WON BOTH FROM SYRACUSE

A Great Holiday for the Torontos Batting Averages.

Brouthers Hit Over the Fence in Each Game—Hannivan Knocked Out Singles, Doubles and Triples—A Crowd of 7500 in the Afternoon—Montreal Won and Lost.

Toronto won both baseball games yesterday at the Island and went up two steps in the record table. The day was fine, though a few drops fell in the morning. Great crowds were in attendance. Buckenberger sat on the bench, looked at the vast attendance and the gloomy recollection came back to him of how he used to play to empty benches over the Don. Kuntsch was a curious and happy individual, watching the turnstiles and wondering how long his share of Toronto and Montreal gates would keep Buck, Dirty Bull and rest of the gang in the Salt City. It was a great holiday for the Torontos, Hannivan especially endearing himself to the fans. But not so with Billy Lush, who batted again without effect, making his seventh successive performance at the Island this season for no hits, and his farewell appearance to-day will be watched with interest. The Stars kicked and cuffed away, and Burrill was fined $5 for throwing a soft ball over the fence. The record:

	Won.	Lost.	Pct.
Wilkes-Barre	20	20	.505
Montreal	27	24	.529
Toronto	28	25	.528
Syracuse	28	25	.528
Providence	25	23	.520
Rochester	25	28	.481
Buffalo	25	31	.328
Springfield	18	27	.400

Games to-day: Syracuse at Toronto, Wilkes-Barre at Montreal, Rochester at Buffalo, Providence at Springfield.

Won in the Morning by 11 to 7.

The morning game abounded in runs, hits and errors and bases on balls, Gaston doing especially wild. Heavy hitting won for Toronto. The Stars' hits were all singles, while Mullarkey was hit safely every innings, 15 times for a total of 25 bases.

Toronto scored two in the first. Casey was hit in the foot. Grey bunted two strikes in attempting to sacrifice, and then retired to centre. Hannivan's triple was a corker over Garry's head for one run, and Brouthers' fast grounder to Eagan scored the other. With two out, Gaston filled the bases on balls in the Stars' half, and then Lezotte's hard one went straight in Freeman's hands. The Islanders batted round in the second for five runs. Gatins' triple, Taylor's single, Casey's hit and muffs by O'Brien and Earl tallied two and left the bases full. Brouthers cleared them with a double to right-centre. Gaston, Fox and Freeman furnished the outs.

The Stars scored two in the third on Egan's hit, a force out, singles by Smith and O'Brien and Hannivan's fumble. Gaston again filled the bases, but Lezotte's pop fly to pitcher and Lake's foul to Casey left them there. They added two moreon the fourth on a base on balls to Mullarkey, singles by Eagan and Smith, a force out and Casey's wild throw to second.

A base on balls, Taylor's single and Gaston's double, with slow running, yielded only one for Toronto in the fifth. The Stars retired, 1-2-3, and the score was 8—4, with the game more than half-over.

Brouthers banged the ball far over the fence in the sixth, but no one else reached first.

A bitasman struck, a base on balls and Smith's hit filled the bases in the Stars' half, with two hands gone. O'Brien singled in two, and Lezotte's fly to Freeman retired the side. McFarland took the slab in the seventh, and Syracuse got three on bases, with two out, and Smith's scratch single sent in only one. Lush hit to pitcher, and they were again left.

In the eighth Casey and Grey singled, and Hannivan tripled, with no one out, but Toronto could not get in the third run. Brouthers drew a base on balls, Fox retired on bunted strikes, and a double-play retired the side.

In the Afternoon 19 to 4.

The afternoon game was somewhat of a farce. Island Leaguers could have pounded Blackburn's slow ones all over the lot. Still, Buckenberger let him stay in, though Voorhees was on the bench ready for the expected vacancy. Buck saw another chance to give baseball a stab in Toronto. There was the best crowd of the year present, and the Don scapegoat wanted to make the contest as bad as possible. But everyone understands his methods, and baseball will continue to flourish in Toronto while Buckenberger is killing it off in other places.

The Torontos all batted .333 or over, and the 22 hits went for a total of 33 bases, while Williams held the Stars down to 6. Toronto tallied one at the outset. With two out, Hannivan tripled and Brouthers singled him home. Fox's double only sent Brouthers to third, and Freeman sent a fly to O'Brien. The Islanders rolled up seven in the second and put the big crowd in great humor. They cheered at the hits and guyed Buckenberger's yellow fielders. The runs all tallied with two out. Casey, Grey, Fox and Taylor made singles, Hannivan a double and Freeman a triple. Brouthers drew a base on balls, and Lush's fumble and wild throw and Earl's muff helped the procession across the plate.

O'Brien made a home run hit inside the grounds in the second for a lonely run.

Fox slagled in the fourth, ran with Freeman's grounder, that was an out at first, and scored on Gatins' safe hit to left.

In the fifth, three singles and Lush's error scored one and filled the bases, with no one out. Then Brouthers lifted the ball over the fence for four runs in a bunch. A base on balls and Taylor's double tallied another and rounded up the half-dozen for the innings. Brouthers was applauded when he opened the seventh. He took one in the side and scored on singles by Freeman and Gatins. They added another in the next, but it took two singles, Grey's sacrifice and an out at first to score it.

Syracuse managed to get three in the eighth on singles by Blackburn and Garry, two muffs of thrown balls by Gatins, a base on balls to Lush and O'Brien's two-bagger. The Torontos tallied two in the ninth on Fox's single, Freeman's double, his steal of third and Taylor's fly to Garry, and the Stars had an innings to make 15 runs or lose. They lost.
