VOL. 27. ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY NOVEMBER 12, 1904. NO. 9

KINGS-ALBERT.

Complete Returns From the Different Districts.

Mr. Fowler and Mr. White Made Addresses on Tuesday.

HAMPTON, Kings Co., Nov. 8.—This was declaration day for the electoral district of Kings-Albert and Sheriff Lynds opened his court at 12 o'clock noon. The Cardwell deputy returning officer, however, had failed to send in his ballot box and returns, so there was a long and wearisome wait for the Quebec express, which was an hour and a half behind time and nothing could be done until the missing ballot box arrived. Shortly after half-past one the train came in and the delayed box was deposited in the hands of the returning officer, who as speedily as possible got down to the work of announcing the returns for the respective polling divisions, with the following results:

There were about a hundred electors present when the announcement of Fowler's return was made and they greeted it with a round of cheers. Mr. Fowler then moved a vote of thanks to Sheriff Lynds, the returning officer, and Mr. Wright, his clerk, for the very efficient and satisfactory manner in which the election had been conducted, which was concurred in by Mr. White, who seconded the resolution.

Sheriff Lynds briefly responded.

The crowd called for speeches and both Mr. Fowler and Mr. White spoke for a few minutes. The former thanked the electors for the splendid support they gave him and the victory gained. He had tried to conduct the campaign without personalities, and he had kept to the lines of the great questions at issue between the parties. Everywhere his meetings had been carried on in a quiet and orderly manner and he congratulated them on that fact and on the result. It would be his purpose to represent the constituents of the united counties as faithfully as he did those of Kings in the last parliament. He regretted that the conservative party had not been more successful, but they had gained some strong men who would make themselves heard in the country's councils. The defeat of R. L. Borden was much to be regretted, for a more honorable, faithful and efficient representative never sat on the floors at Ottawa. He trusted his absence from the house would be only temporary. He looked on himself as the representative of the minority in the electoral district of Kings-Albert, as well as of the majority, and would do all in his power to further their interests as well as of the whole people. He again thanked them.

The Hon. A. S. White on rising to speak said he had been trying to feel like a defeated candidate should, but had hardly reached the point of entire submission. He, too, had tried to conduct the campaign in an honorable manner, and his chief regret now was that this constituency must for the next four or five years remain in the cold shades of opposition. He thanked those who voted for him. They had been greatly handicapped by the resignation of Mr. Blair and the withdrawal of the support of the Telegraph, which for fifty years had set forth and promulgated the principles of the liberal party. These things told very much against them both in Kings and St. John. He said he was pretty straight in his political prophecies, and he would make another, which was that in seven years from now it would be hard to find a man who would be willing to admit that he voted against the government policy of bringing the great transcontinental railway down through the centre of this province as it undoubtedly would be brought. The canvass that the people would have to mortgage their farms to provide the hundred and fifty dollars a head which it was said to be going to cost, no doubt had a great effect in hoodwinking the people, but many of them would live to regret the votes they had given. Mr. Fowler said he would represent the people, but he could do nothing. Mr. Fowler would simply go to Ottawa, but he (White) would have all the patronage, and while he bore no malice against those who voted against him, he would always favor those who supported the government by casting their votes in his favor. He expected there would be ample opportunities, for the great railroad was bound to come down the valley of the St. John or directly across this country. He had many friends among those who from conscientious motives could not support him. To these he had the most kindly feelings, which no difference of opinion could marr or remove.

Mr. Fowler was called on to reply, and in doing so deprecated Mr. White's allusion to patronage, which seemed to savor of the opinion that the electors of Kings and Albert were men who had no principles above what they could get out of the government for their votes. He thought this and the raking up of past canvasses were out of place on this occasion. He hoped they would go home and attend to their business, forgetting all political differences and unite as friends to further the best interests of the country.

J. D. O'Connell asked permission to deny any references in regard to his making an unworthy canvass against Mr. White, and the latter gentleman assured Mr. O'Connell that he had not referred to him. Mr. O'Connell, as a final shot, asked the electors to read the United States papers upon the question of a transcontineatal railroad for Portland.

MR. HALE GOING WEST.

WOODSTOCK, Nov. 9.—Fred Hale, ex-M. P., left Woodstock by this evening's train for St. John. He will leave on a business trip for the west. Before the train left a lot of his conservative friends of the town met at the Carlisle Hotel to wish him goodbye. The 67th band was also at the door of the hotel and played a number of selections. When Mr. Hale got into the coach he was given three hearty cheers and was then accompanied to the station by a large number of citizens to music provided by the band. As he got on the train he was loudly cheered.

Linda Drost appeared before W. M. Dibblee, police magistrate, this afternoon, and the hearing on the charge against her for concealing the birth of a child was completed. The accused was committed for trial.

THE LARGEST MAJORITY.

WINNIPEG, Nov. 9.—Frank Oliver, liberal member elect for Edmonton constituency, will probably have the largest majority cast for any candidate in the dominion elections of 1904. All polls have been heard from and Oliver's majority is 3,003. The total vote is Oliver, 4,352, and Secord 1,529. Secord loses his deposit.

ROOSEVELT'S PLURALITY WILL BE FULLY 1,500,000.

Latest Returns Show That His Victory Was the Greatest in the History of the United States---Fairbanks is Pleased.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—With the elections returns still incomplete the plurality of President Roosevelt in the nation, according to all indications tonight, will exceed 1,500,000, the greatest plurality ever given an American candidate. The nearest approach to this vote was in 1896, when McKinley received a plurality approximating 850,000, and in 1872 when Grant received 762,991 plurality.

Tonight the interest centres in Missouri and Maryland. Late returns indicate that the former state is in the republican column so far as presidential electors are concerned, but that Joseph W. Folk, the democratic candidate, has been elected governor. In Maryland the presidential vote will probably be cast for President Roosevelt. Late returns tonight indicate that Thomas A. Smith, democrat, has been elected to congress in the first district by 450 plurality. Congressman Jackson of this district tonight, however, puts forward a claim of trick ballots and fraud, and says he will contest the election.

In other states it is simply a question of pluralities.

The "solid south" was broken by the probable defection of Missouri, this section of the country usually having 13 states in the democratic column. The figures tonight show but twelve states with 133 votes for Parker. President Roosevelt carried all the northern states—swept them in fact—and tonight he has 343 electoral votes.

The banner state is Pennsylvania. Twenty-four hours after the polls closed the returns from this state indicated that Roosevelt's plurality would reach 490,000. Next came New York state, where the president polled approximately 174,000 votes more than did Judge Parker.

The New York city returns are still incomplete, but the amazement over the result has not subsided. Judge Parker carried Greater New York by only 41,000 votes.

In general the situation is chiefly interesting tonight because of the fact that the tickets in many of the states were cut. President Roosevelt ran ahead of his ticket in many localities, notably in Massachusetts, where he secured a plurality of 86,000 votes, while the republican candidate for governor was defeated by 35,000. In that state the legislature is republican, and the entire republican ticket with the exception of the governor was elected. In Missouri circumstances are similar.

In Nebraska the definite announcement that the legislature is republican disposes of the stories that Wm. J. Bryan had aspirations for a United States senatorship. In this state, too, the governorship is in doubt, and it will require official returns to determine who is elected. Both sides claim a victory.

There is a curious situation in Minnesota, where Roosevelt secured 125,000 plurality, but where a democratic governor and a republican lieutenant governor were elected. The election of a democratic governor is the second in the history of the state.

Chairman Babcock of the republican congressional committee has been returned to congress from Wisconsin, but Chairman Cowherd of the democratic congressional committee was defeated in Missouri.

The situation in Colorado presented an interesting phase tonight. Roosevelt has carried the state by probably 15,000, but the governorship is still in doubt, both sides claiming a victory.

As interesting to the voter as anything tonight were the statements issued by Judge Parker and William J. Bryan.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The republican victory in yesterday's election was celebrated today at the big republican commercial travellers' clubs on Broadway, where meetings were held daily during the compaign.

The following telegram to Chairman Dearborn from President Roosevelt was read:

"I thank you, and through you, your associates in the Republican Commercial Travellers' League of America for the admirable service you have rendered in the campaign. I appreciate.

"(Sgd.) THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

CHICAGO, Nov. 9—"Prohibitionists are well satisfied with the showing made in the election yesterday," said Oliver W. Steward, national chairman of the party. "Returns at national headquarters in this city indicate that Dr. Swallow, our presidential candidate, polled at least 300,000 votes, and the probabilities are that the final count will carry the number considerably above these figures. Reports show that four of our candidates have been elected to the state legislature in Illinois.

"Indiana, Ohio and Illinois are showing up best, although there will be a big increase in the prohibition party vote in Kansas, Iowa, Pennsylvania and other states."

ESOPUS, N. Y., Nov. 9.—Judge Parker tonight gave to the press an open letter addressed: "To the Democracy of the Nation," in which he thanked those in charge of his campaign work and declared that the people will soon realize that "the tariff-fed trusts are absorbing the wealth of the nation." He said that when that time comes the people will turn to the democratic party for relief.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 9.—Senator Charles W. Fairbanks, vice-president elect, today received a flood of telegrams, one of the earliest messages to arrive being a cablegram from John K. Gowdy, consul general at Paris. He received many callers during the morning and afternoon. Speaking of the result of the election he said:

"It is a notable victory, one of the greatest victories that has been achieved in American politics. It is a victory for right principles over wrong ones; it is a victory for the principles of the republican party and for the magnificent administration of Theodore Roosevelt as president. The American people are a great people, and when they think upon great political questions their judgment is righteous altogether. I am gratified with the results in many of the states of the union, but it is needless for me to say that I am most gratified with the magnificent patriotism manifested by the great state of Indiana. But we should all remember that the debate has closed, the verdict has been rendered, and we all now settle back to our duties as citizens of this great republic and to our duties to one another.

"I shall probably be in Indianapolis a week longer," said the senator today when asked regarding his plans. "Mrs. Fairbanks and I have planned to visit our sons Robert and Richard at Yale and attend the Yale-Harvard football on Nov. 19. I have an engagement to attend a meeting of the McKinley memorial commission in New York on Nov. 22 and the home market convention in Boston on Dec. 1. It is more than likely that I shall not get back to Indianapolis."

The senator did not say what would be his course in regard to the Indiana senatorship, which he now holds. He will resign it formally, but how soon he was not ready today to announce.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 9.—Roosevelt's plurality in this state will exceed 100,000. The full delegation of eight congressmen will be elected and an overwhelming majority in the legislature insures the election of a republican successor to Senator Bard.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 9.—Probably complete returns will be required to determine who is elected governor of Nebraska. Outside of governor however, the republicans have made a clean sweep on national, state and congressional and legislative tickets.

For governor both sides exhibit figures which they say will substantiate their claims for the election of their respective candidates.

President Roosevelt carried the state by probably 75,000.

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 9.—Practically complete returns tonight gave the republican presidential electors in Maine a plurality of 37,500, as at first estimated. The plurality in 1900 was 28,600 and at the state election two months ago 27,100. In 465 of the 519 cities, towns and plantations President Roosevelt received 64,334 votes and Parker 27,268. This was a net republican gain of 8,848 over four years ago, when McKinley was given 65,199 and Bryan 36,981. The 54 missing places of which 28 were plantations beyond all means of immediate communication, in 1900 gave a total vote of only 2,062. The total vote cast this year was 91,602; in 1900, 104,242.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 9.—Complete returns have been received from less than one-half of the counties in Pennsylvania. These show the remarkable increase in Roosevelt's plurality, over the estimated returns of last night, of more than 25,000 votes. If the present ratio continues President Roosevelt's plurality in this state will reach nearly 450,000.

A SCARE IN SYDNEY.

Action of Loan Companies is Causing Much Excitement.

HALIFAX, Nov. 9.—Much anxiety prevails among real estate men in Sydney as a result of a move on the part of loan companies, from which advances have been obtained on buildings erected within the past few years. The parties who originally secured the loans in course of time had the houses purchased, assuming all liabilities. Owing to the dullness prevailing for over a year, many of these purchasers have failed in paying their instalments, with the result that the companies are foreclosing and looking to the original parties for the repayment of the balance due. It is said that many who built houses in this manner and sold them will be ruined. Thousands of dollars are involved. A number of writs have been issued and more are coming. This action on the part of loan companies may prove disastrous to building operations in Cape Breton.

NO I. C. R. INCREASES.

Mr. Emmerson's Consideration Has Evidently Not Amounted to Much.

MONCTON, Nov. 9.—Clerks in the general offices of the I. C. R. today received their checks for October's pay. It was said that the delay was due to the fact that the minister of railways was considering increases in salaries, but no increases have been made. The checks are also being distributed among trainmen.

C. B. McHaffie, master mechanic in the I. C. R. erecting shop here, is to have jurisdiction over the car shop also in the future. The jurisdiction of N. L. Rand, master mechanic, has been extended to Campbellton.

George J. Ross, a popular traveller for J. H. Harris & Co., of Moncton, was married in Shediac yesterday to Miss Clara Josephine Morin, sister-in-law of Mayor Belliveau. The happy couple have gone to Halifax on a wedding tour and on their return will reside in Shediac.

Campbellton.

CAMPBELLTON, Nov. 9.—Declaration day proceedings passed off very quietly at Dalhousie on Monday, James Reid being declared elected with a plurality of 438. Speeches were delivered by both candidates.

The regular meeting of the town council was held on Monday evening. Very little business was transacted. A resolution was passed by which it was agreed to take over the county building, provided a clause should be inserted in the agreement between the town and county to the effect that in the event of damage or loss by fire the insurance would go towards repairing or rebuilding the structure.

Considerable interest is taken in the approaching provincial election in Bonaventure county. It is stated that there will be two or three liberal candidates in the field. The new aspirants for political honors are J. H. Kelly of New Carlisle and a Mr. Mercier of Quebec. The old candidate, W. H. Clapperton of Maria, will again be in the field and will probably have the government endorsement.

The latest rumor in regard to dominion politics is that Solicitor General Lemieux will bring down his son from Quebec to run in his Gaspe constituency. If this is correct it would mean that Aylesworth will run in Wright.

Hartland.

HARTLAND, Nov. 9.—J. T. G. Carr's new brick building is nearing completion and will make a great improvement to the appearance of the village.

Rev. Jos. Cahill preached in the Baptist church Sunday evening. His subject was the union between the Free Baptists and Baptists.

Miss Lila White has returned from Boston, where she has been spending her vacation for three weeks.

Frank Dykeman, who has been ill for four weeks, is not much improved.

Miss May Gray has gone to Houlton for the winter.

Mrs. Samuel Miller, who has been confined to her bed the greater part of the summer, will leave for the hospital at Woodstock today.

At the regular meeting of the I. O. G. T. Monday evening the following officers were installed: W. D. Keith, L. D.; H. F. Perkins, C. T.; John Thomas, P. C. T.; Miss Julia McCollum, V. C. T.; Miss Fernie McClintock, asst. sec.; Miss Lillie Currie, sec.; Hayden Tracey, fin. sec.; Herbert Cosey, treas.; Rev. B. O. Hartman, chap.; Willie Nevers, marshal; Lena Perkins, dep. marshal; Wendall Tracey, guard; G. Price, scribe. The lodge has a membership of over fifty and is doing effective work.

Mrs. John Lynch died Tuesday morning after a lingering illness of nearly five years. During nearly the whole time she was confined to her bed. She was a great sufferer. The deceased was 54 years of age and a member of the Chatlin church at Witham town, where interment will take place Thursday.

NARROW CHESTED, weak lunged people can't be cured by medicine. Plenty of fresh air, mild exercise and "The D & L" Emulsion at the first sign of weakness or loss of weight is the best treatment.

THREE KILLED,

Twenty Injured and Many Overcome by Smoke

In a Series of Fires in Different Parts of New York Thursday.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Three persons lost their lives, twenty were injured, nearly half a hundred were overcome by smoke and an equal number are temporarily homeless as a result of a series of fires in various parts of the greater city today. In nearly every case the fires were in tenement houses occupied by a large number of families and at least two of them are thought to have been started by incendiaries. Life nets, scaling ladders and other apparatus enabled the firemen to save many persons whose escape had been cut off by flames and smoke.

Nearly all the fires started in the lower parts of the buildings, and although in no case did the money loss exceed a few thousand dollars the dense clouds of smoke which swept up through halls and elevator shafts drove the panic-stricken tenants to roofs and fire escapes. Many were overcome before reaching the outer air, but with the exception of three all were found by firemen and carried out in safety.

A false alarm of fire also contributed to the day's list of injured. Workmen on the roof of the American Cigar Co.'s factory on East 52nd street, alarmed by clouds of smoke which came from an overturned tar kettle in the street, rushed into the factory, where scores of girls were at work, and with a cry of "Fire" started a panic in which twelve of them were injured, one so badly that she was taken to the hospital.

The most serious fire of the day was that in the upper east side apartment house in which the three lives were lost, several persons were injured and many thrilling rescues were made. Forty families were driven from a big tenement house on Boston road in the Bronx and twenty persons, who had been overcome by smoke, were rescued by firemen. Ten families were forced to flee from a Brooklyn apartment house by an incendiary fire which started in the basement. Two persons were overcome by smoke and were found unconscious and rescued by firemen. An explosion in the basement of a tenement in Williamsburg created a panic among the tenants, and the burst of flames and smoke which followed sent them to roofs and fire escapes in search of safety. Many were overcome by smoke, but all were rescued. A fireman was badly injured by falling three stories while fighting a fire in a storage warehouse on Washington street.

BISHOP OF NOVA SCOTIA.

Dr. Worrell Enthroned at Halifax Yesterday.

HALIFAX, Nov. 10.—The service of the enthronement of Dr. Worrell, formerly of Kingston, as Bishop of Nova Scotia, took place at St. Luke's cathedral this morning. His lordship, robed and preceded by the chaplain bearing the pastoral staff, presented himself at the main entrance of the cathedral and requested admission. The request was granted by the dean of Nova Scotia, who directed the wardens to open the doors.

The procession was then formed, headed by the church wardens. After reaching the chancel the wardens stood one on each side of the steps. Entering the chancel the choir took the usual seats and the canons their stalls. The bishop knelt at the faldstool with his chaplain beside him.

The dean stood in the midst of the altar and the enthronement service was proceeded with.

During the eucharist the bishop addressed the gathering and pronounced the bendiction. Tonight Bishop Worrell wad the central figure at a brilliant reception in his honor.

FREDERICTON

Frank E. Winslow Ill at Chatham.

Supreme Court Proceedings—Marriage—Barristers' Society Meeting.

FREDERICTON, Nov. 10.—There has been an exceptionally large number of the legal fraternity from St. John in the city this week, attending the supreme court, among the barristers being Dr. Pugsley, C. N. Skinner, A. I. Trueman, J. D. Hazen, Amon Wilson, Dr. Earle, M. G. Teed, W. B. Wallace, A. W. Macrae, W. A. Ewing, J. B. M. Baxter, Geo. C. Coster, S. E. Morrill and T. P. Regan.

News was received here today of the serious illness of Frank E. Winslow at Chatham. Mr. Winslow, who with his family has been boarding here for the summer, left a few days ago with his daughter on a short visit to his old home in Chatham. Last evening he was taken quite ill with chills and his family have been summoned to his bedside. Mr. Winslow has been in poor health for some time past, and some weeks ago underwent an operation at Victoria hospital in this city.

The meeting of the New Brunswick Barristers' Society held last night was well attended. The new by-laws prepared some time ago were adopted and a committee appointed to make enquiries in regard to conveyancing and report on the advisability of having a conveyancing act past by the legislature. A resolution was passed urging the government to arrange for a stenographer to attend the county courts.

Argument in Royal Bank of Canada v. Hale was concluded this morning in the supreme court. Court considers.

McKinnon v. McLaughlin Carriage Co. Mr. Teed supports demurrer to 3rd count of declaration, a count for malicious prosecution, Mr. Currey K. C., in reply. Court decided that there must be judgment for defendant on 3rd count. The plaintiff to have leave to amend upon payment of costs within 20 days after taxation.

The point is that p[illegible]uld have proceeded by arbitr[illegible] common law right having been taken away. Macrae and Wallace contra. This case occupied the attention of the court the rest of the day. Court considers.

Frank Good, charged with stabbing Paul Bouttol at Kingsclear, appeared before Judge Wilson this afternoon and elected to be tried before him under the Speedy Trials Act. The trial was set down for Tuesday next at ten o'clock.

Chas. G. Ross, son of Malcolm Ross, Gibson, and Miss Gussie Rickard, daughter of Thos. Rickard of the same place, were married this evening by the Rev. Willard MacDonald.

FIRE IN FREDERICTON.

Arichbald Jewett's Barn Destroyed—Valuable Horses Lost.

FREDERICTON, Nov. 10.—Shortly after two o'clock this morning Police Officer Rideout discovered a blaze coming from the barn of Archibald Jewett in Regent street. An alarm was immediately rung in and the firemen were quickly on the scene. In the barn were three valuable stallions, the property of Ald. H. C. Jewett. It was with the greatest difficulty that the animals were got out, and when they were rescued it was found that they had suffered considerably from the flames and smoke. One of the beasts, a large black German coach horse, was found to be in such agony that it was deemed advisable to shoot it and put it out of its misery. One of the others, a large bay French coach horse, it is feared is injured internally and will also probably have to be shot. The third, though quite damaged, it is thought will recover. Ald. Jewett had $2,000 on the steeds. His loss is a heavy one, as he valued each of the stallions at a higher figure than the whole insurance. Only a short time ago he purchased one of the stallions at something like $2,500. The barn was insured for $100. There is no doubt whatever that the fire was of incendiary origin, and it is hoped that a thorough investigation will be held.
