NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9—Tug Conestoga reports that at noon Nov 5 passed a red painted can buoy, Cape Ann light bearing NE by N, and beacon on Marble Head Rock NW by N¼N. There was apparently no anchor or chain attached, as it was floating horizontally on the water.

Portland, Nov 11—The following bulletin has been issued by the local lighthouse inspector:

Boothbay Harbor from the westward—Bantam Rock first-class nun buoy No 2, reported adrift Nov 11; will be replaced as soon as practicable.

Carver's Harbor from the south—Colt Ledge spar buoy No 2, reported adrift Nov 11; will be replaced as soon as practicable.

A new circular iron painted red has been provided for the lighthouse near the east end of Sable Island. On Nov 15 the character of the light will be changed, without further notice, from a fixed white light to a flashing white light, showing three bright flashes at intervals of three seconds, followed by an interval of nine seconds.

City Island, Nov. 10—Stmr Yumuri, Boe, Perth Amboy for St. John, before reported put into Rock Island leaking and with cargo shifted, left here this morning, returning to New York to make repairs.

Cable advices from England state that Capt Petterson, who was in command of brk Alexandra (Nor) when the vessel was abandoned at sea May 8, while on the passage from Newcastle (N S W), Nov 26, 1906, for Panama, has been saved and landed at Guayaquil. It was supposed that Capt Petterson was lost at the time of the disaster.

Quebec, Nov 12—Stmr Bavarian, recently wrecked in the St Lawrence, and purchased by the North American Wrecking Company, was successfully blasted into two parts today and was brought to the wharf. The work, which was under the charge of the North American Wrecking Company, was most successful.

Stmr Savoy (Br), supposed hence for Anticosti, and schr La Belley (Br) collided in the Gulf. The schooner is badly damaged. The steamer is uninjured.

CHARTERS.

Petroleum—Brit schr Maritana, 20,000 cases, New York to Buenos Ayres, p t, prompt.

Lumber—Nor brk Gudrun, 1,361 tons, from Boston to Buenos Ayres, $9.50; Nor ship Ashmore, 1,099 tons, same; schr Warner Moore, 354 tons, from Charleston to Providence, at or about $6.

The sail tonnage market changes in no important respect, and trading was light in all departments. Two sailers were closed for lumber from Boston to Buenos Ayres at market terms, and some few West India charters were quoted. Coastwise chartering continues dull, the only improvement noticed being in the eastern coal trade, where there is a slightly better demand.

BIG DROP IN PORK PRICES IN CARLETON CO.

Large Quantity Bought for Halifax Market Couldn't Be Shipped Because Slaughtering Regulations Were Not Complied With.

Hartland, N. B., Nov. 14—Joseph McGee and H. N. Boyer, buying dressed pork for shipment to Halifax, met with a deadlock in their business this week. They had purchased a large quantity which they were to ship today when they received notification that, to comply with a law enacted during the last session of parliament, hogs dressed for export or interprovincial trade must have the heart, lungs and liver left in the carcase and pass government inspection. Through ignorance of the law these conditions have not been met and the proposed shipment to Halifax is off for the present. This is a severe blow not only to shippers but to the farmers as the price realized from pork sent to the Halifax market is about $10 per ton more than that in St. John or elsewhere in the province.

As matters stand now the local market is glutted and the price has fallen from eight and a quarter to six and a half cents, a difference of $35 to the man that has a ton of pork to sell.

While driving down the steep hill approaching the west end of the river bridge, James C. Lakin, of Waterville (Me.), was very seriously injured yesterday. He had a double team from one of the livery stables and when at the steepest part of the hill the neck-yoke broke, the pole dropper, and in the resulting smashup Lakin was thrown out on the frozen ground. A man driving along behind hurried to his assistance and found Lakin unconscious. He put him in his wagon and carried him to the Exchange hotel. Examined by physicians no broken bones were located, but the heavy fall injured him internally. While recovery is altogether probable, he will be in bed for a time. The team ran a short distance, but was not injured. Mr. Lakin represents Swift's Lowell Fertilizer Co., and is well known throughout the potato-raising sections of the province.

Mrs. Darian Gray and daughter, of Bridgewater (Me.), arrived yesterday to visit her sister, Mrs. W. P. McMullen.

Mrs. Nettie Dickinson, of Windsor, spent part of the week with friends in the village.

Miss Hughes, county president of the Ladies' Auxiliary, A. O. H., organized a society in Tara hall at Johnville recently. Officers elected were: Miss Mary Gallagher, president; Mrs. Wm. Gallagher, vice-president; Miss Alice Boyd, recording secretary; Miss Alice McGinley, financial secretary; Mrs. C. Sweeney, treasurer; Mrs. Murphy, mistress-at-arms.

Soon after the fire of July 15, Hagerman & Baird purchased the Foresters hall for their machinery business, since which time the village has been without a suitable place for a public entertainment. They have, however, recently completed the changing of the second story into one large hall, with a seating capacity for about 500 people and with a stage 10x35 feet.

The little British schooner Princess of Avon, which capsized off Nahant, Sept. 25, while on her way to this port from Beverly, and whose cook, Elbie Norman, was drowned, is again in commission. The survivors of the wreck were rescued and brought in by the quartermaster's tug, Capt. Morrison, and the overturned craft was towed in by the tugs Juno and Active and taken to East Boston. After some delay a settlement was effected with the salvors and the schooner was repaired at East Boston. In command of Capt. James Howard McLellan, who nearly lost his life when the schooner turned turtle, she will probably leave here today for Moncton (N. B.)—Boston Globe, Wednesday.

ST. JOHN MARKETS

During the past week there has been a drop in the price of many kinds of groceries. In some cases this is due to the advance of the season, as the new crop is coming in; but the stringency of the money market is also affecting prices in the local market. Manitoba flour remains firm, and Ontarios have returned to the top notch mark reached three weeks ago. Cornmeal shows a tendency to decline.

In the country market there is little change in prices, and sales are reported somewhat dull. Lamb has advanced a little, being somewhat scarcer. There is a good supply of all kinds of vegetables. The principal wholesale quotations Thursday were:
