Jesse P. Freek, St. Thomas, the other day burned a kiln containing 600,000 brick.

W. T. Emery, storekeeper and miller at Port Burwell, is offering a compromise. In January, 1890, he presented a statement showing a surplus of $45,000, but out of this he explained that it was doubtful if he could realize over $30,000. It is evident that he had undertaken too large a business of a diversified character, hence his trouble.

A special telegram says: "'Lord' Beresford, alias Sydney Lascelles, who cut a dash and swindled people in St. Thomas some months ago and is now in jail in Rome, Ga., was quietly informed that for borrowing $1,000 through false pretenses he would have a fair trial and preserve a whole hide, but was warned that if he compelled the young woman concerned in the ring episode to go upon the witness stand her frieuds would not be so patient. The young 'Lord' seemed to understand the situation so thoroughly that he accommodated himself to it and to-day returned the ring. The young woman is a bride and her people were determined to make it hot for the 'Lord' if he made an exposure of names necessary."

Leamington has a rate of 27 mills on the dollar this year.

A number of the leading citizens of Amherstburg banquetted Judge Josiah Turner, ex-United States consul there for the past nine years, on Tuesday evening, at the Lakeview. He was presented with an address on behalf of the citizens by Mayor McEvoy. There were complimentary speeches made by W. D. Balfour, M.P.P., J. T. Kirkland and others, all expressing their regrets at his departure.

Essex boasts of a couple named Page who have three children named First Page, Second Page and Third Page. They will soon make a book.

McQuery, the sailor mentioned on Tuesday as having been drowned off the schooner Kolfage near Courtright, was a resident of Essex county, two of his relatives living in Essex town.

An employe of the Michigan Central Railroad named Reynolds jumped from No. 6 express while it was passing the roundhouse, Windsor, Tuesday evening. He alighted on his head and shoulders, and was found by Constable Cassidy in an unconscious condition. His wounds were dressed and he was taken to his home.

LAMBTON.

In the case of William H. Kenny, at the Sarnia Assizes, charged with bribing a municipal councilor, when the case was called for trial legal objections were taken by Mr. Osler, and after discussion Justice MacMahon ruled in favor of the defendant and a verdict of not guilty was recorded. This is the first case sought to be made out under the new act making it an offense to offer a bribe to a municipal officer.

The grand jury in their presentment at Sarnia recommended that a poorhouse be established by the county, claiming that the jail was not a fit place for the aged and infirm now seeking that place of refuge. His lordship concurred with them, and also suggested that the court house itself did not afford proper accommodation for the business of the court, and was not in keeping with the wealth of the county.

David Nicholson and Francis McCabe have been tried in Sarnia on charges of perjury and acquitted.

Miss Julia Hitchcock is lying very low with typhoid fever in Detroit. Her mother, Mrs. C. D. Hitchcock, Sarnia, is with her.

MIDDLESEX.

J. D. Meekinson, Strathroy, has been appointed agent for the Dominion Express Company there.

On Monday an English lad, aged 17, named Walter Stokes, while mowing in a clover field for James Dickson, McGillivray, accidentally fell from the machine and had his right hand cut off entirely, a short distance above the wrist. He walked from the field to the house, leaving the hand in the field.

Mrs. Donald Cameron was born in 1805, in Pictou county, Nova Scotia, on McLellan's Mountain, which received its name from her parents, who emigrated from Scotland and settled there in 1801. In her 23rd year she married the late Donald Cameron, with whom, and seven of her children who were born in Nova Scotia, she emigrated to Ontario in 1846, and settled on the eighth concession of Lobo, in what was then an almost unbroken wilderness. There she continued to reside until death claimed her a few days ago in the 86th year of her age. She had ten children, three of whom were born in Lobo and of whom seven survive her. Deceased was, until late years, in happy enjoyment of almost unvaried health, and ever used that blessed boon with ardent and energetic providence for her large family, and for the benefit of either wanderer or neighbor who required her assistance. Not only in matters of temporal import was this potent energy exercised, but with the same solicitude she unwearingly imbued the minds of her children in principles of abundant Christian charity, which early made a marked impress on the character of Mrs. Cameron, who died as she had lived in the arms of Christian faith and Christian hope. Beautiful even in death her placid countenance plainly expressed calm resignation to the will of God, and she bore with her to the grave that benignity which invariably marks a well-spent life.

WELLINGTON.

A deranged son of David Ritchie, a farmer of Garafraxa, has been missing since Sept. 22, and search parties haved failed to find any trace of him.

Ibbotson vs. Ibbotson, at the Guelph Assizes, was an action brought by one of the inspectors of prisons and asylums in the name of a wife, who is now an inmate of the Hamilton Lunatic Asylum, against her husband and son for the purpose of having annuled a deed by which she conveyed a farm in Arthur township to the son and another deed by which the son conveyed to the husband. On her behalf it was alleged that at the time of the making of the deeds the wife was partly out of her mind and consequently incapable of knowing what she was doing, and also that at that time the property was hers in fee simple. The defendant gave evidence to the effect that the property was originally bought by him with his own money, and that it was only conveyed to his wife in order that she might have full power to sell it on the occasion of his going to California some years ago, with the intention of settling his family there. This latter statement was corroborated by the evidence of the conveyancer who acted in the matter. The action was dismissed without costs.
