

ARTICLE 5

The activities of the PTS Team pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement shall be arranged in cooperation with Canada so as to ensure, to the greatest degree possible, the timely and effective discharge of its functions, and the least possible inconvenience to Canada and disturbance to the facility or area at which the PTS Team shall carry out its activities.

ARTICLE 6

Canada shall accord members of the PTS Team present on its territory such protection and amenities as may be necessary to ensure the safety and well-being of each member of the PTS Team. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of the Convention on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the activities of the PrepCom through the PTS, its officials and experts in implementing the provisions of this Agreement. In addition:

- (a) PTS officials shall be immune from arrest and detention and from seizure of their personal baggage.
- (b) Immunity and inviolability of the PrepCom's property and assets, and officials or experts' personal baggage, shall be subject to the quarantine regulations of Canada, and the laws of Canada prohibiting the import or export of certain articles, and in any event shall cease to apply to any property abandoned by the PrepCom for a period exceeding twelve months.
- (c) Immunity from personal arrest or detention, exchange facilities and repatriation facilities shall not apply to a PrepCom official or expert who forms part of the PTS team and who is a citizen or permanently resident in Canada.
- (d) Immunity from legal process shall not apply in the case of civil or administrative proceeding arising out of death, damage or personal injury caused by a motor vehicle belonging to the PrepCom or a PrepCom official or expert who forms part of the PTS team or driven by a PTS official or expert.
- (e) Canadian authorities may only enter any premises of the PrepCom with the consent of the Executive Secretary of the Preparatory Commission or of the PTS Team Leader. The consent of the Executive Secretary shall be deemed to have been given in the case of fire or other emergency requiring immediate protective action.

ARTICLE 7

The Government of Canada shall make all reasonable efforts to ensure that local entities cooperate with the activities undertaken by the PTS Team.
