Posthumous Coquetry.

Oh, when, in death, my heart shall break,
And rest from all its woes,
Pat, then, some rouge upon my cheek,
And pencil o'er my brows.
I would, in this my last repose,
As when his vows he paid;
Retain upon my cheek the rose,
And on my brow the shade.

Let no pale winding sheet enshrine
My form, when I am dead;
But let my robe of muslin fine
Adorn my limbs instead.
That dear robe was my dress preferred;
I wore it on the day
When I attracted his regard,
And gave my heart away.

And let my laced pillow there,
Upon my narrow bed,
Decked only with my floating hair,
Support my dreamless head,
That pillow, in our nightly rest,
Hath both our heads sustained,
And counted every kiss he pressed
On lips still unprofaned.

And place between my fingers slight,
As held by me in prayer,
The rosary, of opals bright,
Our bishop bade me wear.
I still would clasp its cross divine,
When in my lonely grave,
For sweetest lips have told on mine
Each Pater and each Ave.

To the Farmers of CARLTON, LANARK AND RENFREW.

THE BEAVER MUTUAL INSURANCE ASSOCIATION of 20 Toronto street, Toronto, have established an Agency in Almonte for the transaction of FARM INSURANCE exclusively. This company is devoted solely to Farm and country Insurance, and is in extensive operation throughout Canada West. To render the payment of fire losses certain and prompt, a Special Endowment Fund has been raised of TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS, which may be extended to Five Hundred Thousand Dollars, if needed under the Statute.

NO RISK TAKEN UPON HAZARDOUS PROPERTY OF ANY KIND.

Farm property is insured for either three or seven years. For three years a premium note of from 1 to 2¼ per cent is taken, according to the nature of the risk, and one-sixth is payable thereon in cash. It is not probable that more than one-half of the premium note will ever be called in and no larger sum will be assessed than is sufficient to cover the company's expenses.

In proof of the sincerity of the Directors, we will allow insurers to pay one-half the amount of the premium note in cash, and receive a full discharge from all assessments.

The stock of Hay and Grain may be insured, whether on hand or not, for two-thirds of average value usually on hand about Christmas time. Persons insuring for 7years will give a premium note for double the above rates, and pay in proportion.

Farmers desirous of insuring their property in a highly responsible Farm Insurance Company may address

W. A. DOYLE, Almonte,
General Agent Ottawa District.

CARD OF THANKS.

In consequence of my ignorance of the English language, I fell into the mistake of signing erroneous papers, and find I had no legal claim upon you, but you have paid in full the whole amount of my insurance in your Company on the property burnt.
