Buckenberger's Rowdy Players.

Buffalo, July 22.—President Powers has taken a hand in the rumpus which took place in Saturday's game between Buffalo and Rochester, and, as a result, O'Hagan and Andrews have been suspended pending an official report of the case from Umpire O'Loughlin. The report was sent to-night, but what it contained is known only to O'Loughlin himself.

The following telegram was received here to-day by President Franklyn of the Buffalo Baseball Company:

"After reading report of Saturday's row, O'Hagan and Andrews are suspended until I can get official report from O'Loughlin.
"P. T. Powers."

Manager Buckenberger again gets credit for introducing the rowdy element into the game. On Saturday at Rochester O'Hagan was at first base, when a hit was made into left field, the ball going thru Halligan. O'Hagan passed second and made for third. Andrews got on the inner corner of the bag to make the play, if one came up, but the runner, instead of trying to score, ran into him full tilt. Instead of claiming interference from the umpire, as he should have done if he was blocked, he turned upon Andrews while the latter's head was partially turned and dealt him a terrible blow on the side of the face and then clinched him. Andrews was in the fight in a minute, as soon as he saw it was a fight, and would undoubtedly have made a good finish of it if umpire and players had not interfered. It was a cowardly attack on O'Hagan's part.

Andrews felt as tho he had had a rotten deal, and after being put out of the game got his sweater and glove and made for the club house, where O'Hagan had run as soon as he could after being retired. The latter could not be found. He was undoubtedly locked up in his dressing room. Andrews went behind the club house and sent word to O'Hagan to come out, and they would see "which was the man, and which the dog," but O'Hagan stayed inside.

Syracuse Team Transferred.

Fall River, Mass., July 21.—Fred Mason, business manager of the Syracuse baseball team, was in the city to-day, and gave out the information that the Syracuse Eastern League team had been transferred to Brockton, and will open up there next Thursday against the Providence team. He said his team had had hard luck this year. Manager Mason left for Brockton to-day to make arrangements for opening games.

Rochester Here Wednesday.

Rochester will open a series at Diamond Park on Wednesday in a series of games that will have a great bearing on the championship. Six games in all will be played—on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Saturday and Sunday the teams will play at Rochester.

HAY FROM THE WEST.

Winnipeg, July 22.—(Special.)—An officer of the British army is expected in the city shortly to purchase hay for South Africa. It is expected that he will rent large areas of hay land and arrange for the cutting, bailing and shipping of hay.

CIRCUIT TROTTERS AT CLEVELAND.

Four Races Decided on Opening Day—Some Close Finishes.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 22.—Ideal racing weather, a large crowd and a track as smooth as the top of a billiard table characterized the opening day of the Grand Circuit meeting at the Cleveland Driving Park this afternoon. Heretofore it has been the policy of the Cleveland Driving Park Company to charge no admission on the opening day of the Grand Circuit races, but to-day full admission prices were charged. This, however, did not keep away the crowds, and about 5000 people were on hand at 1.30 o'clock to see Starter Ab Barnard give the word "Go!" to the 2.10 trotters. The finishes of the two heats of the first race were close and exciting, but Sister Alice succeeded in sticking her nose under the wire a winner in both heats. In fact so close was the first heat that the judges deliberated fully five minutes before giving their decision. Nonomine was a hot favorite in the second race, but Martha Marshall was too fleety for the Helm entry, and won in straight heats. Metallas in the third trotted away from the bunch in each heat, keeping a gap of daylight between himself and his fast flying competitors. Ed Geers' Shadow Chimes was slated to win the fourth event, bets of $100 to $50 being freely made on him. Audobon Boy made the pace in both heats and came out victorious in the closest and most exciting race of the day. Shadow Chimes led in the stretch in the first heat, but broke just before the wire was reached, thus killing all chances of crossing a winner. Thousands of dollars were placed on the Geers entry and the bookies reaped a rich harvest. Summary:

Pigeons Flew From Illinois.

The last old-bird race on the schedule of the Dominion Messenger Pigeon Association was a race from Decatur, Illinois, to Toronto, an air-line distance of 600 miles. Owing to delays in weather, etc., the pigeons were not let go until July 12. On that day Mr. Fink of Decatur let them go under fairly favorable circumstances, but, unfortunately, none of the pigeons got home in the time limit of three days, so the race was called off. On Saturday, July 20, two of Messrs. A. & J. Magee Bros.' pigeons arrived home, thus making another long-distance record for this loft. They already held the 500-mile record before, and this now makes the 600-mile record for their pigeons.

Association Football.

The Scots will practise at the oval, Hanlan's Point, Tuesday and Thursday evenings this week. A full turnout is expected, as the team go to Berlin to play the return game with Galt on Saturday next.

Of the game on Saturday The Galt Reformer had to say: "Pretty easy for us. We're just as sure of the provincial championship as we are of the W.F.A. championship. The Scots lost on Saturday night by 6 goals to 0. The next match, if it ever sees the light of day, is to be played in Berlin next Saturday evening. The Scots are about as apt to win it as they are to win the pennant of the Eastern Baseball League. To be candid, the Scots do not know how to play football. They act like 11 farmers. With them it is the old kick-it-and-run-after-it style, long since obsolete on the line-up. There are two really good men who played their places—Humphrey on the full-back and Browning on the left half."

The Broadview Intermediate Football Club will journey to Galt to-day to do battle with the Galt Intermediates in the first of a series of two games for the championship of Ontario. The Broadviews will take a good following along with them, and expect to give the locals a hard tussle. The Galt boys play a splendid team game, likewise the Broadviews, and the spectators will probably witness one of the best games of the season. The second game of the series will be played on Sunlight Park next Saturday, and no lover of the game should miss this match. It will be for blood. The Toronto boys will be represented by the following team: Goal, Bennett; backs, Booth, McIver; half-backs, Barkey, Hilton, Armstrong; forwards, Jones, Tyner, McGrath, Gill, Lewis; spare man, Brown.
