses must be inspected at port of entry.

Feed the Nerves

Upon pure, rich blood and you need not fear nervous prostration. Nerves are weak when they are improperly and insufficiently nourished. Pure blood is their proper food, and pure blood comes by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which is thus the greatest and best nerve tonic. It also builds up the whole system.

HOOD'S PILLS are the favorite family cathartic, easy to take, easy to operate. y

Lieut.-Gov. Kirkpatrick's Condition Not So Favorable.

Crisis in Spain Impending—Some Wonderful Elephant Stories Told at an Inquest.

LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR KIRKPATRICK'S CONDITION.

London, Jan. 19.—Though morning reports yesterday gave favorable accounts of Lieutenant-Governor Kirkpatrick's condition, yesterday afternoon reports are more serious. His friends speak very seriously of his condition.

THE CHIGNECTO RAILWAY.

London, Jan. 19.—A meeting of the bondholders and shareholders of the Chignecto Marine Railway yesterday afternoon heard the report of the present position of the Canadian Government in regard to the promised subsidy, and a resolution was unanimously adopted to the effect that every possible step be taken to urge the Laurier Government to carry out the Canadian promises.

CRISIS IN SPAIN.

Madrid, Jan. 19.—The Tiempo (newspaper) declares that the condition of affairs which recently brought the Ministry to the verge of a crisis has been renewed, and a crisis is again imminent. Senor Piny Marzell, the eminent Republican leader, is reported to have said in an interview that peace ought to be made, not by haggling concessions, but by granting to Cuba the fullest autonomy. On the other hand, Senor Croisard, a leading Royalist, is credited with having declared that whoever permits the Spanish sovereignty of Cuba to be shaken without drawing his sword is a traitor to his country.

ACONCAGUA ASCENDED.

London, Jan. 19.—The Chronicle has a dispatch from Mendoza, Argentine Republic, saying that Zurbriggen, the Swiss mountain guide who is accompanying the FitzGerald expedition, which went to South America for the purpose of ascending Mount Aconcagua, in the Andes, reached the summit of that mountain on Thursday last. This is a feat never before accomplished.

The height of the mountain is said in the dispatch to be 24,000 feet above the level of the sea, but, according to Prof. Guyot, its altitude is 22,422 feet. Aconcagua is, however, the highest mountain in the Western Hemisphere, and there are only eight other known mountains in the world that exceed it in altitude.

FASHIONABLE MARRIAGES.

London, Jan. 19.—For the matrimonial early season in 1897 (the period preceding Lent) nearly 200 fashionable marriages have been arranged. The list includes one Irish peer—the Earl of Kingston. Four sons of peers Hon. Francis Egerton (Earl of Ellesmere), Hon. Arthur de Moleyns (Baron Ventry), Hon. Francis Agar (the late Earl of Normanton), Hon. Gilbert Johnstone (Baron Derwent), and Lord Charles Cavendish-Bentinck (half brother of the Duke of Portland). Three baronets—Sir Ernest William Robinson May, Sir Henry Johnson, and Sir Gilbert King; and Mr. Fras. Hanson (son of Sir Reginald Hanson, Bart, M.P.). One member for Parliament—Mr. Coningsby Disraeli (Cheshire). Four daughters of peers—Lady Sybil McDonnell (the Earl of Antrim), the Hon. Gertrude Fiennes (Baron Saye and Sele), the Hon. Margaret Trefusis (Baron Clinton), the Hon. Margaret Brand (Viscount Hampden), and Lady Margaret Herbert, of St. Ycbe (sister of the Earl of Powis). Two daughters of baronets—Miss Ethel Wiggin (Sir Henry Wiggin), Miss M. Joan Pryse (Sir Pryse Pryse), and a sister of a baronet, Miss E. Lisette Walker (Sir Peter Carlaw Walker. Three daughters of M. P.s—Miss Mount (Mr. W. G. Mount Berks), Miss Brunner, (Sir J. T. Brunner, Bart, Cheshire), and Miss Charlotte Pease (Sir Joseph Pease, Bart, Durham). The army is well represented by no fewer than 41 officers; but the naval men number only 2. The fashionable Irish marriages arranged number over 20.

MARVELOUS ELEPHANT STORIES

London, Jan. 19.—Some wonderful elephant stories were told at a London inquest about the favorite beast known as Charley, which had been in Sanger's circus 21 years. He killed his former keeper by crushing his skull with a tusk. The man used to ill-treat the beast, and was discharged about a year ago. He was recently re-employed in another department of the show. He visited the elephants' quarters the other day to speak to the keeper. Charley was eating his supper. As soon as he heard the man's voice he turned, seized him with his trunk, pushed him against the wall, and crushed his head with his tusk.

The owner of the elephant testified that there was no doubt that the animal was paying an old grudge. Charley was the kindest elephant he ever owned. He had appeared at five lord mayors' shows, and many Drury Lane pantomimes. Mr. Sanger added:

"Elephants do not forget injuries or kindnesses. I remember several remarkable instances. On one occasion when I had been separated from an elephant for two years, the elephant, on seeing me, seized me round the waist with his trunk, and would not let me go until he had hugged and caressed me for a long time. Tears of pleasure ran down the brute's cheeks.

"Some years ago a nephew of mine, a child of three, was playing around Charley, and climbing up his legs. Charley gently resented this, but the child continued. Charley then took the child up, shook him gently, and put him down some yards away."

There were other testimonials to Charley's sagacity, and the coroner's jury was so impressed by his amiability that they did not even criticise him for killing his former keeper, but returned a verdict of accidental death.

Landing Waiter at Windsor Dies Suddenly During the Night.

After the Lotteries—A Golden Wedding.

The Perth Spring Assizes will open at Stratford on March 22, before Chief Justice Armour.

Alexander B. Marentette, of Windsor, and his wife, celebrate the golden anniversary of their wedding today (Tuesday).

Mr. E. J. Lovelace, of Essex, has assumed management of the St. Catharines Journal, vice Mr. S. Montgomery, retired.

The Windsor police are on the watch for two small lottery games which are being carried on by a couple of tailors. The latter, if convicted, may get $2,000 fine and two years' imprisonment.

Mr. and Mrs. Pullyplank, of St. Marys, Ont., were called to the city this week on account of the serious illness of their son, James Pullyplank, at the residence of Geo. Fraser.—Port Huron Times.

Eloise Diederman, an escaped lunatic from the Hamilton asylum, was captured near Delhi. Diederman was sent to asylum from Delhi about eight months ago, after threatening to take the lives of half a dozen men.

George Maloche, aged 60, of Turkey Creek, charged with incest, will be tried on Jan. 26, at Sandwich. The child's uncle, Climeau Durand, is the complainant. The penalty is twenty years' imprisonment and flogging.

Word has been received from Ireland of the death there of John Moffatt. Some years ago he was secretary of the Windsor Y. M. C. A., and later was manager of the Oak Hall establishments there and at Peterboro.

Daniel McGlashan, employed as a landing waiter at Windsor, died suddenly Sunday night. He was on duty on Saturday afternoon, but was taken ill suddenly, and at 12 o'clock was dead. He was about 60 years old.

On Saturday last Mrs. James McCorquodale, a Zorra pioneer died after a long illness, aged 70 years. Deceased survived her husband some six years, and leaves a family of five, two sons and three daughters. The daughters are Mrs. Walter Ross, of Youngsville; Mrs. Hugh Ross, of Kintore, and Minnie, at home. William resides on the old homestead and Gus in Dakota.

What Will You Do?

Will You Risk Failure or Assure Yourself of Success?

If you were dangerously ill, would you call to your assistance some faith cure imposter or a third or fourth rate doctor? If you were obliged to defend yourself in court, would you employ a lawyer without ability or reputation?

If, from motives of true economy, you find it necessary to do home dyeing, is it wise and prudent to allow a dealer to hand you some make of poor and weak dyes with which to do your work? Common sense and the saving of time and money demand the use of Diamond Dyes, the only make that can bring good results and perfect satisfaction.

Common imitation package dyes ruin your goods, ruffle your temper and waste your money. They would never have a sale or a place in any home were it not for the love of profit so desired by short-sighted and greedy dealers. Diamond Dyes are as necessary for effective work as is the able physician when life is in danger.

Heed how thou livest. Do no act by day which from the night shall drive thy peace away.—From the Sanscrit.
