DOMESTIC VERSUS IMPORTED

WHY CANADIAN SMOKERS SHOULD PREFER HOME-MADE CIGARS.

A Well-Known Montreal House Throws a Flood of Light on So-Called Imported Cigars—Canadian Brands From Reliable Factories Cheaper and Better Value.

Editor World: The agitation amongst the cigar trade caused by the articles that have appeared under the headings "Crooked Smokers," "Domestic Cigars in Imported Boxes," in your paper on June 28, is principally due to the fact that the imputations unjustly cast upon them are uncalled for and misleading, inasmuch as they imply that it is a common practice with the "Trade" to place Domestic Cigars in Imported Boxes. Cigar dealers will compare favorably with any other class of Tradespeople, and while there may be a few Black Sheep, which generally are found in every fold, it does not justify the condemnation of all in that particular line of business. Neither does it prove that the consumer obtains less value, even if it is carried on to any extent.

The greatest and most extensive fraud practised upon smokers is not by placing Domestic Cigars in Imported boxes, but by the inferior cigars that they permit unscrupulous dealers to give them, for the sake of additional gain, instead of well-known and reliable brands. How many smokers ask for and insist upon having a particular brand? Not one in fifty. Consequently they take whatever is handed to them, thereby increasing the sale and encouraging the manufacture of cigars of inferior quality, that, in domestic manufacture, have only their appearance to recommend them.

So far for the Imported article. Why do smokers ask for it? Is it because it is fashionable, or that they think they are superior to home production? We are prepared to prove that none of the above conjectures hit the mark. The fact is the "principle" is the keynote. We are ready to admit that there are a great many poor domestic cigars in the market (for reasons already mentioned), but not as great a percentage as in Imported, for it is a well-known fact to the Wholesale Trade that the Canadian market is looked upon as the dumping ground for cheap Havana goods. There are some fine, in fact very fine, Havana cigars imported, but they are few. The majority of cigars imported from Havana cost no more than $18 per thousand, and with duty and other charges with 10 per cent. (a small margin for importers) added, could not be laid over less than 25c. Cigars that cost $35 in Havana on a close cut are sold at 2 for 25c. What can consumers expect for their money when, if they will look at the official price-book, they will find cigars quoted by the recognized largest and finest manufacturers there as high as $800 per thousand, the lowest $34 per thousand, the latter being a small cigar weighing eleven pounds and naturally of inferior quality (which cannot be sold less than 15c in Canada). We respectfully suggest to smokers using Imported Cigars asking their dealers for any of the following sizes: Perfectos, Reina Victorias, Extra Finas, Petite Bouquet, Non Plus Ultra, or even Conchas de Regalia, or similar sizes of well-known Havana Factories such as "Henry Clay," "La Caronas," "Por Larranagu," "H. de Cabanas y Carvajal," or others of equal standing to these mentioned, and we feel satisfied they will be surprised at the prices they will be asked as compared with the brands that are generally imported, as "High Grade" cigars, which are specially made for this market. It is absurd as it is impossible to obtain a fine Havana at a low figure.

We could cite many equally as good reasons why in Imported Goods, as well as in Domestic, the consumer does not obtain value. The fault lies principally with himself, or reasons already stated. Is it reasonable to believe that cigars that cost in Havana 8-10c and 12½c and are sold here at 10c and 12½c respectively can be as good value as one manufactured in this country? Certainly not. There is a duty added to the admitted free. Our labor is cheaper, and personally speaking our facilities for purchasing and manufacturing are second to none in Havana or anywhere else. We buy the best market affords irrespective of price, and have an experience of forty years to justify our claim as cigar manufacturers.

We could give many incontrovertible facts why Imported cigars at much higher figures cannot be compared to our Domestic Cigars (Havana brands, "La Cadena" and "La Flora," that are unsurpassed by any made on the island of Cuba. To some this may appear to be egotism, nevertheless we are prepared to verify our statements. Cigars manufactured by us in our Havana Department are made to compete, not with the many inferior imported cigars that are being sold, but with the finest manufactured.

Some years ago we advertised in all the leading newspapers throughout the Dominion, offering a reward of One Hundred Dollars for information that would lead to the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who made it a practice of placing our goods in Imported boxes. We objected to the consumer being misled into the belief that, when he was smoking our make, they were Imported. Inasmuch as we did not care to build a good reputation for Havana brands; any merit to be derived from our make we wanted placed to our credit. Examination of our brands will fail to produce the slightest imitation of any other manufacturers. We claim to be originators, not imitators, and are prepared to stand or fall by the goods we manufacture.

Our clear Havana Cigars are superior to any Imported at same prices, and in many cases at much higher figures. It is only the prejudiced smoker that will not admit this to be the case. We are not in business for a year, but for all time. As in the past so it will be in the future, if through some unavoidable cause we run short of different tobaccos for our several brands, we will desist making same until such time as we are again in a position to offer equally as good if not better value. Our well-known brands, Cable, Mungo, El Padre and Madre e Hijo speak for themselves; the millions of each kind sold annually is proof of their superior quality. For our clear Havana brands, "La Cadena" and "La Flora," we ask the consumer to cast aside all prejudice and give them a fair trial. By doing so there will be no complaints regarding substitution of Domestic for the Imported article, as the home production will quickly dispel any impression as to the superiority of the latter.

ATTEMPTED MURDER.

A New York Hungarian Shoots His Wife and Then Commits Suicide.

NEW YORK, July 4.—John Lutz, a Hungarian, this morning while in his cups entered the apartments in Clinton-street of his second wife, who left him some time ago, and who had been supporting herself and her 13-year-old daughter by her first husband. Lutz four weeks ago threatened to kill his wife, but she drove him away, and they did not meet again until this morning. Lutz found his wife this morning in bed nursing a baby five days old. There was also present a midwife. Lutz at once began calling his wife names, and upon her refusing to allow him to kiss the baby he drew a revolver and told his wife he was going to kill her. She arose from bed clasping the baby over her right breast. The little daughter threw her arms around her mother to protect her. The midwife ran out of the room. Then Lutz fired three shots. Each entered the woman's body, but she escaped from the room with the baby and reached a neighbor's apartments. Lutz then fired two shots into his left breast, killing himself instantly. Mrs. Lutz's wounds are dangerous, but she may recover.

Another Gotham Tragedy.

NEW YORK, July 4.—Mrs. Hester Loppy, aged 40, was found dead to-night in her apartments on the top floor of No. 227 Christie-street. She had been stabbed through the heart with a pair of shears and her husband, Martin, is under arrest charged with the murder. A year ago Loppy had a fight with a woman and was struck on the head with an iron kettle. He lost the sight of his left eye and his mind became affected. For the last year he has done no work and his wife supported him by working in a tailor shop. Loppy drank heavily. This afternoon Thomas Weir called to see Loppy, but heard the latter and his wife quarelling and went away. Afterwards he returned and had to knock ten minutes before being admitted. Weir then saw Mrs. Loppy's body and accused Loppy of killing her. Weir hurried out into the street to get away and Loppy followed and told a neighbor that his wife was dead. The neighbor called a policeman and Loppy and Weir were arrested.

This was an "Accident."

NEW YORK, July 4.—A boss truckman, David Dillon, was shot through the heart and killed this evening by Edward Citterton. Citterton claimed the shooting was accidental. He had stepped up to Dillon to prevent him from striking his (Citterton's) brother Frank. Citterton held a revolver in his hand which had been used in the Fourth celebration, and it went off. Dillon and Frank Citterton were drunk. Edward Citterton was sober. All were young men.

A Fatal Saloon Quarrel.

BUFFALO, July 4.—Thomas Wilson was shot and fatally wounded by an Italian named Gialliell. It was the result of a saloon quarrel. Gialliell has fled.

PRETTY MISS CLARK

And Her Wicked Pen—She Secured $6000 by Forgery.

NEW YORK, July 4.—Miss Nettie Clark of Providence, R.I., was arrested as she stepped from the B ston express at the Grand Central Station last night on a charge of forging the name of J. L. Tourtellot to a note for $6000, on which she procured the money at the Mechanics' Savings Bank in that city. When taken to police headquarters she broke down and confessed her guilt. She said that she had borrowed $3500 from a gentleman some three months before and had taken a visit to the South, where she had spent it. When she returned she found that her note, upon which she had borrowed the money, was almost due, and she knew of no way to meet it. In her desperation she had forged Mr. Tourtellot's name.

Miss Clark moved in the most fashionable circles of the exclusive Rhode Island semi-capital. She is an accomplished pianist, having received a European musical education. On account of her beauty, taste in dress, social position and education she was a general favorite. She sang in a leading choir. Her father, Hollis K. Clark, is wealthy. He is president of the Rhode Island Butchers' and Marketmen's Association. He has been the Prohibitionist candidate for Mayor of Providence and for Governor of Rhode Island.

The mother claims that the girl was deranged when she conceived the idea of raising the money fraudulently. Mrs. Clark says that her daughter's mind has been greatly disturbed for some time, although it was not noticed by her intimate friends.

The real secret of the forgery is believed to be found in the fact that Miss Clark is completely fascinated with a medical student named Simon Smith and sought to advance him money. It is now thought that the various sums which Miss Clark has borrowed have gone to Smith.

FRED NICHOLS.

It City Engineer Jennings later in the day sent back the following reply to the Mayor:

I herewith return communication addressed to you from Mr. Nichols, giving notice as to works which his company propose to undertake in the way of laying their mains. I think that it is to be regretted that this or any other company should have the privilege of tearing up the city streets (which are now in a repaired or placed in as good order again) free of cost, and would suggest that the matter be looked into with a view to having a charge made commensurate with the expense entailed to the general public in this connection.

The City Solicitor will take the matter up.

About Taxing Church Property.

The Executive Committee met yesterday. It was resolved to allow the City Solicitor to suspend action in proceeding against Col. Otter for shooting at the butts to the danger of human life, rifle practice having ceased. The Jarvis-street Baptist Church people sent in a letter asking that their property be assessed in regular form and the Assessment Commissioner was instructed to see that what was requested be done. The Chairman immediately remarked that the Metropolitan Church was going into line just as soon as the other churches did the same. It was resolved to hold two more sessions of the council before vacation. The Chairman of the Toronto Street Railway Franchise Committee, Ald. Yokes, sent in a modest request for another $3000 for the expenses of his combination over and above the $2000 already granted. The Executive could not see it and promptly refused to entertain the idea. The recommendation of the Boards of Works that $25,000 be paid the Warren-Scharf Co. in account of Sherbourne-street asphalt pavement was referred back.

Dr. Allen Baines to Wed.

Dr. Allen Baines was surrounded by a large circle of professional friends, with a fair sprinkling of laymen, at the island home of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club last evening. At the head of the inviting and flower-bedecked board, which was covered with all the choice viands of the season, sat his friend of many years and neighbor, Dr. A. A. Macdonald of Simcoe-street. Dr. Baines will sail from New York on July 12 on the Majestic to meet his future bride, one of Devonshire's fair daughters. The gathering of last evening was to wish the handsome young Doctor lifelong happiness to himself and Mrs. Baines that is to be, and a safe return to his native land.

The total liabilities were $3,447,700, of which $2,451,253 was represented by the failures of the first quarter. The aggregate failures for the Dominion were 1000, and the total liabilities $10,579,249.

CANADA'S CRACK CRICKETERS

THE ELEVEN CHOSEN TO BATTLE WITH UNCLE SAM.

Four Toronto Men, a Quartet of Hamiltonians and One Each from Ottawa, Halifax and Brockville Comprise the Team—Collapse of the Ex-Hamilton Baseball Club—Bowling and Lawn Tennis Champions.

The special meeting of the Ontario Cricket Association, called to complete the selection of the Canadian International eleven to play in Philadelphia July 14 and following days, was held last night in the Walker House, President Goldie, Guelph, in the chair.

There were present besides: Secretary John E. Hall, Vice-President McDonald, Messrs. D. W. Saunders, Gillespie, Shanly, Collins, Winslow, Stark, Petman, Lyon, Dr. Stephenson and John Wright.

The selection of the seven gentlemen as already announced in The World was confirmed and the remaining four chosen, also the twelfth man, umpire and scorer. The complete team is as follows:

A. Gillespie, Hamilton; M. Boyd (Capt.), Toronto; W. G. Little, Ottawa; T. S. C. Saunders, Hamilton; H. B. McGiverin, Hamilton; J. H. Senkler, Brockville; W. J. Fleury, Aurora; Lieut. Hamilton, Halifax; E. B. Ferrie, Hamilton; G. S. Lyon, Rosedale, Toronto; K. H. Cameron, To onto; T. Clement, Rosedale, Toronto, spare man; John Wright, umpire; A. H. Collins, scorer.

This team is probably the best that ever represented Canada in an international match. The eleven is strong in all departments. The crack bowlers from Hamilton, Ferrie and Gillespie, are in the list. Hal McGivern and Sid Saunders of Hamilton, all-round men, were happy selections. Harry Senkler is a wonderful fielder and should come off well with the bat. Fleury, Toronto's left-hand bitter, is expected to get a big score. K. H. Cameron, Toronto, is new for international honors and is a lively all-round cricketer. George Lyon's selection was a well merited one. He is a clever fielder and hits well for his runs. Lieut. Hamilton, Halifax, and W. C. Little, Ottawa, are well-known on the cricket field. Mr. Hossack's bowling, fielding, extraordinary batting abilities, genially and general superior cricket knowledge warranted his selection as captain. T. Clement, Rosedale's fast bowler, is the spare man. John Wright was named as umpire and Duke Saunders as scorer. President Goldie's fatherly influence will also accompany the team. Senkler and Hamilton will arrive here Tuesday to practice steadily. All the other men will work with their individual clubs.

Manitoba 107, Listowel 41—1st Inning.

LISTOWEL, July 4.—The first inning of the match between the Listowel and Northwest Cricketers was played here this afternoon. The wicket was true and in spite of the rain fairly fast. The visitors went to bat, making 107, the double figures being Rokeby's 26, Tuckwell's 15, Wilson's 20, and Jukes' 10. The home team only got 41, the best score being 9 by Bain; Hall was bowled first ball by Tuckwell. Col. Hay for 1 by same bowler. Bannerman bowled for 18 overs, taking 7 for one wicket and giving but 5 runs. D. J. Campbell bowled three overs, all maidens and taking 2 wickets. W. J. Hay bat settled down to good work when he was retired 1. b. w.

Cricket Slips.

Four of the Internationals belong to Hamilton. One of these formerly lived in Toronto and McGiverin will locate here in the fall. Four belong to Toronto including the Rosedale Lyon. Senkler of Brockville lowered the flag at cricket here, while Ottawa and Halifax each claim a man.

An uninteresting match was played on the Bloor-street grounds yesterday between a Toronto and Peterboro. The features of the game was the small scoring done by both clubs, Boyd of the Torontos alone batting with effect. Toronto made 59 and Peterboro' 55. Cricket followed and did a little better, putting together 84.

THE EX-HAMS TO DISBAND TO-DAY

The Season was a Succession of Disasters There—The Game Died.

HAMILTON, July 4.—There was little interest taken in the meeting at the St. Nicholas hotel tonight. The season has been one of disaster. It is expected the team will disband to-morrow after the game in Saginaw. The aggregation is now run by Manager Powell, ex-Hamiltonians, who have freed themselves from its ravages. It was a rank failure locating in Montreal. The feeling here is of mourning for the International stiff. No representative will go to Detroit to-morrow.

This was a well-earned victory, for Mr. Biggar, who, though beaten once himself, had to overcome four other rinks in order to win the medals.

The visiting bowlers were entertained by the members of the Victoria Bowling Club. Before breaking up the president, Mr. Duggan, presented the prizes.

The singles will be continued this afternoon, play to begin at 2½ sharp.

Wants to Slaughter the Bookmakers.

NEW YORK, July 4.—Sixty-eight bookmakers were arrested at Monmouth Park to-day. The warrants were issued in Jersey City on the complaint of Detective A. Stockli. The complaint was made by Bookmaker DeLacey's henchmen. The bookmakers were prepared, however, they having secured the services of Justice Van Doren, who placed them under $100 bail as fast as they were brought before him. Business was but slightly interrupted. The racing association refused to allow DeLacey, who carries business in New York only, the results, and DeLacey in turn is trying to prevent bookmaking at the track unless he is allowed facilities that he needs, hence the arrests.

The Cornwall team will be similar to the one that slaughtered the Shamrocks last Saturday.

"OPEN SESAME."

The Trades and Labor Council Give the City Council Some Pointers on Sundry Matters.

President Glocking occupied the chair at the meeting of the Trades and Labor Council last evening.

The report of the Education Committee was presented by Chairman F. Cribbin. It condemned the Public School Board for cutting down the estimates for enlarging the schools and setting apart playgrounds, and expressed the opinion that the establishment of artisans' technical classes would not be beneficial if under the control of the Art School Board, and suggested that they should be under the management of a separate board.

The report of the Legislation Committee was adopted. It suggested that legislation be applied for making it a criminal offence for employers to impose and collect fines from their employes, and cited a case where it was alleged a young girl employed in a large establishment in the city who received $1.50 wage per week was fined so frequently that on pay night she was paid out 30 cents.

Chairman Armstrong presented the report of the Municipal Committee. It referred to the danger resulting from volunteer rifle shooting on the butts on Garrison Common and suggested that they be removed. It also denounced the plan of giving preference to certain parties in blockage accomodation at the Island Park, and suggested that pending the construction of the new docks by the city all vessels be given the same rights of landing passengers at the point. The report also put in a strong plea that old men on the city's pay roll whom the engineer says are not worth 15 cents per hour for cleaning the streets.

The Street Railway Committee report was presented by Chairman A. McCormack. It placed itself on record as opposed to secret meetings of the civic committees and strongly favored the admission of the press.

Chairman Glocking stated that the district assembly were now actively calling a convention to organize for the introduction of the eight hour system so soon as the council of the Board of Trade were ready to do so, which it will be. The Eight-Hour Committee were instructed to call a convention.

NEW FEATURES OF THE SEIZURES.

Special Agent Watters Busy With the Investigation at the Custom House—The Commissioner's Surprise.

Special Agent Watters is still busy conducting his investigation at the Custom House in connection with the cigar seizures and other matters. Copies of all the accounts and invoices of Newlich & Co. for a number of months past are being inspected by the department at Ottawa. Mr. Watters, it is understood, is devoting his attention particularly to ascertaining how the firm obtained possession of the import stamps, and how they were enabled to paste the same over inland revenue stamps without the knowledge of the Toronto Custom House officials.

It is stated that when Commissioner Johnston was informed of the discovery of the fact that several boxes of customs stamps had been found on some of the boxes seized at St. Catharines, on June 1 last, he utterly refused to believe it until he was shown one of the boxes containing such a stamp. The Commissioner was understood to have remarked something about that special series having been cancelled years ago.

The "Globe" published last night of a well-authenticated case of where a cigar dealer in this city nearly a year ago was in his stock room looking over his cigars. He picked up a box bearing a
