NIPISSING DESPERADO SHOT

James McConnell Cut Off, to the Relief of the Neighboring District.

Two Mattawa Gentlemen Went Out in a Canoe to Hunt for Some Lost Dogs and the Desperado Fired Three Shots at Them—Mr. Samuel Tongue, However, When He Saw it Was a Case of Shoot or be Shot, Laid McConnell Low.

Mattawa, Ont., Nov. 26.—On Thursday, Nov. 18, Samuel Tongue and William Bell, two of our prominent citizens, started out for Lake Tallion and adjoining lakes to look after two valuable dogs that had been lost some few days previous. After paddling their canoe for some miles over the lake they were crossing a bay where the bush is very heavy, and saw coming at a distance paddling towards them a canoe and man. Thinking they would be able to get some information as to where their dogs were, they paddled towards the approaching canoe, not thinking there was any danger in store for them. When the canoes were about two or three hundred yards from each other, they saw the man let up paddling and draw out his Winchester. Taking good aim he fired at them. This was succeeded by two more shots in succession, which were low and did not take effect, the last shot just striking very close to the bow of the canoe.

Tongue and Bell recognized the desperado at once, and it was a case of life or death, either by drowning or shooting, unless they could escape from him.

A Race for Shore.

Shore not being far off they made all efforts to reach it and escape from the man, if possible, but from all appearances he was determined to finish them, and made after them. Both canoes landed very near the same time, but Mr. Tongue, being somewhat the quicker to strike land, and seeing no escape possible, turned and took good aim and fired at the desperado, the ball entering at the pit of the stomach, and coming out at the back, as shown, now that the body has arrived. They were much excited, and on seeing he did not return fire they got into their canoe and made for Mattawa, where, on their arrival on Friday, they laid an information, and the chief of police with some specials were despatched on Monday to go after the desperado, dead or alive, but Mr. Tongue, being an expert shot, was quite positive that he would be found either very badly wounded or dead. By all appearances of the body last evening after its arrival in charge of Chief Fillion, and the way he was found, he could not have lived but a very few minutes after being shot.

A Well-Known Desperado.

The man's proper name is James McConnell, and no doubt this shooting will recall to memory his past career, having only a few years ago been on trial for doing away with his father on Lake Nasbonsing. There are also a number of warrants for his arrest for shooting at various people, cattle, etc. He was a very large and powerful man of 48 years, very heavy black hair, with sandy whiskers, very poorly clad, as he only had on a poor pair of overalls and shirt to face a cold winter, and has not been known to come out from the bush for the past few years, where he would expose himself to arrest. There were found at his hut seven boxes of cartridges, a little flour, salt and plenty of deer meat. All farmers and settlers in the vicinity where he resided are very well pleased to hear of his death, as they more or less had a great fear of him. The inquest on the body will take place to-day.

Later.—The inquest on the body of the desperado, James McConnell, was postponed until to-morrow at 10 o'clock, awaiting County Crown Attorney Browning's presence.

Yesterday's Police Court.

For theft of a watch from Thomas Owen two well-know thieves went back to prison yesterday. Charles Williams, alias Wade, was committed to the Central for 16 months, and Fred Murray, an accomplice, for 15 months.

Joe Tighe and Bernard McGarry, charged with robbing T. H. Tyler, a Hamilton man, whilst in the barroom of the Kensington Hotel, on Thanksgiving Day, were remanded in custody till Monday.

Charles Elson, the youth arrested on suspicion of stealing $500 from Ambrose Bond, was remanded till Dec. 3.

Andrew Murphy, for theft of a horse blanket from the wagon of B. J. Boke, was committed to the Central for five months.

Joseph Costigan, for breaking a plate glass window in the store of John C. Brady, Parliament and King-streets, was given four months in the Central.

Mrs. Alison Hallett, Gifford-avenue, was committed for trial on two charges of shoplifting. The prosecutors are the T. Eaton Company and C. E. Coatsworth.

South Side Presbyterian Church.

The anniversary of the induction of Rev. Wm. McKinley was celebrated last evening in South Side Presbyterian Church. The pastor presided, and his opening address took the form of an annual report. He looked back into the past year, with no little pleasure, and forward into the coming year for yet greater success. He desired the members to be more ardent coworkers with him. The most important feature of the entertainment was a lecture delivered by Rev. John Neil on "My Visit to the Old Land." He described the sights of the British and continental cities. Among the musical selections rendered during the evening was a quartet by four ladies of the choir. Refreshments were served at the close.

Teacher in Moral Development.

Prof. J. G. Hume, M.A., Ph.D., of Toronto University, gave a lecture before the Model School students in Church-street school yesterday afternoon on "The Teacher as a Factor in Moral Development." He went into the question from a psychological standpoint, showing that the teacher's position was a unique one. He had every opportunity to watch the working of the child's mind and so had every chance to influence it along the proper moral lines.

This concludes the course of lectures arranged by the Model School for this term.

Public School Board.

The Management Committee of the Public School Board met yesterday afternoon and recommended the following: That leave of absence be granted to Miss K. McFarlan of Louisa-street School for six months, from Jan. 1, 1898; that Misses S. Noble, G. Cowan, Effie Clark and E. Holden be granted leave of absence during December, on account of illness; to R. T. Martin, principal of Duke-street School during December; to W. Bryce, Victoria-street School, 4½ days to write on Ontario Normal College examination; that a Kindergarten be opened in Leslie-street School, under the management of Miss L. Drayton, as directress, and Miss E. B. Jewell, as assistant; that Miss M. Hill be appointed assistant kindergartener in Winchester-street School; that Miss L. Brown be transferred from Island Schol to Fern-avenue School; that Miss Nina Smith be appointed teacher in the Island School; that Miss A. Peake be placed in the occasional kindergarten list.

COUNTY AND SUBURBAN NEWS.

Toronto Junction, Nov. 26.—(Special.)—The general store of Mr. Sydney Barnes, Davenport-road, was entered by sneak thieves or tramps during the darkness of last night. In the kitchen was a dog, and through the window of this room they made their entrance and exit. The family live above the store, but no sound was heard by them. The thieves lit a candle, which they left as a memento of their visit, and all they took away with them was a few cans of mackerel and about 80 cents in silver from the till. Many more valuable things were within their reach which they did not touch. The door of the safe, which had contained over $200, had been left unlocked, and it was evident that the thieves had completely overlooked this fact.

Bondholders and the Attorney-General.

A number of the town's bondholders held an interview with the Attorney-General at the Parliament Buildings this morning, to which representatives of the press were not admitted. After a consultation lasting about twenty-five minutes, a letter was received from Mayor Dr. G. W. Clendenan asking that Toronto Junction be represented at the interview, and in accordance with the request the deputation were asked to withdraw until Saturday morning, when representatives of the town will be present to see that the matters dealt with are presented fairly. It is learned that the bondholders wish the commission form of government to be very firmly impressed upon the mind of the Attorney-General, and to this end special legislation is being asked. Those present were J. J. Maclaren, Q.C., A. R. Boswell, Q.C., J. K. Macdonald, Confederation Life Assurance Company; W. H. Orr, Aetna Life; Mr. Hammond of Osler & Hammond; Mr. Ramsay of the Standard Life, Montreal; Mr. Brown of the London & Lancashire, Montreal; Mr. Hanson of Hanson Bros., brokers, Montreal, and Mr. Bruce of the Canada Life, Hamilton.

Rev. W. Burns, ex-President of the Bay of Quinte Conference, will preach a special thanksgiving sermon on Sunday morning at Annette-street Methodist Church.

Archibald Campbell, M.P., will address the political meeting in the Pavilion tomorrow night.

Sneak Thieves at Weston.

Weston, Nov. 26.—(Special.)—About 9 o'clock last evening sneak thieves entered the stable of Mr. George Lyons, general storekeeper here, and took a set of harness, as well as a lot of feed. Mr. Lyons was away at the time. Residents of the neighborhood noticed two men loitering about. Later the Misses Chew were awakened out of their slumbers and noticed a light in the barn. They set a dog on the fleeing marauders, but this morning they found the harness and other things taken.

Division Court at Weston.

Judge Morgan held Division Court at Weston yesterday. The principal cases were Demill Ladies' College v. Rev. C. E. Tayler, call on stock for $40. Judgment for plaintiffs; Irwin v. C. Wright, payment for legal services; judgment for plaintiff, subject to taxation, and W. Longstaff v. Rev. Pearson, account for putting in a pump. The plaintiff did not succeed in removing the burden of proof, and the benefit of the doubt went with the defendant.

East Toronto.

James Morrison, a milkman of Malvern, Scarboro Township, while driving to the city had his thumb bitten off by a vicious horse.

Rev. G. Lothrop Starr of St. John's Church, Norway, will continue his series of sermons on the Commandments on Sunday next.

George Beatty of East Toronto appeared in the court house yesterday afternoon before Magistrate Ormerod on a charge of shooting with malicious intent, Miss Stella McDougall of the Bay View Hotel, at the Newmarket track.

The first witness, Miss C. Berry of 71 Shuter-street, stated she was in the Bay View on the evening of Oct. 30, when a dancing party was held. She retired about 12 and heard the report of a revolver about 3 a.m. She heard several angry statements made by George Beatty.

Miss Stella McDougall reluctantly gave the names of those at the party. Six persons were in the room where the shooting took place. She contradicted the evidence of the preceding witness by stating that the affray happened in the dining room, which is not upstairs. Witness also said that she grasped the revolver which was drawn by George Beatty, who had called one Campbell, who was present, a strong name. Beatty told her to let go for God's sake, else the revolver would go off. Witness said the revolver did discharge and the bullet lodged in her thigh. She believed that she had caused the discharge by pressing Beatty's hands.

The case was adjourned until Thursday next at 2.30 p.m.

Bail in the meantime.

Mr. W. E. Raney appeared for the Crown and Mr. A. F. Lobb for the defendant.

North Toronto.

Mr. Frank Yeigh will deliver an entertaining lecture on the "Highways of Europe" at the Deer Park Presbyterian School house on Monday evening next.

Anniversary services will be held to-morrow at the Davisville Methodist Church. The pastor, Rev. E. A. Pearson, will preach at the morning service, and ex-Mayor Kennedy in the evening. On Tuesday evening the annual fowl supper will be held at the school house, after which addresses will be delivered by Rev. E. S. Rowe and C. O. Johnston.

Inspector Fotheringham spent yesterday overseeing the work of the pupils at Davisville School.

Mr. Thomas Moore, erstwhile publisher of The York Gazette, has been visiting friends in the town this week. Mr. Moore has now located in Simcoe, and will start in the printing business there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. St. Germain of Bedford Park have returned, after a sojourn in various portions of the States.

The annual supper of the Eglinton Orange lodge will take place after their regular meeting next week.

York Township taxes will need to be paid on or before Dec. 1 to save the usual discount. Treasurer Armstrong is well satisfied with the rapidity with which this year's levy is being met.

Magistrate Ellis' court will be held in future at Shaw's Hotel, Eglinton. The change is occasioned by the desire of the Council to charge for the use of the Town Hall.

West York Farmers' Institute.

Winter meetings will be held in the Orange Hall, Woodbridge, on Thursday, Dec. 2, and at the Eagle Hall, Weston, on the following day. Interesting programs have been arranged for afternoon and evening sessions at both places. The officers of the institute are: President, James H. Smith, Highfield; vice-president, Thomas A. Duff, Bedford Park; secretary-treasurer, H. L. Crawford, Maple; auditors, A. T. Orth, Kleinburg; Abraham Snider, Ella; directors, J. Goulding, A. Snider, J. E. Elliott, W. Shunk, W. C. Grubbe, J. Gardhouse.

THE PURE FOOD SHOW.

Continued Success of the Exhibition—Arrangements for To-day and Monday.

The show was continued yesterday afternoon and evening. Large crowds thronged the various exhibits and a large number of ladies listened to an instructive demonstration on cookery by Miss Haxworth. The musical program was repeated, and was thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

This will be a banner day at the Food Show, the management dispensing hospitality to their visitors in a lavish manner. In the afternoon they purpose to present to the first fifteen hundred people who purchase admission tickets a package valued at 20 cents of Gillett's famous goods, giving a choice of either Imperial Baking Powder, Royal Yeast, Magic Soda or Perfumed Lye. The giving away of these useful articles practically reduces the price of admission this afternoon to five cents.

This evening will be perhaps as novel an event as has occurred since the show opened. It has been designated "Tutti Frutti" evening, and to the first fifteen hundred people to enter the rink will be given a package of Tutti Frutti chewing gum. Miss Haxworth's lecture for the evening is also of the toothsome and highly popular order, being entitled "Candies and English Candy Making."

The musical program will be given in its entirety, and as this will be the last opportunity to hear the famous boy soprano, Walter Peabody, before his departure for Europe, it would be well for all who desire to hear this lad's phenomenal singing to embrace the opportunity.

Monday next, the 29th inst., will be "Bargain Day" for the masses, and absolutely on this day only, at both afternoon and evening performances, the price of admission will be five and ten cents. This price has been set solely for the purpose of allowing the general public to come and bring their families.

Those interested in the children's cooking competition will remember that it takes place this afternoon.

On Monday evening a special feature of the program will be a lecture on the natural history of the bee, by Mr. R. L. Holterman, the well-known lecturer in bee keeping at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph. Mr. Holterman is the manager of the honey department with the Goold, Shapeley & Muir Co. of Brantford, who have a most interesting exhibit in the Food Show.

Dyspepsia and Indigestion—C. W. Snow & Co., Syracuse, N. Y., write: "Please send us ten gross of Pills. We are selling more of Parmalee's Pills than any other pill we keep. They have a great reputation for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint." Mr. Charles A. Smith, Lindsay, writes: "Parmalee's Pills are an excellent medicine. My sister has been troubled with severe headache, but these pills have cured her." ed
