EASTERN AVERAGES.

Unofficial Figures Give O'Brien, the Syracuse Outfielder, Premiership Among the Batsmen.

JOY IN ORANGEVILLE.

Orangeville, Oct. 8.—For the second time within a month Orangeville bubbled over with enthusiasm to-night, in celebration of the last and decisive victory of the favorite Dufferins in the semi-finals with Wiarton. Five times this season have these two clubs met in competition in the semi-finals, and in three of them have the Dufferins been victorious. One hundred and fifty citizens accompanied the boys to Elora, and the remaining 3000 welcomed them at the station to-night. The Alton Band, under the guiding genius of that public-spirited citizen, William Algie, drove up to head the procession. Bonfires blazed an d the crowds cheered until their throats would cheer no more. On Broadway, where a huge bonfire illuminated the scene, Mayor Stevenson and other citizens addressed congratulatory remarks to the boys, amid the wildest enthusiasm, and the boys are now being dined at the Grand Central. The victory to-day was a clean one over the Wiarton team, reinforced by two outsiders, namely Blain of Newmarket, who played as Ashley, and Blain of Orillia, who played as Sinclair.

HORSES UNDER THE HAMMER

Fair Prices for Yearlings and Two-Year-Olds.

ABE ORPEN'S DOZEN SOLD.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Goes to Mr. R. Davies for $275.

The Lot of Thoroughbreds Average Over One Hundred Dollars Apiece—A Representative Gathering of Horsemen Before Auctioneer Walter Harland Smith at Grand's Repository.

The sale of thoroughbreds, the property of Mr. A. M. Orpen, last night, at Grand's Repository, may be considered a success. The 11 put under the hammer averaged between $100 and $200, Sir Wilfrid Laurier being top price $275 and going to Mr. R. Davis of the Thorncliffe Stock Farm. Carthaginian, by Iroquois—Destruction, was catalogued, but had been sold previously to J. Flynn of Prescott for $200.

There was a representative gathering of horsemen present when Auctioneer Walter Harland Smith mounted the block, showing the increasing interest taken in the running horse, and the opinion prevailed that the evening is the time for such an auction, for with the proper advertising a good crowd would be always assured.

Among those present were: Messrs. R. Davies, R. Duggan, T. C. Patteson, A. Darling, O. B. Sheppard, F. H. Daley, I. Small, R. Bond, Dr. Smith, Dr. Stewart, W. F. Maclean, M.P., ex-Mayor Fleming, J. Laxton, E. B. Clancey, Toronto, and F. W. Hector, Springfield-on-Credit.

The horses were a well-bred lot, somewhat below the average size, and considering that a winter's feed was before the purchasers the prices paid were good, and Owner Orpen and Auctioneer Smith are to be congratulated on the result.

The Repository was nicely arranged for the occasion and the many who made up the audience, enjoyed the bidding, even if they were not after horses. The prices:

HIGH-CLASS LIGHT HARNESS HORSES

As the horse market has shown a decided and well-sustained improvement this fall, Mr. Augustus Sinclair of Roslyn Stock Farm, Chatham, who announces that his annual sale of aristocratically-bred trotters and pacers will take place at Grand's Repository on Thursday next at 11 o'clock, under the presidency of Mr. Walter Harland Smith, may reasonably look forward to meeting with more than the usual success. No fewer than 33 standard-bred animals will be offered, generally young and all well calculated to make good drivers either on track or road. Three or four blood stallions are included in the list, and if needs be, they would prove as handsome and as useful as any of the others between the shafts. However, whether needed for breeding or for use on the road or the race track, a better opportunity to meet the requirements could not possibly be expected than that there will be afforded at Grand's Repository on Thursday morning next. Mr. Sinclair has long taken rank as the foremost breeder of trotting and pacing stock in the country, and, therefore, the claim of royal descent for his horses and mares, colts and fillies, cannot be disputed.

Of the lot, there are one stallion, 7 years old, five brood mares, ranging from 5 to 8 years upwards, four 4-year-old mares and one gelding, four 3-year-old geldings and two 3-year-old fillies, three 2-year-old geldings, two 2-year-old fillies, one entire yearling gelding, six yearling fillies, one this year's colt and two this year's fillies. No fewer than 25 are by Kelbrino, one of the remainder being by Red Wilkes, one by Happy West, one by High Noon, one by Strathmore and three by Jed Chief, all high-class producers. Wildbrino, 10073, has a record of 2.19½ himself and has got Collina, 2.20¼; Little M, 2.22; Little Jim, 2.23¼; Attar, 2.19¾; Twee Mee, 2.21½; Wild Crocus, 2.25¾; Don V, 2.28; Surena, 2.20½; Mo S, 2.29½, and Dorothea S, 2.19¾, only 12 years old and got by Hambrino, 820, 2.21¼, a son of Edward Everett and Mambrina, by Mambrino Chief, out of a mare by Wildwood, 944, and with three Mambrino crosses, it is easy to understand that Wildbrino gives gameness and bottom to his get as well as speed. Red Chief, 4603, was by Red Wilkes, a son of George Wilkes and out of a mare a hundred in the 2.30 list, out of Maud Muller, by Clark Chief, 89. It will be acknowledged that he, too, is calculated to give every desirable quality in abundance. High Noon is also by Red Wilkes and the other stallions represented (Strathmore, 408, and Happy West, 5144) come under the same category for stoutness and fitness. It is absolutely impossible for the country to have too much of such blood as comes from Roslyn.

Mr. Sinclair, as usual, was a liberal patronizer of the stakes of the Ontario Association of Trotting and Pacing Horse Breeders decided at the Toronto Fair, and at Hamilton. Surena, one of the get of Wildbrino, captured the three-minute trot at each place, securing a record of 2.20¾; another, Mo S, a filly that is in the sale list, as is also a full brother of Surena, landed both the 2-year-old trots, taking a mark of 2.29½. Four others of his got raked in money at these meetings, while in the show ring they were no less successful, the tally being three firsts, two seconds and one sweepstake. If, therefore, Wildbrino is not entitled to be considered the premier trotting stallion of Canada, it would be difficult to say which horse is.
