— The Italian government has proposed that the naval squadrons of Germany, Austria and Italy hold a combined demonstration in the Mediterranean.

— In some district's of England coal in consequence of the miners' strike, is retailing at sixty shillings (fifteen dollars) a ton, and the prices threaten to increase.

— In the House of Commons Wednesday the motion to consider the employers' liability bill as amended in the standing committe was debated. The proceedings were uneventful. No action was taken.

— Owing to the report of the divers that the steamer which was wrecked by the explosion of dynamite at Santander on Friday still contains a large quantity of dynamite, the inhabitants are fleeing from the neighborhood of the wreck.

— While the steamer John Fraser, owned in Toronto, was on its way on Tuesday from Callender to a lumber camp on the western end of Lake Nipissing, it was burned to the water's edge. The crew and the lumbermen on board jumped into the water, and twenty lives were lost.

— It is the opinion of certain of the foreign residents of India that the native population is growing more than ordinarily restive under British rule, and that it would only take a small spark to kindle a fire of revolution, far-reaching in its consequence.

— Mr. Reffles Moore, a young Englishman, who was the guest of Dr. J. Baker Edwards, of Montreal, in the beginning of October, who came to this country to learn farming, is missing. He was last heard from on October 14, at Fannie, and Dr. Edwards is very anxious.

— In the British House of Commons, in reply to Mr. Redmond, who questioned the government in regard to the course it intended to pursue in the matter of evicted tenants, Mr. Gladstone said that no new legislation would be introduced this session beyond what had been already announced.

— Twenty-two Catholic priests, a few days ago, were exiled from the Vistule district, Russia, on the charge that they opposed the authorities. On Wednesday, under guard, the priests started for their destination, and a large number of persons attempted to rescue them from the gendarmes. A desperate fight followed. The gendarmes were reinforced by Cossacks, who fired into the crowd, killing and wounding many persons. Further trouble is feared.

— The men who threw the bombs in the Opera House at Barcelona, Tuesday night, are supposed to have sat in the fourth or fifth gallery. Fifteen persons were killed instantly by the explosion. Fifteen injured died Wednesday. Eighty persons are seriously ill from wounds or shock. Solconi, Italian anarchist, who was arrested, made a confession. It is discredited, owing to his many contradictory statements. Nine anarchists have been arrested in Barcelona on suspicion of complicity in the affair.

— Scrofula eradicated and all kindred diseases cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which by its vitalizing and alterative effects makes pure blood.

Prevention Is Better

Than cure, and those who are subject to rheumatism can prevent attacks by keeping the blood pure from the acid which causes the disease. You can rely upon Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for rheumatism and catarrh, also every form of scrofula, salt rheum, boils and other diseases caused by impure blood. It tones and vitalizes the whole system.

Deaths.

BABCOCK.—At Elgin, N. B., Oct. 31st, of consumption, Eva Babcock, aged 16. A widowed mother, two brothers and a sister deeply sorrow for their loss. There is bright hope in her death, for she was trusting in Jesus. May the Comforter be with those who mourn.

CROSS.—At Tancook, Oct. 30, Lizzie, child of William and Clara Cross, aged six days.

BRIGHTMAN.—At Scotch Village, on the 12th Oct., after a short illness, Wilbert Brightman, aged 14 years.

COSSETT.—Charles Cossett, of Smith's Cove, Digby Co., died of a cancer in the stomach, at his home, on Sunday morning, 5th inst. He was 62 years of age. His end was peace.

DAVIDSON.—At Isaac's Harbor, Oct. 30, Sophia, infant daughter of Mr. George Davidson, aged eight and a half months.

DANIELS.—At Paradise, N. S., Oct. 17, Fainda, relict of the late James Daniels, in the 70th year of her age. Sister Daniels was led to trust in Christ for salvation at the age of seventeen years, and was baptized by Rev. N. Vidito into the fellowship of the Wilmot Baptist church, of which she remained a member until her death. Her stable Christian character is worthy of imitation. Her illness was protracted and painful, but she bore it with Christian resignation, and dying to her was truly falling asleep in Jesus. Her two sons and three daughters were all with her in her last hours, and heard her dying testimony to the power of Divine grace to save to the uttermost. We deeply sympathize with her sorrowing family.

ELDRIDGE.—At Sandy Cove, Digby Co., on the 1st inst., Janet C., beloved wife of Capt. John F. Eldridge, and daughter of Rev. J. C. Morse, D. D., passed to her reward. She died trusting in Jesus. She was 33 years of age. Four little children are left to mourn the loss of a loving mother. The funeral took place at Sandy Cove, on Friday, 3rd inst. in the presence of a large number of sympathizing friends. Rev A. T. Dykeman, of Digby, officiated, assisted by Rev. Mr. Leonard (Methodist). May the dear Lord sustain the sorrowing father and the other heart-stricken mourners in their affliction.

FREEZE.—At Woodstock, suddenly, on 31st Oct. last, Edward Charles Freeze, of Fredericton, aged 68 years.

GIFFIN.—At her home at Isaac's Harbor, after a long illness, Nov. 3, Jane, the beloved wife of Mr. H. Havelock Giffin, leaving her husband with a small family to mourn their loss. Her trust was in Jesus. Aged 33. [Boston and Portland, Me., papers please copy].

HATT.—At the residence of her mother, Beach Hill, Lunenburg Co., N. S., on the 21st day of October, aged 27 years. Her sickness, which was long and painful, was borne with true Christian patience. She made a public profession of her faith in Christ and was baptized June 14, 1885, since which time her light has been kept steadily burning. No one who visited her in her last days could fail to be impressed with the power of religion to sustain the soul in pain and weakness and approaching death.

LINARD.—At Tancook, Oct. 30, Elizabeth, beloved wife of George L. Inard, aged 89 years. She leaves a husband in his 85th year and one daughter to mourn their loss. The deceased was born at Oakland, Lunenburg Co., and came to this Island some eight years ago. She was the oldest person here except Mrs. David Langille, who is in her 92nd year with good health.

GRAY.—At Windsor Plains, Oct. 16, after a long illness of consumption, Lizzie Gray, aged 13 years, passed away. Her end was peace.

COLE.—At Midgic, on Nov. 4th, of scarlet fever, Maud, daughter of Susan and Henry Cole.

HINES.—At Isaac's Harbor, Sept. 24, very suddenly, at the early age of a year and eight months, Grata, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hines.

ALLEN.—At Seaside Hotel, Cape Tormentine, Westmorland Co., N. B., Miss Sarah Allen, daughter of the late Samuel Allen, of Bayside, and sister of Mrs. Tucker, hostess of the hotel, aged 50 years, passed peacefully to her rest. Sister Allen was for many years a consistent member of the Bayside Baptist church. She bore her protracted and trying illness with Christian fortitude and resignation, and died trusting in Jesus.

ROSE.—At Port Maitland, Yarmouth Co., N. S., on her birthday, Oct. 28th, Mary Rose, widow of the late James Rose, aged 86 years. She died with all the peace and confidence of a child being rocked to sleep in the arms of a loving father. Our beloved sister was very young when she was converted, and was among the first baptized by Father Harding. Her life in her home and in the house of God was a daily sermon; and her example and teaching as a Christian mother was abundantly rewarded long before her death, with the blessed assurance that all her children could claim their mother's God as their heavenly Father. One son is a deacon, a grandson a licentiate of the church of which she was always a member, and it can truly be said of her, "Though dead, yet she speaketh." All through her life she has had wonderful faith in God, and, as her days on earth were ending her hope became brighter. The Bible, Watt's hymns and prayer was her daily manna; and when the cold hand of death pressed heavily upon her, she was heard to whisper, "Blessed Jesus," and again, "Yes, I'll soon be home." A large circle of relatives and friends are left behind to mourn their loss, which was her gain.

TABOR.—Mrs. Leah Seely Tabor, widow of the deceased John Vaughn Tabor, departed this life, to join her husband in the "better land" on Monday afternoon, 23rd October. Sister Tabor was born in Wickham, Queens Co., N. B., on Dec. 28, 1820. In early womanhood she professed faith in Christ, under the faithful labors of Rev. David Crandall, who afterward united her and her husband in holy matrimony on Nov. 30, 1837. Theirs was a loving union. Six living sons and two daughters were God's gift unto them, crowning their parental and maternal life with His Divine benediction, until on February 3, 1869, the affectionate husband was transplanted to his rest above, and the lonely life of twenty-four years and nine months began to reek with deep impress on the devoted widow. Not only her children and grandchildren loved her, but the church of Christ and the unremitting faithfulness of the community were combined to show her the attentions that belonged to her meek and quiet spirit.
