WISE BACCILLI

It Carefully Shuns the French Chamber of Deputies.

Paris, Nov. 22.—The minds of the members of the Chamber of Deputies are much relieved. At any rate their health is not endangered while they are making laws.

Dr. Belieres, official physician to the deputies, has just finished elaborate experiments with and on the air in the chamber during a session. The learned Belieres did not concern himself with the air when it is quiescent; he took of it for his tests only when the members were hurling compliments and arguments at the ministers and at each other. Perhaps the doctor thought bacilli gathered to admire the wit and sagacity of the deputies.

In his report on his investigations, entitled "Researches for Microbes in Suspension in the Air in the Chamber of Deputies," Dr. Belieres declares positively that there are no dangerous germs afloat in this air even during the most exciting debate. So henceforth the deputies can breathe with freedom and orate with impunity—within the bounds of the rules of the chamber.

In reproving disorder Mr. the President need not fear to swallow a bacillus of tuberculosis, and no microbe of diphtheria will kindly silence the loudest ranting Socialistic member.

Nevertheless, the chamber is to be better ventilated.

PROOF THAT NO ONE CAN DOUBT

That Dodd's Kidney Pills Cure Any Stage of Kidney Disease.

Maxime Boucher Had Kidney Disease For Twenty-five Years and Could Find No Relief Till He Tried Dodd's Kidney Pills—They Cared Him Completely.

Humberstown, Que., Nov. 25.—With kidney disease almost daily cutting off the most prominent men in Canada, fresh proofs that Dodd's Kidney Pills are a sure cure for this most deadly ailment are the best news that can be spread broadcast over the land, and one of the most convincing proofs yet brought forward is the case of Maxime Boucher of this place.

For twenty-five years M. Boucher suffered from kidney disease. Its aches and pains and feebleness had become so much a part of his daily life, and the medicines he had tried had done him so little good that he had about abandoned hope.

But reading of the splendid cures of different forms of kidney disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills led him to try once more. The result is that M. Boucher makes a statement for the benefit of the public. It tells of his twenty-five years' suffering and ends, "I am perfectly cured, Dodd's Kidney Pills did it." Naturally, M. Boucher cannot say enough in favor of Dodd's Kidney Pills.

A Terrible Crime.

London, Nov. 25. — A terrible crime is reported to have been perpetrated at Arduing, near Rottermann, Styria. An attempt was made on the life of a railway contractor named Zanardelli in revenge for his having discharged 500 workmen. During the trouble a bomb was thrown and six persons were killed and sixteen seriously injured.

THE COLORADO WAR

U. S. Governor and General Threatened With Death.

Denver, Col., Nov. 26. — Governor Peabody and Adjutant-General Bell have received threatening letters within the past few days. One of the communications to Bell says: "You will be popped if ever you come to Cripple Creek." Another letter warns the officials of the existence of a plot to blow up the wing of the capitol, where the governor's and adjutant-general's offices are located. All such letters are turned over to detective agencies as fast as received. No attempt has been made to guard the military officers because no fears are entertained that any vengeance will actually be attempted in Denver.

PITTSBURG THEATER FIRE

Performance Was Going On But Nobody Was Killed.

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 26. — Much excitement prevailed, but fortunately no loss of life nor injury occurred from a fire which broke out in the Avenue continuous vaudeville theater yesterday afternoon during a performance. The audience lost no time in getting out and in a short time all were on the street. The first rumor was that many had been killed and hurt. Harris Davis, owner of the theater, places the property damage at about $10,000, caused principally by water. The fire originated from an explosion of a film roll used in the cinematograph apparatus.

TROLLEYS IN COLLISION

Passenger and Ballast Cars Collide at St. Catharines.

St. Catharines, Ont., Nov. 26. — A serious collision occurred on the Hamilton, Grimsby and Beamsville Electric Railway near Beamsville yesterday. A car well-filled with passengers, left Beamsville at 2:10 p.m., bound for Grimsby. The company is at present drawing ballast from "The Thirty," near Beamsville, and the ballast train had left that place shortly before the passenger car left Beamsville. Instead of waiting on the switch the ballast train continued on its way and began to descend the grade, at the same moment the passenger car took it from the opposite direction. As the trains came in sight of each other the motorman of the ballast train endeavored to reduce speed, and the motorman of the passenger car brought his car to a standstill. The momentum of the ballast train was too great, however, and the result was that it crashed into the passenger car, head on. All of the passengers were thrown from their seats and severely shaken up, and for a few moments it was thought one lady was dead. Mr. Moyer, insurance agent, of this city, received the severest injury, having his left arm broken and being severely shaken up. Where the blame for the accident lies, has not yet been determined.

SENDS BACK PRESENTS

Did Mary, Who Threw Over Rich Suitor —Happy With Poor Husband.

New York, Nov. 25. — Mary Joch, the 17-year-old Hoboken girl, who jilted a wealthy Manhattan silk importer and secretly wed George Trampler, a poor piano player in her father's saloon, is living with her husband in West Forty-seventh street. She was already Trampler's wife when she permitted her rich suitor to give a party at which their engagement was announced. Trampler furnished the music at the party.

Detective Louis Weinthal, of Hoboken, saw Mrs. Trampler in her rooms in the West Forty-seventh street house, where she is doing light housekeeping. She said she was very happy and refused to return home. She gave the detective presents valued at $400 from the man she had jilted and asked Weinthal to see that he got them.

She said she didn't care anything about them, as she had no love for the rich man her father wanted her to marry.

The C. P. R. Engineers.

Montreal, Que., Nov. 26. — The committee representing the locomotive engineers and the firemen of the Canadian Pacific Railway have practically reached a working agreement with the management, an agreement which has now merely to be ratified by the president, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy. The committee was in conference with Mr. D. McNicoll, general manager, up to a late hour yesterday afternoon.

FOR SERVICES RENDERED

Young German Officer Is Rewarded With Imprisonment.

Berlin, Nov. 25. — The sentence of Lieut. Bilse to six months' imprisonment and discharge from the army because of his revelations in his novel continue to furnish material for discussion in the German press, and it is generally acknowledged that many of the tales told by the young lieutenant unveiling corruption and irregularities among army officers are not without foundation.

This has now been formally acknowledged by the Government, as the Kaiser has issued an order to the minister of war in which he points out several changes which he considers to be absolutely necessary for the honor of the army. All these changes referred to garrisons in smaller cities along the frontier are of exactly the same kind as the one described in Lieutenant Bilse's sensational novel.

This order of the Kaiser's coming at this time is being widely commented upon by all the prominent papers of Germany, and there is considerable surprise that the administration, if it knew that abuses and irregularities were taking place, did not take steps to improve conditions until forced to do so by the disclosures of an ordinary lieutenant.

It is said by several papers that if Lieut. Bilse laid bare a few army abuses and called the attention of the war department to the existence of these, it is rather unjust to send him to jail for bringing to light affairs, which threatened the honor of the army to which he belonged.

Croupy Coughs and Asthma Gasps

Are Alike Relieved and Cured by the Soothing, Healing Influence of

DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE

Thousands of mothers feel grateful to Dr. Chase because this great medicine has been the means of saving a darling child when frantically struggling for breath—a victim of croup.

It also frees the asthma sufferer from the dreadful paroxyms which cause him such keen agony and cures asthma, as has been proven in a hundred cases.

The effects of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine are both thorough and far-reaching, and it cures when ordinary cough medicines have little or no effect.

Mrs. George Budden, Putnamville, Ont., says: "I feel it my duty to recommend Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, as I had the asthma very bad; could get nothing to do me any good. A friend of mine persuaded me to try this remedy, as he had tried it, and it proved successful. I tried it and it cured me. I am thankful today to say I am a well woman through the use of this remedy. I keep it in the house all the time and would not be without it."

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is sold by all dealers at the advertised price, 25 cents a bottle, family size (three times as much) 60 cents. Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. To protect you against imitations the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every bottle. 6

Death of Harriet H. Ayer.

New York, Nov. 25.—Harriet Hubbard Ayer, the well-known editor of the New York World, died today at her residence in this city of pneumonia, after four days' illness.

IN NATURE'S STOREHOUSE THERE ARE CURES.—Medical experiments have shown conclusively that there are medicinal virtues in even ordinary plants growing up around us, which give them a value that cannot be estimated. It is held by some that Nature provides a cure for every disease which neglect and ignorance have visited upon man. However this may be, it is well known that Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, distilled from roots and herbs, are a sovereign remedy in curing all disorders of the digestion.

GREAT CROWDS TO HEAR ROSEBERY

20,000 Wanted to Listen to Former Liberal Leader.

CALLS CHAMBERLAIN JEREMIAH

Ridicules His Policy, Declaring It Would Precipitate Trade War With the U. S.

London, Nov. 25. — Lord Rosebery spoke to three thousand people on the fiscal question at the Surrey Theater tonight. There were 20,000 applications for tickets, the issue of which had to be limited to the capacity of the theater. Lord Rosebery afterwards addressed a large overflow meeting. At both meetings he was given an enthusiastic reception, and all through his speech he was warmly cheered. Among those present at the meetings were a number of members of the House of Commons and others prominent to public life. His lordship's remarks were for the most part devoted to ridiculing Joseph Chamberlain and his policy.

"After last night's meeting at Queen's Hall, which was attended by seven members of Lord Rosebery's Government," said the speaker, "little could be added. The fiscal question must be solved and finally solved. The dissolution of Parliament cannot be long delayed."

Lord Rosebery referred to Mr. Chamberlain as "a modern Jeremiah," whose assertions that the country had been desolated, had been refuted by facts. Mr. Chamberlain said the country was ruined, while Mr. Balfour, on the other hand, said the country was extremely prosperous, but would soon be ruined. The board of trade blue book, however, had decided against both these contentions. The speaker said that the conditions of the people generally had been improved, while the workingmen were enjoying greater prosperity. If distress existed in the couuntry it was because of the unwise expenditures of the Government, which during the last decade had increased 62 per cent, while during the previous ten years there had been an increase of only 7 per cent.

"Instead of curbing this growing expenditure," said Lord Rosebery, "Mr. Chamberlain discovered a disease which had no existence, and proposed a remedy which would make the disease worse, namely, the increase in the cost of every commodity." The real outcome of Mr. Chamberlain's policy, his lordship believed, would be a state of socialism. The cry of "dumping" applied to the large emporiums in this country, which had killed the small traders. During recent years Canada had "dumped" in Great Britain nearly as much iron as all the "dumping" countries put together. A country of experts, said the speaker, would have to distinguish their foreign and "dumped" and "sweated" goods.

"The first result of Mr. Chamberlain's policy," continued Lord Rosebery, "would be to plunge Great Britain into a bitter fiscal warfare with our cousins, the United States, as the result of which Great Britain would lose everything and gain nothing. It would mean a practical severance, far more deplorable than a fiscal severance, and would blight the fairest hopes of the two nations."

In summing up, Lord Rosebery said that Mr. Chamberlain had not proved his case, and that the evils of which he complained existed only in his imagination. A real remedy for any adverse conditions could be reached by stimulating practical, technical and commercial education, reducing the national expenditure and the drink bill of the people, encouraging the growth of cotton within the empire, teaching commercial travelers how to study the tastes of the people they visited, and through other simple and practical steps, which would be a better training for race competition than mandates for negotiation with foreign countries.

THE IRON BOUNTIES.

London, Nov. 25.—Earl Crewe, speaking at Warrington, said that Canada dumped more steel on our shores than any other country. The bounty enabled Canada to send us 103,000 tons of pig iron during the last three years. Germany, Holland, Belgium and the United States in the same period sent only 124,000 tons. The Leader, in a cartoon, represents Mr. Chamberlain kicking bounty-fed sugar out of a room. A footnote says: "Mr. Chamberlain rejoices in having turned bounty-fed sugar out of the country, and in the meantime Canadian iron, on which heavy bounties are paid, is extensively imported."

At a meeting of the Dudley Chamber of Commerce, F. W. Cook, who has recently toured Canada, said that if the Canadian market was to be won the small details of manufacture must be closely studied. Either the principles of manufacturing firms or trusted representatives should visit Canada. Local agents were little or no use, and sometimes betrayed the confidence of firms they represented.

It is understood that on behalf of British steamship lines an inquiry is being made in Saxony into the alleged restrictions of emigration by the German Government to the steamers of the Hamburg-American and Nordeutscher-Lloyd lines. A prominent steamship manager says that emigrants from Russia and Austria are not turned back if their tickets do not read via either of the lines mentioned, but German lines induce emigrants to use their routes by giving privileges
