Poetry, &c.

NIGHT.

NIGHT! thou't the time for rest,
When wearied limbs repose,
And on thy calm maternal breast
The aching eyelids close;
Night! thou't the time for rest.

Night! thou't the time for dreams,
When visions of the past
Gush o'er the soul from memory's streams
Too fresh, to fair to last;
Night! thou't the time for dreams.

Night! thou't the time for prayer,
When no world-haunting thought
Disturbs the mind, but, like thine air,
It is with stillness fraught;
Night! thou't the time for prayer.

Night! thou't the time for grief,
Which daylight hath suppressed;
When pent-up feelings find relief,
Nor fear the worldling's jest;
Night! thou't the time for grief.

Night! thou't the time for tears,
Which no intruders know,
Whose idle pity, scarce hid tears
Would mock them as they flow;
Night! thou't the time for tears.

Night is the time for peace,
When gentle thoughts hold sway,
And all the tempest-passions cease,
That tear the heart by day;
Night is the time for peace.

Then welcome, gentle night,
Most welcome—for my soul
Is wearied of life's pageant bright,
And needs thy soft control;
Then welcome, gentle night.

—From Lyrics for Leisure Hours. By Florence Wilson

Wit on the Woolsack.—The law-lords were in mirthful mood on the 20th ult. Lord Campbell complained of the coldness of the house, and expressed his anxiety for the completion of the new chamber. He had been nailed to his seat, he said, for six hours and a half, disposing of judicial business, and suffered great personal inconvenience from cold, but was not so much alarmed on his own account as for the health (which he highly valued) of his noble and learned friend, Lord Brougham, as well as for that of his noble and learned friend Lord Cottenham.—("Hear!" and a laugh.) Lord Brougham admitted that he should indeed have felt the cold intolerable but for the great pleasure which he had derived, in common with other noble lords, from the speeches of counsel.—(Laughter.) The Lord Chancellor observed that he did not himself feel the cold so severely as his learned friends, archly adding, that he could only ascribe the sufferings which they endured to their not having the same dress which he wore.—(Great laughter.)

A CURE FOR ALL!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A CASE ABANDONED BY GUY'S, THE METROPOLITAN KING'S COLLEGE, AND CHARING CROSS HOSPITALS.

This Fact was SWORN TO this 8th day of March, 1842 before the LORD MAYOR at the Mansion-house.

SUMMARY OF AFFIDAVIT.

WM. BROOKE, Messenger, of 2 Union street Southwark, London, maketh oath and saith, that he (this deponent) was afflicted with FIFTEEN RUNNING ULCERS on his left arm, and ulcerated sores and wounds on both legs, for which deponent was admitted an out-door patient at the Metropolitan Hospital, in April, 1841, where he continued for nearly four weeks. Unable to receive a cure there, the deponent sought relief at the three following hospitals:—King's College Hospital in May, for five weeks; —at Guy's Hospital in July, for six weeks; and at Charing Cross Hospital at the end of August, for some more weeks: which deponent left, being in a far worse condition than when he had quitted Guy's, where Sir BRANSBY COOPER, and other medical officers of the establishment had told deponent that the only chance of saving his life was to LOSE HIS ARM! The deponent thereupon called upon Dr. Bright, chief physician of Guy's, who, on viewing deponent's condition, kindly and liberally said, "I am utterly at a loss what to do for you! but here is half a Sovereign: go to Mr. HOLLOWAY, and try what effect his Pills and Pills and Ointment will have, as I have frequently witnessed the wonderful effects they have in desperate cases. You can let me see you again." This unprejudiced advice was followed by the deponent, and a perfect cure effected in three weeks, by the use alone of HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and OINTMENT, after four Hospitals had failed! When Dr. Bright was shown by the deponent, the result of his advice and charity, he said, "I am both astonished and and delighted for I thought that if I ever saw you again, alive, it would be without your arm. I can only compare this Cure to a Charm!!!"

Sworn at the Mansion-house of the City of London, this 8th day of March, 1842. } WM. BROOKE.

Before me, JOHN PIRIE, Mayor

In all Diseases of the Skin, Bad Legs, Old Wounds and Ulcers, Bade Breasts, Sore Nipples, Stoney and Ulcerated Cancers, Tumours, Swellings, Gout, Rheumatism, and Lumbago, likewise in cases of Piles; the Pills, in all the above cases, ought to be used with the Ointment; as by this means cures will be effected with a much greater certainty, and in half the time that it would require by using the Ointment alone. The Ointment is proved to be a certain remedy for the bites of moschettoes, Sand-flies, Chigoe foot, Yaws, and Coco-bay.

Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Chapped Hands and Lips, also Bunions and Soft Corns, will be immediately cured by the use of the Ointment.

THE PILLS are not only the finest remedy known when used with the Ointment, but as a General Medicine there is nothing equal to them. In nervous affections they will be found of the greatest service. These Pills are, without exception, the finest Purifier of the Blood ever discovered, and GHOUT to be USED BY ALL!!!

Sold by the Proprietor, 244, Strand near Temple Bar), London; and by PETERS & TILLEY Provincial Agents, No. 2, King Street, St. John, N. B.; James F. Gale, Fredericton; W. T. PURIFY THE BLOOD.

MOFFAT'S VEGETABLE LIFE PILLS AND PHŒNIX BITTERS.

The high and envied celebrity which these pre-eminent Medicines have acquired for their invariable efficacy in all the diseases which they profess to cure, has rendered the usual practice of puffing not only unnecessary, but unworthy of them. They are known by their fruits; their good works testify for them, and they thrive not by the faith of the credulous.

The Genuine of these medicines are now put up in white wrappers and labels, together with a pamphlet, called "Moffat's Good Samaritan," containing the directions, &c., on which is a drawing of Broadway from Wall street to our Office, by which strangers visiting the city can very easily find us. The wrappers and Samaritans are copyrighted, therefore those who procure them with the white wrappers can be assured that they are genuine. Be careful, and do not buy those with yellow wrappers; but if you do, be satisfied that they come direct from us, or don't touch them.
