HAMILTON NEWS

THE CITY FATHERS WORKED.

Were Not in Talking Mood and a Lot of Business Was Put Thru.

MONEY TO BE PAID FOR DAMAGES.

Sewers and Finance Committee's Reports Passed—General News of the City.

Hamilton, June 11.—(Special.)—Fortunately there was little disposition on the part of the city fathers at to-night's Council to talk promiscuously on the various reports presented. If there had, a midnight session would have been necessary, for the matters that were introduced were numerous and varied.

The Board of Works report, presented by Ald. Findlay, contained a number of recommendations. The board held a special meeting this afternoon, and considered a number of claims for damages, and decided to make these recommendations: That Julia Ann Zimmerman be paid $200 and legal costs to date for injuries sustained on Wellington-street; that Mrs. Robinson be paid $100 for injuries thru a fall on Ladysmith Day; that James Doyle be paid $100 for a similar accident.

The board also considered the dispute between the city and the Street Railway Company, respecting the paving between the company's tracks. The company offered to pay 15 cents a yard for the roadway between the tracks, or refer the whole matter to the county judge. The board concluded, on motion of Ald. Kerr and Reid, to finish the work on the streets named under the temporary arrangement. As there was some indication of a tar famine, the board decided that the chairman and Engineer should go in search of tar. These recommendations were embodied in the board's report, presented at to-night's Council, with the following additional recommendations:

That the Cataract Power and Electric Light Company be charged $1 for each pole hereafter erected; that West-avenue be opened up from King to Main-street, at a cost of $5760; that the Engineer and Assessment Commissioner report on the widening of York-street, from Queen to Dundurn-street; that an indictment be preferred against the Grand Trunk Railway Company at the General Sessions for cutting thru the public highway at Burlington Heights and failing to provide a bridge over the cutting sufficient to accommodate public travel, and that the city lumber yard on North Wellington-street be sold to the T., H. & B. Company for $800.

The aldermen showed no inclination to discuss the lengthy series of recommendations, and, save a little kick from Ald. Morden, who wanted to know why the Ward 4 teamsters were not receiving their proper share of patronage, the report was adopted without remark.

Sewers Committee Report.

Ald. Nelligan, in presenting the Sewers Committee report, tacked on the following list of new pipe sewers to be advertised:

King William-street, from Wellington to Cathcart-street; Clyde-street, from Cannon-street, 600 feet northerly; Kinnell-street, from Inchbury-street to the west end of Kinnell-street; Stanley-avenue, from Kent-street, 500 feet easterly; Elgin-street, from Barton-street, 705 feet northerly; Kent-street, 600 feet relaid from Stanley-avenue to Hannah-street.

The tender of D. Newland to put down a sewer on Hughson-street, from King to Jackson-street, at 38 cents a foot, was recommended for acceptance. There was no discussion on the report, and it was adopted.

The Finance Committee.

Ald. Ten Eyck, for the Finance Committee, reported to the Council the result of a special meeting of the committee, held this afternoon, concerning the T., H. & B. Company's deposit in the Bank of Hamilton.

Mr. Carscallen informed the committee that the American Loan and Trust Company, against which J. N. Young, the original projector, of the road, had a claim, had settled with Mr. Young, who withdrew his objection to the sum being paid to the trust company. Mr. Young was present and bore out Mr. Carscallen's statements. The legal representatives of John F. Wood, who sought to attach $430 of the fund, also withdrew their objection, and the Finance Committee agreed to allow the trust company to be paid the balance in the bank, $15,400. This recommendation was made to the Council.

The recommendations already in the report were that the revenues from the Beach be paid to the Harbor and Beach Committee, and that $250 be granted to the Board of Park Commissioners, to meet the deficit on the Queen's Birthday celebration. Ald. Findlay wanted to know if the T. H. & B. money could not be used to build a west end freight shed and switch, which it was understood the company ought to have built.

The aldermen was assured the fund was for the purpose of meeting Hunter-street claims only. Ald. Morden protested against the $250 grant to the Parks Board, but he had no supporter, and the committee's report was carried without further discussion.

Bylaws Considered.

Consideration of bylaws was next taken up. Bylaws amending the Harbor and Beach Bylaw, giving the Harbor and Beach Committee power over all the beach, except the parks and boulevards, and regulating roadway traffic, were given three readings and enrolled.

The traffic bylaw provides that anyone driving a horse or riding a bicycle shall use the right side or the centre of the street; that he shall not turn to the left when crossing to another street, but keep to the right or centre; that he shall not go faster than four miles an hour when crossing the intersection of King and James streets, and not faster than six miles an hour when crossing any other intersection.

The plumbing bylaw was given a first reading, and then referred to the Finance and Markets Committee.

Both the master plumbers and the Plumbers' Union objected to the passage of the bylaw in rather strong language.

Another Gate to Dundurn.

On motion of Ald. Kerr, the Council decided to open an entrance to Dundurn Park from Tecumseh-street, as promised by last year's Council, and pay for it out of the money obtained from the sale of the western part of Victoria Park.

Ald. Morden was granted three months' leave of absence to tour Europe.

The next meeting of the Council will be held on July 3.

Moulders Will Not Strike.

There was a lively meeting of the Moulders' Union in Sweeny's Hall to-night, when Organizer Keogh of Troy reported the result of his conference with the bosses, who declined to accede to his request. Some of the younger moulders were anxious for a strike, but Mr. Keogh and Mr. J. Murphy, business manager of the International Union of Buffalo, advised against such action. A vote was taken, and it was decided not to strike. About 300 moulders were present.

Miss Bella Marks' pupils, assisted by Mrs. Martin-Murphy and Arthur Ostler, gave a recital to-night. Among those who took part in the program were: Misses Algeia King, J. King, L. Sharp, M. Lynch, J. Long, H. Beatty, M. Sheridan, Ethel Carroll, M. Almas, A. Herriman, Rose Walsh.

To be Tried for Cruelty.

At the Police Court to-morrow Arthur Salvisburg and Alexander Powell, East Main-street, will be tried on a charge of cruelly ill-treating a horse at the Beach yesterday.

Policemen's Request Granted.

At a meeting of the police commissioners this afternoon, the request of the constables for an increase in vacation from 10 to 14 days came up. Chief Smith said, if the request were granted, he would require another man. All the members thought the men's claim was reasonable, as they worked 355 days a year, and the request was granted.

Chief Smith asked that a call box be put in Dundurn Park, but no action was taken.

Judge Snider wanted to know why the agreement to abide by the new rules had not been signed by the policeman, but the chief said the city solicitor had not prepared it. The chief was instructed to get the agreement and have it signed at once.

Letters From South Africa.

W. M. Clendenning, clerk of the scales for the Hamilton Jockey Club, received a letter to-day from his brother, who went to South Africa with the Mounted Infantry. The letter, which was dated from Brandfort, is full of spicy bits of information. Whiskey was selling at $25 a bottle, and a Hamilton "free lunch" was worth a dollar. "The Boers," the letter said, "drive better than our pigs at home." Mr. Clendenning had a novel experience one day while burying Boers. They were just covering up the dead bodies in a pit when one of the party spied another corpse lying at a short distance. There was room for one more, and he was being lowered into the hole when he suddenly came to life.

In the letter was a Boer Christmas card. On one side was a bunch of violets and Christmas greetings, and on the other the inscription: "To Mr. A. Wilber, from Susan Furstberger."

Other letters to the city contain the news that Warren and Robson, two Hamilton boys, are down with fever.

Financial Matters.

John Patterson of the Cataract Power Co. this morning received a letter from the National Cash Register Co. of Dayton, Ohio, in which that company promises to establish a branch in Canada.

The city treasurer's department having failed to get the street railway to send in its cheque for mileage and percentage for the first quarter of 1900, the propriety of stopping the cars is being talked of.

Judge Snider this morning was elected to fill the vacancy on the Board of Directors of the Hamilton Provident and Loan Society, caused by the death of George H. Gillespie.

Police Points.

Henry Hull, the Mulberry-street wife-beater, was this morning sent by Judge Snider to the Central for four months. Mrs. Hull wanted the case dropped, but the judge said a criminal charge had been preferred and ordered the inquiry to go on.

Magistrate Jelfs this morning fined Joseph Lavesser $3 and costs for slapping the face of Cook Clara Morrison of the Dominion Hotel. Some of the hotel girls recently had their money stolen, and Lavesser, as he was passing the kitchen one day, overheard the cook insinuate that he was the taker.

J. Babcock's store, York, was burglarized last night.

Bronte Garnishment Case.

This morning Judge Monck heard arguments in the garnishment case of Leuted v. Conden. Some time ago George Condon of Bronte became the beneficiary of a $500 insurance policy in the Canadian Order of Chosen Friends, left him by his late wife. Four people to whom it is alleged Condon owes money, want to garnishee the amount of the policy as the simplest and most direct way of satisfying their alleged claims. The four are: William Leuted of Weston, who claims $279; Charles Gregg, Etobicoke, $53.34; John Vandevord of Weston, $35.50, and H. Keys of Weston $70.34. Judgment was reserved. J. Mason, Toronto, was for the plaintiffs and J. G. Gauld for defendant.

Minor Matters.

Ald. Nelligan says he will be a candidate for Mayor in 1901.

Cigars—Oscar Amanda, Manuel Garcia, reduced to five cents. Alive Bollard, 4 King-street, Hamilton.

Miss Beatrice Scott, Caroline-street, who fell from a moving car last night, is doing well.

Miss Tory and Miss Lancefield, both pupils of Mrs. Ormsby, passed to-day the piano playing examination of the Associate Board of the Royal Academy of Music and the Royal College of Music. It was conducted by Stewart McPherson of London, England.

The H. G. & B. Company have offered the big fruit growers of Grimsby and Winona a branch line from Grimsby village to the G.T.R. lines, provided they secure the right of way and the necessary switches.

According to a letter received by Rev. Father Brady, the Stinson estate, by winning the recent suit in the Supreme Court of the United States, has added to it property worth $6,000,000.

It is expected that the New Brant House will be thrown open to the public on July 1.

The Hamilton Board of Fire Underwriters held its annual meeting this afternoon and elected J. M. Burns, President, and T. W. Lester, Vice-President.

RIGHTS OF MILITARY BANDS.

Men Cannot Appear in Uniform Without the Consent of the Commanding Officer.

Ottawa, June 11.—(Special.)—The status of a military band is a mooted question in Toronto, Mr. Clarke asked Dr. Borden a series of questions to-night. The questions and answers follow:

"Has the commanding officer of a militia regiment the authority under the Militia Act to order out the members of the regimental band to play music at any other than militia functions?"

"Not unless the members of the regiment are subject to militia law as per paragraph 82 of the Militia Act.

"If so ordered out, do the Department hold that the members of such regimental bands are compelled to obey such orders?"

"Yes, if subject to the Militia Act."

"In filling other than military engagements by what authority are members of regimental bands permitted to wear their military uniforms?"

"By no authority unless they are under the Militia Act, or by order of the commanding officer."

"Has the Minister of Militia received any correspondence as to the matter referred to in the above questions? If so, from whom, and what answers have been given?"

"Yes, a petition and some letters from the Musical Protective Association of Toronto. The answer sent was clause 57 of the Militia Act, as follows:

"No corps of the active militia and no non-commissioned officer or man shall at any time appear in uniform or armed or mounted except when actually on duty or at parade, or drill, or at target practice, or at reviews, or on field days, or inspections, or by order of the commanding officer."

Barrifield Ranges Closed.

Kingston, June 11.—The Government has closed the Barrifield rifle ranges, constructed four years ago at a cost of $4000. As far as report goes, the only complainant is Sir Richard Cartwright, whose summer residence they overlook. The 14th Battalion rifle matches were to take place on Thursday, and next week 5000 infantry and cavalrymen will be in camp here, and all wanting to make use of the ranges to perform annual rifle practice. The volunteers are protesting against the closing.

Band Concert in Queen's Park.

It was a beautiful evening for the first band concert of the season, and hundreds of people enjoyed the program rendered by the band of the 48th Highlanders in Queen's Park last night. All classes of citizens constituted the crowd, and the free band concerts promise to be more popular this year than ever.

EATS ANYTHING

Since Leaving Off Coffee.

"I wish to give my experience with coffee for the benefit of other people. I used coffee for several years and was a terrible sufferer from dyspepsia. The doctor told me not to use coffee or tea and put me on a light diet, and I felt better.

"Then I commenced to drink coffee again and had the same trouble come on.

"One day I told a friend about it, who said if I would stop drinking coffee altogether I would feel better, and advised me to use Postum Food Coffee in its place.

"I tried the Postum, but did not like it, so I told him about it and he said I didn't cook it right, that is, didn't boil it enough and that I should use cream instead of milk, and to make sure I would use it he sent a package to the house.

"After I used that package I would have no more coffee in the house. Now I don't know what it is to have dyspepsia and I can eat anything. I also give Postum to my two children and they are the healthiest children you can find anywhere. The youngest is a boy 13 months old, and we have been giving him Postum for seven months three times a day. He weighs 30 pounds, and I know that Postum is what keeps both of them so healthy.

"I think all people who have dyspepsia get it from coffee drinking.

"Yours truly, Mrs. John Stringer, 29 S Florida-avenue, Atlantic City, N.J."

TARTE'S PRO-FRENCH IDEAS.

His Expressions in France Are Causing the London Papers to Gently Criticise.

London, June 11.—(Telegram Cable.)—The opinion amongst Canadians here is that Hon. J. I. Tarte, the Canadian Minister of Public Works and Chief Commissioner from the Dominion to the Paris Exposition, has been indiscreet and unfortunate in his speeches in Paris, consequently injuring the Liberal party by his pro-French sentiments, which he seems to seek every opportunity to utter.

The Paris correspondent of The Daily Chronicle says that Mr. Tarte, in a lecture in the Canadian section last week, conveyed the impression that the province of Quebec was desirous of adopting the tri-color. On Saturday last, in company with a party of French-Canadians, he visited Rouen and delivered a lecture, in which the following words occurred: "I shall go back consoled with what I have seen and heard. We have never ceased to look towards France. May France never lose sight of us. Since the English and Germans find a home with us, why should not Frenchmen, too? Frenchmen who come to us can be certain of finding French laws and arms open ready to welcome them."

The Chronicle correspondent, commenting on the speech, says that nitno Mr. Tarte is quite right in giving utterance to pro-French sentiments, since he is a French-Canadian by birth, he is a little apt to forget that he has come to France as the representative of the Dominion of Canada, and not of the Province of Quebec. It is a pity, the correspondent concludes, that he does not strive to imitate his predecessor in Paris, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the present Premier of the Dominion.

MARTIN THE ONLY LEADER.

What His Law Partner, Mr. Deacon, Thinks of the British Columbia Elections.

A very hopeful view of the British Columbia elections is taken by Mr. E. J. Deacon, Hon. Joseph Martin's law partner, who is staying at the Queen's Hotel.

In an interview yesterday Mr. Deacon said he had received a telegram from Mr. Martin, stating that he was sure of 11 seats, and that the Opposition was hopelessly divided.

"There are many factions in British Columbia," said Mr. Deacon, "and only one leader. Mr. Martin has been elected."

"What about Turner?"

"Turner is not a leader except on the Island, and the mainland would not stand him as their leader. If a vote were taken in the House elected on Saturday, more men would support Martin than would uphold Turner. Cotton is beaten and Wilson is beaten. Mackintosh is defeated. Ralph Smith, the Labor leader, comes back without a follower. There will either be no Government or a Martin Government!"

"Which is most likely?"

"A Martin Government, by all means," said Mr. Deacon. "Martin, Curtis and Brown, forming the strongest combination in British Columbia, have been elected, and now there are two vacancies to be filled, due to the defeat of Messrs. Yates and Beebe. I am informed that Martin's strength is really 11. I know of two men who can be brought in who have each a following of three or four members, and when everything settles down Martin will be in the lead."

Mr. Deacon did not care to say who were the two men he referred to, but he said that Mr. McInnes is certainly a Martin supporter.

Tone and quality are equally splendid in the pianos bearing the name of the old firm of Heintzman & Co., Toronto. It is not remarkable that an artist of the high standing of Nutini should say, "Your instruments easily stand in the front rank of the leading manufacturers of the world."

SCOPE OF THE ENQUIRY INTO ELECTION FRAUDS

of witnesses, Mr. Mills had been silent. The commission should be given power to pay the witnesses. It should not be left with the Government.

The Commissioners Under Hand.

Sir Charles made little of Sir Wilfrid's position that he did not desire to advise the commissioners, but to give them a free hand. Here was a case in point. The Government said the counsel should be Q.C.'s. Was that not giving the commissioners advice? Was that not limiting their powers? Why not go further and let the Opposition nominate one counsel and the Government the other? The gravamen of the West Huron case, Sir Charles declared, was the fact that witnesses had been allowed to say how they voted. But by this royal commission this right was taken away, and instead of the commission granting a full inquiry it was bound to cripple a thoro inquiry altogether. The West Huron case had been made out on this evidence; now the Government proposed to shut down on such evidence, merely to see that no case was made out in the West Huron case.

Why Not?

Sir Charles was surprised that the evidence already taken was not to be used. This was another case of crippling the inquiry. "Will West Huron and Brockville be investigated first?" asked Sir Charles.

Sir Wilfrid replied that he would not advise the commissioners. This let the Government's position out of the bag, and Sir Charles was quick to take advantage of that fact. He declared that Sir Wilfrid seemed to misunderstand that the object of this commission was to get at the ballot manipulators in West Huron and Brockville. Had those cases not come up, there would have been no commission asked for. Yet when Sir Charles suggested a phrase that would cover these manipulators and fasten the crime on the real instigators of the machine, his suggestions were declared unnecessary.

Might As Well Plead Guilty.

Suggestions to bring the scope of the present commission up to the level of the Imperial statutes were treated lightly. "Let me say this," declared Sir Charles; "if the Government adheres to this position of staving off the West Huron and Brockville cases till after an appeal to the country, then the Prime Minister might as well plead 'guilty' before the people, and say that the reason for his change of opinion was to prevent the electors from knowing who had been behind the ballot manipulators. Sir Wilfrid was simply postponing the evil day till it was too late to get the matter before the people."

In conclusion, Sir Charles said: "If there is a man in the Liberal-Conservative party to whom can be brought home such terrible rascality and scoundrelism as was prevalent in West Huron, we want to see him exposed and punished." [Opposition applause.]

Blair's Peculiar Statement.

The discussion then became free-for-all. Minister Blair made the remarkable statement that the Government did not propose to accept Sir Charles' suggestions, no matter how excellent they might be, because, if the Government did, then the Opposition press would declare the Government's original commission had not been as good as it should have been.

A Badly Prepared Brief.

Sir Hibbert Tupper made a strong point when he showed that the Minister of Justice had not prepared his brief with care. Mr. Mills had quoted from chap. 33, Vic. 52, as given above, but this did not go far enough. The R. S., chap 10, Corrupt Practices Act, which, doubtless, Mr. Mills had overlooked, gave the commissioners power to pardon on the spot, and to stay all proceedings that might arise out of a witness' evidence, except proceedings for perjury. That was what was asked for by the Opposition—that power should be given to the present commission. Witnesses should be given absolute immunity. Reasoning from the Corrupt Practices Act given, he declared the money for paying witnesses should be handed over to the commission. This had not been done in the Yukon inquiry, and, as a result, witnesses went unpaid for a year. He read the clause in the commission relating to its scope, and asked if it would be possible under its language to trace the gang. The language was not beyond cavil, and should be amended by Sir Charles' suggested phrase.

Sir Hibbert's point about the needed immunity to witnesses, Sir Wilfrid declared, was a good one, and he would refer it to Mr. Mills.

Messrs. Sproule, Davin and McNeill followed, and pointed out that the opinion had gone abroad that the Ontario election commissions were formed in order to prevent information coming out. This seemed to be the aim of the Government in the present case. With the refusal of the suggestions offered, it looked as if the Government meant to legally strangle a full inquiry. The incident dropped there.

AT THE POINT.

The Boy Soprano and Queen's Own Band To-Morrow.

The attraction at Hanlan's Point for to-morrow (Wednesday) evening will be the wonderful new boy soprano, Master Norman Fraser, whose voice will be a revelation of purity and sweetness. This will be Master Fraser's first appearance before a Toronto audience, and will be prior to an extended tour abroad. The Queen's Own Band, under the leadership of Mr. John Bayley, will also play, and an extensive musical program has been arranged.

LORD ROBERTS AND CANADA.

An Incident at Pretoria.

Outside the Cafe Militaire
Sat "Bobs" the other night,
Sipping Apollinaris cool,
When word of French's fight
And lists of wounded held his ear
And touched his kindly heart.
"Fair Canada has bravely borne,
Has nobly played her part."
Then turning: "Tell me how her boys,
With fevers, aches and pains,
Are coming on; how do they stand
Alternate heat and rains?"
"My lord," the surgeon-major said,
"They'll conquer soon their ills,
For I have just prescribed for them
Some Arnold's English Pills."
