ST. LAWRENCE AND PRODUCE MARKETS

Butter and Eggs About Steady —Poultry, Light Receipts and Firm.

Trade in pretty much all lines in the wholesale districts is about steady. Fruits and vegetables show very little change from day to day. Potatoes are quoted at from $1.10 to $1.25 a bag in small lots and from $1.00 to $1.15 to the trade in large lots. There does not seem to be any outstanding movements in the potatoes, and wholesale men say they do not look for any change one way or another for a while at least.

Poultry receipts are very light, not much doing, with prices about steady. Eggs are weak and likely to remain so for a while. Summer weather conditions are prevailing all over, and this is undoubtedly a factor in the situation. Butter is unchanged from the beginning of the week.

WHEAT DECLINES IN CHICAGO PIT

Uneasiness Over Industrial Outlook Prompts Heavy Selling All Round.

Chicago, March 11.—Changes in the price of wheat today resulted mainly from disturbed industrial conditions. The market closed nervous at 3¾c to 4¼c net lower, with March $1.62¼ to $1.62½, and May $1.53½ to $1.53¾. Corn lost ⅞c to 1¼c; oats, 1¼c to 1¼c to 1⅜c, and provisions 17c to 45c.

Bears in thme wheat pit had things nearly all their own way right from the start. Attention of traders focused almost entirely on proposed wage cuts and on danger of widespread strikes. As a consequence buying power shrank and selling pressure increased until values had been slashed in some cases nearly be a bushel.

Then the fact became evident that export interests were taking advantage of the downturn. According to some estimates one million bushels were taken for Europe. Knowledge of this activity on the part of foreigners checked the breaks, but led to no important reaction. Much liquidation was witnessed and there was heavy selling in particular by a house that appeared to be closing spreads with Winnipeg.

Official figures on total wheat stocks in the U. S. were construed as bearish.

Corn and oats declined with wheat, notwithstanding export business of corn to the extent of nearly 300,000 bushels.

Provisions were weak, reflecting the action of grain and hogs.

MONTREAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Montreal, March 11.—The domestic market for cash grain was without any new feature today. A fair amount of business continues to be done in flour under a steady demand. The feeling in mill feed is steady. The tendency in the egg market is towards still lower prices, and there is no new development in the potato business.
