Temperance Convention at Lucknow

A LARGE GATHERING OF DELEGATES.

Reported by our Special Correspondent.

The principal part of the Grand Officers and Representatives of the Grand Lodge of the British American Order of Good Templars of Ontario, passed through this place on Tuesday, to attend the sixteenth annual session of that body at Lucknow. They were conveyed from Goderich to Lucknow by the members of Union Band Lodge No. 225, who provided carriages free. The representatives on their arrival at Lucknow were entertained by Mr. James Somerville with his usual generosity. They were afterwards allotted homes among the members of Union Band Lodge during their stay.

The Grand Lodge opened on Tuesday evening, the following Grand Officers being present—A. Rodgers, Esq., Woodville, Grand Chief; D. Shoff, Esq., McGillivray, Counsellor; Mrs. H. Campbell, Mitchell, Vice; J. R. Miller, Esq., Goderich, Chaplain; James Wanless, Esq., Varna, Treasurer; Jno. Ferguson, Esq., London, Marshall; Miss Maggie Pringle, London, Assistant Marshall; C. S. VanLuven, Inner Guard; James Somerville, Esq., Lucknow, Past Chief. A large number of representatives were also present. The various committees were appointed and the reports of the Grand Worthy Chief Templar, Secretary and Treasurer read. They showed the order to be in a good position numerically and financially. The assets of the Grand Lodge in cash, stock, &c., amount to over $200.

The meeting adjourned.

The convention opened at 9.00 a. m., (Oct. 21st,) and after transaction of some routine business adjourned to allow the committees to prepare their reports.

Business was resumed at 1:30 p. m., when the committee on finance submitted their report stating that the accounts of the G. W. S. and G. W. T. were correct and recommending the capitation tax to remain at four cents per member, and the salary of the G. W. S. to be $200 for the ensuing year, which was adopted.

The report of the committee on union was submitted, recommending the adoption of the "Declaration and General Principles" of templar union and of the special terms of union with the British Templars with amendments. The report was adopted.

Cobourg was selected as the next place of meeting—the time to be fixed by the executive. This is done so that as the Grand Lodge of British Templars also meets at Cobourg next year, both lodges may meet together and carry out the union.

Bros. D. Shoff, Jas. Somerville, J. R. Miller, Hugh Campbell and Jas. Wanless were appointed a committee to act with a committee from the British Templars to draw up constitution and by-laws and ritual, for the united body.

The election of grand officers took place with the following result:—C. S. VanLuven, Esq., Battersea, Grand W. Chief Templar; R. L. Hunter, Esq., Lucknow, Counsellor; Miss Alice E. Hall, London, Vice do.; Rev. James Carswell, Lucknow, Chaplain; Samuel Ranton, Esq., Palmerston, Secretary; James Wanless, Esq., Varna, Treasurer; Thomas Weston, Esq., London, Marshall; Miss Maggie Pringle, London, Assistant Marshall; A. E. Gilbert, Esq., Toronto, Inner Guard; C. Eacrett Rodgerville, Outer Guard; A. Rodgers, Esq., Past Chief.

Bros. Edwin Rose of Kingston, and Somerville of Lucknow, were elected members of the Grand Executive Council of Ontario and Quebec.

The Grand Lodge adjourned to attend a public temperance meeting got up by Union Band Lodge in connection with the meetion of Grand Lodge.

The public meeting was presided over by Bro. George Odlem W. C. T, of Union Band Lodge, who discharged his duties efficiently. Addresses were delivered by D. Shoff, Grand W. Counsellor, S. Ranton, Jas. Wanless, G. W. Treasurer, Dr. McDonald of Wingham, A. Rodgers, G. W. Chief, J. R. Miller, G. W. Chaplain; Rev. G. A. Mitchell, B. A., P. G. Chief, British Templars; and J. Somerville, P. Chief. It would be impossible to give even a synopsis of the addresses, but the audience which was close on four hundred people seemed to be interested and impressed by the various speakers. At intervals music, vocal and instrumental, was furnished by the ladies of Union Band lodge, who did their part of the performance in a manner which reflected great credit upon themselves. Mr. James Hunter also sang two or three songs with capital effect.

The Grand Lodge met after the public meeting, when the Grand Officers for the ensuing year were installed. Votes of thanks were passed to the Grand Trunk Railway for reduced fares to delegates, and to Union Band Lodge No. 225 for their hospitality to the members of the Grand Lodge. The Lodge then adjourned until next annual meeting at Cobourg, the members carrying away pleasant recollections of their stay in Lucknow, and especially of the kindness of the members of Union Band Lodge. The people of Lucknow, and the members of the temperance lodge of Lucknow particularly are deserving of high admiration for the enterprise they displayed in securing the sittings of the convention at that place, the accommodations provided their guests and the kind treatment and warm reception accorded to all. The efforts of the Union Band Lodge to entertain the delegates were fully appreciated and all who visited Lucknow express their warmest thanks for their reception and hope to have the opportunity of returning the compliment paid them with interest.

The Court for trying the appeals against the voters list of Hay will be held at Zurich on Wednesday, Nov. 11, at 10 o'clock A.M. The Reformers have appealed against 29 Conservative votes, and the Conservatives have appealed against 37 Reform votes.

A Mistake of the New York Herald.—With all the erudition of the editorial corps of the N. Y. Herald, one of its writers made an egregious blunder in the use of a word in the following sentence in an editorial on the 15th inst:—"Mr. Scott, though elected as a Cameron man, has proved restive." The writer evidently intended to convey another idea, as the word restive is defined by lexicographers to denote "inclined or disposed to rest or stand still." There will, however, be much restiveness with many after the 19th of November next, when they learn that they have missed the chance of making a fortune by helping to embark in the enterprise of the Masonic Relief Association of Norfolk, Va., which at its Grand Gift Concert will distribute a number of large prizes. For particulars, address H. V. Moore, Sec'y M. R. A. Norfolk, Va., or an authorized Agent of the Association.
