LONDON PRETTIEST CITY IN DOMINION

New Zealand Visitor Is Impressed With City's Beauties.

A. W. Rodger, chairman of the Southand Electric Power Board, a Government public utility concern in New Zealand, was a visitor in London Sunday, en route to San Francisco, where he will embark for the Antipodes. Chairman Rodger came to Canada to see the Niagara Falls power development, and to obtain samples of Canadian-made electrical appliances, with a view to creating a market for them in his country.

During his brief stay in London, he was taken on a tour of inspection by General Manager E. V. Buchanan of the public utilities commission. This inspection included the hydro station, public works, hydro shop, and Byron Sanatorium, where electric farm appliances, such as milkers and incubators were shown at work.

Chairman Rodger declared himself as pleased with the beauty of the Forest City, and expressed his regret at having to curtail his visit to a few hours. He asserts that London is the most beautiful residential centre that he has seen in the Dominion. He also informed Manager Buchanan that Canada is by no means what the New Zealander imagines it to be, mountains and prairie being the popular conception of this country by the average native of the Antipodes.

LONDON MINISTERIAL

day was hardly a convenient day for the London ministers to visit Port Stanley, the Port Stanley clergy could better conduct the necessary investigations.

Rev. H. T. Ferguson was strenuous in his contention, however, that the main responsibility rested with London and that the initial move should emanate from here. Rev. John Agnew, retiring secretary was of a like opinion, and urged that a committee be appointed to strengthen the hands of the Lord's Day Alliance.

Horrible Jazz Stuff.

T. D. McCullough, district secretary of the Social Service, called attention to the fact that last smmer he had united with the St. Thomas Alliance with a view toward eliminating the disgraceful, horrible "jazz stuff" known as music, which you hear from early morn until late at night," he said. We proposed to inaugurate sacred concerts Sunday afternoons or evenings at any convenient time as not to conflict with the regular services. They are making persistent efforts in this direction now, and I fully expected a report by this time. You can't cut out what is there. You have to put in something better."

Rev. M. Kelly felt that the Lord's Day Alliance possessed the adequate machinery for combating the evil and moved to submit the matter to the Toronto executive of that body and subsequently follow their lead. This resolution was passed unanimously, with the further clause that the London Ministerial Alliance stood eager to assist.

D. S. C. R. Chaplains.

Discussing the rumor that the D. S. C. R. intended to move toward relieving of their duties two chaplains at Byron Sanatorium and Westminster Hospital, Rev. D. C. MacGregor moved that action be taken by the united clergy before the Government makes any official move. "It would be almost criminal," he declared, "for the Government to relieve these ministers at this moment. The argument of economy should not be considered for a moment. There are many other fields of endeavor for the Government to economize in. We should not wait, however, for the latter to act. A resolution should be forwarded to all the official boards of the various churches, asking them to make representations to the Government in this matter."

Rev. W. L. Armitage, retiring president, explained that he had been informed by an official of the D. S. C. R. that the Y. M. C. A. had expressed a willingness to take over this work among the patients at the two institutions, but upon consulting the Y. M. C. A. he was informed, he said, that although that organization was ready to co-operate as far as possible, it did not possess an adequate staff to take over the entire duties of the two ministers.

Mr. Armitage pointed out that as it is at present the latter have an exceedingly busy time, as one of them has the patients of the Victoria Hospital to devote much time to.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected at this morning's session. President, Rev. M. Kelly, First Congregational Church; 1st vice-president, Rev. J. N. Norton, Maitland Street Baptist; 2nd vice-president, Rev. G. W. Young, Chelsea Green; secretary-treasurer, Rev. Leslie Reid, London Junction; corresponding secretary, Rev. J. H. Versey, Christian Workers.

Rev. W. L. Armitage presided at this morning's gathering, with Rev. John Agnew acting as secretary.

INCOME TAX PENALTIES HAVE BEEN REDUCED

Official Notice to Amendments Received Today.

Official notice of the amendments to the income war tax act was received today at the local tax office. It is noted that the various penalties attached for failing to comply with the clauses of the act have been considerably reduced.

Subsection six of section seven of the act has been so amended that whereas previously every person who failed to file returns was liable to a fine of 25 per cent of the tax payable, five per cent only will now be deducted.

Subsection seven of section seven is so amended that whereas, for short payment, a person who was liable to be further assessed 25 per cent of the tax payable, he will now be taxed 4 per cent only of that sum plus 6 per cent on all payments from April 30 last.

Subsection one of section nine is so amended to make the person who refuses or neglects to comply with demands subject to a fine of $25 a day in lieu of $100, as formerly.

Subsection one of section tne of the act is repealed and the following is substituted:

"After examination of the taxpayer's return the minister shall send a notice of assessment to the taxpayer verifying or altering the amount of the tax as estimated by him in his return. Any additional tax found due over the estimated amount shal lbe paid within one month from the date of the mailing of the notice of assessment.

"If the taxpayer fails to pay such additional tax within one month from the date of the mailing of the notice of assessment aforesaid, he shall pay, in addition to the interest provided for by subsection seven of section seven of this act, as enacted by section ten of chapter forty-nine of the statutes of 1920, interest at the rate of four per cent per annum, upon the said additional tax, from the expiry of the period of one month from the date of the mailing of the said notice to the date of payment."

IMAGINES HOSPITAL INTERNE IS GOING TO EXECUTE HIM

University Student Is Broken Down Over Studies.

INTERNE HIS FRIEND

When Rational, Patient Enjoys Talking With Him.

Laboring under the delusion that he is to be put to death by the new gas method employed to execute condemned criminals in a western state, a patient is receiving treatment for mental disorders in Victoria Hospital. In his imagination one of the internes is the executioner, and his appearance is a signal for the patient to break into a frenzy difficult to control.

The patient is a youth who attended university, and whose health broke down under the strain of academic work. He is confined in "the cage" at Victoria Hospital, but owing to the fact that at times he is quite rational and is under constant surveillance, the cage, which is a heavy wire inclosure with a bed therein, is not locked. He is not a menace to the safety of others, being cowed during mental attacks, overawed by the fear of the death.

However, every evening the youth is assailed by the thought that he is to pay the penalty, via the gas route, and refuses to sleep. At times he climbs to the top of the inclosure, on its exterior, where he secretes himself from "the executioner, and his appearance is a case is the fact that during rational periods the interne, who is the young patient's periodical imaginary Nemesis, is his fast friend, the two having been acquainted for some time.

A second peculiar trait manifested in the case is the fact that this patient will only take his medicine from one nurse who possesses the power to humor him. The youth has been in the hospital for about two weeks, and medical authorities there express the opinion that his mental condition is only temporary, and that with rest and treatment he will become permanently cured in the near future.

CONFERENCE OF

Touching on the renewal of the Japanese alliance, the prime minister said that the British Governmens were desirous of ascertaining the views of the dominions and approached the subject with a perfectly open mind.

Preliminary Statement.

Right. Hon. Arthur Meighen as representing the senior dominion, was the first speaker on the program after Lloyd George. Mr. Meighen onfined himself more to a preliminary statement of his understanding of the scope and functions of the conference. He would not, he said, deal with subjects on the agenda for the present, preferring to deal with them as taken up in order. After Premier Meighen's statement the conference adjourned for the day, the other premiers preferring to delay their remarks until after consideration had been given to the address of Premier Lloyd George.

It is understood that General Smuts, the South African premier, will make a lengthy address on the British foreign policy, particularly in regard to steps arising out of the treaty of Versailles, which, it will be recalled, he subjected to some criticism in Paris.

BRITISH PAPERS

quarters in London" are quite anxious to have it known that the conference will be entirely unfettered, the writer goes on to say:

Unfounded Suspicions.

"It is unfortunately true that wholly unfounded suspicions have been allowed to take root. There is no substance in the fears of these sensitive sections of the dominions, especially Canadian opinion, which have foreseen a danger to their newly vindicated nationality. Among the most hidebound Conservatives in this country, of whom few are left, there is not the slightest desire to limit colonial autonomy. The conference, in short, is in the hands of the dominions themselves."

The writer in the Sunday Observer then proceeds to discuss the Japanese alliance. He makes a plea for an understanding rather than continuance of the present treaty, and adds: "There can be no question of ranging ourselves in any sense against the United States, and whatever are the commitments that Great Britain enters into with Japan will be guided at every point by a determination to carry America with us in the resultant policy."

The Times today devotes almost a column to the reported views of Premier Meighen, and say his opinions are bound to carry the greatest weight in the conference.

TWO HUNDRED WENTWORTH AGRICULTURISTS TO VISIT FARMS IN LONDON VICINITY

Will Visit Wildwood Tuesday Afternoon—Banquet At Night—Will Also Inspect the Sheep of Col. Robert McEwen, Byron.

Two hundred farmers from the county of Wentworth will visit several of the larger farms in the vicinity of London on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. When the party arrives in this city on Tuesday afternoon it will be welcomed by some of the most prominent farmers of Middlesex, who will accompany them on the tour.

After their arrival the members of the party will proceed to the "Weldwood" farm, one of the most modern in the district. The party will then return to this city, where a banquet will be held in the Tecumseh House. Several prominent speakers, including the local members of parliament, have been invited.

On Thursday the party will visit the Byron Sanatorium, then they will inspect the sheep on Col. McEwen's farm. While returning home the members of the party will visit the farm of W. Hogg at Thamesford, where there are some splendid horses.

BUTCHERS MUST OBSERVE LAWS

Dr. C. S. Tamlin Determined On Better Conditions.

Dr. C. S. Tamlin, inspector for the London Board of Health, is determined that local butcher shops will observe sanitary laws in conducting their businesses. "One butcher was fined $50 in police court today, after being repeatedly warned about the condition of his premises," he declared. "This ought to be a lesson to him, and to others who do not keep their shops in a sanitary manner. We were compelled to destroy 250 pounds of meat unfit for human consumption, which this man kept in his shop."

"There is another butcher in East London, whose premises are not as they should be. He has been allowed five days in which to rectify matters, failing which he will receive treatment similar to the convicted offender. As for the latter party, I am awaiting instructions as to whether or not to close up his shop permanently."

GUELPH BRIDE DIES IN HOSPITAL HERE

Mrs. Fred King Taken Ill At Port Stanley Saturday.

Married in Guelph, two weeks ago, and spending her honeymoon in London, Mrs. Fred King of Guelph, was suddenly taken ill en route to Port Stanley, Sunday evening, and died in Victoria Hospital this morning at 10:30 o'clock.

The unfortunate bride was removed to the St. John's Emergency Hospital at Port Stanley, Sunday, but was later brought to the home of friends here, and from thence to Victoria Hospital, early this morning.

Mrs. King was a periodic victim of heart trouble, and never rallied from the fatal seizure. The remains are being forwarded to Guelph, where interment will be made. Prior to her marriage she was Miss Violet Thompson of Owen Sound.

CHINESE TRADE AWAITS CANADA

J. Westaway, Former Londoner, Addresses Rotary Club.

Much Chinese trade awaits exploitation by Canadian businessmen, according to J. Westaway, a native of London, but now of Shanghai, who addressed the Rotary Club at a luncheon in the Tecumseh House at noon today. Mr. Westaway said that although China presents a rich field for Canadian business, it must be entered immediately, if the harvest is to be reaped fifteen years from now.

The greater part of the speaker's brief addres was devoted to a descriptive story of the city of Shanghai, where he has resided for the past fifteen years. He said that contrary to the common belief, Shanghai was not China, but an international port controlling its own land.

Outside of the city of New York it was probably the greatest cosmopolitan centre in the world. There was, he said, a greater variety of people per capita living there than in any other city. Altogether the foreign population number 70,000. Of this number, he stated, 20,000 were British, 10,000 were Japanese and 5,000 were Americans, while the other 35,000 was made up of many nationalities.

It was a great port of commerce, the speaker continued. At the present time business was rather dull because the Chinese were cautious buyers. They would buy little English goods now because of the high prices and adverse rate of exchange.

The luncheon was also marked by some splendid solos sung by Miss Lota Laymon and E. Webster, with Mrs. W. Martin playing the accompaniment. The meeting voted to give active support to several boys' camps.

GASOLINE PRICES DROP

Now Quoted in London at 37 Cents Per Gallon.

Gasoline dropped two cents a gallon today. Instead of the 39 cents a gallon prevailing in all parts of the province for the past several weeks, "gas" sold everywhere today at 37 cents for all brands.

The price of gasoline has fallen eight cents during the past few months, and the bottom has not been reached yet. Notice that the price was to be reduced was received by all dealers by wire on Saturday night.

SHEEP-DIPPING DEMONSTRATION.—Demonstrations in sheep-dipping will be given by James Telfer of Paris, an employee of the Dominion Live Stock Department, on Tuesday at the farm of Duncan Brodie of Muncey. On Thursday the operations will be repeated at Frank Neil's farm near Lucan. The sheep will be dipped in creossole for the treatment of insects. The farmers of the surrounding districts are invited.

WALL STREET'S 7TH WEEK OF LOWER PRICES

Reactionary Trend Took More Violent Form On Today's Market.

New York, June 20.—The stock market continued its reactionary trend in more violent form today, making the seventh successive week of declining prices. Outstanding features of the active trading, which totalled some 600,000 shares by midday, included U. S. Steel at 72¾, and the lowest quotation since 1915, and a sharp break of four points in Canadian Pacific to 103, the lowest price for that stock in 20 years.

The enforced character of the selling in Canadian Pacific was apparent from the fact that one lot of 1,500 shares changed hands at a decline of 3½ points.

Other stocks, including standard rails, the prominent steels, railway equipments and specialties which soared during the war, were at lowest records for one to two years.

Brokers reported heavy accumulation of selling orders over the week-end, many of them originating at interior plants. The reversal derived further importance from the aggressive operations of bears, who had a free hand.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

New York, June 20—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—The week in the stock market opened with new low records for the current movement. Crucible and United States Steels, Baldwin Locomotive, Harvester, General Asphalt, Royal Dutch and many of the rails were exposed to further pressure. Selling of Canadian Pacific, which broke sharply last Saturday, was resumed. Shippings, tobaccos, motors and food shares were lower by fractions to 1½ points. Coca-Cola featured the minor specialties, rising more than 2 points at the outset, but soon reacting. Metals, leathers and the cheaper oils also established lower prices.

Denver, Col., June 20. — John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, today formally announced that he was a candidate for the presidency of the American Federation of Labor in opposition to Samuel Gompers.

"I have decided to permit my name to be submitted to the convention as a candidate for the presidency of the American Federation of Labor," was the brief annnouncemet made by Mr. Lewis. He declined to make any further statement.

President Gompers announced that he will be a candidate for re-election in the following statement:

"The delegates to the convention will determine who shall be their officers, and if they see fit to re-elect me their president they will have the opportunity. My name will go before the convention and it will not be withdrawn."

A. F. OF L. FACED BY STRENUOUS WEEK OF WORK

Denver, Colo., June 20.—Faced by one of the most strenuous programs in its history the American Federation of Labor today opened the second week's session of its 41st annual session.

The first question the railroad problem, determination of future relations with the European trade union movement, jurisdictional disputes, and many other important matters, were scheduled for the action of the delegates.

Whether President Gompers would be opposed for re-election by John W. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, had not been definitely learned when the meeting opened. Supporters of Lewis, however, were hard at work, and asserted that his candidacy would be announced within the next 24 hours.

While President Gompers and administration forces have not taken public recognition of the opposition, it was learned that they have made plans to meet a contest, but are awaiting the next move of the mine workers' leaders.

ANOTHER HALF CENT CUT IN PRICE OF SUGAR PER POUND

Sugar Is Now Less Than Half Price of Last July.

Montreal, June 20.—Another substantial reduction in the price of sugar may be expected this week if merchants pass on the decrease of half a cent a pound made by refiners on Saturday. All the large wholesale houses said this morning that they were now prepared to sell at the new price of 9¼ cents a pound, with 5 cents a bag extra for delivery, but the grocery stores explained that they had made reductions last week, and some were doubtful as to whether further concessions would be made.

"We are selling sugar for less than it costs us now," said the manager of the grocery department of one large departmental store. His firm was advertising five pounds for 50 cents, and the difference of three-quarters of a cent between this cut rate and the refiners' price did not pay for the cost of handling and delivery, he explained. Sugar is now less than half its price of last July, when it was as hig has 23 cents a pound retail, and the refiners were asking over 21 cents.

THIS CAT FAILED TO COME BACK

Bert Mills, 246 Wharncliffe north, does not believe that cats always come back, because his mummified cat has been lost for two weeks, and all trace of him has been lost.

A few weeks ago he found the cat under a house on Wharncliffe road which was being moved. The cat was in good condition, and the finder left it there on exhibition for a few days. He was offered various sums for it, but refused to sell.

When he returned to work one morning the cat had departed. He is sure that it did not walk away, for it left behind its nine lives ten years ago.

Although pussy no longer "purrs" or "meows," the loser of the cat saw other good qualities in it, and hopes that it will be returned to him.
