Provincial Paragraphs.

Yarmouth voted for incorporation by a majority of 22 on Tuesday.

Rev. D. D. Moore, of Prince Edward Island, has gone to India to take charge of the Anglo Indian church at Singapore.

Canso merchants are reaping a bonanza this year. It is estimated that the fishing fleet has already left $100,000 there this season for bait and ice.

The twenty-third annual convention Y. M. C. A. for the maritime provinces is appointed to take place at New Glasgow, August 7th to 10th.

The Orangemen made an imposing display in St. John, on Saturday, the 12th; there were 1,400 in the procession, which was a mile in length.

A man named James Walsh, in good circumstances, committed suicide near St. John's, Nfld., last week, by hanging. He leaves a wife and five children. Melancholia, caused by illness, is the supposed cause.

Mr. Alonzo Smiler, Fredericton, was one of those imprisoned for violation of the Scott Act and he was only released last week. On Friday last he was engaged endeavoring to open a safe for Mrs. J. B. Grieves, when he suddenly fell to the floor dead.

The Orange celebration throughout Ontario was a great success. Five thousand paraded in Toronto and five thousand in Hamilton. The chief feature in the turn out in the Queen city was the appearance for the first time of lady members. Mayor Clark headed the Toronto procession.

Says the St. John's, Nfld., Herald: "The following telegram has been received from the sub-collector at Bay of Islands: 'The lobster smack, Ethel, owned by Kearns, has been discovered bottom upin the middle of the Bay. There is no account of her crew. She is being towed in.'"

On Friday, 4th inst., Mrs. Victory D'Entremont, of Lower West Pubnico, placed in her kitchen a tub of water preparatory to washing the floor; she then went out a few minutes, leaving her one-year-old child playing about the room, and on returning was horrified at seeing the child drowned in the tub.

The death occurred at his residence at Bedford, on Tuesday, of Rev. Geo. Christie, an old and well known Presbyterian minister of this province. He was in his seventy-sixth year. The remains were taken to Yarmouth for interment. The reverend gentleman was superanuated at the recent meeting at Ottawa.

ORDINATION AT KINGSPORT.—The ordination and installation of Mr. Churchill Moore over the Congregational church at Kingsport took place on Friday last. The church edifice not being ready for use, the ceremony was held in the Temperance hall. Mr. Moore is a graduate of the Canada Congregational College at Montreal.

Joseph Wood, of Halifax, has been in Shelburne duriug the present week. He is making preliminary arrangements for running a steamship between Lunenburg and Shelburne and Boston. The proposed plan is likely to be carried out in a very short time. One trip will be made each week between these three ports.—Shelburne Budget.

The cattle disease is reported as very prevalent in Antigonish county. An Arisaig correspondent of the Halifax Herald says a great many cattle have died in that locality since May last with the disease. He says the malady in its stage is mild, "in its second maligunat, and in the third or last its victims get wild, mad, rush to the shore in many instances, put out to sea and drown themselves."

The Canadian Pacific railway has decided upon the names of the three steamers which are now being built for the Pacific service. They will be Empress of India, Empress of China, and Empress of Japan. The Empress of India, which will be first completed, is expected to be launched at Barrow in Furness about the end of November and will probably reach the Pacific coast and begin the service in February or March.

FRAUDS IN BRANDING CHEESE.—Ontario dairymen recently complained to the government that inferior American cheese passing through Canada in bond was being branded as Canadian cheese, and that hereby the reputation of Canadian cheese was being injured. It appears that the provisions of the merchandise marks offences act was applicable to the case and that the penalties will be vigorously enforced against persons wrongfully branding American cheese as Canadian when passing through Canada. A similar law provides a remedy against lobster canners branding lobsters of the maritime provinces as American products.

The ceremony of swearing in His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor took place in the Legislative Council chamber on Monday forenoon 13th inst. The oaths of allegiance were administered by Chief Justice Macdonald, Mr. J. J. McGee officiating as special commissioner. A large number of ladies were present to grace the occasion. Among those in attendance were His Grace Archbishop O'Brien, Judges Graham, Ritchie, Townshend and Meagher, Provincial Secretary Fielding, Major Bor, R. E., Capt. Kent, Lieut. Marsh, R. A., Capt. Boileau, Colonel Stewart, Lieut.-Colonel Clerke, Attorney-General Longley, Colonel Ryan, R. A., Rev. Father Murphy, ex-Mayor O'Mullin, ex-Mayor Dunbar, W. F. Parker, J. Menger and others.—Critic.

Bank Teller in Trouble.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., July 19.—Yesterday Robt. G. Sanders, teller of the Bank of Nova Scotia agency here, was arrested on information of agent H. A. Fleming for larceny of four thousand dollars of the banks funds. He was sent to jail and will be examined on Monday. The circumstances which surround the ease are peculiar and will only be developed at the investigation.

WOODSTOCK, July 19.—When J. M. Walker teller, went into the Bank of Nova Scotia yesterday morning at half-past eight he found the door of the vault open and the accountant, Robert G. Sanders, lying on the floor unconscious. He was roused up. The manager, Mr. Flemming, was sent for and $4,000 of the bank's funds were missing. Sanders was sent to jail to await examination on Monday morning. Sanders says he went into the bank at half-past seven on Friday morning to get some money that was to be sent by the express which leaves here at 7.48. While in the vault he was knocked down and became unconscious. He did not see the assailant, his back being towards the entrance. Sanders is a native of Yarmouth, N. S., and is about twenty years old. He has been in the employ of the bank three or four years, and has been here since Christmas. When Sanders was found the crystal of his watch was broken, but he did not appear to be seriously injured.

LATER.—Says a Woodstock special of last night to the Chronicle: "The court room contained a large audience to-day when Police Magistrate Dibblee opened his court, in expectation that the case against Sanders would be called on, but it was not. The prisoner was remanded until two o'clock to-morrow, and the court adjourned. There are various rumors afloat as to the robbery. Sanders, it is said, insists that he entered the bank at 7.30 in the morning to get a four thousand dollar package to send away by express and when opening the vault he was struck senseless. It is further stated that there is a bruise on the back of his head and the crystal of his watch is broken. Sanders' father reached here this morning, and Detective Power, who has been here since Saturday working on the case, left for home this afternoon. It is stated to-night on what appears to be good authority that the four thousand dollars has been restored to the bank and that no further proceedings will be taken."

—Dr. Ibbertson, specialist for old complaints, at Wilmot, N. S., begs of the people to give the faculty doctors a fair trial before applying to him. He has adopted the plan of manufacturing medicine to order, hoping thereby to benefit the greater number, and his success in curing chronic disease of every type—except true consumption of lungs—has silenced all criticism. His cures are effected by restoring the blood, and building up the worn and debilitated system by a judicious course of tonics, changing the medicines as the case demands. He cures dyspepsia, acid stomach, etc., with disease of the heart, liver, kidneys, spine, brain, air tubes, sick headache, nervous debility, catarrh, falling fits, blood and skin diseases, etc., etc. Satisfactory proof of the above statements will be sent to any address, when requested. Won by an "Annex Girl."

A FAIR STUDENT SECURES ONE OF HARVARD'S HONORS.

(From Boston Herald, June 17th.)

Following the pleasant news of the success of Miss Belasco in Paris and Miss Fawcett in England, both of whom greatly distinguished themselves in university examinations, comes the announcement that the Sargent prize at Havard University has been won by an "Annex girl," and the statement is especially noteworthy from the fact that it is the first time one of Harvard's honors have been bestowed upon any female student.

The Sargent prize of $100, which has just been awarded to Miss Helen Leah Reed for the best translation of the 29th ode of the third book of Horace, is the only prize open to competition from both men and women. It appears in the body of the catalogue as an offer to Havard students of the Society for the collegiate Instruction for Women, which, being translated, means the "Annex girls." Miss Reed sent, in competition, two translations, one in blank verse, the other rhymed, in 10-syllable lines. She has not yet been notified which version has won for her the prize, but thinks, from the unofficial information received, that it was the one in rhyme. In translating she adhered closely to the Latin and her ode has the same number of lines—64—as the original.

Miss Reed, who is the daughter of Dr. Guilford S. Reed of Hotel Huntington, may fairly be claimed as a Boston girl, though she was borne in St. John, N. B. The family removed to Boston when Miss Reed was very young, and have since resided in Cambridge and Boston, where Miss Reed has many interests, being a member of the Browning Club and other literary societies. She is also much interested in local charities. She is a graduate of the Cambridge high school, and during the interval between her graduation and entering the annex she studied at home. She entered the annex as a special student, not caring to give all her time to study, but later took all of the examinations, and has this year done full work and finished the studies leading to a bachelor's certificate. It is interesting to observe that her family there is much literary and artistic taste. Of her mother's family three brothers graduated with honors from the University of Edinburgh. Her uncle, Dr. John Berryman, who has been a member of the New Brunswick Parliament, is a man of marked literary taste and talent. Miss Reed's sister, Miss Ethel Reed, who possesses fine dramatic talents, is a member of the Boston Art Students' Association, and was the central figure in the festival of "Lalla Rookh" recently given by the association.

Miss Helen Reed, when she graduated from the Cambridge high school, was the class poet, but she has since, except on a few occasions, sternly suppressed her muse. She has, however, done considerable literary and journalistic work for the Chicago Tribune and other papers, and also for the Sunday Herald, to which she has contributed several articles during the past mouth. She has compiled two books, each containing one of her poems, and she wrote the poetical souvenir of the Dickens carnival, which the Women's Educational and Industrial Union issued several years ago. Another good piece of work was the compilation of a little volume of original contributions entitled "The City and the Sea," which was issued for the benefit of the Cambridge Hospital fund. Miss Reed will graduate from the annex next week. She has no definite plans arranged for the future, but will engage in literary work, and it is safe to say she will be further heard from. She has paid a great deal of attention to original research in American history, under the direction of Prof. Hart, and will continue in this line of work for the present.

Miss Reed is tall and of the brunette type, with large, speaking dark eyes, and her low, distinct voice, while full of sweetness, shows in her manner of speaking the earnestness and force of her character.

Dr. G. S. Reed, above referred to, is the eldest son of the late Granville B. Reed, of Port George, in this County. His youth was spent in Granville, and he married Leah Greene, who also was a resident of that Township up to the time of their marriage, which event took place in the house now occupied by Charles Longley, Esq., more than half a century ago.

LOMB PRIZE ESSAY.—We have received from the publishers a neatly bound copy of Mrs. Mary Hunnan Abel's Essay on Sanitary and Economical Cooking. This essay was awarded the prize of $500 offered by Mr. Henry P. Lomb, of Rochester, N. Y., through the American Health Association for the best treatise on this subject. The science of the process of digestion and assimmilation is here clearly and practically explained, in addition to which many useful recipes illustrate the application to our needs of the various kinds of food we use. The object of this book is to teach people to live not only more healthfully and select their food more intelligently, but also to live more economically. This cook book should be in the hands of every housekeeper and its low price places it in reach of all. Single copies in paper 35 cents; in boards 50 cents. If not for sale by your bookseller address American Health Association, Rochester, N. Y.

For several years Wide Awake has from time to time given some beautiful stories of a highly fanciful nature from the pen of Mis Mary E. Wilkins; one of the best appears in the August number, entitled "The Princess Rosetta and the Pop-Corn Man," with seven illustrations by Garrett. Another charmingly fanciful story in the same number is by Susan Coolidge and is called "Three Little Candles." As a contrast come "The Hat of the Postmaster," another Nassau story by Mrs. Fremont, "Cy Hope's Victory," the story of a Canadian Indian boy at school, by H. C. Chipman, and Miss McLeod's Acadian tale, "The Story of Bloody Creek." Perhaps one of the best things in the number is a short paper by Louise Stockton, "A Game of the Senses," in which she suggests the development possible to the senses through the using of them. The "helpful article" is by Mrs. Sallie Joy White, on "The Visiting Mender," though the small girl of the household may prefer "Home-made Furniture for Doll Houses" by Mrs. Shapleigh. There is a fascinating group of Lily articles: "The Queen Lily" by Amanda B. Harris, and a poem, "Water Lilies," by Frances L. Mace. "The Last of the Wampanoags" by Pamela McArthur Cole, gives an account of a family directly descended from Massasoit, that live in Lakeville, Mass., with the portrait of the Princess Teweelema." "The Confessions of an Amateur Photographer," by Alexander Black, relates to "Dark Deeds;" the photograph, "A Lake Party," by Prof. Newton, is very beautiful. A delightful illustrated literary paper is contributed by Mrs. Frances A. Humphrey, entitled "Early Days of Lady Annie Lindsay" author of "Auld Robin Gray." Mr. Ward's Serial, "The New Senior at Andover," which is attracting so much attention, is well worth the interest it excites; while the extravaganza, "The Quest of the Whipping-Boy," is good "light reading." "Men and Things" as usual gives good original anecdotes and talks, and the "Margaret-Patty Letter" is worth the while of young people who are careless of grammar and spelling in conversation and letter writing. The Prize Anagram, "The Perplexities of a Crymangle," is translated in this number. Wide Awake is $2.40 a year. D. Lothrop Company, Publishers, Boston, Mass.

A FURIOUS STORM.

New York, July 18.—A heavy wind and rain storm is reported from sections of New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Last night at Trenton, N. J., hailstones of remarkable size fell. Forty houses were unroofed, two hundred trees uprooted, and two men killed by lightning. The storm was very severe at Easton, Pennsylvania, and the agricultural works at Hellertown were blown in pieces and one man killed.

Montreal, July 19.—A young man named Charles Power met with a horrible death at the Redpath Sugar Refinery this morning. He was employed as furnace man and got caught in the shaft. The unfortunate young man was soon whirled around at a fearful rate, and though the engines were stopped almost immediately after, he was an unrecognizable, hopeless mass. He was only 21 years of age.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 19.—The Allan steamer Hibernian, which arrived yesterday, had a narrow escape from being dashed to pieces by a huge iceberg July 8. The berg was only 50 yards off when first sighted in the fog. The engines were reversed and the ship's course changed so the berg was struck aslant. The vessel carcened until her rails touched the water. There was great excitement among the passengers, one of whom was thrown from a bunk and injured.

LIQUOR DEALERS EXCITED.

St. John, July 18.—There is great commotion amongst the north end liquor dealers who, by a recent court decision, now come under the local liquor license act. As many as seventy of them have been reported as having liquor for sale without license. This morning cases were taken up before Magistrate Ritchie, and this afternoon are being continued. About 15 dealers were fined $20 each, and the others will probably be dealt with in the same way.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION.

Cincinnati, Ohio, July 15.—Late this afternoon at King's powder mills, on the Little Miami railroad, two empty freight cars were being rolled on the side track when they struck a car containing 500 kegs of gunpowder. A terrific explosion followed. Immediately afterwards another car containing 800 kegs of gunpowder blew up. Wm. Frauly, brakeman, was blown to atoms. No trace of him has yet been found. Ten dead bodies were taken from the ruins. A number of cottages occupied by workmen in the powder factory were shattered and the inmates injured. Twelve or fifteen girls at work in the cartridge factory are crippled. The railway station, freight house, together with all adjacent buildings were burned. The track and ties of the railroad were torn out of the ground. The Peters cartridge factory was burned. The injured number 30.

THE SALVATION ARMY.

London, July 15.—At a mass meeting of the Salvation Army last night to prepare for the celebration of its 25th anniversary, delegates were present representing half a million salvationists, including Mrs. Ballington Booth, of America, and Commissioner Adams, of Canada. Among the American delegates was a cow-boy dressed in a white suit trimmed with wampum and carrying a double-barreled rifle and bayonet. He confessed that he was one of the biggest sinners on earth. In giving his experience he said that before the Salvation Army converted him he was chasing and killing buffaloes in the wild west of America; that he had not up to that time touched food for a long while, but lived on liquor.

Mrs. Booth expressed regret at the absence of her husband, the American commissioner. She denied the report that the American army had snubbed the English organization. The army was just the thing she claimed for the educated people of the United States, where it has been reported they are not wanted. But there, she said, the people spend $60,000,000 for churches, $4,000,000 for lunatic asylums, $6,000,000 for bread and $800,000,000 for drink. From this state of thing she inferred that the Army is just what is wanted.

Fish Report.

July 19—The reports of the fishing and the movements of the fish at the various stations heard from to-day are: Cod and haddock fishing very good at Port Medway; hake and herring at Grand Manan, and cod, hake and haddock fair at St. Ann's. Mackerel are very plentiful at Lunenburg; schooling at Port Medway and Port Mouton, where they are also striking in. At Alberton and Tignish there are no schools, but some have been taken with hooks. At Mabou and North Sydney all kinds of fish are scarce. At the eastern banks also a great scarcity of fish is reported by the schr. May Flower, which arrived at St. Peter's from that place with only 40 qtls. At Margaree and Cheticamp the weather to-day has been too rough for fishing. At Port Hood, Yarmouth, Escuminac end Campobello there is no change from last report.

The reports concerning bait are; Bait in traps can be had at Pubnico; herring and mackerel at Caraquet, N. B., and some squid at Ingonish, C. B. One vessel baited and iced at Liverpool to-day.

Dam by Mambrino Pilot, 29, record 2.27¼; sire of Hannis, 2.17¾; Mambrino Gift, 2.20, &c, and the dams of Romeo, 2.19½; Prospect Maid, &c., by Mambrino Chief; sire of Lady Thorne, 2.18½. Dam by Pilot, Junr.; sire of the dams of Maud S., 2.08¼; Jay-Eye-See, 2.10; Netwood, 2.18¼, etc.

Sentinel, by Hambletonian 10; sire of Dexter, 2.17¼ and forty others in 2.30 and better. 1st dam of Sir Brenton was by Magna Charta, 105, record at 4 years old 2.33, probably the fastest of his day, and he has proved himself to be one of the greatest sires of Brood Mares that ever lived, and probably only equalled by Mambrino Patchen in Michigan and the West. A man can claim no greater point in his horse than to say his dam was by Magna Charta.

Magna Charta sired 5 trotters better than 2.30, and the dams of such flyers as Jack, who in 1888 took a record of 2.12½, and last season was still the sensation, taking a record of 2.15; also dam of Bell F, 2.18¾, and the dams of 12 trotters in the 2.30 list.

2nd dam of Sir Brenton was by Wellington, son of Black Prince; dam Lady Fashion, by Victor 2nd. Here we combine the great blood of Ryskyke's Hambletonian, and the best of the Morgan strain that ever existed through Magna Charta.

☞ Sir Brenton was never worked, only a little as a two-year old, and rainy weather then prevented steady exercise. However, he then showed a ¼ in 42 secs., and if trained will go fast, as he has the natural stride to do so.

Will be at Paradise till after 20th May, in charge of E. Phinney; after that, at Annapolis, in charge of D. R. McClelland.
