Fast Going at Harlem.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—The Harlem Association now leads the world's record over a circular track for six furlongs, and the name of the new crack is Diggs, a 2-year-old by Red Iron out of Lily Wright.

To-day, before a crowd of 10,000 people, Diggs beat the high-class 3-year-old Cash Day in a gallop; running the three quarters in 1.12 3-4. The pair met in a special race. Macklin rode Diggs at 88 pounds, and Cash Day, with 111 up, was ridden by Leigh.

The latter was the favorite, and a fortune was bet on him at 4 to 5, forcing his price down to 11 to 20 at the post. Diggs won easily by four lengths. The applause was tremendous for a moment, simply on the merits of the race, but no one dreamed that the record had been broken, so easily did the colt dispose of his opponent. When the time was hung out, however, the crowd went wild, and gave an ovation to the horse and jockey. Summaries:

First race, 5-8 mile—Weola 1, Anna McNairy 2, Nellie Osborne 3. Time 1.01 3-4.

Flying Jib's Fast Mile.

Chillicothe, Ohio, Sept. 30. — Flying Jib hitched to a running mate paced a mile here to-day in 1.59 1-2, lowering the record, 2.01 3-4, made by Westmont in Chicago in 1884, at this style of racing, by 2 1-4 seconds. The performance does not constitute a record, as this method of pacemaking is not recognized as legal, and has no bearing on Robert J.'s valid record of 2.01 1-2.

THE PHILLIES GAVE IT UP.

Lord Hawke's Team Has No Difficulty in Disposing of the Yankees By An Innings and 40 Runs.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 29.—The result of the second international cricket match between Lord Hawke's team and the team representing All Philadelphia resulted in a disastrous defeat for the home players, the Englishmen winning the match by an inning and 40 runs.

The Englishmen scored 211 runs yesterday in their first innings, and the Philadelphias made 107 in the first innings this morning, and were compelled to follow on, and were retired in their second for 64, a grand total of but 171 in their two innings.

The story of to-day's play is only one of falling wickets and tribulaton of spirits as far as the Philadelphias are concerned, and of the magnificent exhibition of bowling and fielding given by the visitors. The day was as inauspicious for cricket as it well could have been.

When the two teams came on the field shortly after 10 o'clock a strong wind was blowing, and rain was threatened. At 11 o'clock a dark fringe of cricket enthusiasts circled the field and stood ready to brave the weather for the sake of the sport. A number of ladies were in the grand stand, and that most of them had come to make a day of it was shown by the lunch baskets they carried. Just before 11 o'clock a fine drizzling rain, that hung on the garments of the spectators and had a penetrating wetness, began to fall. The score that the Philadelphians required would have been big enough on a good batting wicket, but the dampness and rain made the crease soft and hard to play, Still, if the batsmen were at a disadvantage, the rain made the ball and ground slippery and the fielders and bowlers were also at a disadvantage.

At 11.15 the rain let up and R.D. Brown and Muir went in to defend the wickets, the former facing the bowling of Bathurst. The first over resulted in a maiden and then Hill started to bowl underhand lobs to Muir. Brown took kindly to Hill's grubs and pounded him pretty lively. With the score standing at 16, of which Brown had 14 and Muir. two, it began to rain hard and the game stopped. After an intermission of 40 minutes play was resumed with Muir facing Hill. Then the tide of disaster set in. Muir was finally caught at long leg by De Trafford off Hill. The first wicket was down for 16, of which Muir contributed 2. Wood filled Muir's place and, contrary to his custom, began to play a careful inning. The score mounted slowly between the two batsmen, and, finding that Hill's underhands were expensive, Whitwell was substituted for him. The wicket still standing. Hawke took Bathurst off and put Hillyard in his place. A moment afterwards Brown was bowled by Whitewell for an excellent inning of 21, and the second wicket was down for 39. Bohlen joined Wood, and now, if ever, the spectators expected to see runs come fast, as both Wood and Bohlen are rapid scorers. The partnership was speedily broken, however. In playing back on one of Hillyard's fast ones, Wood knocked his bails off with his bat, retiring with 19 to his credit. Three wickets were now down for 87, and the prospects were growing gloomier for the Philadelphians. Champion Scott joined Bohlen, and a moment afterwards the latter went back to the club-house on Whitewell's appeal for a leg before wicket. Four wickets were now down for 47.

E. W. Clark, jr., joined his captain. After making four, Scott drove one from Hillyard into the hands of Bardswell at cover-slip. Five wickets for 51.

The Philadelphias wanted 132 to save themselves from a follow on, and, with five of their best wickets down, a bad crease and superb bowling and fielding to play against, the task was hopeless.

Ralston joined Clark, but was caught by De Trafford at cover-point, after making 7. Six wickets for 60 runs. H. I. Brown partnered Clark, but before he made anything he cut one into the hands of Mordaunt at cover-stop. Seven wickets for 70 runs. Play was now stopped for lunch.

During the morning the day had cleared up a little, and the sun occasionally succeeded in struggling from behind the clouds. The crowd had also been augmenting rapidly, and when, after an hour's intermission, play was resumed at 2.30, fully 5000 persons were on the grounds.

King came in with Clark, but was speedily caught at the wickets by Robinson off Whitwell, and retired with a duck inning to his credit. Eight wickets for 71 runs. Bailey now came in. Clark had got well set and was hitting the ball hard, but with 24 to his credit he was caught a short leg by Lucas. Nine wickets for 93. The Philadelphias had been expected to be without the services of probably the ablest bat, G. S. Patterson, who hurt his hand badly yesterday, and was not expected to play to-day, but when he saw the way the wickets were going down he went in with the hope of being able to hold up his wicket while Bailey put the runs together. His right hand was useless, and he was compelled to bat holding the willow in his left. Patterson succeeded in his object, and for seven or eight overs defended his wickets, and even made two runs, but in attempting to make a short run Bailey was run out after a hard-hitting inning of 19, and the side was retired for 107.

The Philadelphias had failed to prevent their follow on, and after a few minutes of intermission they went in for their second inning. This was even more disastrous than the first. It was simply a repetition of batsmen coming out and retiring without a determined stand being made by any one of them. The bowling of the Englishmen and their sharp fielding seemed to have struck terror to the hearts of the Philadelphians, and they batted like a lot of junior eleven boys. Clark and Bailey and R. D. Brown were the only ones that succeeded in getting double figures.

When Ralston, the ninth man, drove a high one into Mordaunt's hands the score stood only at 64. The Philadelphians concluded that it was not worth while to send Patterson in to attempt to hold the wicket up and they conceded the game to the Englishmen.

It was expected that the match would consume three days and a large number of tickets had been sold for Monday and it is probable that a scrub game will be played to compensate the crowd in some form for their money. Lord Hawke's team was entertained at Mannheim to-night at a club smoker. The score:

Members of the T.L. & A.A. attending the cricket match, Lord Hawke v Canada, will have to show their badges on entering the grounds in order to gain admission to the club-house lawn. Lacrosse badges will not admit ladies to club-house lawn.

THE FOOTBALL RESULTS.

Varsity Rugby Men Make a Good Showing Against the Tigers.

Varsity Rugby men returned from Hamilton Saturday evening highly elated over the result of their match with the Tigers in the afternoon. Minus some of their best men they went up expecting a large score to be rolled up by their much-vaunted opponents. The students were agreeably surprised to see themselves pushing the Hams all over the field during the first half and when the sides crossed over Varsity was ahead 8 to 0, having scored a touch-down, a goal and two rouges. Near the close of the game the Tigers forced the play and scored two tries, one of which looked more like a rouge. Only one goal was kicked, and with a rouge their tally was raised to 11. The Varsity men say that Toronto should have a big show next Saturday. The Hams' wings and scrimmage did yeoman service, but behind they showed a decided weakness.

Highland Creek Kicks Out a Victory.

A return Association football match was played between Highland Creek and the Bell Telephone teams Saturday afternoon on the old Lacrosse grounds, which resulted in favor of the visiting team by 1 goal to 0. The match was a well-contested one throughout and both clubs put up good games. Teams:

Highland Creek (1): Goal, Chapman; halves, Woods, Gale, Rodd, Parker, Skelton; forwards, Ormerod, Bush Henderson, Plaxton, Reece.

Bell Telephone (0): Goal, Knowles; backs, Lynch, Atkinson; halves, Smith, F. Leaurie, Bowers; forwards, Grierson, Maw, Douglas, Walker, Wuld.

Referee—Niffin.

Parkdale Defeats Harbord.

Parkdale and Harbord Collegiate played a keenly contested game of Rugby football on Saturday morning on the cricket grounds, which resulted in favor of Parkdale, 26 to 5. The following team represented Parkdale: Back, McCollum; half backs, Grant, McMurtry, Young; quarter, Biggs; wings, Nugent, Harris, Biggs, Clark, Black, Burke, Forwards Doherty, Campbell, Power.

Joe Wright Elected Captain.

The Toronto Football Club had a rattling team practice on Saturday afternoon, over 30 players being on the field.

The committee afterwards met and elected Jack Healey, Temple McMurrich and Arthur Langtry to fill the vacancies caused by the resignations of Cameron, Boyd and Stovel. Joe Wright was elected captain. The club will practice every day this week at 5 o'clock. Vans will leave corner Wellington and Yonge-streets at 4.45.

After the practice to-day the intermediates in town will meet and elect its committee and captain.

Football Kicks.

The Wellingtons defaulted to Lornes Third Saturday afternoon. Lornes are the rising Rugby Club.

A practice match will likely be arranged between Toronto and Osgoode Hall for Wednesday afternoon.

There will be a meeting of the Riverside Football Club at 77 Hamilton-street this evening. All members are requested to attend.

The first Western Football Association game was played in Preston Saturday between Preston and Galt, which resulted 1 to 0 in favor of Preston.

There will be a general practice of the St. George's Football Club this afternoon at 4.30 p.m. All players are requested to be on hand.

Harvard won the first game of the football season at Boston Saturday by defeating Dartmouth by 22 to 0. The game was interesting and well played throughout.

The professional football season was opened at Philadelphia Saturday afternoon by a game between the Philadelphia club of the league of professional football clubs and the Athletics. The Philadelphia league team defeated the Athletics 5 to 1.

R. K. Barker has been chosen manager of the Osgoode Hall Rugby Club. As Old U.C.C. was occupied Saturday by the baseball men the ex-champions had a good practice on the Trinity campus.

F. J. MacDougall, who played on the Ottawa College team last season, will arrive in Toronto on Monday. He is a second year law student and should prove of great assistance to Osgoode Hall.

A friendly game of football was played at Island Park on Saturday afternoon between the wholesale teams of McColl & Co., and S. F. McKinnon & Co., resulting in favor of the latter by 4 to 0.

The Second Lornes played Upper Canada College at Rugby football at Deer Park on Saturday. The game, which was a fast one, resulted in a tie at 5 to 5.

HARLEY DAVIDSON, THE FLYER.

The Toronto Wheelman Lowers Records Galore at Waltham, While Johnson and Tyler Fail.

Waltham, Sept. 29.—John S. Johnson and Harry Tyler, the great bicycle rivals, were both unsuccessful this afternoon in their attempts at record breaking on the Waltham cycle park. The class A record stood a big drop, however, and also the tandem records. Harley Davidson of Toronto, who is looking for class A records, succeeded easily in every attempt, making the following new marks: Flying start, paced, quarter mile 27 seconds, one-third mile 32 2-5 seconds, half mile 55 3-5 seconds; flying start, unpaced mile, 2.14 2-5; the previous record having been 2.16, held by Simms.

Tyler came out for the mile unpaced, flying start record of 2.07 1-5. He fell short of the record by only one-fifth of a second. His quarters and thirds were: 30 1-5, 40 1-5, 1.01 1-5, 1.22 4-5, 1.34 3-5, 2.07 2-5.

Johnson had his eye on the paced, standing start, record, now held by Tyler of 1.57 3-5, but he fell far short of the mark, finishing in 2.01 2-5. He will try again early next week.

The tandem records meantime had been dropping. Louis Callahan of Waltham and O'Connor of Boston, class A men, cut the half mile unpaced tandem world's record to 55 3-4 seconds. Rhodes and Coulter of Tyler's team rode an unpaced quarter in 26 2-5 seconds, and a third in 35 seconds. These were new world's records, but they stood only a few minutes, as the Callahan brothers came on, and did the same distances in 25 3-5 and 34 3-4 seconds respectively. Charles Murphy of New York, who held the 2 mile world's record until Nat Butler lowered it to 4.04 4-5 on this track, attempted to regain it, failing by several seconds. His time was 4.11 1-5.

Next week Tyler will go for the short distances, Johnson for the longer ones and the rival tandem teams intend to make things very warm for each other.

Hartford, Sept. 29.—Yale defeated Trinity here to-day by 42 to 0 in two short halves. It was the first match game that either team had played under the new rules, and the result was very satisfactory.

Malden, Mass., Sept. 29.—The first annual road race of ten miles held by the Malden wheelmen was run here to-day. There were 121 entries. Eddie McDuffee broke the world's record of 26.13 for ten miles, making the distance in 25.40.

A Dead Heat the Result of the Road Race.

After weeks of preparation, 50 of Toronto's speediest wheelmen met at the Woodbine on Saturday afternoon to contest in the 20-mile road race, starting and finishing at the Woodbine track.

Dark horses have a habit of bobbing up serenely in bicycle races, as well as on the turf, and on Saturday the talent was again surprised.

For days before the race the consensus of opinion made the Toronto Bicycle Club a somewhat warm favorite, while for the Boustead medal, first individual prize, half a dozen too were named as sure things. The Toronto s, however, could not produce a team good enough to win the cup, and the men who were tipped to win had to follow Robertson and McCarthy to the finish.

The Atheneums and Royal Canadians tied for first place, with 216 points each, and the Torontos third with 201.

At 3 o'clock the five teams, representing the Atheneums, Royal Canadians, Torontos, Wanderers and Queen City, were in position on the track, and the start took place sharp on time. The bunch of riders, as they whirled around the track for the first four miles of the race, presented a very pretty spectacle. The circuit of the track was made four times at a little better than a three-minute clip, and then the riders dashed out into the Kingston-road, with Ex-Champion Hyslop in the lead, followed closely by McCarthy, Carman and Harbottle.

After a fifty-minute wait, the tedium of which was relieved by performances on a freak wheel, a shout from the spectators on the upper stand announced that the first rider had been sighted and three dusty figures flashed into the course together. Harbottle, Carman and Robertson they were, and they were closely followed by Hensall and McCarthy. In the last mile, which was around the track, Robertson put on a good spurt and finished first, with McCarthy, his club-mate, on his hind wheel, and Hensall a wheel-length to the rear. Carman was fourth and Harbottle sixth, behind Gibbons, while Walter Hulse beat Hyslop for seventh place.

After much calculation the small army of judges, scorers, and referees decided that the Atheneums and Royal Canadians had tied for first place, the score being 216 points for each.

Alf Rogers, who was expected to do great things for the Torontos, was disabled early in the race by a fall from his wheel.

There were remarkably few accidents for a road race of such magnitude.

The trustees of the trophy will decide on a date for the run off between teams of Atheneums and Royal Canadians.

The first nine men of each team to finish figured in the score, the first man in counting 50, and so on. The order of finish with the points scored were:
