MERCIER IS DEAD!

The Great French-Canadian Succumbs After Long Suffering.

His Dying Hours—Unconscious at the Last—Peculiar Prophecy.

MONTREAL, Oct. 30.—Honore Mercier died this morning at 8:45. The end had been expected any time during the preceding 24 hours. Mr. Mercier has been suffering from a complication of diseases for years past, diabetes predominating. After his defeat at the general elections of March, 1892, his friends expressed the opinion that he had only six months to live, but by dint of adopting abstemious habits of living he managed to prolong existence longer than had been expected. The last rites of the church were administered by the Rev. Father Garceau, S. J. It is a remarkable fact that a spiritualist here had foretold about ten days ago that the end would come on Oct. 30. Yesterday Mr. Mercier was unconscious most of the time. For ten hours of the day he lay in a comatose condition, reviving at intervals for a few seconds and then relapsing into a state that was almost akin to death. Mr. Mercier at a late hour last evening was very weak. Morphine was administered at 10:40 and the patient became much agitated. It was then feared by the physicians that a reaction would take place and the end might come any minute. Throughout the night the vital spark flickered, growing lower and lower until the end came. Mr. Mercier in his prime would have weighed close onto 185 pounds. His dead body is now a mere skeleton, so much has he wasted away. Notwithstanding that Mr. Mercier's death was expected at any time the news has created great interest here and the bulletin boards containing the information were soon surrounded by crowds eager to learn the particulars of the once great French-Canadian's last hours.

He was surrounded at death by Madame Mercier and his children, Madame Decahe, her sister and his brother, Edward. The funeral will take place on Friday at the Church of the Jesu.

THE GRAND TRUNK!

Sir Henry Tyler Defeated on the First Vote.

On a Motion to Pass Accounts—Another Ballot Will Be Taken—Hisses and Cheers.

LONDON, England, Oct. 30.—At a meeting of shareholders of the Grand Trunk Railway this afternoon, Sir Henry Tyler, president of the company, moved to adopt the report and accounts.

Mr. Searle, a shareholder, moved an amendment that the report and accounts be received, but that their adoption be postponed until result of investigation of accounts to be made in Canada by an expert shall be made.

The amendment was voted upon and carried by a vote of 161 to 160.

Sir Henry Tyler challenged the vote, and it was decided to have a reballot tonight, the result to be announced at 11 o'clock tomorrow.

The directors upon entering the meeting were greeted with hisses and cheers in about even proportion.

Sir Henry Tyler said he had always hitherto spent two months in Canada in the autumn of each year but everything had become so disastrous and wages so greatly reduced during 1894 that he had not gone this year, because his presence there would have caused applications for an increase of wages, as well as applications for employment which could not be granted.

A Sure Hit.

"Ef you wanter flattah er man's vanity good," said Uncle Eben, "tell 'im he aint' got none."

It is very important to know where to find fine bedroom sets at low prices. When buying call at Trafford's and you will find them. 95 and 97 King street.

Nothing impure or injurious contaminates the popular antidote to pain, throat and lung remedy and general corrective, Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It may be used without the slightest apprehension of any other than salutary consequences. Coughs, rheumatism, earache, bruises, cuts and sores succumb to its action.

Do you know that at Keene Bros.' you can buy furniture cheaper than any place in London? A trial order will convince you that we lead in prices, considering quality. Give us a trial. Yours truly, KEENE BROS., 127 King street, opposite Market House.

THERE IS JUST ONE THING THAT THE citizens of London and vicinity would do well to make a note of, that at 181 Dundas street, books and magazines of all kinds and styles are bound neatly, cheaply and tastefully.

A NEW YORK HORROR.

A $300 Fire Causes the Loss of Seven Lives

In a Tenement—Freedman's Thrilling Escape—Most of the Victims Died Peacefully.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Flames flashed with marvelous rapidity from the cellar to the roof of the five-story single tenement, No. 216, west Thirty-second street, early this morning. Smoke filled the entire house, and seven of the tenants were suffocated in their rooms.

Their names are: Andie Appleblam, 22 years old; George Freedman, 4 years; Levi Freedman, 3 years; Mrs. Margaret Killian, 70 years old; Jacob Killian, 4 years old, son of Mrs. Margaret Killian; George Lorey, 20 years old, grandson of Mrs. Killian; Mrs. Lena Mitchell, 24 years old, a cousin of Mrs. Lena Freedman Injured—Mrs. Lena Freedman, 28 years old, leaped from a window.

The house contained seven families. All those in the front escaped, but while they were being rescued a tragedy was being enacted in the rear apartments on the second floor where Nathan Freedman, a furrier, was making a mad fight to save his family and himself from death. He awoke to find his bedroom full of smoke, and picking up Esther, the youngest of his three children, a babe of 4 months, Freedman made his way to the hall door. The flames had reached that floor, and the fire drove him dazed and half fainting from the intense heat to the kitchen. He called his wife and bade her follow him, but the woman became crazed and did not obey. Freedman made his way to a corner window and rapidly descended a ladder, expecting his wife would follow. He heard a scream and saw his wife shoot downward from a window. She sustained no broken bones, but her clothing were ablaze, and before it could be extinguished the woman was probably fatally burned. Freedman started back to get his other children. It was too late. Mrs. Freedman's heartrending cries for her children were pitiful.

The two Freedman children, George and Levi, were found lying dead, side by side, in their little bed. Not a hair of their head had been singed. In the bedroom were the bodies of Lena Mitchell, a cousin of Mrs. Freedman and Annie Appleblam, who boarded with the family. Neither of the girls had moved, apparently, and their faces looked peaceful enough. On the floor above, Jacob Killian was found doubled up as if he had made an effort to crawl through the window and had been overcome in the act. Geo. Lovey had also managed to get out of bed and his body was found on the floor. Aged Mrs. Killian had died just as she slept, and a peaceful smile rested on her furrowed face. The damage to the building is estimated at not more than $300. The losses of the tenants, however, will swell the total damage to a much larger figure.

THE I. O. F.

Dr. Oronhyatekha Visits Court Maple, St. Thomas—A Notable Gathering.

Court Maple, I. O. F., of St. Thomas, held their regular meeting last evening in their hall on Talbot street. The officers of the court had prepared for a visit of the supreme chief ranger, Dr. Oronhyatekha. About 150 Foresters were present, a large delegation from Aylmer attending. After the regular routine of work, Dr. Duncombe was moved to the chair. He first called upon A. H. Backus, of Aylmer, high counselor of Ontario, who gave a short and instructive outline of the many advantages gained by a member of the I. O. F. Dr. Oronhyatekha on rising was greeted with the members singing, "For he's a jolly good fellow." For over an hour the S. C. R. gave the brothers present several delightful and cheering reports of the society. His announcement of the strong foothold gained by the society in England was accepted with hearty applause. His powerful and instructive address to those present will certainly help to increase the membership in St. Thomas. Rev. T. H. Courtney, the chief rangers of Court Maple and Court Aylmer and A. B. Ingram, M.P., also gave short speeches. Court Maple had prepared an oyster supper, but Dr. Oronhyatekha had to leave on the 10:30 train for London. Among those who accompanied the S. C. R. from this city were Supreme Treasurer T. G. Davey, High Treasurer of Ontario Atwell Fleming and Frank Adams.

The Battle Creek Mystery.

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Oct. 30.—Conductor M. J. Nixon, the sixth man arrested for train wrecking, was discharged this morning, there not being enough evidence to hold him.

Young Lady Shot.

EGANVILLE, Ont., Oct. 30.—A sad accident occurred about four miles from Eganville on Sunday last. Miss Adeline Prendergast, second daughter of the late Wm. Prendergast, was accidentally shot by the discharge of a gun which stood in the corner of a room. The poor girl saw it fall and stooped to pick it up and replace it. While in the act of doing this it exploded. She only lived five hours.

Killed the Girl He Wronged.

VOROQUA, Wis., Oct. 29.—Last week the body of Miss Mary A. Jones, aged 40, was found suspended by the neck in the chamber of her house near this city. It was supposed that she had committed suicide, but this morning Samuel S. Buxton, who was arrested, confessed to having murdered Miss Jones. He ruined her under promise of marriage, and when she pressed him to keep his agreement he strangled her to death. Buxton was taken to Sparta today, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS

Wanted—Police.

The near appreach of Hallowe'en has caused the annual restlessness among small boys and a corresponding desire to stay out late at nights. A Clarence street woman appeared at the Police Court this morning and wanted a summons issued for a boy who struck her little daughter with a stone last night. She left to find the names of the rest of the gang. The East End was well nigh depopulated of gates last night, and more than one window was broken. Boys pay special attention to buildings in course of erection, and malicious damage has been done in more than one instance. The police will have their hands full for the next few nights.

Women Club Frequenters.

Two young women were arrested at 1 o'clock this morning at a King street club room. At the police court this morning they were registered as Jennie Riddle and Elizabeth Murray. Both were well dressed and between 20 and 25 years of age. They were remanded for a week at the chief's request, to allow of the summoning of several young men who frequent the club and who had been in the company of the girls. The police will make a determined effort to put an end to practices of like nature which are alleged to be on the increase in the down town portions of the city. "Dublin" Burris was in again and was fined $2 or five days.

Mr. Robinson's Will.

The late Wm. Robinson, ex-city engineer, left an estate valued at $29,800, consisting chiefly of bank stock and securities. His will, dated December, 1893, has been filed for probate. Mr. Robinson leaves the larger portion in legacies to nephews and nieces, but charitable and religious institutions come in for a good share. Among the bequests made are $1,000 to the Bishop of Huron in behalf of missions; $1,800 to the Foreign Mission Society of London, Eng.; $500 to the Drummond Tract Society of Sterling, Scotland; $300 to Edward Sullivan, Bishop of Algoma; $200 each to the London W. C. T. U., Y. W. C. T. U., Old Men's Home, Convalescent Home, Old Women's Home, Protestant Orphans' Home and City Hospital, with $100 to the Irish Benevolent Society.

Is 101 Years Old.

Mr. John Michell, of Dorchester township, celebrated his 101st birthday today. This remarkably old gentlemen has a son whose age is 77 and a little daughter of 75 years. Three daughters—Ann, Jane, and Ellen — and one son live at home. A son, James, is married and has ten children. A married daughter, Mrs. Nixon, of Westminster, has seven of a family, including three married daughters. The aged man refers to his children who have already passed the three score years and ten mark as "the boys" and "the girls." The celebration today was a quiet family affair. Mr. Mitchell's mental powers are undimmed, his hearing is good and he can read with comfort and without spectacles. He was born in the parish of Bellie, Banffshire, Scotland, on Oct. 30, 1793, and started life with the hardy vigor of the north of Scotland to his credit. When the battle of Waterloo was fought he was a young man of 22, and he has been a living witness of all the progress of this wonderful century. He followed the trade of a blacksmith, and was married in 1818 to Jane Bruce, also a native of Bellie. Thirteen children were born to them. Seven are now living, and three of the dead are resting in a Scotch burying ground. In 1847, at the age of 50, Mr. Mitchell emigrated to Canada with his wife and family and located at Pond Mills. Mrs. Mitchell died sixteen years ago. Mr. Mitchell bids fair to live in three centuries—1700, 1800 and 1900.
