THE Bobycageon manse is undergoing a process of repairs.

THE ladies of Central church, Hamilton, netted $850 from the Mercatus.

THE new church recently erected in Glanworth was dedicated last Sabbath.

THE pulpit of Knox church, city, was occupied last Sabbath evening by Rev. Jacob Freshman, of New York.

IT is stated in the Ottawa Journal that the debt of $47,000 resting upon the Ottawa Ladies' College is now practically reduced to about $5,000.

REV. FATHER CHINIQUY, it is stated, has felt himself compelled, on account of age, to give up his travels, and intends to settle down in Montreal the remainder of his days.

THE number of pupils in attendance at the Ottawa Ladies' College has doubled since the opening in September. The friends of the college are very hopeful of its success.

THE congregation of St. Andrew's, Orangeville, has unanimously decided to extend a call to Rev. E. Cockburn, M.A., of Uxbridge. The call includes a salary of $1,200 and a free manse.

THE anniversary sermons in connection with Midland church were preached by Rev. Mr. McConnell, of Craigvale, Sabbath, 4th inst. On the following Monday evening the annual tea meeting was held.

A FEW days before leaving for India, Miss Sinclair, of Madoc, was presented by the Desoronto Auxiliary W.F.M.S., of which she was formerly Secretary, with a copy of Smith's Bible Dictionary in four volumes.

A CORDIAL and largely attended reception was held at the house of Dr. McNaughton, Brussels, Nov. 7th, to welcome Rev. G. B. Howie, pastor of Knox church, and his bride. Mr. Thomas Strachan, elder, presided.

THE basement of the new St Paul's church, Ottawa (Rev. Dr. Armstrong's), is now completed and is pronounced the best in the city. Building operations will be resumed next spring and the whole edifice, it is expected, will be completed by Christmas, 1889.

THE anniversary services of Bloor St. congregation, city, held last Thursday evening, were very successful. Addresses were delivered by Revs. Dr. Potts, D. J. Macdonnell and John L. Blaikie, Esq. The students' quartette club rendered several selections in fine style.

AT a congregational meeting of Erskine church, Montreal, recently, it was unanimously resolved to appoint Mr. Rochester, student at the Presbyterian college, assistant to the pastor, Rev. L. H. Jordan, B.D., at a salary of $600 a year, the engagement to be until May next, when a new arrangement will probably be entered upon. It is intended to start a district mission which shall ultimately be self-supporting.

REV. FATHER CHINIQUY'S lectures in Montreal last week on "Why I Left the Church of Rome," and the Romish Doctrine of Salvation," were the occasion of some hostile demonstrations upon the part of the French students of the city. By the presence of the police in large force and the careful handling of the large crowds that had gathered about the building in which the lecture was being delivered, a riot was averted.

AT Charles street church, city, last Thursday evening, Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education, delivered to a large audience a very interesting and instructive lecture on "Canada." Rev. John Neil, pastor of the church, who presided, in introducing the speaker stated that he had heard Mr. Ross deliver his lecture on a former occasion, and at his request the hon. gentleman had consented to repeat it for the benefit of the Charles street congregation.

THE regular fortnightly meeting of the Young Peoples' Association of Leslieville church, city, was held on the evening of the 12th inst. The president, Mr. D. W. Waddell in the chair. A choice programme, consisting of solos by Miss Barness and Miss Ward, reading by Mr. Sullens, Miss Barber and Miss Jackson, dialogue by the Misses Jacksons, the Misses Barber and Hoskin, and reading by Mrs. Brown of Essays on Music contributed by several members of the Association, was rendered.

ABOUT the finest thing we have seen for a long time was at Knox church on Friday evening last. There were present Rev. Mr. Worrell (Church of England), Rev. Mr. Hansford (Methodist), Rev. Mr. Long (Lutheran), and the pastor, Rev. Mr. Cameron. The occasion was a reception to Mr. Cameron and wife, and heartily was the occasion taken advantage of by members of all the churches. As we looked on the pleasant scene we thought it about the most Christian-like gathering we had seen for a long time.—Morrisburgh Herald.

REV. PROF. ROSS, of Queen's, occupied the pulpit of Chalmer's church, Kingston, Sabbath morning, 11th inst., taking for his subject the Dignity of Labour. The Professor is reported to have said that while every kind of labour might be said to be honourable, still there were some kinds that were not, and that an honest man rather than engage in labour that was not honest should go out and beg, and the man, under such circumstances, who was too proud to beg deserved to die. There is no place in the world for such men. The world would be better without them.
